

Marietta Items.
E. W. Hall and M. V. Hall spent a few days this week in St. Paul and Minneapolis.
A large number of friends and relatives visited at the home of Mrs. Hilda Christenson Sunday. Mrs. Christenson and daughters, Hazel and Alice, will have leave the first of the week for Riverside, Cal. to make their home.

Mrs. W. E. Davis visited with relatives in Boone Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Stegall moved to Albion Wednesday.
Mrs. L. R. Akers returned to her home in Eddyville, Monday after spending a few days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Timmons.

CITY IN BRIEF
Dr. Burkhardt, osteopath, 14 W. Main
Regular dance at Country Club Friday night.—Advertisement.
Mrs. J. L. Harper, of Belle Plaine, returned home this morning after a visit with friends.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet at the church Friday afternoon at 2:30.
Mrs. Nellie Jones, who has been visiting friends in Des Moines and Maxwell for ten days, returned home Wednesday.
Mrs. H. C. Hansen, of this city, and her sister, Mrs. F. M. Duesler, of Duluth, and Mrs. C. L. Hansen, of this city, were visitors in Gilman today.
Wanted—Twenty-five men to take part in the production of "Civilization." Report to Mr. E. Brothers, stage manager, at the Odeon Theater at 10 a. m. Friday, Odeon.
Miss Myrtle Davidson, assistant principal of the consolidated school of LeGrand, is in the city visiting with Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Baker while attending the teachers' institute.
When you want to find Hellberg's store go to the new location in the Hopkins block where we have been for three years. It is across the street from the former place of business, Hellberg.
Funeral services for George Gerhart, who died suddenly Wednesday, will be held Friday morning at 10:30 from the house, 404 East Main street, in charge of Rev. R. F. Hurlburt, pastor of the Methodist church.
Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Anderson, formerly of this city, but now of Aberdeen, Miss., who have been visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. August Swanson and in Clear Lake and Buckeye with other friends, left this morning for their home.
"Isn't this a pretty coat!" That's one of the many exclamations heard in our store every day now. Enthusiasm reaches its highest point when women visit our coat department, for we're showing more coats than in any previous season. Benedict & Brintnal.
Just received a shipment of fancy greening apples, to go at 45 cents a peck. Michigan grapes 35 cents a basket. Tokay grapes 10 cents per pound, nine pounds of sweet potatoes 25 cents, Jonathan apples 60 cents a peck, hamper of pears $1.40. Coleman & Johnson.
Beginning Saturday, Oct. 7, the retailers will ask the following prices for cigars: All 5-cent brands to be 5 cents straight, $2.25 a box; all 10-cent brands, $4.50 a box; all three for 25 cents to be $4 a box. This is necessary as all cigar factories have raised prices.—Advertisement.
The members of the Martha Washington Club held their regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. Downs, 125 May street. During the business meeting the members decided to entertain their husbands at a Halloween party on Oct. 30 at the home of Mrs. Charles Andre and Mrs. D. E. Potter. In serving refreshments the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Lisle Barnard and Mrs. Roy Cummings.
Fifteen friends who had planned to surprise Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Hubler upon the occasion of their wedding anniversary some time ago, but who were unable to get together at the time, "made good" Wednesday evening at the Hubler home, 1506 West Main street. Music and games occupied the evening and refreshments that the guests brought were served by Mesdames Charles Berg and Frank Moehrl. Mr. and Mrs. Hubler were presented with a cut glass bon bon dish.
A large audience enjoyed the musical given at the Baptist church Wednesday evening by the winter division of the aid society of the church. The program included readings by Mrs. Margaret Fraser and Mrs. G. E. Shuart, piano numbers by Miss Laura Donnellson and Mrs. Ray Doolittle, and songs by Misses Mina Kitts, Irene Mason, Doris Ralston, and Mrs. E. E. Gildner and Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Davidson. The accompaniments were played by Miss Naomi Fletcher. Autumn flowers and leaves were used in the decoration of the church. The division cleared about $20 with a silver collection.

O. E. Tuttle, jeweler and optician.
Wanted—Four bricklayers at once. John Jacobson, Marshalltown.
Big dance tonight at Redmen's hall. Strand orchestra. Committee.
Mesdames John Cartmell and O. Hansen left this morning for a visit in Chicago.
Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Johnson, of San Diego, Cal., were in the city Wednesday on their way to Eldora to visit relatives.
Come to the market sale Saturday, Oct. 7. Three hundred head of live stock will be sold. Plumb Bros., Mason & Shoemaker.
Miss Beatrice Grimes, of St. Anthony, visited in the city Wednesday with her brother, Elmer Grimes, who is a patient at the Deaconess.
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Chamberlain, of Grinnell, were in the city Wednesday looking over property, with a view to moving to this city about Dec. 1.
Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Benellor, accompanied by Rev. and Mrs. W. M. DeKay, drove to Ames Wednesday and spent the day visiting with Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Baile, formerly of this city.
At market sale Saturday, Oct. 7, will be sold 150 head of cattle. Thirty head of these are milk cows. Some fresh others will be soon. Balance young cattle. Plumb Bros., Mason & Shoemaker.
Mrs. Helen Dobson went Wednesday evening to Eldora to visit her brothers, E. C. and B. W. Putnam. Her mother, Mrs. Phoebe Putnam, who has been visiting here, returned home Wednesday with her daughter.
H. S. Jones, of Cedar Rapids, a former local builder and contractor, was Wednesday awarded the general contract for the $250,000 Mason City high school. Jones lived in this city prior to twelve years ago and also at Eldora. He is a brother of W. L. Jones, of this city.
The members of the Priscilla Club were entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Julia Clemons at her home, 702 East Main street. In a guessing contest the prizes were won by Mrs. S. E. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson. The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. S. R. Johnson.
George Egbert received a message today stating that J. E. Curtis, who lives seven miles south of town, was operated upon for gonorrhea Wednesday at St. Mary's hospital in Rochester, Minn. The message also stated that Mr. Curtis' condition was good following the operation. James Curtis, of Nevada, is at Rochester with his brother.
Twenty members of the Archers Aid Society were in attendance at the meeting held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Kinney, 209 West Main street. Following the business meeting the time was spent socially and in sewing for the aid. At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Kinney was assisted in serving a three-course lunch by Mrs. Frank Trager and Mrs. Bertha Beeson.
MERCHANT'S WIFE ADVISES MARSHALLTOWN WOMEN
"I had stomach trouble so bad I could eat nothing but toast, fruit and hot water. Everything else soured and formed gas. Dieting did no good. I was miserable until I tried buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-I-Ka. ONE SPOONFUL benefited me INSTANTLY." Because Adler-I-Ka empties BOTH large and small intestine it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICKEST action of anything we ever sold. B. A. Morgan.

Dr. Burkhardt, osteopath, 14 W. Main
Regular dance at Country Club Friday night.—Advertisement.
Mrs. J. L. Harper, of Belle Plaine, returned home this morning after a visit with friends.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet at the church Friday afternoon at 2:30.
Mrs. Nellie Jones, who has been visiting friends in Des Moines and Maxwell for ten days, returned home Wednesday.
Mrs. H. C. Hansen, of this city, and her sister, Mrs. F. M. Duesler, of Duluth, and Mrs. C. L. Hansen, of this city, were visitors in Gilman today.
Wanted—Twenty-five men to take part in the production of "Civilization." Report to Mr. E. Brothers, stage manager, at the Odeon Theater at 10 a. m. Friday, Odeon.
Miss Myrtle Davidson, assistant principal of the consolidated school of LeGrand, is in the city visiting with Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Baker while attending the teachers' institute.
When you want to find Hellberg's store go to the new location in the Hopkins block where we have been for three years. It is across the street from the former place of business, Hellberg.
Funeral services for George Gerhart, who died suddenly Wednesday, will be held Friday morning at 10:30 from the house, 404 East Main street, in charge of Rev. R. F. Hurlburt, pastor of the Methodist church.
Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Anderson, formerly of this city, but now of Aberdeen, Miss., who have been visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. August Swanson and in Clear Lake and Buckeye with other friends, left this morning for their home.
"Isn't this a pretty coat!" That's one of the many exclamations heard in our store every day now. Enthusiasm reaches its highest point when women visit our coat department, for we're showing more coats than in any previous season. Benedict & Brintnal.
The prohibition party presidential special train will arrive in Marshalltown Friday at 3:35 p. m. Speaking will be made in the court house square if weather permits, otherwise in Y. M. C. A. building. Soldiers' home drum corps will furnish music. Everybody invited to attend. Committee.
Twenty-five members of the Boys' Club of the Congregational church opened their year's meetings Wednesday evening at the church with their annual banquet. At 6 o'clock the banquet was served and talks were given by Paul McKee, J. B. Northcott, and E. E. Micklewright of the Y. M. C. A. In the evening plans were discussed for the winter's work.
There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Sunshine Circle which was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. C. C. Culbertson at her home, 704 East Linn street. The afternoon was spent socially and with a guessing contest, in which the prizes were won by Mrs. C. B. Bates and Mrs. M. H. Cole. After the business meeting the hostess served a two-course lunch, assisted by Mrs. J. Culbertson and Mrs. Fred O'Neal.
Mrs. Will Randall, eight miles north of town, entertained nineteen members of the Prairieville Aid Society Wednesday afternoon at their regular meeting. During the business meeting the members decided to give $5 to the Visiting Nurse Association and the same amount to the Y. W. C. A. At the close of the business the afternoon was spent socially and with fancy work. Later the hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by her daughter, Mrs. Harold McKibben.

Fall Opening

Our Store Will Be Open This Evening

Call and inspect the many new styles in Millinery and Furs

H. WILLARD, SON & CO.

40, Ring 2

36 W. Main St.

On account of the bad roads of last week and in order to give everyone in the vicinity of Marshalltown an opportunity to secure our

High Grade Set of Aluminum Ware

Together with the world's finest range, we have decided to continue our demonstration on the South Bend Malleable for the balance of this week

SCHMIDT'S HARDWARE

Casino

TONIGHT
Vaudeville
AND EVERY

Thursday-Friday
Saturday

PROGRAM

LA FRANCE BROTHERS
Garden of Equilibristic Novelties

VARIETY TRIO
Harmony Singers

CLIFFORD & WILMOT
Comedy Singing and Talking

PROF. MAX TSCHAUDER
And His Orchestra

TONIGHT ONLY
With This Program

Charlie Chaplin
— in —
The Count

His Fifth Picture Under His $670,000 Contract

PRICES:
Matinee 15c
Evening 20c
Children 10c

Lyric Theater

TONIGHT
MAURICE COSTELLO

— in —
The Crimson Stain

Mystery

Strand Theater

TONIGHT ONLY
PARAMOUNT FEATURE
MARY PICKFORD

ARTHUR HOOPS
OWEN MOORE

— in —
The Historic and Romantic
Drama

"Mistress Nell"
— Also —
"Scenic and Educational Film"

Friday and Saturday
Metro Wonder Play
IRENE FENWICK

— As —
The Child of Destiny

— Also —
"PARAMOUNT BRAY
CARTOON COMEDY"

SPECIAL MUSIC

ADMISSION
Matinee 10c
Night (after 6) 15c
Children 10c

The Odeon

TONIGHT
Burlesque "As You Like It"

The Big Review of 1917

WITH
Harry (Hickey) Levan, Claire Devine and
85—PUN MAKERS—85

Prices 25c, 50c and 75c
Seats Now Selling.

6 DAYS 6
Commencing

Friday, Oct. 6
Matinees Daily, Except
Friday and Sunday

"Civilization"

Prologue by Flesh and Blood Actors

20 Symphony Orchestra 20 Large Chorus and Soloists
Prices: Matinees 25c, 50c and 75c

Nights: 25c, 50c and $1.00
SEATS NOW SELLING.

Colonial Theater

E. L. JONES Prop.

THURSDAY, OCT. 5
The Turquoise Conspiracy

Featuring
"TRUE BOARDMAN"
THE GIRL FROM FRISCO
THE YELLOW HOUND

(Western Drama)
— and —
TWO GOOD COMEDIES
TOMORROW
BEATRICE FAIRFAX

A Startling Visualization of What Would Happen

If Christ Should Come to Verdun

is Presented in Thos. H. Ince's $1,000,000 Spectacle

"CIVILIZATION"

The Century's Rarest Piece of Irony on the World's Ruthless Neglect of the Message

"LOVE THY NEIGHBOR AS THYSELF"

Direct from a sensational long run at the Minneapolis Shubert.

PROLOGUE BY FLESH AND BLOOD ACTORS

Large Symphony Orchestra. Elaborate Chorus.

Nothing so stupendous ever before conceived by brain of man.

Odeon Theater, Commencing Friday Evening, Oct. 6

SIX DAYS, TWICE DAILY, 2:15 and 8:15

Matinees Daily Except Friday and Sunday PRICES: Matinees 25c, 50c and 75c; Night 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.00

Mail orders now accepted from both in town and out of town patrons, for all performances. No phone orders taken. No tickets laid away. Children in arms not admitted. Every child must have a ticket. Every child over five years of age should see this stupendous spectacle. Seats now selling.