Government officials allege the men were alleged members of the Chicago "blackmail ring", and that they have been operating in Los Angeles and southern California cities. The specific charge against them is that they attempted to blackmail Stock out of $1,000 by threatening his arrest.

Garrick's arrest in California was brought about by the English girl he married in London last March. She told the San Francisco police she turned over to him $10,000. After the marriage, she said he took her to Chicago, where he abandoned her to take the western trip with Jirka and the two girls. Garrick was arrested near Los Angeles at Ocean park, where the men and the two girls are said to have lived. Garrick claimed to be "the son of a wealthy manufacturer near Chicago."

The two girls are now back in Cedar Rapids. Jirka was released yesterday.

MAIDEN IN CON GAME

IOWA GIRLS WHO ASSISTED IN FLEEING JUNKERMAN, OF CEDAR RAPIDS, AGAIN INVOLVED.

CO-OPERATED WITH TWO MEN IN LOS ANGELES

Robert Garrick Names Peggy Reed and Doris Byrne in Another Alleged Swindle—Arrest of Principals in Chicago Indicates Junkerman's Lures Were Not Innocents.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Peggy Reed and Doris Byrne, the two Cedar Rapids girls who cost Franklin Junkerman, of Cedar Rapids, $15,000, co-operated with Harold W. Jirka and Robert H. Garrick in separating Frederick A. Stock of San Diego from $3,000 in Los Angeles last August, according to statements made by Garrick himself in San Francisco before his indictment on charges of impersonating a federal secret service agent. Jirka, an attorney, was arrested in Chicago on Monday on the charge of conspiring with Garrick in the impersonation.

Garrick's statement gives the government a new angle for investigation. According to the charges against Garrick, the two learned that Stock was representing the British government as a buyer of horses for the allies. Jirka and Garrick are said to have told the broker that Garrick was a federal officer—and unless he gave them $1,000, they would cause his arrest on the allegation that he had violated the American neutrality and have him taken to Chicago. Stock was frightened, it is said, so that he gave them $50 in cash and an assignment of his commission as the representative of Great Britain in his purchase of horses.

New evidence to show that Garrick and Jirka posed as government agents in San Diego has been obtained, according to government agents in Los Angeles today. Both men were indicted by the federal grand jury for alleged impersonation of government officials. It was said by Deputy United States District Attorney Moody here that the men claimed to be government agents to William E. Ginder of San Diego, former attorney for the exposition there.

Government officials allege the men were alleged members of the Chicago "blackmail ring", and that they have been operating in Los Angeles and southern California cities. The specific charge against them is that they attempted to blackmail Stock out of $1,000 by threatening his arrest.

Garrick went further, according to a telegram received yesterday from San Francisco. He said he was present in the girls' Clarendon avenue apartment when Junkerman was caught there and "settled" for $15,000. This "settlement" which Jirka has always defended as entirely ethical, was investigated by federal agents. The federal authorities have not yet decided the question of jurisdiction.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH

HURRY, MOTHER! REMOVE POISONS FROM LITTLE STOMACH, LIVER, BOWELS.

GIVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS" AT ONCE IF BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH "DRY."

Repression of Liquor Traffic Favored For First Time in History.

St. Louis, Oct. 25.—For the first time in the history of the church, according to well informed leaders, a stand on the liquor traffic was taken here Tuesday in the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church. A resolution adopted by the house of deputies placed the church on record as favoring "such action in our legislative assemblies as will preserve the interests of temperance and the repression of the liquor traffic."

The action was an outgrowth of a memorial asking the convention to record itself as favoring nation-wide prohibition, submitted by the democratic prohibition society thru Francis L. Stetson, of New York. Prohibition was not specifically mentioned, however, in the resolution as adopted.

The saloon was scored in the report of the committee headed by Rev. James E. Freeman, of Minneapolis, Minn., which considered the memorial.

Temperance was discussed for a second time in the house of deputies later in the day when Rev. G. L. Turner, of Louisiana, introduced a resolution, which, if adopted, would appeal to all the people of the church "to set the example of self control and temperance by abstaining from the use of liquor as a beverage, especially at public functions and social gatherings."

This resolution was referred to the committee on public service. A report showing that the church has more than 1,000,000 communicants and 5,700 clergymen, was presented to the house of deputies by the committee on the state of the church.

DEMO LEADER SUED FOR LIBEL.

Chairman McCormick Defendant in $100,000 Suit Brought by O'Leary.

New York, Oct. 25.—Vance C. McCormick, chairman of the democratic national committee, was served late Tuesday with a summons and complaint in a second suit for libel brought against him by Jeremiah A. O'Leary, one of the heads of the American Independence conference.

The action, which is for $100,000, is based on a statement Mr. McCormick made to the newspaper on Monday. This statement was that a secret agreement was made between O'Leary and his association and Charles E. Hughes, republican presidential nominee, by which Mr. Hughes made speeches to conform to "demands" of the American Independence conference.

The action, which is for $100,000, is based on a statement Mr. McCormick made to the newspaper on Monday. This statement was that a secret agreement was made between O'Leary and his association and Charles E. Hughes, republican presidential nominee, by which Mr. Hughes made speeches to conform to "demands" of the American Independence conference.

Chairman McCormick and former Governor Martin H. Glynn denied on Tuesday night a statement issued from republican national headquarters quoting a telegram from Will R. McDonald, of Chicago, in which he charged that Mr. Glynn had conferred on a train with O'Leary just before President Wilson's speech of acceptance.

McDonald said Glynn had asked O'Leary to use his influence to induce the American Independence conference not to throw their support to Hughes until after the subject had been discussed by Mr. Glynn with President Wilson.

DIME NOTE DELUGE TO PETTICOAT GRATTERS PASSES 30,000 A DAY.

Minneapolis, Oct. 25.—A deluge of dimes that already has passed the 30,000 a day mark and that seemingly has not yet reached high tide, today continued to swamp the Minneapolis post office all due to the unprecedented success of the "chain letter petticoat" plan of the quondam National Mail Order Brokerage exchange the operators of which fled Minneapolis before they had time to reap the rich harvest they had planned.

With the dime stream swelling by arithmetic progression, the Minneapolis post authorities today faced a serious problem. The petticoat letters—all enclosing dimes and all written by women who will never see those silk petticoats they have been dreaming about—already amount to 10 per cent of the post office's total business. At the present rate of increase these letters may soon form the bulk of all the business.

Here are some facts: More than 285,000 dime letters already have been received. Approximately 50 per cent of them bear return cards and it costs the government 2 cents apiece to return them to the senders. More than $2,500 already has been spent for this purpose.

About 40 per cent bear no return cards and these must be sent to the dead letter office at Washington, where they are opened and sent back to the senders when their names are ascertained. This costs the government 10 cents each. More than $11,400 already has been spent for this purpose.

Handling this mail in Minneapolis is now costing the government $50 a day in extra clerk hire and the rate is rising daily.

That gives some idea of the problem the postoffice department is now facing, all because a Minneapolis concern six weeks ago started a "chain letter" promising the woman to whom it was written that she could have a silk petticoat for 10 cents if she would send in her name and her dime to the company.

The first woman did as requested. Apparently each of the ten friends sent copies of the letter to ten more friends and likewise sent in a dime. By this time 100 women were busy writing letters to 1,000 women and sending in 100 dimes. By the next day 1,000 women were busy writing letters to 10,000 women and sending in 1,000 names. Next 10,000 women wrote letters to 100,000 women and sent in 10,000 dimes.

Just keep on figuring it out as long as you want to.

Thrifty. It is said that the Scottish humor is an electric spark that has been kindled between the two extremes of whisky and religion. But the following anecdote is Scottish, without touching either extreme:

A wife was asked by her husband what kind of a bonnet she would like him to bring her from Glasgow, and she replied: "Well, ye'd best make it a straw bonnet, and when I'm done with it I'll feed it to the cow."—Chicago Herald.

More Evidence That Insurance Trust is Backing Harding

GABLE ADDRESS "MARCASCO" CAPITAL AND SURPLUS OVER $3,300,000.00

MARYLAND CASUALTY COMPANY.

JOHN T. STONE, PRESIDENT HOME OFFICE—BALTIMORE WEIR & MEIER General Agents Lane Building Davenport, Iowa

August 10, 1916

I want to call your attention to a Candidate for Supreme Court Justice, Wm. Theophilus of this City, a personal friend of the writer.

Mr. Theophilus' name will be on the tickets and we, I believe should stand for non partisanship in our Judiciary. He is big, strong and capable and if elected will be an honor to our Supreme Court.

The Insurance men in Iowa have three trusted friends Harding, Moore and Theophilus and every effort should be made to elect them—

Yours—

Agents from Alaska to Panama

The activity of the insurance interests in this campaign is given indisputable evidence in the above letter from an insurance manager going out in great quantities to solicit votes of insurance men for Harding, Moore and Theophilus. It is purely nonpartisan, since Harding and Moore are republican candidates, while Theophilus is a democrat, running on a nonpartisan ticket for supreme judge against Deemer and Evans, two of the ablest jurists who ever sat on our supreme bench.

This letter discloses the work of special interests to secure the nomination of men whose success promises some advantage for them. It is Harding who introduced the bill in the legislature which the fire insurance interests wanted to repeal existing law which was then prohibiting combinations among insurance companies as to rates. His bill was exposed and killed in committee, but the fire insurance men and interests have been boosting Harding ever since.

They have need for a friend in the governor's office. They have contended that they had a right to command.

Recommended to the last legislature that the state guarantee to the workman has compensation for injuries sustained and charge the cost to the employer. Casualty companies have the throats as to rates under the present law, but Harding thinks that the state must not go into the insurance business; not even to protect injured wage workers. He is boosting for Harding. Then comes the insurance companies every time, and that's why they are for him. "We have three trusted friends in Harding, Moore and Theophilus," says the insurance manager, but who is going to be the people's friend?

HARDIN BAR BANQUET.

Association Endorses Candidacies of Evans and Deemer. Special to Times-Republican.

Eldora, Oct. 25.—The Hardin County Bar Association held a banquet at the Masonic dining room Tuesday at 12 o'clock. The banquet was served by the ladies of the Eastern Star. Twenty-seven members of the bar and the court attaches were present. Judge H. E. Fry, who is now holding court in this county, read a very instructive and scholarly paper on the federal employers' liability law. His paper was much enjoyed by those present.

The association endorsed the candidacies of Justice Horace E. Deemer and Justice William D. Evans for reelection as members of the supreme court.

A short business meeting was held and reports of the different committees were made. A very touching speech was delivered by the Hon. W. J. Moir, dean of the Hardin county bar. Judges Deemer, Evans and Fry were elected honorary members of the association.

Special to Times-Republican. Eldora, Oct. 25.—According to bills posted about the city, W. L. Harding, republican candidate for governor, is to speak in the Winster opera house Friday evening, Oct. 27. Congressman Burton E. Sweet, of Waverly, is also to be here at the same time and deliver an address.

Two boys, 14 and 15 years of age, named Oswood and McDonald, whose homes are in Alden, northwest of Eldora, were before Judge Fry in district court here Tuesday on the charge of breaking and entering. After hearing the evidence against the boys the court gave the youngsters a most fatherly lecture and paroled them during good behavior. The boys must make monthly reports to the court, attend the public schools and be employed at some labor on Saturdays and before and after school hours.

Frank Smith, who had been here for several months visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, left Tuesday for Joplin, Mo., where he will be employed this winter in a lead mine. Practically an all-day rain visited this section of the state Tuesday. The moisture retarded to a degree the harvesting of the corn crop.

As a precaution against conflagrations resulting from the fires of excruciationists, several stone fireplaces have been erected in Swope park, Kansas City for public use.
