HAS ANOTHER BIG AUDIENCE AT NIGHT

EAST COURT ROOM FILLED, DESPITE RAIN, FOR MEREDITH NIGHT MEETING.

FRANKNESS OF SPEAKER APPEALS TO THE VOTERS

Democratic Candidate For Governor Discusses Campaign Issues, and Tells Where He Stands — Puts in Good Word For National and State Tickets — Lauds Clarkson.

"My whole purpose is to put into the office all that can be put into it for the good and welfare of the whole people of Iowa." Thus, in a sentence, did E. T. Meredith summarize his aspiration in seeking the suffrages of the voters of Marshall county when they come to elect a governor of the state on Nov. 7. It was voiced towards the close of a long talk in the east court room Tuesday night, and the crowd that filled the chamber appeared to be convinced of the sincerity of the candidate.

His policy and convictions, on the questions of the saloon and good roads, stated in the afternoon meetings were amplified. He said the need of the state is the conduct of public business on the lines and principles that govern the successful private business man. He would lessen the number of smaller officeholders holding appointment from the governor, thus stopping the expensive duplicating of duties. He said he had made no promise to any section of the citizenry, did not promise to promote or foster the aims of insurance men or public utilities corporations. He stands, he declared, four square for the advance and prosperity of all the people of Iowa, and, if given opportunity to realize that desire, he would work so that no one voting for him could question his acts.

Danger of Misrepresentation. Mr. Meredith said he had found that a candidate had to stand for much misrepresentation. The danger of that was more to the commonwealth than to the individual. He declared he had talked in Davenport as he talked in Marshalltown, and everywhere else. He accused Mr. Harding of being inconsistent all thru his campaign, changing chameleon-like wherever he went to take on the color of opinion on the saloon and roads as dominant in the section he might be in.

Mr. Meredith put before his hearers the difficulty of putting folks straight on the truth once a lie had been started on its way, and he traced how a story may begin in a small country weekly, be quoted in a bigger one, and then grow like a snowball rolling down a hill deep in snow.

After stating his position fully on all state questions that interest the voters this year, Mr. Meredith spoke briefly on the national issues and the candidate of his party, saying he was willing to take the Wilson administration on what it has done on the matters he knows about and leave Mexico and the world war out for the time.

Eulogizes Clarkson. County Chairman Robert Johnson presided at the meeting and in his introductory remarks spoke in commendation of the county candidates, while admitting that democrats campaigning in this county had a hard row to hoe.

Ex-Senator DeWolfe, of Reinbeck, made a talk, speaking especially a good word for Senator John T. Clarkson, the democratic candidate for attorney general. And the reference led Mr. Meredith in his opening remarks to eulogize Mr. Clarkson in the highest terms. The band opened the meeting with playing the national anthems, the audience standing reverently while.

Two Outside Meetings. Because of the rain of the morning, and the fact that Mr. Meredith's train was late, only two outside meetings were held—LeGrand and Gilman. No attempt was made to cover any of the other towns of the county, at which addresses were scheduled for the afternoon.

COUNTY TO HAVE NEW FLAG. Presentation by Ladies of the G. A. R. in Court Thursday.

A fine new flag, to be hung in the district court room in the court house, will be presented the county at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon by Winchester Circle, No. 69, Ladies of the G. A. R. Mrs. Lillian Clark Cary, of Dubuque, formerly department president of Iowa and national patriotic instructor, will make the presentation, to which the two judges of the district will respond.

The presentation is to take place in the district court room. The soldiers' home drum corps will play, and "America" will be sung. Rev. W. G. Crowder, pastor of the Methodist church, will give the invocation. Mrs. J. J. Beedy, president of Winchester circle, will give the address of welcome immediately preceding the presentation. Following the responses "Guard the Flag" will be sung. Mrs. Luther Ray will give a reading, and the pledge to the flag will be given by Mrs. Rose Carney.

The circle has extended invitations to the members of the board of supervisors, officers of the Marshalltown Club, and officers of both G. A. R. posts.

FINDS IDEAL LOCATION HERE. Shirt Factory Manager Wants to Come if Help Can Be Secured.

Marshalltown is practically sure of another new factory if enough girls can be secured to operate fifty or 100 machines for the manufacture of fancy shirts. A. H. Dobeck, general manager of a large shirt and overall concern with factories and offices in several large cities, was in the city Tuesday and inspected several buildings with a view to locating a shirt and overall factory here.

Mr. Dobeck was very favorably impressed with Marshalltown, and especially with the Kirby building, corner of Third avenue and Nevada street. He declared this building to be an ideal location for his factory, and expects to enter into negotiations for securing it as soon as possible. Girl help is the new factory's greatest problem. One of the reasons for this new branch is the fact that at the company's main plants girl machine operators are very difficult to secure.

A minimum wage of $5 per week is paid to start with, with prospects of advancement. The work is pleasant, and not especially wearisome. Enough machines will be shipped to start the factory are now in Chicago ready to be shipped the minute a definite location is decided on for the branch manufacturing plant. Mr. Dobeck told business men in this city Tuesday that if he could get a satisfactory deal on the building he would unhesitatingly recommend that Marshalltown be selected for the location of the new concern. The company requires no bonus, and asks no investment of local capital. It simply wants to be assured of enough help to keep its machines running.

MEET WATERLOO SATURDAY.

Coach Sanford Looking Forward to Hard Contest For Marshalltown. When Marshalltown meets Waterloo high school on the home field Saturday afternoon, the contest will be one of the hardest on the season's schedule for the local eleven. In the opinion of Coach Sanford and adherents of the team, the runaway victory over Cedar Falls last week is not causing any undue confidence, and nothing short of a gruelling battle, with the chances of victory about even, is looked for.

East Waterloo, showing this year has been such as to inspire respect from its opponents, and the eleven is generally regarded as about on a par with Marshalltown. The good showing of the Waterloos two weeks ago against the fast Des Moines team, when the capital city lads scored a 5-0 victory after a desperate struggle, has done much to give the Black Hawk county aggregation a high rank among central Iowa schools.

The Waterloo team is said to have a large and well drilled reserve, with practically a complete eleven fully capable of stepping into the places of the regulars and putting up a game worthy of the first string men. Marshalltown and Waterloo have met no common enemy this season, and a comparison of strength can be based only on the showing of the teams against other elevens of known strength.

Wet weather and a heavy field has prevented hard practice work which had been scheduled for early this week. Fast driving tactics are out of the question, and the men have been forced to labored drill in the rain and mud.

Sanford's squad came thru the Cedar Falls contest in good physical condition except for the injury to Hollingsworth, which is keeping him from participating in practice work this week. It is probable, however, that he will be able to get into the lineup next Saturday if his services are required.

EDNA HASELTINE AS "CARMEN."

Chicago English Opera Company Comes to Odeon Tuesday, Nov. 7. When Madame Calve said, "I will make a 'Carmen' of a Springfield girl," after hearing Miss Edna Haseltine sing, it was no idle boast. Mme. Calve took this young lady to Europe and gave her personal training at her castle in southern France, and the tuition Miss Haseltine received from the great diva has made her a marvelous "Carmen." Miss Haseltine was one of two students of opera chosen by Calve. This young lady will appear at the Odeon Theater in the role of "Carmen" on Tuesday, Nov. 7, when the Chicago English Opera Company visits this city. Miss Haseltine will be supported by an all-star cast, a large and evenly balanced chorus of young and well-trained voices, and the complete orchestra, which travels with the Chicago English Opera Company. Odeon.

Vandevye Items. Mrs. Herbert Ogil and children left Tuesday for Stuart, where she will visit her brother, Dr. Gray, and family.

W. H. Smith made a business trip to Gilman Tuesday.

Mrs. Ragsdale and son Glenn, of Newburg, were here Tuesday with friends.

Mrs. L. J. B. Jork, who has been spending the summer with relatives at Webster City, Dayton and at different points in Colorado, returned home Tuesday.

C. A. Harris was in State Center Tuesday on business.

Beginning last Sunday the M. & St. L. will run on the State Center branch a regular train which will carry mail and passengers.

Miss Amanda Haas, who was using lye to break water to wash, got too much lye in the water, which injured her hands quite badly.

F. W. Pothast, who has been sick for several days, is much better and able to be around again.

Mrs. Mary Shearer, who has been visiting at the Fr. d'Engles' home, has returned to her home.

Cranks Auto; Breaks Arm. When he started to crank his automobile in front of the C. W. Nelson home Tuesday night about 11:30, Dr. H. W. Householder sustained a bad fracture of the right forearm. The crank flew back and struck him on the arm about three inches above the wrist, fracturing both bones. The fracture, which is a bad one, was reduced, and this morning the patient was resting as well as could be expected.

Install New Parcel Lockers. A new system of checking parcels and grips has been installed at the Chicago Great Western station by a Chicago concern which operates a number of automatic parcel checkers in various railroad stations.

The new system consists of a group of steel lockers which are placed in the waiting rooms of the station. The traveler deposits 10 cents in the slot, which allows him to unlock a locker and take out the key. He then places his grip or parcel inside, and takes the key with him. He thus has a perfectly safe place where he may leave his belongings as long as he wants to, may get them any time, and no one else can possibly have access to them. The idea has met with success in other towns where the lockers have been installed.

The regular meeting of the Hawthorne Club was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James L. and Mrs. R. W. McCreery, the hostesses.

Denmond, 1011 West Main street. At the conclusion of the lesson period, Mrs. Elizabeth Hunt of Oshkosh, Wis., was a guest which was led by Mrs. F. L. Meaker from away.
