KENYON OFFERS AN EXCUSE FOR STANN

SENATOR SAYS HARDING IN VOTING WET WAS REPRESENTING CONSTITUENCY.

ADMITS NOMINEE HAS LINED UP FOR LIQUOR

Kenyon Concedes That Iowa Sentiment is Against the Saloon But Supports Harding Because of Party Regularity—Meredith Attacks Fake Road Bond Issue Raised.

Special to Times-Republican. Des Moines, Nov. 1.—That Harding's record in the legislature on the wet and dry question is one for which Senator Kenyon is sorry was the statement of the junior senator in his address at Osceola Monday night in the first speech which Kenyon has made since his return to Iowa. "The senator thinks there is nothing to gain by turning over the government to the party that has just turned to the dry cause and take it away from the party which he says has given us all we have in Iowa. Senator Kenyon is campaigning this week in Iowa.

"I have meditated much on this governor question because I have been severely criticized by some for the position I have taken," said Senator Kenyon at Osceola. "I want to say now that my influence will always be directed against the American saloon. I have no use for the hell-dogging business and I hope it's swept from the face of our broad land.

"But that issue was supposed to be settled in Iowa. I hope it was settled and I don't believe the people of Iowa want the saloon to come back. "Mr. Harding is supposed to be wet and he has voted wet, for which we are sorry. But he was serving his constituency. But I went into his record and he has cast some dry votes also. That side of his record hasn't been told. We should always consider both sides of the question.

"And what are you going to gain by turning over the government to a party that has just turned to the dry cause and take it away from a party that has given us all we have here in Iowa?" It is the general custom with some to put a man on probation for six months before accepting his proposed commission. I think that is what we ought to do in this case and put the democratic party on probation.

Meredith on Fake Issues. In statements being sent out from the Meredith headquarters here to the voters, in which Meredith declares emphatically his position on prohibition and on good roads, he says that fake issues which are being scared up, such as the $100,000,000 bond issue, in order that some man may have the privilege of drawing a salary from the state, are the same as treason.

"I am for an absolutely dry Iowa," he declares in his statement issued today. "I am opposed to the saloon ever returning to the state. My every effort, if elected, will be to see that the saloon does not return and any influence I may have will be exerted in opposition to the saloon.

From the standpoint of the state I believe it is most important that the saloon be kept out and for my part I feel that every person interested in guarding our institutions and building the biggest state possible should be out on the firing line defending the state against the invasion of a foreign foe.

REPUUDIATES CANDIDATE. A. U. Coates Says Third Party Prohibitionists Will Vote For Meredith. Des Moines, Nov. 1.—In a signed statement A. U. Coates declared 90 per cent of the prohibitionists are for Meredith. Mr. Coates is the best known prohibitionist in Iowa. He helped organize the party and he polled the largest vote ever given any of its candidates for governor or other office in this state. His statement follows:

"There are about 10,000 party prohibitionists in Iowa and I believe that 90 per cent of these will vote for E. T. Meredith, the democratic candidate for governor. I was a delegate to the state convention at Oskaloosa; July 4 and 5, and had there been a fair representation of the party voters, I do not believe a candidate would have been nominated. In fact the candidate who was nominated received but thirteen votes, one of which was his own. He certainly was not the choice of any considerable number of prohibitionists of this state.

Knockville. The Knoxville Clay Product company has been incorporated with a capital of $200,000. The company purchased twenty acres of land near the Rock Island railroad here. Officials of the company stated that the name will be erected here. The company will employ thirty men the year around.

Keota. A large barn on the old Pringle farm, a half mile east of Keota, was destroyed by fire Sunday evening between 6 and 8 o'clock. This farm belongs to the Tom Singmaster estate. The farm is occupied by the Lawson family. The barn was full of hay and grain and farm machinery belonging to Mr. Lawson. The origin of the fire is unknown but it is supposed that the children are responsible for it. There was some insurance.

Letts. Earl Dickerson was injured in an unusual manner Saturday as he was driving home from the Stineman sale. He had bought a bob sled and a rider from home in his wagon. He was sitting on the cinder press, and a lurch of the wagon forward tipped it over and threw him under the horses' feet. A wheel of the wagon passed over one of his feet, but it is believed no bones were broken. While he is suffering some as the result of the accident, he was not seriously injured.

HOTEL FOR HAMPTON

FINE NEW FIREPROOF STRUCTURE NOW PRACTICALLY ASSURED.

ARCHITECT'S DRAWING NOW ON EXHIBITION

Promoters Predict Ultimate Success of Project—Three Story Building, 132 by 124 Feet is Planned—Sixty Guest Rooms Provided.

Special to Times-Republican. Hampton, Nov. 1.—That Hampton will soon have a fine new modern hotel, seems more and more certain as preparations go forward for the structure proposed for the new vacant corner at Third and Reeve streets.

The procuring of stock subscriptions is going on apace and it is declared that the new building is now assured. However, to hasten the project, there is yet room for those professed boosters who claim always to be anxious to further the good things for Hampton, to get into the game, for nowhere just now can more worthy object be found for which to boost.

The architect's drawing now on exhibition represents a structure worthy to grace the street of any city, and when completed, will afford a temporary home for transients, as well as a pleasant meeting place for local people.

Strictly Fireproof Structure. The new building will front 132 feet on Reeve street and a pleasing facade of 124 feet will be presented to a Third street observer. It will be three stories in height, strictly fireproof, with exterior of mat-fine brick, terra cotta and tile. The main floor will be devoted to lobby, dining room, ladies' rest room, kitchen, sample and writing rooms, a drug store, restaurant, etc.

Floors will be of concrete and tile. The dining room is designed to seat 150 persons and a moving partition will allow, forming an immense banquet hall or ball room. In the basement will be a barber shop, billiard room, storage, and individual stairway for each of the stores on the ground floor.

About sixty guest rooms will be located on the second and third floors, many with private baths and all with outside windows and hot and cold water. An electric elevator will be installed, and steam heat and electric light will be used.

SCIENCE STRANGELY INVOKED. Tiny Electric Light Forced Into Lads' Throats to Locate Intruding Objects. Special to Times-Republican. Iowa City, Nov. 1.—Two young lives were saved here when the powers of science were strangely invoked to disclose and remove intruding articles from the lungs of two Iowa lads.

This extraordinary illumination showed that a 2-year-old Willie Lynn, son of W. R. Lynn, a Davenport shoe-maker, had swallowed a wad of tinfoil, or, rather, had inhaled it, drawing it down the windpipe into the right lung. Walker, had done the same thing with a brass pen-holder two inches long.

The dean of the university of Iowa, college of medicine, Dr. L. W. Dean, made the investigations, performed the operations and drew out each impediment. The Lynn boy rallied quickly and has been sent home, but the Fairchild lad must be treated further to avert the possibility of superinduced pneumonia. Both boys were ready to become victims of strangulation or both, when science stepped in and saved their lives.

doing, also reports on state and national conventions and the lecture on "Vocational Education," by Prof. K. B. Smith, of Ames State college and the music by the Treble Clef and those outside of Missouri Valley, were attractive features of the meeting.

Davenport. When an old-fashioned center-fire revolver, which had been around for some years, failed to explode when he pulled the trigger, Rudolph K. 55, pointed a quantity of strychnine into a cup, filled the cup with water, and swallowed the solution. At 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon his body was found on the bed in his home, just east of Linwood, by a neighbor woman, who had been helping to attend him. His health, causing prolonged fits of depression, is believed to have been responsible for the aged man's suicide. He had been ill for the past six weeks, most of the time being confined to his bed.

Ottumwa. A table showing that Ottumwa has more children for each thousand of population enrolled in its public schools than any other city of the state is contained in the annual report of Superintendent Blackmar, just published. With a population of 22,012, Ottumwa has 202 pupils in the grade schools and thirty-two in the high school for each thousand inhabitants. Council Bluffs with 28,000 population, ranks next with a total of 1,600 in grade and high schools for each thousand inhabitants. Superintendent Blackmar's report points out that there is crying need for more room to handle the Ottumwa public school pupils.

Ottumwa. Bert Davis, editor and publisher of the Eldon Forum and Register, was to appear before Judge D. M. Anderson in district court here, to answer to a charge of contempt preferred by Attorney J. R. Jaques, of Ottumwa. Jaques alleged that Davis published contemptuous statement against the court following a trial in which Miss Bertha Miller was awarded a $1,000 judgment against the town of Eldon. In Miss Miller's suit against the town, she claimed that an obstruction fell in the street caused her team of horses to run away, resulting in injuries which killed one of the team. Officials and attorneys of Eldon are backing the publisher and are expected to attend the trial en masse.

SEND BALLOTS TO BORDER.

Ninety-Five Different Ballots Prepared For Iowa's 3,552 Soldier Voters. Special to Times-Republican. Des Moines, Nov. 1.—Ballots for the soldier boys down at Brownsville, arranged by counties, were packed by the secretary of state's office yesterday and were shipped by express last night. It is expected they will reach the border by Saturday at the latest. Secretary Allen expects the ballots to get there Friday.

The muster in rolls show that there are 3,622 soldiers on the border, 21 years of age and over, from ninety-five counties. In order to have a few extra ballots for each county, Secretary Allen had about 4,500 tickets printed in all.

There will be at least seven polling places for the soldiers, one for each separate organization or detachment. It will be a big task to count the ballots, however, as there are ninety-five different ballots in all and they will have to be counted by counties. It is expected the judges will count the votes for president and for governor first and give this count out so that it can be telegraphed back to Iowa and then take up the remainder of the ticket.

Black Hawk county has the most soldiers on the border over 21 years of age, so the records in Adjutant General Logan's office show. That county is credited with having 313 men. Linn county comes next with 193. Woodbury ranks third with 186. Polk has 159, Scott 151, Webster 148, Cerro Gordo 145, Clinton 135, and Johnson 126.

Grundy Center News. Special to Times-Republican. Grundy Center, Nov. 1.—A straw vote taken at the M. G. Heiberger drug store brought out 155 votes, of which Hughes received 104 and Wilson 51. This is about the normal republican majority in this vicinity and indicates that this county will give the usual republican vote on presidential candidates.

Words was received yesterday from Brookings, S. D. that H. E. Gardner was dead and had just been buried. Mr. Gardner lived here for years, going to Brookings only last year. While here he was a contractor and it was he who built the Baptist church at this place. He was formerly a resident of Eldora.

Mrs. Sel Wilhelm died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Levi Sherbon in Conrad, and was buried Tuesday. Mrs. Wilhelm was one of the pioneers in this county, making her home for a great many years in the Wilhelm homestead in southwestern Palermo township. She reared a large family of children, most of whom survive her. The Wilhelms were the headquarters of the young people in days gone by and the hospital of this home will be remembered by many an old timer.
