The Expression of Many a Kidney Sufferer in Marshalltown.

A stubborn backache is cause to suspect kidney trouble. When the kidneys are inflamed and swollen, stooping brings a sharp twinge in the small of the back, that almost takes the breath away. Don't let your back ache any longer. Here's Marshalltown proof:

Clarence McCombs, tinner, 301 N. Second avenue, Marshalltown, says: "I had attacks of kidney complaint and my back was sore and lame. I had dull pains across my kidneys and cold settled on them, causing my back to ache worse. I used Don's Kidney Pills, procured from Elder's Drug Store, and they relieved the backache and soreness and benefited me in every way."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Don's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. McCombs had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

TO ADD TO EDUCATION

PRACTICAL VOCATIONAL TRAINING IN SCHOOLS GIVEN GREATER IMPETUS.

PLAN TO BE EVOLVED AS RESULT OF CONFERENCE

Predicted That Boys and Girls Will Be Kept in School Longer and Receive Wider Education Thru Adoption of System—Prosser Tells Conference of Methods Adopted by Other States.

Special to Times-Republican.

Des Moines, Nov. 2.—Practical vocational training in the public schools of Iowa was given a greater impetus yesterday than it has ever received heretofore when educators, business men, representatives of labor, editors and others interested attended an all day conference and meeting held at the state house. Out of this conference it is predicted Iowa will evolve a system of vocational training which will supplement the regular school courses and will not only keep boys and girls, particularly boys, in school longer but train them better while they are there.

Dr. R. C. Prosser, of Minneapolis, considered one of the foremost authorities in the United States on vocational training, gave of his time and experience liberally to the Iowa people yesterday in order to inform them of the methods which other schools and other states were adopting to teach vocational subjects. He spoke at a conference of the delegates named by Superintendent Deyoe to consider this question yesterday morning. In the afternoon at 1:30 he addressed a public gathering in the senate chamber of the state house on this question. Following this he went into conference again with the delegates where the whole question was gone over more or less informally.

Dr. Prosser declares Iowa must get in line to accept government aid and take advantage of the offer which the government is going to make to aid in teaching industrial, agricultural and home economics courses in public schools. The Smith-Hughes bill, which passed the senate and would have passed the house at the last session of congress except that it got in too late to get thru before adjournment, is bound to pass the next congress he says. Everybody is for it, Dr. Prosser declares, and manufacturers, union labor men, educators, and others worked side by side to secure its passage at the last session.

Smith-Hughes bill in brief will provide government aid for vocational training in the states which co-operate, and will put up $1 to every $2 that is put up by the state and the local community putting in the course. Or in other words the government will put up $1, the state $1 and the local community $1 proportionately out of every dollar spent in vocational training under the Smith-Hughes plan.

The preliminary report of the committee appointed by the Iowa State Teachers' Association to consider vocational education and vocational guidance was presented to the conference yesterday by Mrs. Anna L. Burdick, secretary of the committee. After a thorough investigation the following conclusions have been reached by this committee as reported by Mrs. Burdick:

"Vocational guidance, the matter of state-wide interest, should be left in the hands of local communities for investigation and experiment. The work of local communities in this field will produce such results and benefits as the following:

"First—Children and parents of children will be brought to think carefully of the relationship of the schooling of the child to the work which he is to do in life.

"Second—There will be an increasing tendency to differentiate courses of study in the fields of elementary and secondary education to provide training which will lead to the different vocations.

"Third—it will lead to better enforcement of the compulsory attendance laws of the state and to such revision of attendance and employment laws of the state as will meet the situation.

"Fourth—There will come such information in regard to kinds and conditions of employment open to children as can not help but lead to improvement in them.

"Fifth—Children will, in an increasing degree, be steered away from dead-end and blind alley jobs into more progressive occupations.

"Sixth—As guidance becomes more effective and the opportunities for vocational training more varied children will be induced to stay longer in school in order to get better preparation for life work.

"Seventh—Then will come a growing recognition that the most effective guidance is that which leads to careers thru further training in all-day, part-time and evening schools.

"Eighth—The home, the school and the public will become more alive to the necessity for co-operation in assuming the responsibility for those who leave school for work and will be led to provide opportunities for part-time and continuation school work.

"Ninth—Industrial wages will be raised to a point where the profit from the larger efficiency which will come from more careful selection of employees, coupled with better ability and preparation and will report accordingly.

"Tenth—Schools will profit by this

SHOOTS FLEEING MAN

CONSTABLE NEAR CENTERVILLE WOUNDS MAN WHO SOUGHT TO ESCAPE.

Exciting Chase on Country Highway

Pursued Man Abandons Buggy and Seeks Refuge in Underbrush, Where He is Overtaken by Officer and Wounded in Hip—Fred Thomas Held on Rape Charge.

Centerville, Nov. 2.—Fred Thomas lies in the county jail with a bullet wound in his hip, the result of an attempted escape from Constable John Bailey, of Cincinnati, on Tuesday evening. His wound, although not serious, is quite painful, but not considered sufficiently dangerous to advise him being taken to a hospital.

Thomas, who is well known in Cincinnati, had been advised by friends that a warrant was out for his arrest on a serious charge and that the constable was looking for him. He immediately hired a horse and buggy and started east from town at the fastest speed the horse could make. Bailey being advised of his escape started on his trail in an attempt to overtake him. The chase was east and south of town on one of the main roads. Thomas, as he was followed came to a timbered stretch of country and into the thick brush and shrubbery. By this time the constable had come close enough to watch the movements of the fleeing man and as he started into the timber raised his revolver and fired. Thomas yelled, threw up his hands and stopped. Seeing that the bullet had taken effect in his hip, Constable Bailey rushed him back to Cincinnati and notified the sheriff here. He was hurried to this city and a doctor called who stated that the wound was only a flesh injury and would readily heal. Although Thomas pleaded with the doctor and authorities to take him to the hospital where he could receive better treatment, it was feared that he would again try to escape, so he is being cared for in the county jail.

Mr. Bailey states that he did not mean to hit Thomas when he shot but simply fired to scare him that he might stop. He also declares that the bullet glanced from a small tree into the hip of Thomas, instead of taking effect as he was fired straight from the pistol.

The charge which Thomas must answer is that of rape, information being filed against him by Goldie Scott. The case will come up before the grand jury which is now in session.

Grinnell and Vicinity.

Special to Times-Republican. Grinnell, Nov. 2.—Rev. and Mrs. E. W. The members of the congregation had made up a purse sufficient to pay for a new five-passenger Dodge automobile for Pastor Cross and the committee having that purchase in charge took the auto to the parsonage and surprised the bride and groom beyond measure by the assurance that it was theirs and a limited expression of the love and good wishes of the church and congregation for the pastor and his bride.

Prof. R. H. Bellevue. The city council has closed the contract for a 600 motor fire truck. The truck is painted a bright red, trimmed with gold leaf and lettered on both sides "B. F. D. No. 1", and will carry six men.

Waterloo. Mrs. Michael Carthey, 407 Argyle street, was overcome by gas at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday, while Mr. Carthey also suffered from the effects of the fumes when he rushed to his wife's assistance. Firemen were notified and the lungmotor was sent to the home, but both were resuscitated without its use. A prepay meter is used in the home and the gas burner went out. Mrs. Carthey went to the basement to insert a quarter in the meter, but failed to turn off the burner. Shortly after Mr. Carthey heard his wife fall and rushed to the kitchen. He removed her from the room and called a physician. Mrs. Carthey was sick from the effects of the gas, but her husband recovered within a short time.

Boone. Mr. and Mrs. Frank James and son Earl, of Pilot Mound, met with a serious auto accident Sunday while on their way to Boone, three-fourths of a mile west of the Hickory Grove school house. Earl was driving the car when some of the brakes refused to work. He lost control of the machine and it struck a ditch by the roadside and then tipped over, leaving the occupants underneath. Mrs. James received a bone broken in her left arm near the wrist and Mr. James and son Earl were badly bruised. They were taken to the home of Dave Webb living close by where the accident occurred, and Earl of Pilot Mound was summoned and the wounds were dressed. Earl was not much damaged done to the machine, just a few minor things were broken. Many friends wish them a speedy recovery and are glad the accident was no worse. The doctor helped them.

Fort Dodge. E. E. Renquist, of Gowrie, vice president of the Webster County Republican Meredith Club for Gowrie township has written Frank Nelson, secretary of the club, that a careful inquiry reveals no defections from the ranks of the club in his district. His letter comes as an answer to some statements made by Harding supporters that republicans who had joined the club were turning to Harding. Mr. Nelson said this afternoon that the membership in the club continues to grow beyond the most optimistic expectations. He said that fifty have joined in Fort Dodge in the last few days. "We are having republicans come up to the club headquarters and register without any solicitation on our part," said Mr. Nelson. "This is what we like to see, too, because it is impossible to get in touch with every republican, either because of incomplete records or because of lack of them."

Dubuque. Dubuque's "mystery gang", the robbers who have successfully entered a score or more of Dubuque business houses, are blamed for the theft of a large quantity of revolvers, knives, cutlery and other hardware articles from the hardware store of Cota, Byrne and Seymour Monday. As was the case in every other stunt supposed to have been pulled off by the same gang, no doors or cases were broken into. It is not known how the thieves entered the store as all doors and windows were securely locked the next morning, but the stock was missing. Neither was anything turned upside down nor was the store in disorder. The work was evidently done by the same gang, dubbed "mystery gang", by the authorities, the same crowd that is supposed to have taken more than $200 from the Iowa Dairy Company a few days ago and several other big hauls all within the past few weeks.

Sioux City. Decayed flooring in the "bulpen" at the city jail early Sunday morning afforded a means of escape for six men who were confined on various charges. One of them, Jack Sullivan, arrested on a charge of intoxication, was shot thru the knee by Police Constable Frank Focke when the fugitive refused to obey the policeman's command to halt. Sullivan was removed to St. Vincent's hospital. His condition is not serious. During the last year many persons have escaped from the jail by tearing up a part of the floor in one corner and climbing down to the basement. From the basement they could reach the delivery Sunday morning occurred between 3 and 5 o'clock. Charles Lake, held on an investigation charge, instituted the delivery, according to statements made by the police from

While much is said about tired women also must be remembered that men also pay the penalty of overwork. When the kidneys are weak, inactive or sluggish, when one feels tired out and miserable, lacks energy and ambition, Foley Kidney Pills are tonic and strengthening. Wm. H. Opium-Eating an Old Vice. Opium-taking, or opium-eating, is a very old vice. Without carrying back to its use in those times which so many writers and speakers refer to as classic times, it is interesting to recall that in the time of Thomas De Quincey the opium habit was extensive in England—that is, it was extensive if the word of De Quincey, who should have had an intimate knowledge of this subject, be taken at its face value, and most men are certainly willing to accept that writer's word on this subject.

It was in a country barber's shop, and a farmer with a week's growth of stubby beard had seated himself in a chair to have his whiskers cropped. "Guess you'll have a time gitting them off," he remarked, as the barber began rubbing on the lather. "Oh, I don't know," said the barber, carelessly. "All beards look alike to me."

"Wunst I went into a barber's shop and after the barber was done and I was payin' him, he remarked, 'Say, old man, I see beards was like yours I'd give up the barber business. I see you, I see, well, you haven't got anything on me, old man. If all barbers was like you I'd let my beard grow.'"
