Makes Some Difference Who Furnishes the Ham

He was a well-to-do farmer, on his way to Chicago, to market a big load of fine hogs. Having an hour or so he went into a nearby restaurant for something to eat, ordered some ham and eggs, and while waiting became very talkative.

As he thought of his hogs down on the track, and what they would bring him, he had much to say about the market, his fine farm, his success as a raiser of stock, the money he was making, and of his mission to Chicago to sell his six carloads of hogs, which he declared were the finest ever, and which he figured would bring him about $20,000, at the current market price. In fact, he seemed well satisfied with himself and all the world.

His meal finished he asked for his check, and as he saw that it called for 40 cents, his temper changed. He seemed to forget about his hogs and the $20,000, and at once registered a big "kick" as he demanded to know of the restaurant keeper why he charged such an "exorbitant price" for ham and eggs. He declared it was robbery, but finally paid his check, the begrudgingly, and went out muttering about being held up, as he went back to his golden hogs.

It makes a difference who is furnishing the ham.

DEATH AT GILMAN.

Mrs. Viola Clay Phillips Succumbs to Pulmonary Tuberculosis.

Mrs. Viola Clay Phillips, aged 28, wife of Porter Phillips, of Oskaloosa, died at 9 o'clock Thursday night at the home of her mother, Mrs. Thomas Smiley, at Gilman, after a year's illness of pulmonary tuberculosis. Mrs. Phillips had been at her mother's home since last spring.

Mrs. Phillips was born at Gilman Nov. 12, 1888, a daughter of the late Albert Clay. She was united in marriage with Mr. Phillips May 12, 1907. In addition to her mother and husband Mrs. Phillips is survived by one son, Albert, aged 9, and a brother, Lawrence Clay, of Gilman. The young woman's father died at Gilman Nov. 24, 1910.

Funeral services will be held from the Methodist church at Gilman at 2:30 Sunday afternoon, in charge of Rev. J. W. Ash. Burial will follow in the Gilman cemetery.

SOLDIER BOY OVERLOOKED.

Name of Clyde Albert Gard Omitted From List of Ninety.

It has been called to the attention of the T.-R. that the name of Clyde Albert Gard, 102 North Ninth street, who went with the ninety boys to Camp Dodge Wednesday, was not included in the list. Investigation develops that late in the muster Gard was allowed to take the place of James Jensen, Jr., city, a bookkeeper in the Marshalltown State Bank. Officers of the bank insisted that Jensen be excused for a short time, because of the number of its clerks who had enlisted, leaving it so short of help just at this time that it was most difficult to spare another. Under the condition Jensen was omitted from the list, and Gard, who wanted to go, was included. In getting the corrections in the list after the men left the board's clerk unintentionally omitted the substitution of Gard for Jensen in giving them to the T.-R.

Rich, of this city, and Dillwyn C. White and Lawrence M. White. All the rest of the property is divided equally between the daughter, Mrs. Emma J. Rich, wife of Rev. Mr. Rich, and the son, Charles S. White, less advancements made to Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Rich. The son and daughter were nominated joint executors without bond.

Lemons Whiten the Skin Beautifully! Make Cheap Lotion

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one could pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold cream. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothener and beautifier.

Just try it! Make up a quart pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It should naturally help to whiten, soften, freshen, and bring out the hidden roses and beauty of any skin. It is wonderful for rough, red hands.

Your druggist will sell three ounces of orchard white at little cost, and any grocer will supply the lemons.

Joseph Oppman, a German, of this city, was refused citizenship because he is a native of an enemy country, and V. H. Dornan, of this city, was denied citizenship because his witnesses were not properly informed regarding him. The federal statute under which all Germans are now denied citizenship is an old one.
