VETERANS INVEST $46,700 IN BONDS

PURCHASES BY MEMBERS OF INSTITUTION REACH SURPRISINGLY LARGE SUM.

LAUREL COMMUNITY GOES FAR ABOVE ITS QUOTA

Is Allotted $49,600, But Latest Returns Give Village and its Vicinity Total of $56,000 to Date—One of Every Five Home Members and Employees Buy Bonds.

That the members and employees of the soldiers' home have made a splendid showing in the liberty bond sale campaign, and that Laurel and its vicinity has greatly exceeded its quota, are the interesting post campaign, details compiled by President C. C. St. Clair, chairman of the county. From actual figures and conservative estimates the amount of bonds purchased by soldiers' home members is placed at $46,700 by Mr. St. Clair.

The Laurel total, which when last reported early this week had reached the sum of $52,300 has now been increased to $56,000 which is $4,700 in excess of the quota of the village. The number of sales made by the committee headed by Commandant Whitehill which canvassed the soldiers' home, was 120, and the total of the purchases was $23,650. To the personal knowledge of Commandant Whitehill, President St. Clair, of the First National and other bank officers, many members of the home bought bonds of the banks without giving the committee their subscriptions. In some cases, Commandant Whitehill knows that these purchases were for as much as $1,000. Compiling this information Mr. St. Clair says that a conservative figure for the total of the home purchases is approximately double the amount of the sales made there by the committee. This would indicate that in excess of 200 members and employees of the home out of a total of about 1,000 bought bonds.

SHEARER CASE INQUIRY.

Marshalltown High School Alumni Association to Make Investigation. Rumors that "Jim" Shearer, star backfield man of the Mason City high school, is not eligible under state high school athletic association rules, will be investigated today by a committee from the Marshalltown High School Alumni Association. The Shearer case has attracted much attention of the state and persistent reports as to his status as a football player which would cause grave doubt as to his eligibility are under the scrutiny of at least three high schools. It was reported Thursday night that a protest had been filed with the state association against Shearer by Coach Bell, of North Des Moines, but a denial was issued Friday morning. West Waterloo has protested the player to the superintendent of the Mason City schools, but their claims will not result in any action, as the protest should have gone direct to the state association.

Rumors concerning the eligibility of Mason City players have been to the effect that three members of the team are registered for the draft army in Cerro Gordo county, and that Shearer is ineligible on several grounds. These rumors coming to the attention of the Marshalltown High School Alumni Association, that organization determined to see that the high school eleven received fair play. At the same time Mason City is being given the benefit of the doubt, and no incriminations are made. However, the rumors will be thoroughly investigated in the hope of establishing the true status of Shearer, and if the charges are untrue the association will see that he is given justice, but, should the charges be sustained steps will be taken looking toward the expulsion of Mason City from the association.

President J. Sidney Johnson, of the alumni association, has named an investigating committee composed of Joseph A. Whitacre, F. E. Schmidt, and R. P. Scott. Members of this committee will go over the Cerro Gordo county draft list to determine whether any of the Mason City players are registered, and investigate other rumors that are current with respect to the eligibility of the men in the game today.

DAIRY CATTLE SELL HIGH.

Mason Bros. Herd of Jerseys and Holsteins Bring $7,000. Exceptionally high prices, considering the high price of hay and the cost of carrying dairy cattle, were paid for the mixed herd of Jerseys and Holsteins, owned by Mason Bros., of this city and Union, at Union. Fifty-five head of aged and young cows sold for a total of $7,000, an average of $123. Forty milk cows brought an average of $143, and seven Holsteins sold for an average of $170. The top price of $310 of the sale was paid by J. W. Frisvold, of Conrad, for a Holstein cow. L. E. Herrick, of Lamolle, paid $200 for another Holstein. Among the other buyers were J. A. Kleespe, of this city, who bought two Jerseys; W. H. Smith, of Steamboat Rock, and B. E. Gould and J. M. Scurt, of Gilman, who bought several Jerseys. Only four of the animals remained in the vicinity of Union, the others all going to buyers already mentioned or others at Grundy Center, Eldora, State Center and Gladbrook. An immense crowd attended the auction.

The owners of the herd were Clair G. Mason, of this city and Wallace S. Mason, of Union. They bought the Holsteins from D. K. Thomas, of Green Mountain, last spring, and the Jerseys at the Ben Parsons sale at Clemmons in July. Mason Bros., like Thomas, sold because of the lack of pasture and hay.

Central Church Meetings.
Rev. Ira M. Boswell, who is conducting a revival meeting at the Central Church of Christ, preached Friday night to a large audience, taking for his subject, "The Giant Killer." He gave a sketch of the career of David, who slew Goliath of Gath, the leader of the Philistines who were the enemies of God's chosen people. The speaker showed how David's preparation in the shepherd's life equipped him for his particular hour when he saved his people from captivity, and proved his strong faith in God. Bringing the lesson to present day conditions Mr. Boswell showed the necessity of faith and preparation to overcome the giants of organized evil, such as the liquor traffic, social wrongs, and materialism. The special music was furnished by the intermediate Endeavorers under the direction of Mrs. Cutler McGrew. Rev. Mr. Boswell will speak tonight at 7:30, and his subjects for Sunday will be, in the morning, "Strength For the Day," and in the evening, "The First Five Minutes After Death."

TO SPEAK ON CO-OPERATION.

Frank B. White to Lecture at Marshalltown Club Monday. Frank B. White, of Chicago, managing director of the Agricultural Publishers' Association, will speak at the Marshalltown Club Monday evening at 8 o'clock under the auspices of the retail trade committee. His subject will be "Co-operation Between Merchant and Farmer in Behalf of the Local Trade Center." The lecture is free and the subject is of equal interest to farmers and merchants, since the interests of both are tied up in the market and trade conditions of the local center in which both do business. A special effort is to be made by the club to have as large a number of farmer members of the club and their friends present as is possible.

FARM SELLS FOR $280.

William Tapps Sells 100 Acres in Vienna For $280.00. What is a record price for farm land so far distant from a market center is shown in the filing of a deed by William M. Tapps, of the Conrad neighborhood, transferring a 100-acre farm in Vienna township to Melvin E. Steward, of near Conrad. The price, according to the deed, was $280.00, which is at the rate of $2.80 an acre. The farm is in the northwestern part of Vienna township about three miles south of Conrad and six miles east of Liscomb. The land is excellent and the improvements are good. Other farm land close by towns and the city has sold for higher prices in recent years, but not many farms of its size as far from a town have brought so much.

VESPER SERVICE 5 P. M.

Attend the Episcopal Church Services Sunday, Nov. 4. The Episcopal church services for Sunday are as follows: Celebration of holy communion 7:30, Sunday school 9:45, celebration of holy communion and sermon 11, subject, "El Shaddai"; vespers, 5 o'clock, special music, "chalk talk", subject, "Tekel". Committee.

It's a Sensational Play.

Gaskell & MacVitty (Inc.) discovered in "The Other Man's Wife" the long looked for novelty that a fastidious public has put their o. k. on as the one great sensational play in a thousand and that will thrill and delight without offending the most sensitive. The story is from the pen of Victor Emmanuel Lambert, and is intensely gripping. There is a dash of humor interwoven with the intensity that will cause a laugh and a tear so closely blended that one is waffled thru a maze of complications into ecstasies of delight in having seen a really good play. The subject is about a woman, not the ordinary, but the very unusual kind that every man and wife should see, and sweethearts should profit by. At the Odeon Sunday evening. Prices, 25, 35, 50, 75 and $1. Odeon.

Local Weather Record.

Form Neighborhood Clubs to Aid Red Cross

Because of a lack of space in the Red Cross rooms Dr. Cora W. Choate has organized two neighborhood clubs whose members will make surgical pads. Friday evening a dozen neighbors of Mrs. A. P. Pratt, 11 South Third avenue, met at her home and formed a club, and another club was formed a week ago at the home of Mrs. F. S. Wing, 1902 West Church street. Dr. Choate has arranged for each club meet two hours for one evening a week throughout the winter, and has made this arrangement as many women can spend an evening much better than any time during the day. It is hoped to have many women in the city form these organizations, as there is much need of this work.

LOCAL MARKETS.

Prices Paid to Farmers by Marshalltown Merchants. The following prices are quoted by Marshalltown dealers for the different varieties of farmers' provisions, grain and produce. The Star grocery quotes the following prices: Butter—43. Eggs—39. Benedict Flour and Feed Company will pay the following prices at their place of business in this city, subject however, to market changes: Corn—1.65. Oats—.53. Wheat—2.00. The following market quotations are furnished by H. Willard, Son & Co.: Clear medium native wool—55¢/57. Coarse and low—50¢/52. Light, fine—45¢/50. Heavy, fine—38. Pelts—1.00/2.50. No. 1 hides—15. No. 2 hides—14. Horse hides, tall on—5.00. Hog skins—50. Beeswax—27¢/23.

Send Another Shipment.

Five more Red Cross articles were shipped Friday evening to Red Cross headquarters. The shipment consisted of twenty-five sweaters, forty-four pairs of socks, eighteen pairs of wristlets, four helmets, twenty-five mufflers, thirty-three comfort kit bags, fifty-four paper backed pads 16x24 inches, twenty-two absorbent pads 8x12 inches, fifty-one packages of gauze compresses 4x4 inches, twelve packages of folded gauze strips 6x3 inches, three packages of gauze wipes 4x4 inches, one package of gauze rolls four and one-half inches wide by three yards long, one package of gauze compresses 9x9 inches, and two packages of gauze sponges. Because of the call for surgical dressings to be made by the first of the week over 100 women and high school girls came to the Red Cross rooms Thursday afternoon and accomplished a great deal of work. Different auxiliaries in the county are very busy knitting and sewing as shown by the many garments that have been sent to the Red Cross rooms which are open every day except Wednesday from 9 to 12 a. m. and from 1 to 5 p. m.

Sixty thousand horses have been purchased in Canada by the allied governments since the outbreak of the war. Probably another 20,000 will be purchased in the dominion before the close of this year.

Tragedy Queen of France.

Mademoiselle Rachel was the tragedy queen of France during the middle of the last century. She died in 1853 at the age of 38, the age which appears so fatal to genius. An exhausting professional tour in America, entered upon for needless moneymaking, is believed to have had much to do in bringing about her end. Rachel was the child of poor Hebrew parents, and her talents were first exercised in singing to a guitar on the streets of Paris. When at an early age she broke upon theatrical audiences in the characters of Roxane, Camille and others of that class, she created a future almost unexampled. Avarice was the predominant characteristic of her career, and it is said that she took many strange courses in order to accumulate money. One redeeming feature of her mode of life is remembered, however, and that is that she lavished much of the money she gained on her parents.

Little Ones and Old Ones.

James Edwards, 208 Harriet street, Montgomery, Ala., writes: "I sleep all night and cough but little. I feel like a new man from using Foley's Honey and Tar. My whole family is using it now—the little ones and the old ones. It has cured our coughs and broken our colds." Foley's Honey and Tar clears stopped air passages, removes phlegm, heals raw inflamed membranes, soothes sore chest, makes difficult breathing easy and relieves those deep seated, racking coughs. Sold everywhere.—Advertisement.

Appraisal Notice.

Auditor's office, Marshalltown, Marshall county, Iowa. To C. S. Burcham, G. F. Burcham and Samuel Burcham, and to the actual occupant of the land, if any and to all others whom it may concern: You are hereby notified that the County Engineer acting under authority of Section 1527-R-1 has recommended to the Board of Supervisors the purchase of a strip of land 45 feet wide and 1500 feet long adjacent to the public highway beginning at the Southeast corner of the Northeast quarter of section 10, Bangor township and extending west 1600 feet to be used for widening that part of the county road on the west central part of the said section 10. The said land to be used belonging to C. S. G. F. and Samuel Burcham. And the Board of Supervisors of Marshall county, acting under authority of said section 1527-R-1 have appointed as appraisers C. H. Ross, E. B. Emes and I. A. Lay, to view the premises and appraise the value of said land to be taken and the said appraisers have proceeded to qualify as such by law and have reported the value of such land to be taken for said purpose at $200 per acre and the board of supervisors have set November 24th as the day for hearing objections to the taking of said land and the proceedings thereon. Given this 2nd day of November, 1917.

W. E. McLeland, County Auditor.
