

About twenty-five members of the S. C. I. Club held an all-day meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. P. L. Collins, five miles north of the city. The time was spent in sewing for the Red Cross, and at noon the members enjoyed a picnic lunch. After the business meeting the program followed. Mrs. George Lewis led the bible study. Mrs. Carl Cole read a paper on "Reconstruction Work in France and Alsace-Lorraine," and Mrs. H. C. Stowell read a paper on "The New Industries Created by the War." The club voted to send its quota of $25 to the federation of women's clubs, which are building a four-room home for the soldiers in France.

Times-Republican

CITY IN BRIEF

Bring your watches in. Hodges. Dr. Bullard osteopath, 15 West Main. Pure distilled water for your batteries. Bailey Boys and their Pop. Our flexible finish makes your tie slip easier. Palace Laundry Company. W. G. Kane.

Those who smoked 10c cigars are now smoking Lewis' Single Binder 5c cigars.—Advertisement. Next market sale in Marshalltown Saturday, April 20. We will sell everything. Plumb, Munro, Mason and Shoemaker.

For particular people: The house of service and quality. Wall paper and paints. Experts to do your work. W. A. George, Jr., 29 North First avenue. Mrs. Lester Walker of State Center, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. A. Barkley, of Sioux City, who is visiting at the Walker home, spent Friday in the city.

THE HOUSE OF HITS FAMILY AMUSEMENT

Twenty Minutes In Chinatown

Is the Vaudeville for the Casino MONDAY, TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY

This is a Regular Orpheum Act EIGHT PEOPLE An Exact Production of Chinatown on the Barbara Coast in San Francisco.

Big scenic production in which real rain is produced on the stage making it an original novelty. The first time ever shown in Marshalltown; in fact, the only act using such an effort. All big acts for the Casino from now on. All new people. Entire new shows every MONDAY, THURSDAY and SUNDAY

Three Acts of Vaudeville Every Sunday Seven Real Features TAYLOR HOLMES

Ruggles of Red Gap

Read the story in the Saturday Post. See it at the Casino, April 15, 16 and 17. Variety is the Spice of Life. See it First at the Casino FOLLOW THE ECROWDS On account of the length of this show we start promptly at 7:15 o'clock.

COLONIAL

TODAY "SALVATION JOAN" A Vitagraph Blue Ribbon Feature

"A LITTLE OULJA WORK" COMEDY

TOMORROW A Triangle Feature With WM. DESMOND

"MASTER OF HIS HOME" "His Cool Nerve" COMEDY

WEDNESDAY A Mutual Masterpiece "Snap Judgement" with William Russel

Cora Williams-Choate, physician. Fresh cottage cheese, Tuesday, Jackson Dairy Company.

Mrs. Ida Heath went Friday to Des Moines to visit Mrs. W. C. Beltz.

Mrs. F. E. Betner and daughter Anna, of Pickering, were in the city Saturday.

Madames M. D. Shelton and Annie Davis, of Montour, spent Saturday in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hicks, who live northeast of the city, spent Friday at Waterloo.

Mrs. Anna A. Wheeler went Friday to Des Moines to visit her niece, Mrs. S. Fleming.

Madames W. H. Harlan and Joseph Springer, of St. Anthony, spent Saturday in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. George Herat spent Saturday at Eldora with their daughter, Mrs. Glen Sheldon.

Mrs. O. Harrison, of Montour, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Viola C. Erwin, returned home Friday.

Miss Bernice Rihmeyer, of Albion, came Friday for an over-Sunday visit with her aunt, Mrs. A. C. Kothenbeutal.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Atkinson, of St. Anthony, are in the city to visit their daughters, Madames G. W. Miller and R. A. Julian.

Miss Beas Fleming of Manchester, who has been visiting since Saturday with Mrs. F. D. B. Ingalls, returned home Friday.

Mrs. E. G. Leffler, of Waterloo, who has been spending a week in the city visiting friends, returned home Saturday morning.

Mrs. John Malloy, of Creston, who has been visiting for a week with her mother, Mrs. Ann Collins, returned home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Clark, of Pella, were in the city Friday on their way to Fairbank to visit their son, Rev. J. C. Clark, and family.

Mrs. S. H. Newton and grand-daughter, Edith Lynch, spent Saturday at Waterloo with the former's daughter, Mrs. H. H. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wooten, of Union, who have been spending several days in Chicago, were in the city Saturday on their way home.

Miss Mabel Nelson, of Roland, who has been spending some time in the city, went Saturday to Melbourne to remain with friends indefinitely.

Madames C. J. Espe, C. C. Eldridge, and E. Hartung went Friday to Gladbrook, where they attended the funeral this afternoon of Mrs. C. J. Mitchell.

Mrs. C. S. Carothers spent Saturday in Des Moines. Mr. Carothers who has been at Indianapolis on business met his wife in Des Moines and accompanied her home.

Mrs. S. Bennett, of Oskaloosa, who has been visiting for a week in the city with her sister, Madames Ella Jenkins, L. Dising, and Mary Wagner, returned home Saturday.

Clarence, the son of Hans Petersen, 205 North Third street, who is a patient at the Deaconess hospital where he underwent an operation, April 4, for mastoiditis, is doing nicely.

John Shoehair, of Eagle Grove, who has been in Oklahoma on business, arrived in the city Saturday to join his wife who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McCormack.

Word from Los Angeles to Dr. E. W. French is making very satisfactory progress in his recent illness. The improvement, altho gradual, is very slow, however.

Miss Edith C. Buck, of Grinnell, was in the city Saturday on her way to Cedar Falls to attend the meeting today of the Cedar Falls chapter of the D. A. R. Miss Buck is regent of the chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Herat, daughter Aline, and Mrs. Herat's mother, Mrs. C. Shaw, of Zealing, who have been spending two months at Long Beach, Cal., were in the city Saturday on their way home.

Mrs. R. S. Blake left Saturday for Albert Lea, Minn., for an over-Sunday visit with her daughter, Mrs. P. A. Anderson, and will go from there to Sioux Falls, S. D., to visit for ten days with her son, Robert Blake.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Loveland left Saturday for Carmengay, Alta., where they will make their future home. Mr. Loveland has been employed for the past eight years as a cooper at the Marshall Oil Company.

M. Roekopf, who has been for a week at Bancroft with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Roekopf, who is ill, returned Friday evening. Mrs. Roekopf has been spending the winter with her daughter Mrs. Joseph Baltz, at Bancroft.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Flower, of Wichita, Kan., who have been visiting relatives and friends at Evansville, Wis., were in the city Friday on their way to Clemons, to visit over Sunday with the latter's mother, Mrs. R. L. Anderson.

The aid and missionary societies of the Baptist church held their regular meeting Friday afternoon at the church with Madames A. B. Johnson, W. E. Sanders, Joe Pinkerton and C. W. Lurvey, as the hostesses. Mrs. T. I. Wasson gave an interesting talk on the missions which she had visited during her recent trip to California, and Mrs. D. W. Norris had charge of the missionary lesson.

Big fat pies were auctioned at prices ranging from 50 cents to $2.75 at school No. 2 in Jefferson township, three miles north of Laurel, Friday evening and an address upon "Helping to Win the War" was given by D. W. Norris, of the Times-Republican. The proceeds of the sale were given to the work of the Junior Red Cross of that school, which is 100 per cent in its Red Cross activities under the leadership of Miss Vessie Keese, their teacher.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the United Brethren church met Friday afternoon at the church. The devotional services were led by Mrs. Emma Paige, and during the business meeting officers were elected. Mrs. J. D. Plumb was chosen president; Mrs. B. F. Kemper, vice president; Mrs. F. B. Thomas, secretary; Mrs. Hockett, treasurer; Mrs. R. A. Kemper, secretary of literature; Mrs. P. H. Hodges, chairman of program committee; and Mrs. Emma Reifschneider, treasurer of dues. Mrs. B. F. Kemper was elected a delegate to the branch meeting to be held at Garwin in June.

O. E. Tuttle, jeweler and optician. Fresh cottage cheese, Tuesday, Jackson Dairy Company.

Mrs. F. W. Furch, of Albion, was in the city Saturday.

Fresh cottage cheese, Tuesday, Jackson Dairy Company.

Mrs. J. C. Gifford, of Albion, spent Saturday in the city.

Mrs. F. Wilkening, of State Center, was in the city Saturday.

Mrs. Ed Hulizer, of State Center, spent Saturday in the city.

Lady bookkeeper with experience wanted at Times-Republican.

Always ask your grocer for Sweet Home bread. Central bakery.

Madames E. A. and O. J. Brouhard, of Colo, spent Friday in the city.

Mrs. W. A. Cunningham, of Lynnville, spent Saturday in the city.

Misses Edna and Myra Jensen, of Gilman, were in the city Saturday.

Mrs. D. F. Baer and children, of Dillon, were visitors in the city Saturday.

Madames Jennie Griggs and J. H. Lamb, of Albion, were in the city Saturday.

Mrs. George Abbey and daughter Charlotte, of Albion, spent Saturday in the city.

Mrs. W. Hildebrand went Friday evening to Albion to visit her sister, Mrs. Frank Bivens.

Mrs. H. A. Stone and children, and niece, Miss Eva Stone, of Albion, spent Friday in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hodgson went Friday evening to Minerva to visit at the Herman Boles home.

Long life guaranteed to your collars by our flexible finish. Palace Laundry Company. W. G. Kane.

Mrs. A. Wilcox went Friday evening to Kellogg to visit over Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Nellie Howell, and brother, Cecil Howell.

Mrs. H. H. Rhine and children, of Waverly, who have been visiting for two weeks with the former's sister, Mrs. B. W. Redsecker, at Ames, were in the city Friday on their way home.

Mrs. P. G. Thorp, 513 South Third street, entertained the members of the Tizrah Club Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in working for the Red Cross, after which the hostess served the regulation war lunch.

The members of the Lilac Croquet Club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. J. Lein, 401 West State Street. After the regular business meeting the afternoon was spent in fancy work, and music was furnished by Mrs. J. G. Bingham and Miss Lucia Leins.

Mrs. F. M. Stehlik, of Garwin, entertained twenty-four children Thursday afternoon in honor of the 12th birthday of her son Leslie. A two-course lunch was served by Mrs. Stehlik, assisted by Mrs. O. F. Long, Mrs. Green and Miss Floy Vest. In a peanut hunt the prize was won by Leslie Stehlik.

J. S. Perry is in receipt of a letter from his son, Elgin Perry, a member of Battery C Seventeenth field artillery, saying that he has been transferred from Camp Cody, Deming, N. M., to the arsenal at Rock Island, Ill., for twenty-eight days' training in leather equipment for motors.

Mrs. K. Scott, assisted by Madames Andrew Hanson, L. T. Scott and M. Lee, were hostesses Thursday afternoon to the aid society of the Elim Lutheran church, which met in the church parlors. The devotional exercises were opened by Rev. A. J. Anders, after which a short business meeting was held.

Madames, A. F. Balch, G. A. Tewksbury, E. W. Hinchley, J. D. Palmer, C. A. Kliebenstein, C. C. Woodmansee, and Mary Lindsay, were hostesses Thursday afternoon to the Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church, which met in the church parlors. A short business meeting was held, after which the afternoon was spent in working for the society.

Coming to the Odeon theater Monday evening, April 22, the original Chicago, cast and production in "Turn to the Right" the comedy that will live forever in which tears and laughter fight for mastery. Prices lower floor $2; first two rows balcony $1.50; next three rows, $1; last two rows 75 cents gallery unreserved 50 cents. Mail order accompanied with remittance and self addressed stamped envelope filled in order of receipt. Odeon.

Eighty friends and neighbors joined Sunday night in surprise upon Mrs. D. M. Cakerice, of Taylor township, to celebrate her birthday anniversary. A three-course dinner brought by the guests was served at noon. Music furnished the entertainment for the afternoon. The guests presented Mrs. Cakerice with a leather rocker. In attendance from a distance were the families of I. L. Cakerice, H. W. Cakerice, and Daniel and Stanley Meyers, of Eldora; F. M. Vinton and family, of Whitten; Mrs. John Posey and son, of Waterloo; and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Clay, of Haverhill.

Dr. Graham, osteopath. Masonic temple Mrs. G. E. Maxfield, of Minerva, was in the city Friday.

Drink Colfax water and keep well. Bailey Boys and their Pop.

Mrs. George Brennecke and sons, Frederick and Walter, of Dillon, spent Saturday in the city.

Our flexible finish makes your collars wear longer. Palace Laundry Company, W. G. Kane.

The brotherhood of Elim Lutheran church will meet at the home of Chris Larson, 603 East State street, this evening.

The members of the W. C. T. U. will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Bull, 11 South Fourth street.

The Wayne Cumming camp of Red Cross workers will meet with Mrs. L. D. Greyson, 108 North Seventh avenue, Tuesday evening.

Madames J. L. Brown and F. M. Lynn, of State Center, who have been visiting friends at Van Horn, were in the city Friday on their way home.

Call and look over lines over before you part with your money. We have the variety, quality and service. W. A. George, Jr., 29 North First avenue.

The regular meeting of the board of directors of the historical society will be held Tuesday afternoon, April 16, at 4:30 o'clock at the rooms of the society in the court house.

The class in citizenship of the Polity Equality League will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Y. M. C. A. building, for Red Cross work and the regular lesson.

Mrs. H. C. Shloss and daughter Elizabeth, of Ames, who have been visiting for a week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Boggio, returned home Friday evening.

To Rent—Second floor over the Bendlage Hardware Company; will arrange to suit tenant; clean, bright place to start a cafeteria. Apply, Bendlage Hardware Company.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First United Evangelical church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Fenton, 1402 South Center street. The afternoon was spent in cutting carpet rags for the society.

Mrs. Mary A. Kennehan, 104 West Nevada street, received word this morning from her son, Sergt. W. A. Kennehan, who is a machinist in the Nineteenth railroad engineers, saying he had arrived safely in a European port.

The St. Elizabeth Society met Thursday for an all-day sew in the auditorium of St. Mary's Institute. The day was spent in sewing for the bazaar, and at noon dinner was served by Madames M. H. Kettenhofer, R. W. Shaw, and Daisy Dilley.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Central Church of Christ met Friday afternoon at the church. After a short business meeting, eight young ladies from the young married people's class gave an entertainment entitled, "The Sweet Family." The hostesses were Madames F. R. Richardson, C. L. Pitcher, C. Overturf, and J. A. Swanson.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church met Thursday afternoon in the church parlors, where the afternoon was spent in doing Red Cross work, and Rev. W. G. Crowder gave a talk on "The Philosophy of Humor." The hostesses were Madames W. E. Wildman, M. P. Matsen, E. A. Voorhies, W. G. Leins, J. H. Jansen, and K. C. Roberts.

Moonlight dance at Stru's hall Tuesday night. Burke-Leins four-piece orchestra.—Advertisement.

The surgical dressings class will meet Tuesday evening at the Norris work rooms.

The O. E. S. Circle will meet at the Masonic parlors at 2:15 Tuesday afternoon to do Red Cross work.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cox, 111 West State street, are the parents of a son born at the Deaconess at midnight Saturday.

Howard Batesole, son of E. D. Batesole, who is ill of pneumonia, has somewhat improved today. The crisis in the disease is looked for within the next twelve hours.

The Wayne Cumming camp of Red Cross workers will meet with Mrs. L. D. Greyson, 108 North Seventh avenue, Tuesday evening.

Madames J. L. Brown and F. M. Lynn, of State Center, who have been visiting friends at Van Horn, were in the city Friday on their way home.

Call and look over lines over before you part with your money. We have the variety, quality and service. W. A. George, Jr., 29 North First avenue.

The regular meeting of the board of directors of the historical society will be held Tuesday afternoon, April 16, at 4:30 o'clock at the rooms of the society in the court house.

The class in citizenship of the Polity Equality League will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Y. M. C. A. building, for Red Cross work and the regular lesson.

Mrs. H. C. Shloss and daughter Elizabeth, of Ames, who have been visiting for a week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Boggio, returned home Friday evening.

To Rent—Second floor over the Bendlage Hardware Company; will arrange to suit tenant; clean, bright place to start a cafeteria. Apply, Bendlage Hardware Company.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First United Evangelical church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Fenton, 1402 South Center street. The afternoon was spent in cutting carpet rags for the society.

Mrs. Mary A. Kennehan, 104 West Nevada street, received word this morning from her son, Sergt. W. A. Kennehan, who is a machinist in the Nineteenth railroad engineers, saying he had arrived safely in a European port.

The St. Elizabeth Society met Thursday for an all-day sew in the auditorium of St. Mary's Institute. The day was spent in sewing for the bazaar, and at noon dinner was served by Madames M. H. Kettenhofer, R. W. Shaw, and Daisy Dilley.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Central Church of Christ met Friday afternoon at the church. After a short business meeting, eight young ladies from the young married people's class gave an entertainment entitled, "The Sweet Family." The hostesses were Madames F. R. Richardson, C. L. Pitcher, C. Overturf, and J. A. Swanson.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church met Thursday afternoon in the church parlors, where the afternoon was spent in doing Red Cross work, and Rev. W. G. Crowder gave a talk on "The Philosophy of Humor." The hostesses were Madames W. E. Wildman, M. P. Matsen, E. A. Voorhies, W. G. Leins, J. H. Jansen, and K. C. Roberts.

Moonlight dance at Stru's hall Tuesday night. Burke-Leins four-piece orchestra.—Advertisement.

The surgical dressings class will meet Tuesday evening at the Norris work rooms.

The O. E. S. Circle will meet at the Masonic parlors at 2:15 Tuesday afternoon to do Red Cross work.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cox, 111 West State street, are the parents of a son born at the Deaconess at midnight Saturday.

Howard Batesole, son of E. D. Batesole, who is ill of pneumonia, has somewhat improved today. The crisis in the disease is looked for within the next twelve hours.

The Wayne Cumming camp of Red Cross workers will meet with Mrs. L. D. Greyson, 108 North Seventh avenue, Tuesday evening.

Madames J. L. Brown and F. M. Lynn, of State Center, who have been visiting friends at Van Horn, were in the city Friday on their way home.

Call and look over lines over before you part with your money. We have the variety, quality and service. W. A. George, Jr., 29 North First avenue.

The regular meeting of the board of directors of the historical society will be held Tuesday afternoon, April 16, at 4:30 o'clock at the rooms of the society in the court house.

The class in citizenship of the Polity Equality League will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Y. M. C. A. building, for Red Cross work and the regular lesson.

Mrs. H. C. Shloss and daughter Elizabeth, of Ames, who have been visiting for a week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Boggio, returned home Friday evening.

To Rent—Second floor over the Bendlage Hardware Company; will arrange to suit tenant; clean, bright place to start a cafeteria. Apply, Bendlage Hardware Company.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First United Evangelical church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Fenton, 1402 South Center street. The afternoon was spent in cutting carpet rags for the society.

Mrs. Mary A. Kennehan, 104 West Nevada street, received word this morning from her son, Sergt. W. A. Kennehan, who is a machinist in the Nineteenth railroad engineers, saying he had arrived safely in a European port.

Moonlight dance at Stru's hall Tuesday night. Burke-Leins four-piece orchestra.—Advertisement.

The surgical dressings class will meet Tuesday evening at the Norris work rooms.

The O. E. S. Circle will meet at the Masonic parlors at 2:15 Tuesday afternoon to do Red Cross work.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cox, 111 West State street, are the parents of a son born at the Deaconess at midnight Saturday.

Howard Batesole, son of E. D. Batesole, who is ill of pneumonia, has somewhat improved today. The crisis in the disease is looked for within the next twelve hours.

The Wayne Cumming camp of Red Cross workers will meet with Mrs. L. D. Greyson, 108 North Seventh avenue, Tuesday evening.

Madames J. L. Brown and F. M. Lynn, of State Center, who have been visiting friends at Van Horn, were in the city Friday on their way home.

Call and look over lines over before you part with your money. We have the variety, quality and service. W. A. George, Jr., 29 North First avenue.

The regular meeting of the board of directors of the historical society will be held Tuesday afternoon, April 16, at 4:30 o'clock at the rooms of the society in the court house.

The class in citizenship of the Polity Equality League will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Y. M. C. A. building, for Red Cross work and the regular lesson.

Mrs. H. C. Shloss and daughter Elizabeth, of Ames, who have been visiting for a week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Boggio, returned home Friday evening.

To Rent—Second floor over the Bendlage Hardware Company; will arrange to suit tenant; clean, bright place to start a cafeteria. Apply, Bendlage Hardware Company.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First United Evangelical church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Fenton, 1402 South Center street. The afternoon was spent in cutting carpet rags for the society.

Mrs. Mary A. Kennehan, 104 West Nevada street, received word this morning from her son, Sergt. W. A. Kennehan, who is a machinist in the Nineteenth railroad engineers, saying he had arrived safely in a European port.

The St. Elizabeth Society met Thursday for an all-day sew in the auditorium of St. Mary's Institute. The day was spent in sewing for the bazaar, and at noon dinner was served by Madames M. H. Kettenhofer, R. W. Shaw, and Daisy Dilley.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Central Church of Christ met Friday afternoon at the church. After a short business meeting, eight young ladies from the young married people's class gave an entertainment entitled, "The Sweet Family." The hostesses were Madames F. R. Richardson, C. L. Pitcher, C. Overturf, and J. A. Swanson.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church met Thursday afternoon in the church parlors, where the afternoon was spent in doing Red Cross work, and Rev. W. G. Crowder gave a talk on "The Philosophy of Humor." The hostesses were Madames W. E. Wildman, M. P. Matsen, E. A. Voorhies, W. G. Leins, J. H. Jansen, and K. C. Roberts.

Moonlight dance at Stru's hall Tuesday night. Burke-Leins four-piece orchestra.—Advertisement.

The surgical dressings class will meet Tuesday evening at the Norris work rooms.

The O. E. S. Circle will meet at the Masonic parlors at 2:15 Tuesday afternoon to do Red Cross work.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cox, 111 West State street, are the parents of a son born at the Deaconess at midnight Saturday.

Howard Batesole, son of E. D. Batesole, who is ill of pneumonia, has somewhat improved today. The crisis in the disease is looked for within the next twelve hours.

The Wayne Cumming camp of Red Cross workers will meet with Mrs. L. D. Greyson, 108 North Seventh avenue, Tuesday evening.

Madames J. L. Brown and F. M. Lynn, of State Center, who have been visiting friends at Van Horn, were in the city Friday on their way home.

Call and look over lines over before you part with your money. We have the variety, quality and service. W. A. George, Jr., 29 North First avenue.

The regular meeting of the board of directors of the historical society will be held Tuesday afternoon, April 16, at 4:30 o'clock at the rooms of the society in the court house.

The class in citizenship of the Polity Equality League will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Y. M. C. A. building, for Red Cross work and the regular lesson.

Mrs. H. C. Shloss and daughter Elizabeth, of Ames, who have been visiting for a week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Boggio, returned home Friday evening.

To Rent—Second floor over the Bendlage Hardware Company; will arrange to suit tenant; clean, bright place to start a cafeteria. Apply, Bendlage Hardware Company.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First United Evangelical church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Fenton, 1402 South Center street. The afternoon was spent in cutting carpet rags for the society.

Mrs. Mary A. Kennehan, 104 West Nevada street, received word this morning from her son, Sergt. W. A. Kennehan, who is a machinist in the Nineteenth railroad engineers, saying he had arrived safely in a European port.

Moonlight dance at Stru's hall Tuesday night. Burke-Leins four-piece orchestra.—Advertisement.

The surgical dressings class will meet Tuesday evening at the Norris work rooms.

The O. E. S. Circle will meet at the Masonic parlors at 2:15 Tuesday afternoon to do Red Cross work.

Whelan, of Belle Plaine, in a hospital at Omaha Saturday night. Mrs. Whelan's death was caused by an internal injury resulting from a fall at her home a week ago. She was removed to Omaha, where an operation was performed in an effort to save her life.

Mrs. Whelan is quite well known in the county. Her father, Rev. George R. Chambers, pastor of the Episcopal church at Chariton, where the funeral is to be held Tuesday at 2:40. Rev. Mr. Horton will go to Chariton tonight.

The Chambers family lived at Gilman four or five years prior to about eight years ago, and Miss Chambers attended high school there. She was 27 years old, and had been married three years.

At the Hospital. Mrs. B. F. Gettle, of Green Mountain, underwent an operation for ulcers of the stomach at the Deaconess hospital this morning. Her condition is serious. Mr. Gettle has been a sufferer with the trouble for several months.

R. J. Chitty, the Toledo man who is at the Deaconess, a victim of peritonitis due to a ruptured appendix which