

ADVANCE IN CORN IS SHORT LIVED

PROFIT TAKING HAS BULLISH EFFECT IN ABSENCE OF SELLING SENTIMENT.

GAINS WIPE OUT IN THIRTY MINUTES

Oats Trade Dull at Outset With Prices Tending Upward in Sympathy With Corn—Prices React When Corn Turns Downward—Provisions Are Inactive and Nominally Unchanged.

Chicago, Aug. 30.—In the absence of selling sentiment profit taking by shorts ran the price of corn up momentarily after the opening of the market today but in a half hour the price was back around yesterday's close.

New low levels were reached at one time, but the loss was regained on profit taking by shorts. The close was 1 1/4 cents up, with October at $1.56 1/4.

The oats market opened dull and slightly higher with corn. October opened unchanged to 1/4 cent lower, at 71 1/2 cents, sold to 72, and reacted to 71 3/4 cents.

Provisions were inactive and nominally unchanged. The close was from 5 cents lower for ribs to 20 cents higher for October pork.

LAMSON'S MARKET REPORT. Furnished by Lamson Bros. & Co., 203 Masonic Temple, Phone 193.

Chicago, Aug. 30.—Corn—After making new low levels on the present downturn and a record low for the October delivery, corn reacted sharply and closed higher for the first time in several days.

Oats—Altho oats did not fully respond to the weakness in corn early, neither did they fully follow the late advance, and the close were slightly lower.

Provisions—A further advance in hog prices at the yards to record levels, induced buying of produce. Prices do not, however, respond to the bullish war news, the market for the moment being in a rut.

SENATE VOTE TO MAKE NATION DRY

ADOPTS AMENDMENT TO AGRICULTURAL BILL CALLING FOR PROHIBITION.

WILL CONTINUE IN EFFECT UNTIL ARMY DISBANDED

Amendment Adopted Without Roll Call—House Expected to Concur Speedily and Nation Will be Dry July 1 Next Unless President Intervenes With Veto.

Washington, Aug. 30.—The nation is scheduled to go "bone dry" on July 1, 1919, unless President Wilson exercises his veto power against the will of congress.

The chief provisions of the amendment are: Prohibition of the sale of any kind of alcoholic beverage after June 30, 1919.

Authority to the president to prescribe prohibition zones around munitions plants and coal mines immediately.

The amendment will continue in effect until the demobilization of the army, by which time the "dry" except the Sheppard constitutional amendment will have been ratified by three-fourths of the states.

Adopted Without Roll Call. The amendment was adopted by the senate without a roll call.

The proceedings leading up to the adoption of the amendment today were as devoid of interest as the consideration of a routine appropriation bill.

Before the final vote was taken, Senator Trammell, of Florida, sought to modify the amendment by making it effective Jan. 1 next.

Wilson Wanted Jan. 1, 1920, Fixed. In the debate which preceded the vote Senator Sheppard told the senate that the president had asked for postponement of prohibition until Jan. 1, 1920.

Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, asked Senator Sheppard whether under the bill, it would be possible to obtain a bottle of wine with a physician's prescription.

"I think it would be possible," Senator Sheppard answered. "Then I see a ray of hope," said Senator Penrose.

Stops Manufacture for Export. Senator Penrose then asked whether the bill would permit manufacture of intoxicants for export.

Senator Sheppard explained that it would be impossible for congress to impose prohibition upon France and added that American soldiers in un-form are unable to obtain intoxicants in the United States. "Will you accept an amendment prohibiting exports?" asked Senator Penrose.

"Gladly," responded Senator Sheppard, "will you offer one?" "O, no," said Senator Penrose, "I was merely on a search for information."
