

FALLING? HERE'S WHERE IT SHOWS DON'T WORRY. LET "DANDERINE" SAVE YOUR HAIR AND DOUBLE ITS BEAUTY.

To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff get a small bottle of delightful "Danderine" at any drug store...

MOTHERS, DO THIS—

When the Children Cough, Rub Musterole on Throats and Chests

No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into croup, or worse. And then when you're glad you have a jar of Musterole at hand to give prompt relief, it does not blister...

HOW AND WHEN TO TAKE ASPIRIN

First See That The Tablets You Take Are Marked With the "Bayer Cross"

To get quick relief follow carefully the safe and proper directions in each unbroken package of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin."

The "Bayer Cross" means the genuine, world-famous Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over eighteen years.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "dopey" and "heavy."

Bring or Ship Your Auto Radiator to Us

We can make them, rebuild them and repair them. WE ALSO REPAIR FENDERS AND LAMPS

Marshalltown Auto Radiator Repair Co. 18 W. State St. Telephone 806

CAPUDINE It's Liquid Ascorbic Acid GRIPP-ACHES BY DOSE AND IN BOTTLES - V. 30 & 60

Health - Strength - Beauty Thru JENSEN'S TURKISH BATH PARLOR Shower and tub baths. Phone 450 5 N. 3rd Ave. Open day and night.

WOULD CONTROL BOOZE "MAKIN'S"

FEDERAL LAW ENFORCER FAVORS RESTRICTING SALES OF DRIED FRUITS.

SHORTAGE OF RAISINS FOR HOUSEHOLD USE

Operators of Illicit Stills Exhaust Supplies Carried by Dealers—Spoiled Apricots and Peaches Find Way to Secret Still in Cellar—Iowa Not Great Violator.

Waterloo, March 1.—Placing under government supervision all ingredients from which home-brewed liquor can be made, is the suggestion of E. W. Boyd, federal Indian agent of the northern district, who is in Waterloo today.

"Ultimately the United States will be home dry," he said. "Too much cannot be expected at once but we are making headway every day. As long as there are private stills in the cellar, some people will drink. This class is not molested unless they violate some provision of the law, such as transporting liquor from one place to another or selling it to a friend."

After Makers of Own. "The violators that the long arm of the law is after are those who make beer or whisky for their own use, or to sell. They are mostly foreigners—Austrians, Montenegrans and the like. The federal courts are not showing any leniency to these offenders and most of them are sent directly to Fort Leavenworth."

Has Queer Experiences. Mr. Boyd has had many interesting experiences in his line. A carload of canned and crated California peaches and apricots, which were spoiled in the canning were ordered destroyed in St. Paul. It developed later that the lot had been sold to two men for 10 cents per crate. The decayed fruit was traced to a Minneapolis basement where two stills were found in operation.

"I find Iowa particularly clean, as regards intoxicants," said Mr. Boyd. "Iowa was a dry state long before the national law was passed and its people had become accustomed to prohibition. After all it is really a matter of education and I predict that the next generation will think of the open saloon much as we think of slavery."

NO MORE RED CROSS SEALS.

Will be Supplanted by New Emblem For Tuberculosis Association.

Des Moines, March 1.—The Tuberculosis Association wants designs for the new health seal which will replace the old Red Cross Christmas seal in the future, and is offering prizes for the best designs submitted.

This year the American Red Cross has given over the annual seal sale to the National Tuberculosis Association, which will issue a new seal, similar in some respects, perhaps, to the old ones, but emphasizing the health and tuberculosis idea.

The American Red Cross, in a communication to the National Tuberculosis Association, says: "We wish to assure you that the Red Cross would view with cordial approval the issuance of a tuberculosis seal by the National Tuberculosis Association, and the continuation thereby of a most important and valuable procedure in the campaign against the disease which your association is organized to fight. Should the national association organize such a seal in 1920 the Red Cross will be glad to support it."

Bring or Ship Your Auto Radiator to Us

We can make them, rebuild them and repair them. WE ALSO REPAIR FENDERS AND LAMPS

Marshalltown Auto Radiator Repair Co. 18 W. State St. Telephone 806

CAPUDINE It's Liquid Ascorbic Acid GRIPP-ACHES BY DOSE AND IN BOTTLES - V. 30 & 60

Health - Strength - Beauty Thru JENSEN'S TURKISH BATH PARLOR Shower and tub baths. Phone 450 5 N. 3rd Ave. Open day and night.

Cross not only extends its best wishes for the great success of the seal, but would hope to co-operate to that end in every practicable way."

The Iowa association offers a prize of $25 for the best design, $15 for the second best, and $10 for the third. Should the Iowa design win the national competition, an additional $25 will be awarded.

The double barred Red Cross, but not the usual Red Cross should appear in the design. Competitors may draw the design either in colors or in black ink.

The contest is open to both adults and young people, and is distinct from a poster contest which is also in progress.

These health seals may be placed on sale in every community of Iowa next fall, with the object of financing anti-tuberculosis and child welfare work for 1921. The goal for the sales is $250,000.

KIDNAPER IS FOILED.

Unknown Man at Iowa City Attempted to Kidnap Three Children.

Iowa City, March 1.—Charged with attempting to kidnap Eva Rogers, aged 4; George Williams, aged 5; and Minnie Fuhrmeister, aged 4, an unknown man is sought by the police. The fellow, it is alleged, seized the Rogers girl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rogers, in his arms but could not capture Minnie at the same time, the latter escaping his outstretched arms. He carried Eva a little way, it is averred, but her screams attracted her mother, who with Mrs. Fuhrmeister, pursued the man, who fled.

Master George Williams, the son of Barth Williams, was partly carried and partly dragged some distance by the same fellow it is believed, but was frightened off by Charles Lucas, who chased him some blocks.

The alleged kidnaper's purpose is unknown, inasmuch as he seemed to be eager to steal one child as another. The police think he is crazy. One attempt was made on the girls—made in the morning in one end of town, and the other in the south end of the city, more than a mile distant.

Dr. Kime to Enter Politics.

Port Dodge, March 1.—Dr. J. W. Kime will be a candidate for the republican nomination for representative in the state assembly from Webster county, according to an announcement made today. The primaries will be held in June. C. V. Findlay is the present representative from Webster county. Mr. Findlay has not announced whether or not he will be a candidate for reelection.

Dr. Kime has been active in public affairs in the city and state for a number of years. Especially has he taken a leading part in matters pertaining to sanitation and public health. He is a recognized authority on tuberculosis and is now engaged in physical reconstruction of tubercular exsolders for the government.

Tama's Road Program.

Tama, March 1.—The Tama county road program for 1920 consists of the grading and draining of approximately thirty miles of its primary roads, of which there are three and a half miles on the Lincoln Highway east from the Marshall county line and twenty-five and one-fourth miles north from Toledo to Traer and on to the Blackhawk county line. The estimated quantities of excavation, drain and guard rails are as follows: Earth excavation, 181,300 cubic yards; the drain, 25,900 lineal feet; guard rail, 7,800 lineal feet.

Farmer Killed by Wood Saw.

Waterloo, March 1.—William Hunter, a farmer residing five miles north of LaPorte City, was instantly killed when he became entangled in a belt operating a wood saw.

He was whirled about the belt in such a manner that his body was badly mutilated, death being almost instantaneous. One arm was torn from the body, a leg was broken and the chest was crushed.

Mr. Hunter was 40 years of age and is survived by his widow and two children.

Former Professor Dead.

Iowa City, March 1.—Dr. George Wells Eshelman, of Cherokee, died there Friday, according to a message received at the university of Iowa, where he was a faculty member in other days, following his graduation in 1884 from the college of dentistry. Afterwards he practiced at his old home town. His wife, also dead, was Clara Dotterbec, an alumni of S. U. L. Three children survive.

News of Traer.

Special to Times-Republican.—Frank Kladio is home from Kansas City and is getting ready to move his stock and machinery to the farm near Iowa Falls, which he will occupy the coming season. He has employed Frank Vajert, of Slutier to help him this year.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Hanson have changed their minds about leaving Tama county. They will not chance Montana, but will remain here and occupy the house on the Oma Nation place in Buckingham. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Clans, have gone to Montana.

THREE HELD FOR WHEATLAND THEFT

LOOT TAKEN FROM STORE FOUND IN GARAGE AT DAVENPORT.

GARAGE OWNER ONE OF TRIO ARRESTED

Former Rock Island Publisher Also Accused of Complicity—Police Believe They Have Ringleaders of Gang Which Has Been Raiding Eastern Iowa Towns Recently.

Davenport, March 1.—With three men under arrest and detectives combing the city in search of a fourth, local authorities believe they have torn the heart from a band of yeggmen, whose operations as merchandise robbers have extended through a dozen counties in eastern Iowa.

The break came Friday night, when James R. Foss, proprietor of a garage at 115 Elmwood avenue, Harry M. Hamilton and Ed Lathrop, owner of a soft drink parlor, 1717 West Sixth street, were arrested for the robbery of the Robert Lohman store at Wheatland, Thursday night. The Wheatland loot, amounting to $3,000, was found in the garage of Foss.

The story of the activities of the gangsters reads like a Nick Carter yellowbook, according to the police. For the past four months, organized thievery of merchandise has been a scourge in Davenport, and in small towns within a few hours run by automobile of this city.

The gang, which is said to consist of more than a dozen men, is alleged to have "fences" where they may dispose of the stolen goods, in Des Moines, Cedar Rapids, Muscatine, Ottumwa, Clinton and Waterloo. It is also declared by police that unscrupulous dealers within the city and in Rock Island and Moline are implicated in the tangle of crime, which is one of the most complicated that the local police have ever been called upon to straighten.

Foss is Arrested.

The arrest of Foss came after a "tip" had been received by the local police that his garage might be the hiding place for stolen merchandise. A search of the building brought to light more than $3,000 worth of silks, shoes and shirts, taken from the Wheatland store.

Foss denied that he was implicated in the robbery of the Lohman store, but admitted that he knew that the goods were stolen. He said that Hamilton and another man, whose name he did not recall, had driven into his garage early Friday morning and unloaded the booty.

Hamilton, a former Rock Island publisher of a scandal sheet who recently completed a long term in jail for criminal libel, denied any knowledge of the crime, altho his revolver and a blackjack, which was identified as his, had been left in Foss' garage. Lathrop also declared when arrested that he had loaned Hamilton his car the night of the robbery.

Clinton county authorities have already asked that the three be delivered to them as they have jurisdiction, Wheatland being in Clinton county, but local police have held them during the grilling period.

Virtually all loot obtained by the gangsters in their raid on the Wheatland store was recovered. It was held, pending an opportune moment to slip it to one of the many fences, the gang is said to have in half a dozen cities.

EYESORE STILL STANDS.

Pocahontas Citizens Disappointed When Court House Survives. Special to Times-Republican.—Pocahontas, March 1.—Pocahontas citizens were much disappointed when an old building, long considered a disgrace to the town, failed to burn completely down when the roof caught fire recently. The roof burned only partly and the "court house," as it was called, still stands as an eyesore on the main street of the town.

People who saw the fire made no very great efforts to prevent the destruction of the building, but in spite of their negligence, the fire died out of its own accord. Pocahontas is now waiting for another fire which will not be so ungrateful to the city.

News of Traer.

Special to Times-Republican.—Frank Kladio is home from Kansas City and is getting ready to move his stock and machinery to the farm near Iowa Falls, which he will occupy the coming season. He has employed Frank Vajert, of Slutier to help him this year.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Hanson have changed their minds about leaving Tama county. They will not chance Montana, but will remain here and occupy the house on the Oma Nation place in Buckingham. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Clans, have gone to Montana.

Dr. Paul Billingsley and family are here for an indefinite stay with Mr. Billingsley's parents at the Methodist parsonage. They expect to locate in Sioux Falls, S. D., but may have to wait until the next state medical examination. Dr. Billingsley's Illinois diploma is not good in Dakota.

Thurloe Metcalf, who enlisted in the army last week, was rejected by the examiners at Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis.

Mrs. Eliza Winters has just returned from a several days stay at Storm Lake, where she has been caring for her daughter, Miss Vera, who is recovering from an attack of influenza. Miss Vera is teaching in the school at Storm Lake.

Mrs. Theodore Coht has sold the farm which she owned near Fairmont, Minn.

Fred Safely and children expect to come back to Traer as soon as they can dispose of their Sutherland property. They will make their home on the farm with Mr. Safely's mother.

Mrs. Will Kieta was in Iowa City

KILLDUFF BANKER RUNS FROM DEBTS

F. W. Swearingen, Owner of Private Bank, Disappears—Leaves Note Saying Assets May Meet Liabilities—Had Been Speculating in Lands—In Business Sixteen Years.

Newton, March 1.—F. W. Swearingen, proprietor of the Swearingen bank at Killduff, this county, left suddenly Friday night in an automobile for parts unknown. He notified his family he was going away but when asked as to where he would be gone or about how long he would be gone a member of the family replied: "We do not care to discuss that."

Further questioning revealed the fact that the bank was not open for business. Mr. Swearingen left a note to Homer Parish, saying in effect that he did not know whether his assets were sufficient to meet his liabilities. He rather thought the assets were enough to meet his obligations. But, he added, authorities had a habit of locking bankers up who had more liabilities than assets and rather than stand the strain any longer, he was leaving.

There had been much gossip about the bank, which was a private institution, during the past few months. It was said that there had been considerable talk to the effect that there was some question as to the reliability of the institution. It is understood some of the patrons of the bank had withdrawn their account from the bank within the past two or three months because of alleged reports that Mr. Swearingen was speculating to the extent that some people questioned whether he would be able to realize on his investments. It is said he had settlement to make on 400 acres of land March 1 and whether he was in a position to make settlement satisfactorily is not known, but if he was not it is thought this might have had something to do with his leaving.

Mr. Swearingen had been engaged in the banking business for sixteen years at Killduff, conducting a private bank there. The bank being closed Saturday and no account having been made of the books it was not possible to obtain any information as to the standing of the business of the bank.

TAMA RESIDENT STRICKEN.

Arthur H. Usher Dies Suddenly of Cerebral Hemorrhage.

Tama, March 1.—Death came very suddenly Saturday evening to Arthur H. Usher, a prominent citizen of Tama. Mr. Usher was apparently in his usual robust health until noon on Saturday, when he complained of pain in his head, which rapidly grew worse. In mid-afternoon a physician was called but nothing could be done to relieve the patient, who was suffering from cerebral hemorrhage.

Mr. Usher was for many years express messenger on the C. & N. W. between Tama and Sioux City, but resigned about two years ago to give all of his time to the insurance business. He was every body's friend and was the moving spirit in the Tama Baptist church and the Masonic lodge. His wife and adopted daughter survive.

Cattle Thieves Sentenced.

Special to Times-Republican.

Belle Plaine, March 1.—Harley Greenlee and James G. Vaughn, of this city, who stole cattle from Johnson & Co. on Nov. 19, 1919, pled guilty to the charge of grand larceny and Judge Willett sentenced each one of them to a term of five years in the state penitentiary at Anamosa.

ANTHONY HAS SOCIETY

"Monda Rose" Ground in Her Working Society in Chicago was short when police learning really a cozier in a really arrested her on a charge of a shortage in the of But "Monda" says that for them to confide in latest gossip and scandal arrested in Wisconsin. C real name is Rose debt is now being tried in ment charge and implic her of the firm. The first system of she paired in 1858.

There had been much gossip about the bank, which was a private institution, during the past few months. It was said that there had been considerable talk to the effect that there was some question as to the reliability of the institution. It is understood some of the patrons of the bank had withdrawn their account from the bank within the past two or three months because of alleged reports that Mr. Swearingen was speculating to the extent that some people questioned whether he would be able to realize on his investments. It is said he had settlement to make on 400 acres of land March 1 and whether he was in a position to make settlement satisfactorily is not known, but if he was not it is thought this might have had something to do with his leaving.

Further questioning revealed the fact that the bank was not open for business. Mr. Swearingen left a note to Homer Parish, saying in effect that he did not know whether his assets were sufficient to meet his liabilities. He rather thought the assets were enough to meet his obligations. But, he added, authorities had a habit of locking bankers up who had more liabilities than assets and rather than stand the strain any longer, he was leaving.

There had been much gossip about the bank, which was a private institution, during the past few months. It was said that there had been considerable talk to the effect that there was some question as to the reliability of the institution. It is understood some of the patrons of the bank had withdrawn their account from the bank within the past two or three months because of alleged reports that Mr. Swearingen was speculating to the extent that some people questioned whether he would be able to realize on his investments. It is said he had settlement to make on 400 acres of land March 1 and whether he was in a position to make settlement satisfactorily is not known, but if he was not it is thought this might have had something to do with his leaving.

Further questioning revealed the fact that the bank was not open for business. Mr. Swearingen left a note to Homer Parish, saying in effect that he did not know whether his assets were sufficient to meet his liabilities. He rather thought the assets were enough to meet his obligations. But, he added, authorities had a habit of locking bankers up who had more liabilities than assets and rather than stand the strain any longer, he was leaving.

There had been much gossip about the bank, which was a private institution, during the past few months. It was said that there had been considerable talk to the effect that there was some question as to the reliability of the institution. It is understood some of the patrons of the bank had withdrawn their account from the bank within the past two or three months because of alleged reports that Mr. Swearingen was speculating to the extent that some people questioned whether he would be able to realize on his investments. It is said he had settlement to make on 400 acres of land March 1 and whether he was in a position to make settlement satisfactorily is not known, but if he was not it is thought this might have had something to do with his leaving.

Further questioning revealed the fact that the bank was not open for business. Mr. Swearingen left a note to Homer Parish, saying in effect that he did not know whether his assets were sufficient to meet his liabilities. He rather thought the assets were enough to meet his obligations. But, he added, authorities had a habit of locking bankers up who had more liabilities than assets and rather than stand the strain any longer, he was leaving.

There had been much gossip about the bank, which was a private institution, during the past few months. It was said that there had been considerable talk to the effect that there was some question as to the reliability of the institution. It is understood some of the patrons of the bank had withdrawn their account from the bank within the past two or three months because of alleged reports that Mr. Swearingen was speculating to the extent that some people questioned whether he would be able to realize on his investments. It is said he had settlement to make on 400 acres of land March 1 and whether he was in a position to make settlement satisfactorily is not known, but if he was not it is thought this might have had something to do with his leaving.

Further questioning revealed the fact that the bank was not open for business. Mr. Swearingen left a note to Homer Parish, saying in effect that he did not know whether his assets were sufficient to meet his liabilities. He rather thought the assets were enough to meet his obligations. But, he added, authorities had a habit of locking bankers up who had more liabilities than assets and rather than stand the strain any longer, he was leaving.

There had been much gossip about the bank, which was a private institution, during the past few months. It was said that there had been considerable talk to the effect that there was some question as to the reliability of the institution. It is understood some of the patrons of the bank had withdrawn their account from the bank within the past two or three months because of alleged reports that Mr. Swearingen was speculating to the extent that some people questioned whether he would be able to realize on his investments. It is said he had settlement to make on 400 acres of land March 1 and whether he was in a position to make settlement satisfactorily is not known, but if he was not it is thought this might have had something to do with his leaving.

Further questioning revealed the fact that the bank was not open for business. Mr. Swearingen left a note to Homer Parish, saying in effect that he did not know whether his assets were sufficient to meet his liabilities. He rather thought the assets were enough to meet his obligations. But, he added, authorities had a habit of locking bankers up who had more liabilities than assets and rather than stand the strain any longer, he was leaving.

There had been much gossip about the bank, which was a private institution, during the past few months. It was said that there had been considerable talk to the effect that there was some question as to the reliability of the institution. It is understood some of the patrons of the bank had withdrawn their account from the bank within the past two or three months because of alleged reports that Mr. Swearingen was speculating to the extent that some people questioned whether he would be able to realize on his investments. It is said he had settlement to make on 400 acres of land March 1 and whether he was in a position to make settlement satisfactorily is not known, but if he was not it is thought this might have had something to do with his leaving.

Further questioning revealed the fact that the bank was not open for business. Mr. Swearingen left a note to Homer Parish, saying in effect that he did not know whether his assets were sufficient to meet his liabilities. He rather thought the assets were enough to meet his obligations. But, he added, authorities had a habit of locking bankers up who had more liabilities than assets and rather than stand the strain any longer, he was leaving.

There had been much gossip about the bank, which was a private institution, during the past few months. It was said that there had been considerable talk to the effect that there was some question as to the reliability of the institution. It is understood some of the patrons of the bank had withdrawn their account from the bank within the past two or three months because of alleged reports that Mr. Swearingen was speculating to the extent that some people questioned whether he would be able to realize on his investments. It is said he had settlement to make on 400 acres of land March 1 and whether he was in a position to make settlement satisfactorily is not known, but if he was not it is thought this might have had something to do with his leaving.

Further questioning revealed the fact that the bank was not open for business. Mr. Swearingen left a note to Homer Parish, saying in effect that he did not know whether his assets were sufficient to meet his liabilities. He rather thought the assets were enough to meet his obligations. But, he added, authorities had a habit of locking bankers up who had more liabilities than assets and rather than stand the strain any longer, he was leaving.

There had been much gossip about the bank, which was a private institution, during the past few months. It was said that there had been considerable talk to the effect that there was some question as to the reliability of the institution. It is understood some of the patrons of the bank had withdrawn their account from the bank within the past two or three months because of alleged reports that Mr. Swearingen was speculating to the extent that some people questioned whether he would be able to realize on his investments. It is said he had settlement to make on 400 acres of land March 1 and whether he was in a position to make settlement satisfactorily is not known, but if he was not it is thought this might have had something to do with his leaving.

Further questioning revealed the fact that the bank was not open for business. Mr. Swearingen left a note to Homer Parish, saying in effect that he did not know whether his assets were sufficient to meet his liabilities. He rather thought the assets were enough to meet his obligations. But, he added, authorities had a habit of locking bankers up who had more liabilities than assets and rather than stand the strain any longer, he was leaving.

There had been much gossip about the bank, which was a private institution, during the past few months. It was said that there had been considerable talk to the effect that there was some question as to the reliability of the institution. It is understood some of the patrons of the bank had withdrawn their account from the bank within the past two or three months because of alleged reports that Mr. Swearingen was speculating to the extent that some people questioned whether he would be able to realize on his investments. It is said he had settlement to make on 400 acres of land March 1 and whether he was in a position to make settlement satisfactorily is not known, but if he was not it is thought this might have had something to do with his leaving.

Further questioning revealed the fact that the bank was not open for business. Mr. Swearingen left a note to Homer Parish, saying in effect that he did not know whether his assets were sufficient to meet his liabilities. He rather thought the assets were enough to meet his obligations. But, he added, authorities had a habit of locking bankers up who had more liabilities than assets and rather than stand the strain any longer, he was leaving.

Croup and Cold Trouble Are Best Treated Externally

COLDS are simply inflammation or congestion of the mucous membrane, or lining of the respiratory organs—air passages and lungs. They should be treated just as surface inflammations, such as burns or bruises, are treated—that is, the medication should be applied directly to the inflamed parts. But medication cannot be applied directly to the air passages and lungs except in the form of vapors that can be inhaled, and until the discovery of Vicks' VapoRub, there was no efficient, economical method of supplying these vapors.

VICK'S VapoRub is the discovery of a North Carolina druggist, L. Richardson, who found a way to combine the standard, time-tested remedies—Menthol, Camphor, Turpentine, Eucalyptus, Thyme, Juniper, etc.—in salve form, so that Vicks is applied to the body, these ingredients vaporized by the body heat. These vapors, haled with each breath all night long, carry medication direct to the affected parts. At same time, Vicks is absorbed through and stimulates the skin, aiding the vapors inhaled to relieve congestion.

Spasmodic Croup and Children's Colds

Vicks is particularly recommended to mothers with small children. It is externally applied and, therefore, can be used often and freely with perfect safety. Let the children run out-doors, even in Winter, and get their needed fresh air and exercise, and simply apply a little Vicks over the throat and chest at the first sign of a cold, covering with a hot flannel cloth. For spasmodic croup, rub Vicks freely over the throat and chest until the difficult breathing is relieved. One application is commonly sufficient, and an application at bed time usually prevents a night attack.

Deep Chest Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Croup

For inflammation of the respiratory organs where there is tightness or soreness, Vicks should be rubbed well over the throat and chest until the skin is red; then apply thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths. The clothing should be arranged in the form of a funnel, so that the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. In severe cases, hot, wet cloths should first be applied over the throat and chest to open the pores of the skin, before applying Vicks. If the cough is annoying, small portions of Vicks, size of a pea, can be swallowed every few hours.

Head Colds, Asthma, Catarrh, Hay Fever

For these troubles, Vicks can be melted in a spoon and the vapors inhaled, or a little applied up the nostrils and snuffed back into the air passages. There is no "cure" for Asthma and Hay Fever—Vicks gives temporary relief in some cases.

Used as a Liniment, Salve, Poultice or Plaster

In addition to its vaporizing qualities, Vicks has been found to be an excellent anti-inflammatory application. It makes a cooling, soothing dressing for such troubles as Bites, Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Frost Bites, Headaches, Itchings, Poison Oak, Soreness, Sprains, Sunburn, etc.

Insist on the Genuine At All Druggists 30c-60c-$1.20 VICKS VAPORUBS Your Bodyguard Against Colds

Advertisement for Post Toasties cereal featuring a child named Bobby and the text: 'Dad speaks one word for me and two for himself when he tells Mother to order more Post (NEW) Toasties Superior Corn Flakes'.