The and music department of the Woman's Club held a most enjoyable meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. H. E. Mathews, 709 West Main street. Miss Marjorie Bush and Miss Marjorie Newcomer played three very pleasing Indian dance piano duets. Mrs. E. J. Melander sang a series of songs. The first Arza's "The Lass With the White Air" was sung with a hit. A native charm and Massenet's "The Elegy" showed particular tonal beauty and the final number, a graceful French tune, was well liked. Ralph Pyke played by request Schubert's romance in D sharp and a Beethoven minuet. Both numbers were well given. Following the musical program Miss Mary G. Leland gave an instructive talk on the interior decoration of one's home. She illustrated her ideas with charts, diagrams and hangings. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Frank G. Stewart, chairman, and Mrs. Roy McKinnon, representative of the department. Mrs. Elias Anderson was chairman of the program.

Asher was presented with many pretty gifts.

The regular meeting of St. Elizabeth's Society was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Plunkett, 302 South Center street. The members met for an all-day session in preparation for the Christmas bazaar, thirty-six being present. The annual business meeting was held in the afternoon when officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Mary Plunkett; first vice president, Mrs. Bartle Richard; second vice president, Mrs. M. Clark; secretary, Mrs. John Fitzpatrick; treasurer, Mrs. Edward White. Dinner was served at noon by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. J. B. Crosby, Mrs. William Quigley and Miss Julia Plunkett.

The Ladies' Guild of St. Paul's church was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Robert E. Johnson and Mrs. Emma Johnson at the home of the former, 607 West State street. Plans were made for the Christmas bazaar which will be held Dec. 4. After the business meeting refreshments were served.

The First United Evangelical church Ladies' Aid Society held its annual business meeting at an all-day session Thursday at the church. The following officers were elected: Mrs. C. H. Hankins, president; Mrs. B. Cook, vice president; Mrs. G. R. Kessler, secretary; and Mrs. C. H. Hendrickson, treasurer. Following the business meeting a miscellaneous shower was given Mrs. J. E. Jackson, a former president of the club, who soon is to leave for Pueblo, Colo., where she will make her home. Dinner was served by Mrs. Frank Binghamman, Mrs. Frank Hollcroft, Mrs. John Binghamman and Mrs. Abel Hankins.

The Congregational Ladies' Aid Society enjoyed an all-day session at the church Thursday. There was a good attendance. Lunch was served at noon. Plans were made for the bazaar and chicken pie supper to be held Dec. 8.

The initial meeting of the K-Rook Club met with Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Penner, 303 South Second street, Thursday night. After rook was enjoyed refreshments were served and a business meeting was held. The club will meet each Tuesday night. The next meeting will be held with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beach.

The study class of the Twentieth Century Club will meet at 2:30 Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. L. Meekley, 8 South Fifth avenue.

The Glee School Mothers' Club will hold its annual meeting, that the husbands attend, at the school at 7:30 tonight. An interesting program will be given.

Mrs. A. R. Lynn was hostess at a delightful 1 o'clock luncheon at her home, 614 West State street, Thursday, as a courtesy to Mrs. George Spaulding, of Grinnell, and Mrs. Howard M. McCoy, of Des Moines. Yellow and white chrysanthemums prettily decorated the rooms. After the luncheon bridge was enjoyed and prizes were won by Mrs. D. G. Bechtel and Mrs. H. W. Householder. Thirty shared the courtesy.

The loyal Woman's Bible Class of Central Church of Christ held its regular business and social meeting at the church Thursday afternoon. Plans were completed to send a box of clothing and sweets to the orphan's home in St. Louis at Christmas. After the business meeting Mrs. H. L. Dobson played a piano solo and Miss Marie Graham gave a reading. A silver spoon was presented to Mrs. C. J. Kiefer who expects to leave within a few days for Paris, Mo., where she will make her home. Refreshments were served by the committee of which Mrs. Louis Stehn was chairman.

been selected, but the investigation of the cause of death was halted until the chemist, who was making an analysis of the contents of the stomachs of the dead couple, had had time to complete his work and report. This may take several days.

The information from Webster Groves was that the case may not have been one of double suicide but that death may have been accidental and caused by gas fumes.

Why He Gave In.
Two little boys were quarreling as to who would have the best Thanksgiving dinner.

"We're going to have turkey," said one little fellow.

"That's nothin', we're goin' to have pumpkin pie made from Jack Sprat canned pumpkin," "cause I heard mother order it from the grocer." For sale by all grocers.—Advertisement.

Quick Lemon Pie

Real Lemon at its best

Now comes Jiffy-Pie—real lemon pie, made by the makers of Jiffy-Jell.

It comes in a package, almost ready-made. The sugar is there, the egg yolk, powdered milk, corn starch and tapioca. The real lemon essence is there—derived from lemon peel. It comes sealed in glass so it cannot deteriorate.

Add water, cook a little, and the filler is ready. You have the utmost in a lemon pie.

Perhaps you also make good lemon pie. But think of the time and the trouble. Think how rarely you serve it—the finest pie that's made.

Jiffy-Pie saves most of that trouble. It makes lemon pie convenient, quick and economical. You will serve it twenty times as often when you let us make it for you.

It is made by the same people as make Jiffy-Jell desserts. You know those fruity dainties, with the real-fruit sealed in glass. The same high ideals are back of Jiffy-Pie.

We will pay your grocer for the first pie if you are a Jiffy-Jell user. Present the coupon to him—get the package. See how easily and quickly you can make the pie.

Compare it with your own pies. Ask how your people like it. Then remember that Jiffy-Pie is ever at your call. It costs only a few cents to serve it. It is little work to make it.

You'll be glad to know of Jiffy-Pie. Cut out the coupon now.

MAY NOT BE SUICIDE

Coroner's Investigation of Mysterious Death of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Jarrett at Webster Groves, Mo., Halted, Awaiting Report of Chemist—Death Perhaps Accidental.

There have been no new developments in the mystery surrounding the death of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Jarrett, the former the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Jarrett, who were found dead in their bed at their home in Webster Groves, Mo., Wednesday afternoon. The latest news dispatch from Webster Groves to the T-R. today was that a coroner's jury had

VOLUME MEANS LOWER PRICES

We base our prices on the principle that large volume and smaller profit is a better business proposition all the way round.

We'd rather make half the profit if it meant we could sell twice as many suits.

Lower prices are not the main object of our business. Quality is and always will be. But price is an important part and your dollar will bring back full measure here.

Drop in and look over our winter line. Prices from $50 up for a genuine merchant-tailored suit.

Clever New Suits

of Winter Weight and Warmth

Qualms vanish at the sight and "feel" of these new Suits. Concealed in the excellent fabrics is warmth enough for the most blustery of winters and best of all it is achieved without giving a bulky look.

PRICES NOW—

- $15.00 Suit—was $30.00
- $20.00 Suit—was $40.00
- $25.00 Suit—was $50.00
- $30.00 Suit—was $60.00
- $37.50 Suit—was $70.00
- $50.00 Suits—was $100-$120

These radical reductions are made to insure quick clearance of all suits.
