

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES

West Fremont.

Jake Hartman of West Bend, Ia., arrived here Saturday for a few days visit at the John Gilbert home.

Ben Schmoker arrived from Luther, Wyo., last week for a visit with his parents here.

Mrs. Ed Koehler is enjoying a visit from her sister of North Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sadler of Wright county were over Sunday visitors at the Nick Nellis home.

Miss Nellie Springstrok and Mr. Jimmie Jones were married in Fort Dodge Monday afternoon, Oct. 9th. The bride and groom are both well and favorably known in this vicinity and best wishes for a long and happy married life is the wish of their many friends.

Oct. 10.

Pleasant View.

The Butler girls recently visited with Miss Fern and Opal Berogan. Miss Cunningham visited over Saturday and Sunday with her parents in Webster City.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Harrington and little daughter and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cheyne and little son visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Cheyne Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brown and their two little daughters visited with Mr. and Mrs. Sands Sunday.

Antone Biesner and Walter Buettner visited with John Berogan Sunday.

Oct. 9.

Wilke.

August Johnson of Winona, Illinois, and Ed Johnson of Zearing spent a part of last week with their son and brother, Chas. Johnson.

John Morgan and family moved to their new home at Eagle Grove last week.

T. E. Blodgett was a caller at Eldora last Monday.

B. W. Oswood and family spent Sunday at the Kit Brandrup home.

Will and Cecll Oswood spent a part of last week with relatives at Lehigh.

If all reports are true, wedding bells will soon ring for two of our popular young people.

Chas. Roswall and son, Ernest, were visiting at St. Paul a part of last week.

Wm. Hayden of Eldora was a business caller here one day last week.

Oct. 9.

Kamrar.

Alexander Groves shipped several loads of stock to Chicago Sunday morning.

The aid society will meet with Mrs. Arthur Blue Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. H. Neel entertained relatives from Webster City over Sunday.

Mrs. Paul Wille of Buckeye visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Henderson, a few days of last week.

Mrs. Clabaugh entertained the home missionary society last Friday afternoon at her home.

Geo. S. Neel of Webster City was a business visitor in town Friday.

P. F. Wessels, who went to Oklahoma some time ago to make his future home, is moving back to Hamilton county.

Oct. 10.

Oct. 10.

East Independence.

Miles McPhillips, who has been visiting relatives near Denver, Colorado, returned home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chalfant left for their future home in California on Wednesday, after a visit with relatives in this vicinity.

Lewis Mills, A. D. Bailey, Dr. Lundell and Mr. Crowder of Webster City and Sherman Lake of this neighborhood spent a few days the past week shooting ducks at Wall Lake.

Mrs. Chalfant of Sac City visited last week with her niece, Mrs. Sherman Lake.

H. R. Busing is doing some tilling on his farm at present.

The Social Circle club meets on Wednesday with Miss Anna Dillon.

Oct. 9.

Pleasant Hill.

A party of young people were very pleasantly entertained at the McConnell home last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Maude's fifteenth birthday. A fine time is reported.

Miss Lola Anderson, who is employed at present in Des Moines, was an over Sunday visitor with the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Brock and baby spent Sunday at the A. F. Adams home at Mt. Zion.

Every one should attend the box supper Friday evening at the school house.

The Ladies Social Circle met with

Mrs. Mae Ruppel last Thursday p. m. and will meet one week from Thursday with Mrs. Dora Schwiibert.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rutledge and little daughter of Kamrar were recent visitors at the Anderson home here.

Mesdames Roy and Jesse Adams spent the day last Wednesday with Mrs. Rose Adams at Mt. Zion.

Oct. 9.

Cass Center.

The L. A. S. will meet next Wednesday at the E. L. Underwood home. A large attendance is desired.

W. B. Fielder entertained the minister and his two little girls Sunday.

There will be a fried chicken supper at the church next Thursday evening. Everybody is invited to come.

Beryl and Ethel Dunbar spent Sunday with Zella Humble.

Cella Johnson left for Ohio Thursday for an extended visit.

C. A. Smith and family spent Sunday at the J. M. Doolittle home.

The stork left a boy of standard weight at the Fred Bailey home last Saturday. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Oct. 9.

Scott.

Miss Carol Thompson was a Webster City visitor Wednesday.

C. R. Pederson has returned to Tama, after a weeks visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Pederson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hagen visited at the L. B. Beroen home over Sunday.

Theo. Wicks was a Story City visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Olson entertained at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Cernel Knutson, Mr. and Mrs. John Langland, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Burrets, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Burrets, Lewis and Agnes Pederson.

Miss Emma Hagen of Radcliffe visited at the John Hagen home over Sunday.

A. M. Christenson was a business visitor at Webster City Saturday.

Miss Minnie Rushia of Jewell visited at the O. T. Welland home last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lettow visited at the T. K. Thompson home Sunday.

Oct. 9.

Mulberry Center.

Miss Ruth and Master Robert Berlen visited their aunt near H'ghview the latter part of last week.

Mrs. C. C. Stone entertained her mother, Mrs. A. J. Kahl, and aunt, Mrs. Richardson of Webster City, last Thursday.

Mrs. Levi Diller of Ida Grove is visiting her brother, G. H. Rees and family, while enroute to her old home in Illinois. Mr. Rees expects to accompany her on to Illinois.

Miss Emma Crovisier has returned to her home in Webster City after spending the week with her sister, Mrs. W. W. Douglas.

Pringle Bros. have purchased a new corn husker and elevator, preparatory to harvesting their large corn crop.

L. L. Berogan has commenced the erection of a new double corn crib on his farm.

H. E. Schroeder has completed a double crib on his farm occupied by L. E. Miller, and also expects to build one on his farm occupied by S. F. Nicholson. It looks like they were expecting some corn.

E. E. Ashpole was a business visitor to the county seat Saturday.

A. J. Kahl of Webster City has been a frequent caller in this neighborhood the past few weeks, overseeing the tilling which he is having done on his farm.

Oct. 9.

Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Carey and little son Verne were Webster City visitors one day last week.

Mrs. Nels Brandrup entertained the Grand View Missionary Society Thursday of last week.

Miss Carrie Peterson, who is teaching school near Stanhope, visited over Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Peterson.

Dick Waterman was a county seat visitor Saturday.

Miss Bertha Cordes of Kamrar visited Sunday at the home of her uncle, Anton Cordes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ryland of Kamrar visited Sunday at the Peter Miller home.

Miss June Taylor visited over Sunday with her parents in Webster City.

Mrs. O. H. Hendrickson and little daughter of Kamrar visited Sunday at the M. H. Hendrickson home.

The little Misses Hannah and Harkma Cordes visited Sunday with Miss Mary Cordes of Kamrar.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cordes and children of Kamrar visited Sunday at the Herman Onken home.

Miss Hattie Studley has gone to Put Us To The Test

If there are advantages to be gained by trading here, why don't you find out about it?

If a store told me, through its advertisements, that it could save me money on the things I had to buy—that its store service was par excellent—that its stock of goods was exceptionally complete—that its business was conducted according to the strictest principles of integrity in all its dealings—I'd put that store to the test, and if they did as they claimed to do, I'd be their customer always.

What we want you to do with us is to try us out—put us to the test. This store offers so many advantages for satisfactory trading that you will be a steadfast customer of ours, once you get acquainted with our goods and our methods. Why not try us the next time you need something in our line. We sell dependable qualities at moderate prices.

THE NEW SUIT YOU WILL LIKE IS NOW HERE.

So many different colors, shades, patterns and designs of fabric, and such a variety of different models are exhibited in our present showing of stylish new suits that almost every taste can be precisely gratified. We are showing some exceptional values at $15, $20 and $25, and extensive assortments at these three prices. We will show you the best values on the market at $10 to $35. To fully appreciate their excellence you must see and try them on.

Come--Look or Buy

You'll be welcome at any time, and you'll never see a finer line of attractive merchandise than we can show you now.

We Positively Guarantee

every article we sell to be the best quality procurable at the price, and you know we always replace any article purchased here that fails to give satisfactory service. Our customers are always sure of getting

THE BEST VALUES FOR THE LEAST MONEY

DRESS YOUR GIRLS AS GOOD AS YOURSELF.

If you desire to bring your girl up in full realization of the fact that outward appearance is a badge of inward refinement you want to buy her one of our excellent girls' coats. They are made and tailored in the same careful manner that characterizes our ladies garments, assuring a permanence of style and neatness until the garments are completely worn out. We realize, too, that girls want garments of attractive and correct styles, so we provide styles that will gratify their fondest hopes.

If You Don't Trade Here, We Both Lose Money.

METCALF & SON, THE STORE THAT IS DOING THINGS.

Stanhope as a delegate to the Hamilton County Sunday School convention.

Otto Christenson returned home Thursday from Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Onken were Webster City visitors Saturday.

Oct. 9.

Jewell.

Mrs. John Warburton came up from Ames last evening to spend Sunday with friends.

The big dredge boat will soon have completed the big ditch from Mud Lake and then they will dig a large reservoir for the North Western railroad just north of the arch bridge to aid them in their water service.

Miss Mildred O'Connor, who is attending college at Grinnell, came home to spend Sunday.

Ed Crosley shipped a carload of live poultry to Chicago Sunday.

Andrew Jorgeson, who has been conducting a meat market at Lindon this summer, has sold out and returned to Jewell.

Aga, the tailor, who has been out to Colorado for his health, returned last Thursday much improved and says he will go again soon.

Ben Severson came up from Randall to spend Sunday with his parents.

Ben Rifen, who has been working for Andrew Jorgeson at Lindon this summer returned home this morning.

Morek & Monsager, who had their creamery burned up a week ago last Friday, had their insurance adjusted satisfactorily just a week from time of fire. They carried $3,600. They have not decided whether they will rebuild or not.

Dan Olson of Story City visited over Sunday with his brother Olaf, returning this morning.

Miss Francis Fish and Miss Adel Foyal spent Sunday at the McCauley home in Aiden.

The Jewell creamery is taking in cream at Smith & Willis poultry house since the fire.

Oct. 8.

Personal Briefs

—Mr. and Mrs. Levi Cottingham left today for Reedsburg, Wisconsin, their old home, where they will attend the re-union of Mr. Cottingham's old regiment, the Third Wisconsin cavalry, he being a member of Company F. Mr. and Mrs. Cottingham removed to Reedsburg in 1851 and came to Hamilton county in 1867, where they have resided ever since.

—"Verd" Miller of Minneapolis, an early day druggist in this city, was greeting old friends here yesterday.

—N. P. Nelson of Fort Dodge was calling upon his trade in the meat line in this city yesterday.

—Attorney F. F. Cook, of Galesburg, Ill., returned home today, following a brief business stay here and a visit with Wesley Martin, the two gentlemen being old-time friends. Mr. Cook, like most strangers who visit Webster City, was most favorably impressed with the looks of the place and paid a high compliment to the general thriftiness and progressiveness of the town. He says it is the finest place of its size he has seen anywhere.

—Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Wilson went to Stanhope yesterday, where Mr. Wilson appears on the program of the Hamilton County Sunday School convention in session there.

—Mrs. N. P. Nelson of Fort Dodge visited here yesterday at the Henry H. Mickelson home.

—J. W. Letts, who travels in the western states, is spending a few days in the city with his wife.

—Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Warrington of Pocahontas arrived here yesterday to attend the Barnett-Warrington wedding.

—Mrs. J. R. Kamrar and Mrs. Harvey Pettibone visited with friends in Des Moines yesterday and today.

—Luther Grandby of Ellsworth arrived here today to accept a position on a farm near town.

—J. C. McNeel of Blairburg is in the city today.

—Martin Severson and bride of Ellsworth are Webster City visitors today. They have just arrived home from their wedding trip.

—C. J. Thoreson and E. E. Anderson of Ellsworth are county capital visitors today.

—J. J. Bingham, who has been visiting here with his son Jude and family, left today for Des Moines, where he will remain for some time.

—Mrs. Kate Near went to Fort Dodge today for a short visit with a sister and other relatives.

—Dr. Smith of Woolstock is a professional caller here today.

—Mrs. A. L. Sharp of Carlisle is visiting in the city at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. H. Barr and husband.

—Miss Gladys Skevington of Williams is a visitor here today.

—Mrs. J. H. Pyle of Waterloo and sister, Miss Mary Gleason of Blairburg, visited here yesterday with relatives.

—Mrs. J. H. Hoag arrived home yesterday from Rolfe, where she has been visiting relatives.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Womeldorf are spending the day in Fort Dodge.

—Mr. and Mrs. Holleran, who have been visiting in the city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hubacher, left today for their home in Binghampton, New York.

(From Monday's Daily).

—F. A. Sackett of Des Moines was shaking hands with Webster City friends Saturday, while on his way home from a trip to the west.

—H. W. Stafford was greeting friends here Saturday, being on his way home to Ames from a visit in Blairburg.

—Arthur Swanson, who is attending college at Ames, was home to spend Sunday.

—Mrs. J. W. Hittle was a visitor in Fort Dodge Saturday.

—Mrs. G. T. McCauliff visited friends in Fort Dodge Saturday.

—Dr. and Mrs. T. F. Desmond spent Sunday with friends in Sioux City.

—Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Herrald spent Sunday with friends in Fonda.

—Bernard Newnan, Tony Schlader and Don Haeger of Eagle Grove spent Sunday here with friends.

—Mrs. Carl Stewart left today for a visit with her people in Centerville.

—Glen Smith of Woolstock visited here yesterday with friends while on his way to Ames.

—Miss Hazel Odor went to Des Moines today for a visit with a sister.

—Miss Eva Cassidy of Ames, who has been employed here by the Martin Telephone company, has finished her work and returned home.

—Mrs. W. H. Rick and Mrs. B. F. Vorhes of Williams visited friends here Saturday.

—Chester Warrington of Twin Falls, Idaho, arrived in the city yesterday for a brief visit among old time friends.

—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Omstead and baby of Woolstock spent Sunday here at the J. N. Omstead home.

—Mrs. Guy McCurry and little son of Eagle Grove spent Sunday here at the Joseph Martin home.

—Mrs. L. E. Stuart returned home today from a visit with relatives in Marshalltown.

—Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Sayers and little daughter arrived home today from an over Sunday visit with relatives in Radcliffe.

—Mrs. Jeffers and little daughter returned to their home in Sac City today, after an over Sunday visit here with the former's parents.

—Miss Kate Yungclas, Miss Metcalf Robinson and J. L. Peterson left today for Stanhope, where they will attend the Hamilton County Sunday School convention which is in session there today and tomorrow. Earl B. Wilson of the local Christian church will appear on the program tomorrow forenoon, giving a paper on "Adult Bible Classes."

—Mr. and Mrs. Perry returned to their home in Cedar Falls today, after a few days visit here at the Gil Perry home.

—Adolph Pfiliger, who is employed in Iowa Falls, spent Sunday here with relatives and friends.

—Mrs. O. F. Farr of Kamrar is in town today. Mr. and Mrs. Farr recently returned from a visit with their sons, Ed and B. H., in Reading, Pa. Ed, who tuned pianos in this vicinity for some time, will remain in Reading with his brother until next spring.

—J. D. McGuire, recently of Canada, who has been visiting his son and family here during the past few weeks, leaves in the morning for the soldiers' home in Marshalltown.

—L. E. Bladine, of the Cedar Falls Record, is shaking hands with Webster City friends today, he being in the city on a brief business stay.

A great deal of time is wasted by those who are fond of planning and dreaming, but who neglect the thing in hand. However obscure the present place, or however simple the present duty, our obligation is to put our whole strength into that which fills here and now. Today is ever a stepping-stone to tomorrow.—Selected.

For sale, a few choice town lots at a bargain. Kamrar & Prince. 1046

OFFICIAL CHICAGO MARKET.

	Open	High	Low	Close
WHEAT.
Dec....	98	98 1/2	98	98 1/4
May...	1.02 1/2	1.04 1/2	1.03 1/2	1.04 1/4
CORN.
Dec....	64 1/2	64 1/2	64 1/2	64 1/2
May...	65 1/2	65 1/2	65 1/2	65 1/2
OATS.
Dec....	47 1/2	47 1/2	47 1/2	47 1/2
May...	50 1/2	50 1/2	50	50 1/2

Hogs estimated 20,000. Open 10 lower; close 10 and 15 lower. Top $6.75.

Hogs estimated for tomorrow 26,000.

Hogs left over yesterday 3500. Cattle 6500. Open steady; close steady.

THE LOCAL MARKETS.

Wheat	82 to 85
Corn	55 to 58
Oats, new and old	41
Hogs	$5.50 to $5.75
Butter	17 to 30
Eggs	16