JURY IN MCFARLAND CASE DISAGREES

Earl McFarland Appears in Justice Tucker's Court on Charge of Dangerous Driving.

The trial of the State of Iowa vs. Earl McFarland, continued from last Thursday, was held in Justice Tucker's court yesterday afternoon at one o'clock.

The plaintiff in the case is Mrs. R. Vandeventer. The charge entered against McFarland is driving on the public highway in a manner to endanger the lives of others. The case was tried before a jury. The jurors remained out last night until about ten o'clock and at the end of that time stood three for conviction and three for acquittal. They were Geo. Wyckoff, John Robinson, P. C. Stone, P. H. Hughes, J. L. Ford and F. E. Silvers.

The case is to be retried in Justice Tucker's court next Friday afternoon.

Arm Broken.

L. C. Gensman, who went to work for A. S. Holt last Monday in the latter's blacksmith shop, met with an accident Thursday in which his arm was fractured. He was shoeing a horse when the animal moved and overbalanced Mr. Gensman, who fell to the floor. The horse then stepped upon his arm, fracturing one of the bones. The injured arm has been placed in a cast, and is doing nicely. However, Mr. Gensman will be incapacitated for some time.

A Line From Boulder.

O. O. Schroeder, who removed from Blairburg to Colorado a little over a year ago on account of Mrs. S's health, in a letter to this paper from Boulder, under date of Nov. 23rd, says:

The weather here is quite good. We have had a little snow but it doesn't stay long. We are quite well. My wife is much better in many ways. We have been in Boulder a little more than a year. Have also seen quite a little of Utah, Oregon and Idaho. Iowa still looks good to me. Yes, her land is a good investment at the present price. But I would never live there if I had lung trouble or asthma. Wishing you the best of success, I am yours truly, O. O. Schroeder.

Bitten by Family Pet.

Mrs. W. Largent, who resides in the west part of the city, has been suffering during the past few days with a badly swollen wrist as the result of being bitten by the family cat. She was playing with the pet a few days ago when the cat seized her wrist between its teeth. As this was done in play nothing was thought of it at the time. However, on Sunday evening the member was somewhat swollen and this continued until it was twice its natural size. As the bite from the cat made nothing more than a scratch upon Mrs. Largent's wrist, it was not imagined that this was the cause of the swelling. However, a physician was sent for who examined the wrist and said the swelling was the result of poison from being bitten by the cat. Besides being badly swollen the injury gave Mrs. Largent much pain. The injury is rapidly improving at present and it is expected that the arm will be well within a few days.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE LOCAL G. A. R. POST

Opposed to Appropriating Money From National Treasury For Confederate Monument.

Winfield Scott Post No. 66, Department of Iowa, G. A. R.

At a regular meeting on the 25th day of November, 1911, the following proceedings were had and entered of record, to-wit:

EXTRACT.

It appears from the Congressional proceedings of the late extra session of congress, that Senator Williams of Mississippi introduced a bill to appropriate one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars from the national treasury to erect a monument in one of the national cemeteries to commemorate the heroism of the Confederate forces of the civil war, and it further appears that the bill is now pending, and that our Senator Cummins is giving it his active support.

That Senator Williams should be ambitious to perpetuate what seems to us an undesirable fame is a matter of regret, but that Senator Cummins should lend his support, presents an enigma beyond our ken. From commemorating the heroism of the Confederate troops to praising the cause for which they fought, seems but a step, and that step should be taken by the Yancys, the Rhets, and the descendants of the immortal Calhoun. That the Confederate troops showed great heroism is cheerfully conceded and attested by every battle field, every cemetery, and by the tears in nearly every home from Maine to the gulf.

It has been the desire of the veterans of both armies for the last half century to forget, instead of perpetuate the memory of that ill-starred heroism that attempted to destroy the government. We, too, express our admiration for the bravery, the heroism, and the skill of the Confederate forces. But we most emphatically protest against appropriating money from the national treasury for monuments to perpetuate the lost cause; and we further declare that it is beyond our comprehension that any loyal citizen of our state and nation could be induced to support such a measure.

It was further ordered that a copy of these proceedings be forwarded to Senator Cummins. Also to the local press for publication.

Come on, Charlie.

Hopkinton Leader: C. D. Hellen, formerly of Webster City, later of Des Moines, and at present engaged in the insurance business, says he's got the itch to go back into the newspaper business again. Hellen is a republican of the standpat variety, a forceful writer, and a top-notch in the profession. There is always a live wire running from his sanctum. If he falls to the call and goes back to the Tenth district again with a daily there will be some stirring among the political bones in that section.

EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN IS PROMISING

Meetings are Opened in United Brethren Church—Evangelist Detained.

The evangelistic campaign at the United Brethren church is starting off with much promise. The initial service Sunday evening was attended by a large audience. Rev. J. W. Peterson, the pastor, preached from the subject, "Christ's Mission."

A good attendance also marked the service last evening, at which time Rev. Peterson delivered an interesting sermon on "Faith and its Results." The evangelist, Rev. John McGuinness of Griswold, who is to have charge of the series of meetings, has been detained, but will surely be here by tomorrow evening, and possibly tonight.

Mrs. W. S. Bowen's singing at these meetings is fine. She will render solos each evening. The meetings begin at 7:30 and everybody is invited to be present and join in the services.

Cottage prayer meetings are held every afternoon at 2 o'clock, the meeting today being at the home of N. F. Christenson.

Card of Thanks.

To our many friends and neighbors, who have been so kindly, helpful, and sympathetic prior and subsequent to our recent bereavement, we thus publicly extend our sincere thanks.

Mrs. W. T. Studley and family, Kamrar.
Mrs. C. Lundell and family, city.

Social Affairs

STAG PARTY.

About ten young gentlemen responded last evening to invitations issued by Mr. and Mrs. John Hanrahan to meet their son Emmett at their home, it being his twenty-first birthday anniversary. Most of the time was devoted to cigars and playing cards. When the hands of the clock pointed to eleven-thirty, the guests were invited to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tyler's, where a delicious luncheon was served, after which the guests departed, wishing Emmett many happy returns of the day.

ENTERTAINED FAMILIES.

Ridgley Encampment of Odd Fellows and their families enjoyed a social session Friday evening in their hall. The evening was very pleasantly spent in dancing and cards, and at a late hour an oyster supper was served. All present report a very enjoyable time.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Miss Lottie Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bishop, celebrated her twelfth birthday Friday evening by inviting twenty of her friends to her home. The children had a good time between the hours of seven and nine, the evening being spent in games and a musical program was given. At eight o'clock refreshments were served by Mrs. Bishop. The affair was much enjoyed by all.

ANNIVERSARY SURPRISE.

A number of the relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Brown, residing on the east side of the river, gave them a surprise Sunday, it being the occasion of their forty-sixth wedding anniversary. Baskets laden with viands were taken along and a large number of presents given the host and hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Brown were taken completely by surprise but entered heartily into the spirit of the occasion and a most enjoyable time was had by all present.

HOUSE WARMING.

The new Arch Foster home on First street was the scene of a very happy gathering of ladies and gentlemen Friday evening, when about thirty friends and neighbors planned among themselves a house warming. At seven-thirty the crowd congregated at a stated meeting place and presented themselves at the Foster home unannounced. Although Mr. and Mrs. Foster were completely unaware of the fact that they were to act as host and hostess, last evening, they were soon entertaining their guests in a royal manner. The evening was spent in playing cards and at a late hour a bountiful luncheon was served. Following an enjoyable evening the guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Foster much happiness in their new home.

CITY COUNCIL HOLDS MEETING

Enters Into Contract With Civil Engineer Currie to Outline Paving Grades.

The city council had a session at the city hall last evening. All members were present except Hahne.

The matter of adding eave troughs to Second street buildings was settled. An ordinance was passed on this matter to prevent the falling of rain on the sidewalks from the buildings. Owners of buildings in the business section must equip them with eave troughs. This ordinance was passed owing to the fact that few buildings in the city are equipped with protection of this kind.

The council also entered into a contract with City Engineer Currie to furnish a survey, plat and profile of the section of the city to be paved. The amount to be paid for this work is $374.00. After passing the following resolution in connection with this matter the meeting adjourned:

Resolved; That C. H. Currie, city engineer, is hereby directed to make survey and take levels and make report thereof to the city council for the establishing of the grades at curb lines, distant from the center of the respective streets as follows:

Bank street from Seneca to Prospect street, fifteen feet, and from Prospect to Grove street fourteen feet.

Water street from Prospect to Grove street fourteen feet.

Elm street from Willson avenue to Prospect street fifteen feet and from Prospect street to Grove street fourteen feet.

Walnut street from Willson avenue to Grove street fifteen feet.

Boone street from Willson avenue to Grove street fourteen feet.

Willson avenue from Division street to Boone street fifteen feet.

Des Moines street from Elm street to Boone, fifteen feet.

Broadway street from Second street to Boone, fifteen feet.

Prospect street from Second to Boone street, fifteen feet.

Petition Filed.

Z. Bourne of Ellsworth has filed a petition in the office of the clerk of the district court asking judgment against N. H. Detrick for $288.22 and costs, alleged due on note.

Dr. Desmond Home.

Dr. T. F. Desmond, who was in a hospital at Des Moines since last Friday until yesterday, having his face treated for poison from a fur coat, arrived home last night. The doctor is much better than was reported yesterday and expects to be all right within a few days.

Thanksgiving.

At the Universalist church Sunday morning, the pastor delivered a sermon appropriate to the Thanksgiving season. He said in part: "The true thanksgiving is a pervading spirit; the surest way to magnify God with thanksgivings, is to scatter our thanksgivings among men in a way that will cheer and gladden life according as opportunity is given us in this direction. Some can give one thing to make others thankful, others can give still other things. If every one gives his gift, great or small though it be, to make other lives thankful, the thanksgiving spirit at this Thanksgiving season will pervade the world and bring joy and gladness for everyone."

If one would be thankful at thanksgiving time, one must give something that will cause to ripen in others a thanksgiving spirit, if it is no more than a cup of cooling water to a thirsty life. In this world we must give if we would share those blessings from above, and our giving must be in a cheerful willing spirit. If we have the spirit to give to this end, we have a spirit that abounds in helpfulness toward the weaknesses and needs of others.

It is natural for a man with a loving, thoughtful spirit to want others to enjoy as he enjoys, and to share as he shares in the good things of life. If he has a thankful spirit, he wants to divide with others, the grace that is his from God in greater abundance than becomes his necessity. And when man does for others in a thankful spirit the larger and higher blessings of life come to him. He feels the joy of service. It is good to do good in this world and there is no better time to begin to do good than at Thanksgiving time; and the spirit that causes us to feel kindly toward others at any time, is a spirit we should never lose."

ABOUT MASON CITY'S CONCRETE PAVING

Cost $1.25 per Square Yard—Could be Laid Cheaper in Webster City.

In the year 1909, 6,000 yards of concrete pavement were laid in Mason City, Ia., 25,000 yards in 1910, and much more this year. The officials all express themselves as highly pleased and satisfied with the results. The pavement consists of a foundation course 5 inches in thickness, composed of one part of the best Portland cement to two parts clean sand, and five parts of ½ inch to 1½ inch screened stone, with a wearing surface 2 inches thick composed of one part of cement to two parts of clean, coarse, sharp sand; before the sand was accepted for use, a careful analysis was made and it was found that it was composed almost entirely of finely divided granite and like imperishable materials.

Expansion joints 1 inch wide are made all along the curb and transversely across the pavement every 25 feet; in between the expansion joints or 12½ feet from the transverse expansion joint, a contraction joint ¼ inch wide is left. The expansion joints are filled with asphaltic filler and the contraction joints neatly and carefully finished off with a rounding tool so that no sharp, square edges will be left to chip off.

The cost of the Mason City paving was $1.25 per square yard, which included 7 inches of excavation, the cost of materials being as follows: Crushed rock delivered, $1.35 per cu. yd.; sand delivered, 85c cu. yd.; cement delivered, $1.20 per bbl.; labor, $2.00 to $2.50 per day.—Concrete.

The Hunter Farm Sold.

The J. R. C. Hunter farm of 320 acres, six miles south of town, has just been sold to J. H. Shipp.

Wilmoth-Smith.

The marriage of Edgar R. Smith, son of N. T. Smith, to Miss Lora Belle Wilmoth, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Wilmoth of Des Moines, took place September 17th in Fort Dodge. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home to friends at 1043 West Tenth street, Des Moines, after the first of December.

The groom is favorably known in this city. He is a brother of Miss Merle E. Smith and Mrs. Harry E. Whiteman and his friends will wish him and his bride much joy and happiness.

Some Good News.

The Freeman-Tribune is glad to be able to tell the people of Webster City that the council is not going to pave out in the districts where they cannot force the property to bear the expense, unless property owners sign waivers—agree to pay their proportionate share regardless of legal exemptions. Mayor Sparboe informed the Freeman-Tribune last night that this was the purpose of the council and that they did not intend to pave in the outlying districts unless the property owners out that way wanted it. The committee appointed to investigate and to recommend the streets to be paved had incorporated certain portions of the district with the understanding that if waivers could not be secured they would not eventually be included within the paving district, so the mayor informs us. The Freeman-Tribune is glad of this assurance.

Make Haste Slowly.

The Freeman-Tribune believes the petitions now being circulating for concrete paving should not undertake to specify the ratio of mixture or other details. Hardly enough information has been secured to warrant the adoption of specifications. There is yet time for this. The Freeman-Tribune does not share in the belief that the council is disposed to rush the matter through without giving ample opportunity for discussion. There can be no objection to members of the council having a preference of the material to be used and they certainly have the undisputed right to advocate what they believe is for the best. But they should listen to the people and let the public who pay the bills have something to say as to what kind of material shall be used and the Freeman-Tribune believes the council is disposed to do this. The members of the council are all interested in the improvement and up-building of the city and the Freeman-Tribune is going to give them credit for honesty of purpose, at least until there is more ground for suspicion than at present.
