Social Affairs

FOURTH OF JULY LUNCHEON.

A small company of ladies were entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herbert J. Buell. At one o'clock the guests found places at one large table made pretty with a beautiful bouquet of crimson sweet peas, and small silk flags were draped around each cover, giving it a festive appearance. The red, white and blue color scheme was also carried out in the delicious four-course luncheon served. After luncheon the hours were devoted to playing the social game of auction bridge.

Mrs. R. E. Towle of Boston was an out of town guest.

A PRETTY LUNCHEON.

Mrs. P. W. Lee entertained forty ladies Friday afternoon at her home on Elm street. A delectable luncheon was served in four-courses at one o'clock, the guests being seated at one large and several small tables about the house. A pretty decoration in honor of the national holiday was made of many small flags. These flags were grouped cleverly about the center of the tables and with the further addition of pretty name cards, decorated with flags and national emblems, the tables presented a fine appearance. Sewing and social conversation occupied the afternoon hours. Mrs. Kate Lasher of New York City was an out of town guest.

COMPLIMENTARY LUNCHEON.

Mrs. F. E. Edwards and daughter, Miss Nellie, entertained fifteen ladies Friday afternoon, complimentary to their visiting guest, Mrs. C. A. Guyer of St. Paul, Minnesota, who is spending a week here. Luncheon was served in three courses at one o'clock, the guests being seated around one large table made beautiful with hollyhocks. After luncheon the hours were spent playing auction bridge.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Leo Sterling, Canon City, Colorado, and Miss Bessie Curtis, Chicago.

Letter of Gratitude.

Eds. Freeman-Tribune: I am very glad to announce to the good people of Webster City and community that I have fortunately secured Mr. E. W. Schilling of Mason City as manager of the Webster City Business College for the coming year. Mr. Schilling will move to Webster City next week and will take active charge of the school. He comes from Hamilton's University of Commerce very highly recommended where he has had charge of the commercial and higher accountancy department for the past six years. He is regarded as one of the best commercial educators in the state.

I am deeply grateful for the splendid support of Webster City business men and students. Our ambition is to maintain a model business training school that will arrest the attention and universal confidence of all interested.

The loyal and enthusiastic support of the business men, the kind words and good will of the students, all have assisted to achieve our present success.

It will be our earnest desire to maintain a school that will teach your young men and women those things that will make them self-supporting and independent; to concentrate our best energies in the work of education by thoroughness, efficiency, breadth of training, and high moral worth—by all this to maintain the position we have already won in this city as a reliable, up-to-date, business training institution. Respectfully,

W. B. Barger, President.

During Chautauqua week the L. A. S. of the Congregational church will serve ice tea, lemonade, pop, ice cream and popcorn at the bandstand in court house park. 7d3*
