

Neighborhood Notes.

Flugstad Personals.

A. C. Bennett was a business caller at Webster City Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hahne were visitors at the county seat Friday and Saturday.

W. C. Strouse was an over Sunday visitor at the Mrs. D. Cooter home in Webster City.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Welch and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ray were business callers at Webster City Friday.

F. A. Young was a business visitor at the county seat Saturday.

Low Hildred returned Saturday from Edmondson, Canada, where he has two farms. Mr. Hildred says that the crops are very good in that part of Canada.

Sept. 21.

Scott Township Doings.

Miss Hilda Anker of Radcliffe is visiting at the Mrs. Peder Tow home.

Benjamin Langland of near Roland visited at the home of his parents, Mr and Mrs. J. Langland, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Pederson and Mr. and Mrs. C. Knutson and two children visited at the Chas. Olson home near Garden City Sunday.

Messrs. Oscar Braland and Paul Langland attended "Hubbard Day" at Hubbard Saturday.

Ole Severson of Radcliffe visited at the John Langland home over Sunday.

Ross Brackney of Ellsworth has been busy the past couple days repairing damage done to telephones and wires during the electric storm of Wednesday.

Sept. 21.

Fremont Township News.

Miss Belle Simonson attended the opening of the new Boston store at Fort Dodge Thursday and visited friends.

Olaf Christoferson has purchased a 40 acre farm about five miles north of Duncombe of Mons Jacobson. The land has no improvements except tiling and sold for $155 per acre.

Messrs. Dan Lang and Elmer Anderson of Fort Dodge and Mary Lang and Belle Simonson spent Sunday with the John Simonson Jr. family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson left last Wednesday to visit relatives in Elmore, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy VanWinkle visited Mrs. VanW's parents in Duncombe Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Howter have returned from a visit with relatives in Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore of North Dakota are here looking after the work to be done on their farm. They have rented the Frank Schropfer farm this year.

Albert Johnson and Miss Clara Mickelson spent Thursday in Fort Dodge.

Misses Carrie and Margaret McDonald were shopping in Webster City Thursday.

Friends of Malinda Heffte, about forty in number, gave her a most pleasant surprise last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Allen. Miss Heffte leaves for her home in Chicago this week. She was presented with a beautiful dresser set.

Miss Kate Nellis won the piano given away in the Duncombe Tribune contest.

SOCIAL AFFAIRS.

AFTERNOON RECEPTION.

Mrs. David Beach and Mrs. A. M. Potter have issued invitations to their lady friends for a reception Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 23rd, from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock, to meet Mrs. Paul Potter of Chicago.

LUNCHEON.

Mrs. W. F. Hunter delightfully entertained about thirty-five ladies Saturday afternoon at the first of a series of one o'clock luncheons. Pink and white asters decorated the small tables and pink and white flowers were tastefully arranged about the rooms in vases. Pink rose place cards were used and a four course luncheon served in which the same color scheme was carried out. The afternoon was spent with sewing and visiting, with Mrs. Chandler of Cherryvale, Kansas, and Mrs. Wm. Casey of Joplin, Mo., as the only out of town guests.

SURPRISE SHOWER.

The young people who comprise the Plus Ultra and Friendly Circle of the Loyal Sons of the Christian church and other friends delightfully surprised two of its members,

Miss Etta Norcross and Mr. Carl Nail, at the Norcross home on Division street last Friday night. The occasion was in honor of the coming marriage of these two young people on the 23rd of this month and was given in the nature of a kitchen shower. Games, conversation, etc., passed the time and late in the evening light refreshments were served.

A RECEPTION.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Robie of Blairsburg entertained on the evening of the 19th at a reception in honor of their brother, Mr. Russell Stafford and his bride. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers typical of the season, and delicious refreshments were served. Seventy-five guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Stafford received many handsome and valuable presents, including silver, cut glass, china, linens and rugs.

Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs.

Russell Stafford.

I. B. Stafford.

Reed Haviland.

Frank Burcham and family.

A. E. Mullen and family.

E. A. Schroeder.

John Schroeder and family.

Adolphus Alford and family.

Guy Fowler.

John Fowler.

C. A. Chapman.

A. J. Chapman.

Stuart Smith.

Earl Boozell and family.

Roy Cormaney and family.

Elmer Ballantyne.

Fred Johnson and family.

Everett Haislett.

Peter Brethorst and family.

R. K. Richardson and family.

E. T. Nail.

Ben Read.

Joe Wood and family.

Mrs. A. G. Nail.

Misses

Etta Norcross Odessa Ferrell

Bernice Mullen Harriet Loban

Cleo Chapman.

Messrs.

Carl Nail John Ballantyne

Ray Eerton Ralph Trotter

Abner Stafford.

PERSONAL BRIEFS.

—Mrs. Arthur Treanor and two children went to Iowa Falls yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Treanor expects to spend several weeks there keeping house for her father while her mother, Mrs. Emma Johnson, goes to Rochester, Minnesota, to consult the Drs. Mayo.

—Mrs. E. F. Callery and baby daughter were here from Duncombe yesterday p. m. visiting Mrs. Callery's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ely.

—Robert Campbell of Hollenberg, Kansas, is a guest at the home of his brother-in-law, A. F. Grove.

—Louie Cantonwine just returned from a trip to Stetson, Minn., and other points, to which place he went last week in company with parties inspecting land in that vicinity.

—Col. and Mrs. N. P. Hyatt returned this morning from a ten days trip to Boston, where they went to attend the convention of officers of the National Guard. They report a good time and fine trip.

—Mrs. F. E. Whitley went to Colfax this morning to attend a board meeting of the Women's Federation of Iowa.

—Drs. C. H. and R. B. Chandler and baby returned to their home in Cherryvale, Kansas, today following a visit with the Drs. Mitterling.

—Mrs. W. A. Straight, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. Weise and family, left today for her home in Auburn, Iowa.

—Mrs. Cora Kellum of Winslow, Illinois, who has been visiting her brother, David Miracle and family, left today for Omaha.

—A. B. Terwilligar, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Heller on west Water street, returned today to his home in Dwight, Illinois.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stahl have arrived home from a visit with relatives in Marshalltown.

—Mrs. B. F. Keltz went to Ames yesterday afternoon for a visit with her sisters, who are employed as stenographers at Ames college.

—Mrs. F. H. Alexander and sons, Howard and Leslie, of Kamrar, were Webster City visitors yesterday.

—Mrs. G. M. Blair of Topeka, Kansas, who has been visiting at the Mrs. J. N. McLauray home on Bank street, left yesterday for Des Moines and Grinnell, where she will visit before returning home.

—Mrs. J. Hank and Mrs. L. M. Larson and children returned to their home in Radcliffe yesterday following a visit with their sister, Mrs. Harry Mallow and family.

—Peter and George McAninch arrived here yesterday afternoon from Hawarden and are visiting with their brother, N. McAninch and wife. Mrs. Nancy Currens of Baldwin, Iowa, and Mrs. L. Coontz and Mrs. J. Little of Radcliffe are expected to arrive here today for a visit at the McAninch home also. They are all brothers and sisters, making a family reunion.

—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Rasmussen, who have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rasmussen and Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Tatham, left today for their home in Spencer. Mason Isham accompanied them as far as Fort Dodge, where all will spend the day.

—Mrs. Fred M. King and baby son, Richard, of Des Moines, are visiting at the home of Mrs. King's mother, Mrs. J. N. McLauray. Mr. King also spent Sunday at the McLauray home. Baby Richard is the youngster who carried off first prize for boy babies at the recent state fair.

—Mrs. L. M. Stevens of Williams and Mrs. Albert Brandon of Long Beach, California, are in the city visiting Mrs. C. E. Buell and other friends and to attend the Sunday school convention.

—Mrs. F. Elias Smith left this morning for Garden Grove, the old home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, for a ten days visit.

—President Graham, of the Redpath-Vawter Chautauqua company of Cedar Rapids, was in town today between trains. He has been at Iowa Falls and Eldora on business and ran up here for an hour or two stay. Mr. Graham says they are already booking next season's talent and promises the people of this city a Chautauqua next year which will be the equal if not better than that given this season.

—S. B. Bair left this noon for Glenwood where he will look after his farms near that place.

—Rev. F. B. Gowland went to Humboldt this noon for a day's visit.

—Mrs. G. Thompson and Mrs. L. M. Harris went to Woolstock this noon where they will spend a week visiting the St. Clair, Frakes and other families.

—Mayor E. E. Valentine went to Sioux City this morning for a few days.

—Mrs. C. R. Stedman returned to her home in Fredrickburg, Iowa, this noon after a week's visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ben Moore. She was accompanied as far as Eagle Grove by her daughter, Mrs. B. J. Simmons, who spent the night in this city at the Moore home.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Myers went to Woolstock today to see their son, R. W. Myers, who recently had both legs injured in a ditching accident in Minnesota. One leg was broken and the other badly crushed. Although he was injured about two weeks ago, he was not able to be brought to his home in Woolstock until yesterday. Although still confined to his bed, it is thought he will recover.

—W. C. Campbell of Mulberry Center went to Mankato, Minn., today to look at land.

—Mrs. M. Bolger and daughter Hazel are spending today in Fort Dodge.

—Mrs. W. C. Merryman of Williams is in the city today to attend the county Sunday school convention.

—Mrs. H. L. Haywood and children, the family of Rev. Haywood of the Universalist church, arrived in the city last night from Richmond, Indiana, and will soon be nicely settled in the Mrs. W. N. Green house on First street.

(From Monday's Daily.)

—Mrs. C. Osmundson and two sons went to Williams Saturday for a visit with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Ralph Hurd, and also to see the new baby in the Hurd family.

—Mrs. G. D. Hathway and daughter, Miss Ina, spent Saturday afternoon visiting at the home of C. C. Cooper in Blairsburg.

—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sampson and children, who reside on east First street, spent the week end in Waterloo.

—Miss Katherine Mason, who resides south of the city, went to Des Moines this morning where she will begin a course in music at Drake University.

—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fielder and little daughter left this morning for Excelsior Springs, Mo., where they will remain for some time at the famous sanatorium there.

—Mrs. Emma Bartlett, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ben Preston for over Sunday, returned to her home in Jewell this morning.

—Mrs. Jessie Austin-Boyes left this morning for her work in the Farmer School of Domestic Science at Boston. She will stop in Toledo,

FREE BROOMS

At Metcalf's, Thursday, Friday & Saturday

We have about 3 dozen women's and children's Wash Dresses for street and house wear, also 2 dozen Tailored Wash Skirts. The above garments are values left from our "Great $1.00 Sale". Some of these garments are marked 2 for $1.00: Every one of them are worth several times these prices.

One Big Lot of Remnants of all Kinds of goods, Marked Down to one Half Price.

For every purchase of one dollar's worth of the above goods at the above "Bargain Sale" prices, we will give free a good Bamboo handled house broom, valued at 39c.

The Above Sale Begins Thursday Morning at 8 O'clock and Continues Friday and Saturday.

One special lot of Kid Gloves' slightly mused from trying on, our former $1.25 values. These same gloves at the new advanced prices are worth $1.75. Sale price 98c.

Now is your opportune time to inspect the new fall and winter dress goods, Silks, Laces and Ready-to-wear departments while selections are the best. Something different here.

"Our Basement is Chuck Full of New Goods"

New sheeting prints and quilting prints at 5c yard. Good grade standard percales at 10c yard. 39c and 50c values in Turkey Red Table Damask at 29c yard. Children's school Handkerchief's and extra quality lead pencils, 19c dozen.

No such values in this part of Iowa in Laces and Silk Floral ribbons at 10c yard as can be found at

METCALF'S
DEPARTMENT STORE

fr-41

SWEATERS!

We call special attention to our line of Sweater Coats, for Men, Women, Boys and Children.

We show them in all the weaves and colors at from

$1.50 to $10

Oppenheimer & Bermann

—Mrs. Chas. Pendinning, who has been a guest at the C. C. Hall home, returned to her home in Clarion this morning.

—Mrs. Ben Molander and little son, who have been spending the week end with Mrs. Harry Breed, returned to their home in Humboldt this noon.

—Miss Ida Burns went to Mason City this noon for a short visit with friends.

—Mrs. Jay Sauffacher, who has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Wyckoff Jr., returned to her home in Renwick today.

—Mrs. W. H. Goodman and two daughters, who have been making an extended visit at the Robert Moore home, northeast of this city, went to Havelock today enroute to their home in Washington, Kansas.

—Mrs. M. J. Butler and children expect to go to Des Moines tomorrow to reside, Mr. Butler having been conducting a rooming house in that city for some time.

—Mrs. H. F. Allen of Blairsburg is in town visiting her brother, L. J.

Wilson and family and also attending the Sunday school convention.

—Mrs. Nellie Iams and daughter, Miss Lola, went to Ackley this noon for a short visit with relatives.

—Miss Mabel Lynch, a nurse in Mercy hospital at Waverly, spent Sunday here visiting her mother, Mrs. P. H. Lynch.

—Capt. R. G. Lewis returned this noon from a trip to Des Moines in the interests of the felt shoe factory.

—Miss Nelle Cunningham has gone to Clinton for a couple of weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. Ben Sheridan and family.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Fredrickson and baby, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Earl McCollough, left last night for their home in Roland.

—Mrs. R. T. Harvey of The Willson spent the week end visiting her children, Miss Vivian and Masters John and Edward Harvey, who attend St. Mary's school at Storm Lake.

—Miss Anna Butler went to Lehigh today called by the death of Mrs. E. G. Murphy.

—Miss Anna Butler went to Lehigh today called by the death of Mrs. E. G. Murphy.