

FORWARD PASSES DEFEAT LEGION

Clarion Aerial Attack too Much for Local Defense in Sunday Contest.

CLARION WINS 35 TO 0

Henley, Opposing end, Responsible for all Five Counters.

Relying entirely on a forward pass attack, which seemed to be the only offensive manœuvre in their repertoire and, indeed, was all that was necessary, the Clarion Independents yesterday scored five touchdowns against the local American Legion football team and won 35 to 0. The game was played at Clarion.

Henley, lightning end for Clarion, scored all five of the touchdowns, picking passes out of the air and outdistancing pursuers in sprints for the goal line. His shortest run for a touchdown was thirty yards. On two occasions he ran sixty.

Are Thrown Well.

Jones and Hood, who functioned at the other end of the aerial attack, worked well with Henley, getting their passes into open territory and leading the receiver so that their throws were easily accessible.

The first quarter went fast and looked good for Webster City. The Legionnaires accepted the kick off and punched the line for five straight first downs, Bodwell carrying the ball in spectacular fashion. The big full back was picking his holes well and the forward wall was giving him good holes to pick. On their own 25 yards, Clarion braced and kicked out of danger. It was Webster City's best chance to score.

Score in Second.

Jones got away with some good end runs for Clarion before the Independents found out the results to be obtained from the open attack. The first score came in the second quarter when Jones heaved a wobbly pass across the goal line to Henley for a 30 yard gain. Hood kicked goal.

Clarion repeated the manœuvre immediately after the kick off when Henley caught another Jones pass for a 60 yard gain. That ended the scoring for the half. Clarion got another touchdown in the third quarter and two more in the last.

Ward, Legion quarterback, was badly hurt when he pulled a muscle in his side and may be out of the game for the rest of the season.

Mrs. Mattie Operated On.

Friends in this city have been advised that Mrs. M. J. Mattie was operated on for gaiter by the Drs. Mayo in Rochester, Minn., Saturday. The operation seems to have been successful and Mrs. Mattie is recovering nicely, all of which will be good news to the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Mattie in this city. They have been in Rochester some fifteen months.

Takes Forward Step.

The trustees of the Congregational church of this city have engaged Miss Laurie Buxton as assistant to the pastor for the winter. Miss Buxton is highly qualified and specially trained for her new work. She is a graduate of the local high school. She also took normal work in Valparaiso university and Des Moines university. She is a graduate of the Chicago Training School for Women. The latter is a professional school for training ministers' assistants and religious educators giving a two year course of a scholarly grade equivalent to that required of the graduate students in the Divinity School. The local church is very fortunate in securing Miss Buxton's services.

PLAN READING ROOM AND GYM

Project on Foot to Rent Room in Clagg Building and Basement for Purposes.

LEGION SPONSORS

Reading Room, Legion Headquarters and Gym Planned.

A tentative project was begun today looking toward the establishment of a library reading room, American Legion headquarters and a gymnasium in the Clagg building on Second street. The plan contemplates the use of the west room, formerly occupied by the Spinharney store and the basement under it.

C. H. Currie and R. L. Cox have actively interested themselves in the project and are soliciting funds to be collected when $1,500 has been pledged. The plan is to have the first floor room divided into two rooms. The front room is to be a Kendall Young library reading room. The trustees for some time have been considering the establishment of a downtown reading room, which need this will fill. The rear room on the first floor will be the headquarters and club room of the American Legion and the basement, under the auspices of the legion, is to be fitted with shower baths and athletic paraphernalia.

The basement will fill a need for young boys, as well as men, of the city. It will furnish them a supervised place in which to take healthful exercise and to hold athletic contests.

It is figured that it will take $1,500 to equip the place. The income from the library—a reasonable rental—and the rent paid by the legion, as well as possibly a small sum in dues from those who use the athletic room, will furnish funds to take care of the rent and upkeep of the place.

Webster City needs such a place badly and it will be generally hoped that the plan can be carried out. The merchants and business men who have been interviewed have contributed generously to the project.

Giersdorfs Have Relatives Here.

The Giersdorf Musical company is a unique organization. It is composed of Mr. and Mrs. Giersdorf, their three daughters, two sons and five outsiders. Mr. and Mrs. Giersdorf are consuls of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. DeFrance, of this city, and are guests at their home. They also have other relatives here. Mr. Giersdorf travels ahead of the company and Mrs. Giersdorf and the three daughters and two sons play in the organization. Mr. and Mrs. Giersdorf were formerly engaged in evangelistic and missionary work. They have been out with their musical company, however, for eleven years. The youngest daughter, who is but fifteen years of age, is an excellent dancer and a popular singer. Another of the daughters is a violinist and cornetist and the third plays the trombone and flute.
