Hamilton County Student One of Five Highest in Senior Law Class at Iowa.

WENT TO DES MOINES Received A. B. Degree There in 1917.—Is High Honor.

Harry H. Miller, of Hamilton county, is one of the five senior law students at the State University of Iowa to be elected to membership in the Order of the Coif, according to announcement just made by Acting Dean Herbert F. Goodrich, of the college of law. Mr. Miller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. A. Miller, who live eight miles south of this city. He is a brother of W. A. Miller here.

He received his A. B. degree from Des Moines college in 1917 and is a member of the Phi Delta Phi law fraternity.

Ranks With Phi Beta Kappa.
The Order of the Coif in law schools occupies the same place that Phi Beta Kappa holds in the college of liberal arts, membership is limited to the ten per cent of the graduating class who lead in scholarship. Election to this fraternity is the equivalent to graduation with distinction. The ancient "Order of the Coif" was composed of the inner circle of the bench and bar of England, from which were selected the judges of the courts of common pleas, king's bench and exchequer. At present, as an honorary law fraternity, it has chapters in sixteen American law schools.

To Baby Edith.
A friend sends in the following poem in memory of Baby Edith, two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baily, of Cass township, who died last week Wednesday:
Put away the little dresses
That our darling used to wear;
She will need them on earth—never,
She has climbed the golden stair.

She is with the happy angels,
And we long for her sweet kiss.
Where the little feet are waiting
In the realms of perfect bliss.

Angels whisper that our darling
Is in realms of light so fair
That her little feet are waiting
Close beside the golden stair.

PAUL MCCREA WINS IN POETRY CONTEST

Freeman-Journal man Wins Statewide Humorous Poetry Contest.

Paul McCrea, of the news force of the Freeman-Journal, won first prize in the humorous poetry contest conducted by the Des Moines Register. Announcement of the award was made in Sunday's Register. The judges were Walt Mason, Eddie Guest and Martha Hart. In view of the prominence of the judges, the award is highly prized.

The prize offered was $15 and the contest was open to all the state. Mr. McCrea has considerable ability in a literary line and a number of his poems have been published. The winning poem in the Register's contest is entitled "If." It was published in Sunday's edition, and is as follows:

IF.
If you can watch your step when other girlsies
Have left the straight and narrow
In just a pace,
If in your hair you wear no bangs or curlsies
And put no rouge or powder on your face:
If you can see a friend in some creation
Cut very low above and high below
And still not strive for vulgar imitation
Nor manœuvre your nails for vulgar show—

If you can go to dances dressed but plainly
And dancing, dance, but shimie not a step,
And laughing, laugh not loudly nor profanely,
Be not too gay, nor show unseemly pep:
If you can see men's faults, though microscopic,
And to these men these faults at length explain,
If you can hear men's talk on senseless topics
And still from talking nonsense you refrain—

If you can keep your lips unstained by kissing
While other girls are kissing now and then,
And still not mourn the pleasures you are missing
And always send your callers home at ten:
If being prim has always been your glory,
If boisterousness of any kind you shun—
Although you'll make a hit with sages hoary,
You'll stay at home while others have the fun.

Help the Little Ones.
The Freeman-Journal published an appeal for the orphan home at Council Bluffs a few days ago. This institution carries on its great work by free will offerings of the people of the state and it is now in dire need of help on account of the stringent times which have prevailed lately. If you desire to help the children in this orphanage you can hand your contribution to Mrs. C. E. Buell, of this city, who will send the amount in to the orphanage. No difference how small the offering, it will be thankfully received.

Obituary.
Miss Evelyn Seamands, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Seamands, was born Sept. 25, 1872, in the southern part of Hamilton county, Iowa, and passed away at Iowa City early Monday morning, Feb. 27, 1922. The deceased grew to womanhood near Webster City and enjoyed a very wide circle of acquaintances whom she could call her friends.

On September 24, 1890, she was married to R. C. McCollough, and to this union five children were born; one having passed away in infancy. Mrs. McCollough had been in ailing health for a number of years and had been deprived of a great many of life's social activities, as well as church privileges. About a week prior to her death, she, with her husband, went to Iowa City for medical and surgical treatment, and although it was not possible to give health again to the physical body, yet she received relief from her suffering. She desired to retrieve health, but this not being possible, she expressed herself as ready to go. She believed in God and his goodness toward men, and she also had confessed her faith in Christ as her Savior.

She leaves a husband to mourn her departure who will remember her as a devoted wife. She leaves four children, Ralph, Mrs. Etta Bickford, Arthur, and Mrs. Lola Best, who will remember her as a tender, loving mother; and she leaves a father and mother and six sisters and two brothers who will remember her as an obedient, dutiful daughter, and a loving sister.

May the God of all grace extend His comfort to these bereaved ones, and be their comforter and guide through the coming years.

Jottings About the County.

To Open Garage.
Jewell Record: Archie Templar has bought of Joe Dalbey the garage building and equipment that A. W. Knox owned for several years past, and plans to open the place up for business within a week or two. Archie will not operate the place himself, remaining on his farm, but will have an experienced mechanic and lathe man in charge to do auto repair work, and may possibly also get a blacksmith to do blacksmithing.

Jewell-Ellsworth Team.
Jewell Record: Chas. Blair, "Dad" Miller, and Arch Peterson, of Ellsworth, were a committee that was over here Monday night meeting with the men of the American Legion to talk over the matter of a combination Jewell-Ellsworth baseball team for next summer to play in the proposed baseball league that is being formed. Local enthusiasts seem to be quite enthusiastically favorable to the idea and something along that line may be worked out that will give Jewell and Ellsworth some good baseball the coming season. The two towns together surely should be able to put out a fast team of home material without being put to the expense of paying salaries to players.

Ice Out Early.
Stratford Courier: Heavy rains and unusually warm weather caused the ice to go out of the Boone and Des Moines rivers and in fact the rivers of the state to go on a real rampage flooding low lands and forcing many families to leave their homes in different parts of the state. The ice went out of the rivers here Wednesday of last week and those who witnessed the ice floes when some sandbar or other obstruction at the mouth of Deck Hollow state that it was a real picturesque sight. Water backed up the river for many miles and the few who live on the lower river bottoms northwest of town were forced to be in readiness for a time to move their possessions to higher ground.

Stratford Resident Dies.
Stratford Courier: John Erickson, an old and respected resident of Stratford, was found dead in his bed about 7 o'clock Monday morning, Feb. 27. He had been in poor health for many years and during the past ten years or more has had to have almost constant attendance by some one member of the household. At midnight on the night of his death he was as well as he had been for many years when one of the members of the family, according to their usual custom, went to his room to see how he was getting along, and it was not until the family arose in the morning that it was found that he had passed away sometime between midnight and 7 o'clock. The corner was called but no inquest was deemed necessary. He was in a very amiable condition and it is supposed that this condition coupled with his age caused his demise.

Legion Post at Ellsworth.
Ellsworth News: A meeting of the Legion Post of Ellsworth was held Friday evening at Carl Olson's cream station and proceeded to elect officers. The name of the post is Chris Christianson Post, No. 598, American Legion. Dr. Greenwood was made temporary chairman and the officers elected were: Archie Peterson, commander; Harry Thompson, vice-commander; Martin Peterson, adjutant; Fred Finkenbagen, sergeant at arms; Justice Thompson, secretary-treasurer; Carl O. Olson, chaplain; Simon Sogard, historian; Carl J. Olson, Dr. Wilder and Oscar Olson, executive committee.

This legion has now 15 charter members and sixty members in all which is a good start though rather late. The post is named after the first soldier boy from this community, who died on board a transport on the way to France. He was a son of John Christianson, of Ellsworth.
