

SILVER JUBILEE IS CELEBRATED

Daughters of Isabella Hold Initiation and Banquet in Honor of Day.

MANY VISITORS HERE

Husbands of Members Were Guests at Banquet in Evening.

Rose Marie Circle, No. 199, Daughters of Isabella, held an initiation and banquet yesterday afternoon and evening celebrating the Silver Jubilee of the order. The National Circle of the order was organized May 14, 1897, in New Haven, Connecticut, under the auspices of the Council of Knights of Columbus. Five years later it was incorporated as a national organization and has been steadily growing since that time until the scope of its activities now takes in the whole United States.

An interesting fact concerning the organization is that its membership is made up of women only. They make their own government laws and elect their own officers. The organization was organized under the guidance of Mrs. Anna E. Kay, national advocate, and an efficient and capable attorney in New Haven.

Begin With Church Service.
The Silver Jubilee here yesterday was opened with a High Mass at 10 o'clock in St. Thomas Aquinas church, with the Rev. T. A. Barry as celebrant. The church was beautifully decorated with white lilacs and lilies of the valley.

The regular church choir of twenty members sang "Lady of Loretta" Mass and R. J. Mullins, of Humboldt, sang "Ave Maria" at the offertory. The Rev. Mr. Barry preached an appropriate sermon.

The Initiation.
The afternoon was given over to the initiation of thirty-five candidates. Members of the order met at the K. K. hall at 1 o'clock and the initiation work was put on by the Fonda team, assisted by local members and others. Those from out of town who had part in the initiation ceremonies were:

The Fonda team, composed of Mrs. J. M. McCree, regent; Mrs. Mary Dwyer, vice regent; Miss Winifred Kelly, recording secretary; Mrs. J. Lynch, custodian; Mrs. A. P. Maloney, chancellor; Mrs. A. J. Sauter, monitor; Miss Hazel Strauss, scribe; Madge Ballard, banner bearer; Clara Stumpf, inside guard; Mrs. E. J. Kelly and Mrs. Joe Foley, of Manson, soloists, and Mrs. E. J. Nacker, of Rolfe, reader.

Banquet at Willson Hotel.
Following the initiation, the banquet was served in the Willson Hotel. Husbands of members were guests at the dinner and program which began at about 7 o'clock. The guests numbered 125. Baskets of spring flowers made attractive table decorations.

The Rev. Barry presided at the toast program which followed the dinner. The program was as follows:
Address—"Catholic Daughters of Isabella," Mrs. Mary Dwyer, Fonda.
Vocal solo—Mrs. Kelly, Fonda.
Address—"Mrs. F. J. Nacker, of Rolfe.
Address—"Fraternity," Dr. A. F. Schultz.
Vocal solo—Mrs. Foley, of Manson.
"Impressions of the Day"—Miss Elizabeth Pray.

Vocal selection by the Daughters of Isabella quartet.
Stuart's orchestra furnished music for the banquet.
The program was unusually well-balanced and entertaining. Mrs. Mary Dwyer, a former Webster City girl, daughter of Mrs. K. E. Lyons, an old resident here, gave a splendid talk on the organization, telling of its aims and purposes.

The vocal numbers by Mrs. Kelly and Miss Foley were attractive features of the program.
Mrs. Nacker's talk, though short, was full of inspiration for the members, and his bright humor. Dr. Schultz, in his address, explained the relationship between the K. of C. and the Daughters of Isabella, showing how the former organization has fostered the latter.

Miss Pray's impressions of the day were cleverly expressed in rhyme and ended with the members singing "Perfect Day."
The following out of town members attended both the initiation and banquet:
Mrs. Joe Ternan, Mrs. M. Gretter and daughters, Margaret and Mildred, of Manson; Mrs. Lily Thomas, Mrs. O. R. Proffman, Mrs. Rose Enright, Mrs. Elizabeth O'Brien, Mrs. Mary O'Brien, Mrs. Florence McCarty, Mrs. Elsie Quirk, Mrs. John Lilly, Mrs. Ed O'Donnell, Mrs. Frank Sauter, Mrs. J. L. O'Keefe, Mrs. K. E. Lyons, Margery and Sadie Crahan, of Fonda; Mrs. J. A. Carroll, of Rolfe; and the Waterloo Circle was represented by Catherine Estel, regent; Cecile Stanton, vice regent, and Regina Murphy.

The Candle Light.
How far that little candle throws its beams,
How far, how far!
How down the long, long years three streams
Its golden bar!
O little candle, how your flame so bright,
Once pierced the gloaming of the coming night,
And beckoned home my footsteps with the light
Of thy small star.

Far out along the fading road it shone
When darkness fell
And evening's silence broken by the tone
Of evening bell
Proclaimed the day had passed with all its care,
'Twas then my mother lit its sacred flare,
And set it in the latticed window square,
Bright sentinel.

And oh, the tender call of that bright flame:
No treasure trove
Could lead me then, I left my play and came,
And ceased to rove;
And when my feet had crossed the threshold o'er,
I shut out, when I closed the oaken door,
All harm and evil in the wide world's store,
And shut in love.

O little candle, quenched so long ago,
My heart is hoar,
But in my heart there lives thy after-glow
Forevermore.
Again could I but follow thy pale beam
'Twould draw me round the world; and it would seem
Bright heaven to cross the threshold in thy gleam—
And close again the door.

LEAGUE GIVES FINE PROGRAM AT CHURCH

Yesterday was the Anniversary of Epworth League.

A program by the Epworth League of the Methodist church was given at last evening's church service. Yesterday was the anniversary of the founding of the league. The program started with two contests by the Junior League, of which Miss Metta Robinson is the head. Miss Robinson gave out scripture references for the children and each child endeavored to find them first.

Following this the Epworth League gave a very interesting pageant entitled, "The Challenge of the Cross," in which nine girls took part. Miss Ruth Colburn had the leading part. Dr. Chipperfield was called upon to give an account of the money need to carry on the work of the league and when pledges were asked for, $205 was raised in a short time for the expenses of the coming year.

The service was closed by the installation of the following officers: President, Earl Armstrong; first vice president, Miss Ruth Colburn; second vice president, Miss Eva Mae Cable; third vice president, Miss Alice Crawford; fourth vice president, Miss Lola Hughes; secretary, Reginald Adams; treasurer, Donald Fear; pianist, Miss Kathryn Mason; assistant pianist, Miss Thelma Olson; superintendent of the Junior League, Miss Metta Robinson.

Fishing Season Open.

The game fishing season in Iowa officially opened at midnight last night. A good many Webster City fishermen are out today at various points along the Boone and other nearby rivers and also at some of the lakes in this part of the state. Some of the men left yesterday to get an early start. The public may expect the usual line of "fishstories" in a day or so.

Motor Vehicle Taxes.

There has been an investigation of the distribution of motor vehicle taxes, which shows the different uses to which such taxes are put, the relation such tax bears to the amount of federal aid received, and the proportionate part of the primary road fund that is used for maintenance and construction.

One of the features of the past season was an open meeting, at which time an illustrated talk was given by Harry Weirick, a landscape gardener of Des Moines, on "Town and County Planning."

The Engineers' club expects to have open meetings in the future whenever the nature of the program is such as to be of interest to the general public.

Bark Party Overland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Barkl, and son Ronald, the latter of whom gives a concert tonight at the English Lutheran church, arrived in Webster City overland yesterday and are spending a part of their time at the home of A. H. Zolnosky, a nephew of the elder Barkl. The elder Barkl and his wife live in Warner, S. D., for which point the party are headed. They have traveled overland from Ithaca, N. Y. They expect to leave here tomorrow for Madison, S. D., and will also stop at Huron while enroute to Warner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tuttle and daughter, Miss Ruth Tuttle, who has been home from Des Moines during the past week or more, recovering from a recent illness, will leave soon for a several weeks' visit with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Dorothy Tuttle-Sparks and family, of Philadelphia.

ENGINEERS' CLUB CLOSES SEASON

Last Social Meeting Until September Held Saturday in Chamber.

WIVES ARE GUESTS

Club Plans to Hold Picnic at Date to be Set Soon.

Wives of members of the Webster City Engineers' club were guests at the regular monthly banquet, which closed the social season of the club Saturday evening. About twenty-five people were present at the banquet which was held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

The business meeting which preceded the program for the evening, the club voted to hold a picnic at a date to be set by the program committee. The program for Saturday evening included a paper on "Re-Location of Corner Stones," by H. A. Little, and a discussion of "The Legal Phases of the Re-Location of Corner Stones," by Attorney O. J. Henderson. Round table discussion of both papers, in which club members joined, was an interesting part of the program.

Used Many Charts.
Mr. Little illustrated his talk with several maps and charts. He brought up a number of cases where corner stones were lost or obliterated and invited discussion as to the proper procedure to be followed in finding them. He opened his talk with a short history of present day land platting, showing the various steps which preceded the present division into townships.

Mr. Henderson, although he emphasized the fact that re-location of corner stones was an engineers' problem, rather than a legal one, gave several pointers and opinions as to the rights of engineers or supervisors in re-locating corners or changing the routes of highways.

Two numbers scheduled to be on the program were not given, as the speakers were absent.

The next banquet of the club will be held on the last Saturday evening in September.

What Club Has Done.
During the past season the Engineers' club of Webster City has, in addition to its regular programs, taken up the subject of general taxation and compiled statistics under two different heads—real estate and automobile taxes. It was not the original intention to take up this matter at the present time, but the question of taxation appeared to be one of the leading present day topics and the club wished to investigate the subject for its own information and also for the benefit of those interested.

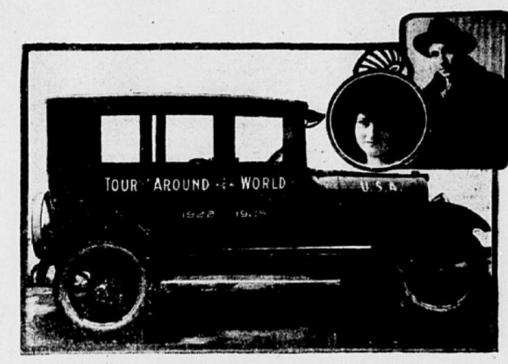

Distribution of Taxes.
It has shown the distribution of real estate taxes, showing in the case of Webster City taxes the proportion collected for the use of the state, for the use of the city, for the use of the county and for the use of schools.

The distribution in the case of the taxes collected for the city and for the county is also shown. The tax apportionment in three of the different townships has been shown, giving the mills levy and also the amount of money collected, from a representative farm in each township, and showing where that money is spent. There was such a variation in the taxes collected in the different townships, due to whether or not the farm in question was or was not located in a consolidated school district, that the taxes on an average quarter section were shown, giving an accurate indication of the taxes being levied.

TROOP 2 CHOOSES MOVIE FOR BENEFIT

Money Raised by Show to pay Expenses of Camping Trip.

The Boy Scouts of troop 2 have chosen their "movie" to be given at the Orpheum theatre May 30 and 31, as a supreme effort to raise money to defray their summer camp expenses. "God's Crucible," adapted from Ralph Connor's great masterpiece, "The Forger," is the picture chosen by the boys after a thorough examination of a dozen propositions. The scouts will round off their entertainment with a new Sunshine comedy, "The Wise Duck."

Troop 2 has over fifty members, the younger scouts of the city, ranging in ages from 12 to 15 years. Alvin A. Burger is the scoutmaster and the Chamber of Commerce is "godfather" of the troop. If no means of raising a camping fund presented themselves, the great majority of the youngsters would be unable to go to camp on their own personal resources. A very liberal proposition was made to the boys by the Orpheum management whereby with the hearty cooperation of the citizens at large, the camping trip will be within the happy realization of every boy in the troop.

A ticket selling campaign will be put on by the troop at once. In this way each scout will "earn" his camp money, as he will be supposed to sell a fixed quota of tickets.

A special meeting of troop 2 has been called by the scoutmaster for Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce, to distribute tickets and explain rules of the ticket selling contest which will be inaugurated at once.

The camping trip will probably take place during the first part of July, and will last one week. No site has been chosen as yet.
