Don't forget we have closed our store on the corner and can only be found in the future at the one store, Owsley's old stand opposite Court-house. Bright & Curran.

OUR town clock evidently doesn't propose to be compelled to tell a lie about the time any longer. Previous to the standard time nonsense, it had not stopped more than once or twice in ten years, but this week it "stopped short never to go again" two times in 24 hours. We don't blame it for not wanting to go.

CLAY COUNTY MURDERER. - Deputy sheriff F. M. Hard and J. M. Bailey delivered Jim Dezaire, of Clay county, to the jailer of Lincoln, Wednesday, for safekeeping, fears being entertained that he would either be rescued or mobbed in his county. Dezaire is charged with the murder of Frank Robinson, son of E. W. Robinson, sheriff of Clay, and the deed is said to have been unprovoked. Both were after a woman and she preferring Robinson to him, Dezaire shot him through the left lung, from the effects of which he died, after four weeks. Dezaire has the reputation of being a reckless fellow, while Robinson was a quiet, sober young man.

CHARGED WITH RAPE. - Isaac Gastineau, who gives his age as 16, was tried before Squires Bronaugh and Garnett, Tuesday, on the charge of committing rape on Mrs. S. E. Noaks, a widow of 49, and held in $300 bail. The marshal of Crab Orchard, Mr. W. J. Saunders, brought him to jail Wednesday and from him we learn that Mrs. Noaks testified that the boy came to her home and representing himself as a deputy sheriff, inquired for her son, for whom he said he had a warrant of arrest. He was told where the boy could be found and started off apparently to go after him, but returned and telling her he would have to arrest her also, ordered her to follow him to a neighbor's house, where he could put her under guard. Arriving at a piece of woods, he made an indecent proposal to her and after many threats and much scuffling, he accomplished his purpose. Her screams brought her son to the rescue, when Gastineau fled, but he was overtaken by the boy and knocked down, the lick on the head rendering him insensible. By this time the noise had attracted some of the neighbors and they took Gastineau in charge and delivered him to the officers at Crab Orchard. Mrs. Noaks is said to be anything but attractive in personal appearance and being old enough for the boy's grandmother, the case is a strange one. Gastineau is a gawky, green horned looking fellow, though it is alleged that he is well up in criminal experience, having been in jail at Mt. Vernon for stealing and once at Lancaster for fighting. His looks are enough to protect him from a mob and no serious threats of such violence were made against him.

DEATHS. MONTGOMERY. - The sudden death, at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, of Dr. Thomas B. Montgomery, shocked our citizens beyond expression. Though he had health for some time, there were no apprehensions of his immediate demise and the news of it was therefore the more appalling. He was sitting before the fire at home warming, preparatory to visiting his son, Whitley, near Crab Orchard, when he was attacked with neuralgia of the stomach and heart, and by the time he could be laid on the bed he was extinct. Thus passed away so generous and as kind a man as ever lived and his death will be sadly deplored. Dr. Montgomery was the son of Judge James Montgomery, one of the oldest settlers of this section, who twice represented his district in Congress and served it as Circuit Judge with much honor and distinction. He was born at the old Judge Bailey place in 1816 and was consequently 67 years old. At an early age he graduated at Centre College and afterwards in the Medical Department of the Transylvania University, at Lexington. He returned home and for many years practiced his profession, giving great satisfaction and making much reputation as a physician. For a number of years, he had given up the practice and devoted most of his time to farming and his monetary affairs. In 1873 he was elected to the Legislature, and served one term, making a most faithful and conscientious member. He was thrice married, his two first wives being daughters of the late Andrew Whitley, and his third Miss Lavinia Chenault, to whom he was married Nov. 30th 1876. Four children survive him, one by his second marriage and three by his last. In every relation of life, Dr. Montgomery was honorable, true and generous. There was nothing little about him, and under all circumstances he showed the stamp of the genuine gentleman. He leaves a fortune rationally estimated at from $50,000 to $75,000 and a name that is above reproach. The community deprecates his death and sincerely condoles with those upon whom the blow falls heaviest. The funeral services will be held at the Presbyterian church at 2:30 to-day and the remains be taken to Buffalo Cemetery for interment.

MARRIAGES. - Yesterday at Mr. Jonathan Mason's, his daughter, Miss Elizabeth Mason, and Mr. Ben Martin were made one. - Judge William Lindsey, of Frankfort, and Miss Eleanor Holmes, niece of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals, Capt. T. C. Jones, will be married on the 11th.

Mr. Frank Privett and Miss Mattie Daugherty, both infants in the eyes of the law, were married on the 4th, at McKinney. A fine supper was served at the bride's father's, Mr. James Daugherty and the congratulations to the happy couple were numerous and hearty.

RELIGIOUS.

-There are 20,000 members of the Methodist Church in South Africa. -Rev. J. M. Bruce will preach at Bright's school-house, Sunday night, at early candle lighting.

-The oldest church in this country is claimed to be that near Smithfield, Va., which was built in 1632. -The Presbyterian Church in the United States has had an increased membership of 57,000 during the past year.

-Two dollars has been added by N. H. W., and wife, of Harrodsburg, since last report, to the Barnes tent fund, making $65 in all.

-Rev. John Montgomery will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday at 11 and 7 o'clock and regularly each second and fifth Sunday during the coming year. -In the front window of the new Methodist church at Mt. Sterling, will be a memorial of Bishop Kavanaugh, illustrative of his christian character, his high office and his life long work.

-Rev. G. W. Bailey, pastor of the Colored Methodist church, at Mt. Sterling, is in jail at Lexington, for forging the names of two of his flock on a note for $11. Pastors should be paid enough to keep them out of temptation.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

-I have 8 young broom mule for sale J. M. Carter, Jr., McKinney.

-I have 23 thoroughbred calves, heifers and bulls, for sale. S. H. Baughman, Stanford.

-Thirty tons of turkeys spoiled in Boston, were, the Herald says, taken to be put up in cans.

-W. W. Baldwin & Co. sold to Mr. D. Arnhem, of Pittsburg, 23 broke mules at $193 each.

-Ferguson & Becker bought of S. S. Bell, of Bourbon, 18 fat cattle at 5 1/2 cents; weight 1,525.

-Ab Butler, of Warren county, has a sow that has given birth to thirty-seven piglets twelve months.

-The Richmond Herald says a great deal of freshly killed pork has spoiled in that county. One farmer lost 17 head in this way.

-Eighty tons of butter sold on the Elgin Board of Trade at from forty and a quarter to forty-two cents. Dealers insist that the market has a strong upward tendency.

-Jas. D. Gay, of Bourbon, sold Pearson, Moore & Oden 43 yearling wethers, averaging 18 1/2 lbs., at five cents per pound, and to Watt Gay 36 cattle, averaging 1,500 lbs., at $5 40 per cwt. - [Winchester Democrat.

-J. T. Ewing bought for his ranch in Kansas, of W. C. Rogers, Lebanon, 102 head of high grade heifers, steers and yearlings, at prices ranging from $25 to $40 per head, the aggregate cost being $2,620. - [Standard.

-In a lot of cattle shipped from this place there were 6 premium steers, whose aggregated weight was 12,185 pounds, being an average of 2,191 pounds per head; also 121 head averaging 1,874 pounds per head. - [Bourbon News.

PARIS CATTLE. - 300 head of cattle on the market. Extra good feeders brought a little over 5 cents, common to good brought 4 to 5 cents, yearlings 4 1/2 cents, calves $25 to $30 per head, fifteen yearling mules sold at $102 each; about 50 head horses on the market, but few sales.

CINCINNATI. - Cattle are steady at 2 to 4 cents for common to medium; butcher grades from 4 1/2 to 5; shippers 4 1/2 to 6; stockers and feeders 4 to 4 1/2. Hogs are quiet with prices running from 3 1/2 to 5 1/2 with bulk of sales to packers at 5 1/2 to 5 3/4. Sheep are steady at 2 1/2 to 4 1/2 and lambs 4 1/2 to 5 cents.

The Richmond Herald gives a table showing that prices of hogs in this section for twenty one years have averaged $5.58 per cwt. They were lowest in 1862 when they were $2 and highest in 1864, the prices being $10. There are a number of years which show no higher price than this.

Mr. J. E. Bruce tells us that the sale of Mrs. L. R. Jones & Son yesterday milk cows brought $39 to $44; good yearlings $34.95; good two-year-olds $47.00 per cwt. and corn $2.08 in the crib. Grass land rented from now to Jan. 1, 1885 at $4 per acre and corn land to several parties at $7.05 to $9 per acre.

MT. VERNON DEPARTMENT.

Managed by John B. Fish. -W. G. Adams is building a store house on the corner near the depot.

-Whitton Rice had his examining trial before Squires A. J. Pike and M. E. Mullins and was held over under a bond of $700. Judge Forbes, of Jackson, signed his bond and he was set at liberty.

-Mr. J. K. Polk has not made his appearance yet as promised by his brother. The impression seems to prevail that Mr. Polk only wanted to gain time for his brother to get out of the way of the officers. This is hard to believe, but it looks very reasonable.

-Mr. J. A. Dickey has finished his work on the K. C. railroad and returned to his home in Virginia. Dr. Harry Todd, of Berea, was in town this week. Miss Lou Grant, of Lancaster, is visiting the "beautiful and fascinating" Miss Cleo Williams, of this place. Mr. J. L. Whitehead is in Williamsburg, this week. Mr. James R. Rylands, of Toledo, Ohio, was visiting friends here. Mrs. Chas. Turner, of Louisville, and Mrs. Lou Nield, of Altamont, spent Monday in town. Elder James Hall, of the Christian church is holding a protracted meeting at Buckeye, this week.

-It is reported that Mr. Flannery who had the contract to furnish stone for the Henderson bridge, has failed for a large amount. Mr. Flannery has been quarrying stone at Livingston, and every body thought he was perfectly good for any amount. We understand that the Livingston Coal Co., and Saml. Ward are the heaviest losers. He had been working about 50 hands and they are out of two months' wages. Mr. Flannery is in Louisville and refuses to come out. We hope it is a mistake and that everything will be fixed up all right.

GARRARD COUNTY DEPARTMENT.

Lancaster. -Rev. W. O. Goodloe, of New Albany, Ind., will preach at the Presbyterian church Sunday.

-Russ Anderson, col., was fined $10 on Wednesday for stealing a pocket-book and was sent to the work-house.

-Mrs. Hansbury West is dangerously ill at her residence in this county. Mrs. Lucian Perkins died of puerperal fever on Tuesday.

-Twenty-two shares in the National Bank of Lancaster sold at $165 per share Tuesday, the parties selling reserving the January dividend, which makes the stock cost $169.50.

-Wm. Baker, the "young blood" who cut Burnett last week, was tried before Judge Singleton Tuesday and failing to give the required bond, was sent to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

-Geo. Denny, Jr., was acquitted Tuesday morning. He was tried before Squires Robinson and Dunn, who returned a verdict within five minutes after retiring from the court-room that it was a clear case of self-defense and ordered the defendant discharged from custody.

PAINT LICK, GARRARD COUNTY.

-Mr. W. L. Barnes and F. M. Lutes are slowly improving.

-Mr. John Parks had a fine mule to get its leg broke Saturday.

-N. M. Shumate went to the city Friday to lay in his Christmas goods.

-Born, to the wife of Jason Shumate, on the 24, a bouncing big boy.

-Mr. Willis Adams, Sr., and Alrab Pullins went to Rockcastle on a business trip.

-Matrimonial fever is raging high. It seems to be most fatal among widows and widowers.

-The death of Mr. E. Best is felt by every one; especially among the trading class. He was a large stock trader.

-Mr. J. W. Smith shipped from here a car-load of hogs that averaged 380 pounds. One of the lot tipped the beam at 700.

A SAD ACCIDENT. - A few days ago Mr. Bob Conn was out hunting and ran a squirrel into a hollow tree. He concluded to see if he could make the squirrel run out and wrapped some powder up in a paper, which he put into the hollow of the tree, set fire to it and walked off a short distance and waited long enough, as he thought, for it to go off. Finally thinking that it had gone out, he went back to the tree and peeped in the hole. Just at that moment it exploded in his face and put both eyes out. It is thought that he will never see again. His whiskers were burnt off and his face badly burnt.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Sealed proposals will be received till 4 P. M. Dec. 15, for the lease of the Stanford Opera House, for two years beginning Dec. 25, 1883. Bond with approved security required of lessee. Right to reject any or all bids reserved. By order of the Board. W. P. WEAVER, Dec. 3 Treasurer.
