W. P. WALTON.

GARRARD COUNTY DEPARTMENT.

Lancaster.

The New Orleans Minstrels are booked for a performance at the Opera House April 6th.

Capt. Kinnaird will inspect the Cavalry Rifles at the armory Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The company has abandoned the trip to Washington in May.

Mr. William Bentley and Miss Ida Adams were granted marriage license Thursday. Elder G. W. Yancy was called in and tied the knot in his most happy manner. Both of the parties live in this county.

Albert S. Berry, of Newport, candidate for governor, addressed a small audience at the court-house Saturday evening. His remarks are said to have been quite well received, but as nearly everybody in the county is pledged either to Buckner or Harris, Mr. Berry did not succeed in gaining many votes.

Mr. John Woodcock has returned from Somerset. Mrs. M. C. Walter has returned from Louisville, whither she went to purchase her stock of spring millinery. Rev. S. C. Humphries, of Glasgow, the new pastor of the Baptist church, has arrived and taken rooms at Mrs. Holmes'.

The One Horse Farmer.

The one-horse farmer has a life long ambition to gain a reputation for wearing a dirty shirt.

He will alarm the neighborhood in getting up two hours before day, then sit round and not go to work until after sun up.

He will ride around a week looking for a $2 hog.

He will complain of hard times, then tear his best pair of pants climbing a fence where a gate ought to be.

He will spend $3 for a new bride, then let the calf chew it to pieces before Sunday.

He will get all his neighbors to help in getting a cow out of a bog, then let her die for want of attention.

Stock will get in and destroy his crop at a place in the fence that he has put off fixing for six months.

He will sprain his back lifting something to show how strong he is.

He will talk all Sunday on what he knows about farming, then ride around the neighborhood Monday hunting seed potatoes.

He will go in his shirt sleeves on a cold day, to show how much he can stand, then return home at night and occupy two thirds of the fire place till bed time.

He will ridicule the mechanism of a corn planter and then go out and mash his ab nail on a board on the fence.

He will go to town on Saturday and come back home with 50 cents worth of coffee, a paper of pins and a dollar's worth of chewing tobacco and his belly full of whiskey.

He is economical, economy is his fort, he will save ten cents worth of axle grease and ruin the spindle of a $75 wagon.

He won't subscribe for a newspaper but will borrow one from his friend and forget to return it.

The only Hines paper in the State outside of Bowling Green is the Butler County News. The able and convincing style of argument it advances in behalf of its candidate is best illustrated by this latest utterance: "If the G. R. republicans don't like us because we are for Hines for governor they may go to the d— and eat onions."—[Grayson Gazette.]

Judge Cooley's appointment to and acceptance of the long term on the Railroad Commission, laying down a $20,000 salary, "in deference to the President's earnest wishes," is one more proof of the mugwump influence over the President and of the President's influence over the mugwump. Though a republican, Cooley voted for Cleveland, and let both have their rewards.

Connecticut farmers are being duped by agents who are going about obtaining their signatures to a pledge not to destroy song birds, which in due time proves to be a signature to a promissory note, which by some means gets to the farmer through a bank and which the farmer had rather pay than fight the rascals.

A good Rochester pastor, a widower, proposed to a young lady a short time since, but was rejected. His feelings had the second severe test when a widow neighbor sent him the following text to preach from: "You ask and receive not, because you ask a miss."

There has not been a liquor saloon in Hancock county, W. Va., for forty years. This accounts for the fact that there is not a prisoner in the county jail, and the grand jury failed to find a single indictm.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

George Cross and Miss Griffin were married Thursday.

A blacksmith shop at Pine Hill was burned a few days since.

Sam'l. Hix was arrested Saturday on a bastardy warrant. He gave bond.

Milton Miller, a young man on Skaggs Creek, died Sunday of consumption.

14 pounds granulated sugar for $1. 16 pounds best C. sugar for $1. F. L. Thompson.

Largest assortment. Best goods. Lowest prices. Where at? Logan Thompson's of course.

James White has leased the quarry on Mrs. Herrie's lot in the west end of town and has begun work opening it up.

To-day (Monday) is county court day. A good crowd in town. But little stock on the market. Some horse swapping.

George Barclay was tried Saturday before Judge Colyer, on the charge of burning rails belonging to Mrs. Ike Phillips, and acquitted.

Mr. J. J. Williams, formerly of this place, now living in Louisville, will shortly move to your place and will occupy the Helm property.

Samuel McClure and "Twix" Mize have our thanks for attentions shown while on a fishing excursion a few days since on Rockcastle River.

E. F. Caestnut has three children sick with typhoid fever. Dr. Davis reports more fever in the county than has been known for a long while. He has fifteen cases under his charge. Mrs. James Pittman is very low with dropsy of the brain.

H. R. Fish has been appointed the inspector for the C. V. Branch and arrived from Tennessee Saturday on his way to Barbourville. Mr. Fish was formerly a citizen of this place and is a brother of our Fishie, but is now a resident of Fountain Head, Tenn.

The Continental Fire Insurance Company have notified their policy holders in this county that all their policies were canceled and to make no more remittances on premiums. Those who had remitted had their money returned. No cause is assigned for the move.

A prominent republican here says if Buckner receives the nomination Cash Clay will be run by the republicans and in case Harris is nominated Bradley will be put out by them. He says it depends upon the action of the democratic convention, who the republicans will nominate.

W. T. Brooks, Paris; J. J. Brooks, Richmond; T. N. Roberts, Barbourville, and A. G. Lovell were visiting this place during the latter part of the week. Miss Susie Brown has returned from school at Ash Grove, Mo. Miss May Adams is at home from Daughters College for a few days. G. W. Huckins and family leave for the West this week.

W. H. Williams, who left this place for the West many years since writes back for the first time in ten years to his brother, D. N. Williams, at this place, saying he owns a fine cattle ranch at Grand Junction, Col., and was getting along well in the business. He mentions the name of one of his neighbors, Mrs. Rice, a daughter of Mr. Bowen Gover, formerly of this county, as living within a few miles of him on another ranch.

Fourteen pounds granulated sugar $1; 16 pounds best C. sugar $1. Custom-house or any full weight that gives justice. A big line of clothing of best make and at prices that defy competition. My assortment of dry goods and notions is complete. A real nice lot of ladies' trimmed hats and other millinery goods at prices that will astonish you. Hats and caps in abundance for men and boys. Chilled plows and farming implements; in fact a full and general assortment of everything kept in a general store can be found and at the very lowest prices in my house. Call and see. L. B. Adams.

Nineteen years ago J. Marion Brooks, a Rockcastle boy, taking Greety's advice, went to California. Having a fair education he took up the study of law. His success was very gratifying. He was there but a few years until he was elected to positions of trust, several times to the legislature and for the last seven years has been a State Senator. He was lately recommended to the president for the position of U. S. District Attorney for Southern District California. He went to Washington two weeks since and returned last Friday via his old home here with the commission of the office in his possession. After visiting relatives in various portions of the State he returns to his home on the Pacific slope this week.

Four hangings occurred in the United States Friday, when perhaps 400 should have felt the halter draw.

The U. S. Fish Commission has turned 35,000,000 young cod into the ocean, and these youngsters, if they thrive, will be ready for capture in about five years.

Drunkennes, or Liquor Habit, can be Cured by administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it, effecting a speedy and permanent cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken the Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. No harmful effect results from its administration. Cures guaranteed. Send for circular and full particulars. Address in confidence GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 233 Broadway, New York City.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

William H. King has moved into the Danegby property on West Lexington street.

Mrs. G. F. Lee has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. I. S. McEiror, of Mt. Sterling.

L. F. Surve, of Cynthiana, has sold his property on 4th street to Mrs. Nannie Brewer for $2,450.

Dr. C. B. H. Martin, assisted by Rev. Lapsley McKee, D. D., will begin a protracted meeting at the 21 Presbyterian church this (Monday) evening.

On Saturday night some one broke into the residence of Mrs. Sallie A. Sinsinbagen, who lives on Walnut street and stole a valuable gold watch and 35 cents in change, which happened to be in the bureau drawer where the watch was.

Mr. E. S. Rowland, of Chicago, will shortly open a merchant tailoring establishment in Danville. Mrs. Theodora Linney continues very ill. Mr. B. F. Phillips returned to day from Newport where he had been for several days.

An educational meeting of the 8th district teachers' association, composed of Palski, Wayne, Lincoln, Garrard, Casey, Boyle and Mercer counties was held at the Walnut street Methodist church Saturday and Saturday night. (See Hustonville letter.)

Albert S. Berry delivered a rattling speech at the court-house Friday night in advocacy of his claims to the democratic nomination for governor. The Senator made a fine impression, but fine impressions will not win the democrats of Boyle county from General Buckner. They are for him and don't you forget it.

In order to promote honesty among those who handle other people's money, Col. Marcellus Cates, of this place has invented "a tin snip with no pockets" to be worn by employees during business hours. The colonel has applied for a patent for his invention and thinks when in general use that it will greatly lessen the annual emigration of bank cashiers to Canada.

Beginning with to-night (Monday) Rev. Fred D. Hale, of Louisville, will assist the pastor of the Baptist church in a short series of evangelistic meetings. There will be no fanatical excitement, but a quiet exposition of the word of God. The appeals will be made to the reason, judgment and conscience of the hearer. No pressing and urging people to act against their will.

The hunting in the vicinity of the cemetery for several weeks past has been exceptionally fine. At first the people living there were a little afraid of being shot, but they have got so they can dodge the bullets tolerably well now, and therefore are not hit very often. Friday evening one sportsman shot into the kitchen of Mr. A. Anderson, but he didn't mean anything by it, he was just trying to scare a colored girl who was in the kitchen. The shot from the target gun that struck little George Perkins a few days ago hurt his arm considerably, but then George had no business being in his pa's back yard. If he had been in the front yard he wouldn't have been shot.

Shall We Meet Again.

The following is one of the most brilliant paragraphs ever written by the lamented George D. Prentice:

"The fiat of death is inexorable. There is no appeal for relief from the great law which dooms us to dust. We flourish and fade as leaves of the forest, and the flowers that bloom, wither and fade in a day have no truer hold on life than the mightiest monarch that ever shook the earth with his footsteps. Generations of men will appear and disappear as the grass and the multitude that throng the world to day will disappear as footsteps on the shore. Men seldom ever think of the great event of death until the shadow falls across their own pathway, hiding from their eyes the faces of loved ones whose smile was the sunlight of their existence. Death is the antagonist of life and the thought of the tomb is the skeleton of all feasts. We do not want to go through the dark valley, although the dark passage may lead to paradise; we do not want to go down into damp graves, even with princes for bedfellows. In the beautiful drama of 'Ion' the hope of immortality, so eloquently uttered by the death-devoted Greek, finds deep response in every thoughtful soul. When about to yield his life a sacrifice to fate, his Ctesanthe asks if they should meet again, to which he responds: 'I have asked that dreadful question of the hills that look eternal—of the streams that flow forever—of stars among whose fields of azure my raised spirits have walked in glory. All are dumb. But, as I gaze upon thy living face, I feel that there is some thing in love that mantles through its beauty that cannot wholly perish. We shall meet again, Ctesanthe.'"

When Lincoln ran for Congress some of the Whigs contributed a purse of $200 to pay his personal expenses in the canvass. After the election was over the successful candidate handed back $199.25. "I did not need it," he said. "I made the canvass on my own horse; my entertainment being at the houses of friends, cost me nothing, and my only outlay was 75 cents for a barrel of cider which some farm hands insisted I should treat them to."

HUSTONVILLE, LINCOLN COUNTY.

Had a lively thunder storm with rain accompaniment Sunday afternoon.

We have a cheering report from Mrs. Weatherford. Mr. Ryan's condition also is will improving. Mrs. Steele is regarded out of danger.

L. B. Adams left in haste Sunday to answer to a dispatch from the Bright neighborhood. Our former citizen, Wm. Tarkington, now of Boyle, is here. Rev. J. C. Randolph is preaching here every Saturday evening and Sunday in the forenoon.

Mr. S. F. H. Tarrant, the energetic vice president of the 8th educational district, marshalled her forces Saturday at the Walnut street Methodist church in Danville and held three busy sessions, embracing morning, afternoon and night. The attendance was not as large as anticipated, but still manifested an encouraging degree of interest in the questions pertaining to the solution of the great problem of popular education. Several distinguished gentlemen, not on the programme, were present, and invited to participate. Among these were Prof. J. L. McKee, and President O. Beatty, of Centre College; several ministers and a number of prominent citizens, ladies and gentlemen. The body was called to order by Mrs. Tarrant, who after the opening prayer by Rev. E. H. Pearce, of Danville, proceeded to deliver a well digested and ably written address on matters pertinent to the occasion. Prof. A. W. Mell, of Bowling Green, was pressed into representing Judge Beckner, who was absent, on "Popular Education in the South." "Sug- gested Teaching" was presented by H. K. Taylor, of Russellville. "Compulsory Education" by Prof. Moss, of Franklin county. (This residence may be incorrectly given.) These questions, and several others growing out of the meeting, were aired by Mr. Pearce, Rev. Morris Evans, of Lancaster, Prof. W. C. Grinstead, of Danville, Elder J. L. Allan, of Danville, Gen. Gree Clay Smith, of Madison, Mell, Taylor, Rev. R. H. Caldwell, of Boyle, and sundry free lances, which sparked in the melee. A very interesting essay was read by Miss Alice Stuart, of Crab Orchard. I can not give the subject exactly, which, was highly commended, and passed, I think, into the hands of a newspaper man for publication. Miss Mollie Crumbaugh, at present of Boyle, occupied the rostrum three times in essay, reading and recitation, all of which were applauded. The county superintendent of Boyle, Lincoln and Garrard were duly in place, probably one or two others. Your reporter, was too busy with other matters to get up a full or strictly accurate report. The vice president presided with marked dignity, self-possession and firmness (of the last I am particularly assured), and closed the exercises with an encouraging address about 10 P. M.

When a man is fully under its domination, he would drink, were rum placed before him, if he knew that the next moment his soul would be required of him. Once under its full control the victim drinks and drinks until he is beggared and unfit for work or business, until his wife and family become objects of charity, and finally the grave closes over his bloated, rum-soaked, dishonored carcass.—[Toledo Blade.]

Buckner's entire Kentucky estate is assessed at about $12,000. His Chicago property is valued at nearly half a million. He never knew how much he loved "the grand old commonwealth" until his soldier comrades offered him the democratic gubernatorial nomination on a silver waiter.—[Louisville Commercial.]
