Richmond Court.—200 cattle on the market. 22 good 1,100 pound feeders brought 3.40; 4 yearlings $25; common cattle 2 1/2 cents. About 10 broke mules changed hands at $75 to $140. Thomas Phelps sold 120 cattle last week for $5,551.20 and delivered 141 hogs for $2,088.89 or $7.68 for the lot.—Climax.

The sale of the real estate of the late J. J. Newland, Wednesday, resulted as follows: 17 1/2 acres of land were bought by David Thompson at $25.55; 121 acres by Grove Kennedy at $20. Dick McDowell has been arrested in Arkansas, charged with the robbery and murder of Benjamin Bonley in 1861. The crime was witnessed by Mrs. Beazley and her five children, and she told the murderer that her 10-year-old son would one day see him hanged for it. Since reaching his majority this son has steadily hunted for McDowell and it was he that made the arrest.

Monday night as Lee B. Carter stepped out of the Joplin House at Mt. Vernon, where he had just snupped, he was fired on by James Frazer and fell with 14 buckshot in his breast and two thro' the heart. He threw up his hands and staggered back into the hotel, dying in a moment. At the coroner's inquest the verdict was given according to the facts as above stated. It is thought that the trouble originated Saturday night, when Carter remained over night at Frazer's residence, in the east end of town. During the night Frazer woke up and thought he discovered Carter in a compromising position with Mrs. Frazer. He accused Carter of wrong doing and they quarreled for some time, when Carter left the house, followed by threats from Frazer. The parties had not met until Monday night in front of the Joplin House. Frazer had lain in wait for Carter. Frazer was thought to be intoxicated when the shooting was done. Carter had only been acquitted at Stanford a month ago for the killing of Tom Moore, which took place in Mt. Vernon in July, 1886, when both Jack and Tom Moore fell from back shot fired by Carter. Frazer is a nephew of the slain Moore boys. A strange coincidence connected with the killing of Carter is that he was killed by the same kind of a gun, buckshot, at the same time of day almost to a minute and within 200 feet of where the Moore boys fell. Carter's father, Judge James G., had lately married Miss Mary Miller, an aunt of Frazer, and a sister of the Moores. Lee Carter had recently sold out his possessions and was to move to Missouri within a few weeks. Tom Moore before he died said that his slayer would die in the same manner before the expiration of three years. Lee Carter was buried by the Mason at Brodhead Wednesday at high 12. A large throng of people were in attendance to hear the impressive Masonic burial rites.

Happy Homes.

Here's a health to the wives and mothers Who sit in our households to-day; Who are glad when they brighten for others The hours that go drifting away. May their eyes keep the light of gladness, Their hearts hold the fulness of bliss That banishes shadows and sadness, And what need we ask more than this? But—how can this happiness be kept? What shall protect those we love,—those who made a Heaven of the Home,—from the ravages of disease that is often worse than death,—that is, in fact, a lingering death? The question is, easily answered. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—the standard remedy for all of those peculiar diseases to which women are subject,—is what must be relied on to preserve the health of wives and mothers. It prevents those diseases, and it cures them. It is a blessing to women and therefore a national blessing, because it gives health to those about whom the happiness of home centers, and the strength of a nation is in its happy homes.
