STANFORD, KY. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1889.

NO. 75

HUSTONVILLE.

—Corn is selling here at $1.75 per barrel delivered.
—Mr. James Allen purchased the lot on which the building stood that was burned Sunday morning and will erect a building that will be a credit to our town.
—M. E. Allen, who was burned out last Sunday morning, left for Louisville to-day to purchase a new stock and will resume business immediately. The true origin of the fire is not yet known.
—On the 5th inst. an entertainment will be given by the pupils of Mrs. A. D. Reid's elocution class. Quite a number of our young ladies and gentlemen have taken a complete course in this art and now feel able to entertain their friends and prove a credit to themselves. The programme consists of select readings, recitations and music. Mrs. Reid came here highly endorsed and she has proven herself a thorough scholar in this interesting study.
—Your correspondent will be proud for the public to know what an excellent school we have. Our Christian College enrolls about 100 pupils. The course of study is of the most practical nature, while at the same time all the "finishing touches" can be acquired. Prof. M. G. Thomson is assisted by a very competent staff of teachers. Our citizens are proud of her educational building and justly so, for it almost causes our town to boom. Citizens and patrons encourage your school.
—Mrs. G. W. Weatherford was suddenly seized with a severe hemorrhage of the nose Sunday, and is still in a precarious condition. Mrs. Clinton Jenkins is still confined to her bed very little improved. Mr. L. B. Adams and wife, who have been visiting in Texas for the past month, returned home Thursday accompanied by their son, Charlie, who is in delicate health. Miss Anna McNeill, of Nashville, Tenn., who has been visiting the family of Mr. Hugh Logan, returned home last week and since invitations have been received here announcing her marriage to Dr. White, a practicing physician at that place. Mrs. Dr. Lee Huffman, of Lexington, is visiting relatives here. She says the Dr. is delighted with his new home.

MT. SALEM.

—Mr. Geo. W. Estes has been confined to his bed for several days with a serious illness of a complicated nature, but at last accounts was improving.
—The promising young school teacher, Patrick Humphrey, of Carpenter's Creek, lately became possessed of some strange vagaries which has created a solicitude or apprehension on the part of his friends that his fertile mind may not be in exact equilibrium. After reading and digesting some 2,000 pages of Darwin's theory of evolution he has become thoroughly convinced that he, the said Patrick, was once fully equipped with the caudal appendages of the monkey.
—Your neighbor, Mr. Dan Miller, has been entertaining the people of this section with his fine social qualities. The delicate Adonis features of Geo. Carpenter was also very conspicuous at the sale the other day. A good sized crowd attended the sale of the personal property of M. L. Richards, dec'd, on the 29th. J. N. Menefee, admr., managed the affair, while Dan Miller did the auctioneering. According to the opinion of the people the property, considering the times, brought good prices generally. While a good deal was sold, it would be tedious to go into details. We only quote a few prices paid to indicate the current tendency of the market: Horses brought from $40 to $60, cattle 21 cents per lb; hogs about $3.70 per cwt; hay about $6.50 per stack of 1 1/2 tons to the stack; oats $1.50 per hundred bundles; corn on an average of $1.37 per barrel shucked in the field. Household and kitchen furniture sold well. The entire family, with the exception of Philbert and W. C. Richards, half brother of the dec'd, will start in a few days for Iowa. This will leave a kind of a vacuum in the neighborhood, for the family has been long and favorably known in this section as possessing sterling integrity and other commendable qualities.

The Lady Next Door.

Mrs. W. envied the lady next door because she always seemed so well and happy. "She enjoys life and I don't," said the discontented woman. "How I would like to change places with her!" At last she made the acquaintance of the object of her envy, and this is what the lady told her: "Happy! Of course I am, for I enjoy perfect health. My dear Mrs. W., your face tells me why you are not happy. You are suffering from functional derangements. I was a martyr to female weaknesses for years, but Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cured me, as it will you if you will try it. It is guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case or price, $1 returned."

What A Fortune

It is a good healthy, pearly skin. Few are aware of the short time it takes for a disordered liver to cause blotches on the face, and a dark greasy skin. One bottle of BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER and BLOOD MAKER will restore this organ to its natural and healthy state, and cleanse the blood of all impurities. It is meeting with wonderful success. We guarantee every bottle. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

McKINNEY.

—Bud Martin delivered some old corn to the Tanner Mills at $2.15 per bbl. W. A. Colley bought of Sawp Givens 23 acres of land adjoining his farm at $40 per acre. J. Walker Givens has purchased the W. L. Richards stallion.
—Talk about your garden stuff, your big potatoes, green things and such like, but Arch B. McKinney has won the laurels on a gourd he has on exhibition at Crow & Co's drug store. It measures 4 1/2 feet in circumference and 1 1/2 feet average diameter.
—Wilson S. Gooch and W. R. Davidson have formed a partnership to do a general merchandise business at this place. They have bought the stock and good will of J. Wes Bailey and are now taking an inventory. They are both nice, clever gentlemen deserving of patronage.
—Squire John Bailey reports two of the oldest sisters known to be living in this county. They are Mrs. Kiziah Hamm aged 93 living in the East End, Mrs. Bailey, aged 86, living with her son Wes, at this place. Their maiden name was Jett and they are the only surviving members of a family of 13 children.
—D. V. Kennedy killed his favorite dog on account of symptoms of hydrophobia. L. D. Garner, of Crab Orchard, paid F. M. Ware a visit and attended the Richards sale. Our good friend, J. W. Sailee, of Harrodsburg, has been among us this week. C. C. Carson, of your town, has been the guest of W. T. Dodds-Geo. Lee James, of Crab Orchard, was here on business the first of the week. Miss Belle Mitcham is reported quite sick. Miss Pearl Tabler is convalescing. Dr. Ed Alcorn has treated his dwelling here to a new roof. O. J. Crow and J. T. Hooker made a flying trip to Somerset. A. N. Williams is suffering considerably with sore eyes. John Ward is visiting his sister, Mr. W. A. Hamilton, and other friends here. Dr. Burnes and L. C. Noble, of Lexington, have been here prospecting with a view to organizing a Building and Loan Association at this place. Rev. J. N. Bowling, of Middleburg, has moved into the Jones property, known as the Verandah Hotel. We welcome him in our midst. Mrs. J. P. Crow has recent encouraging news concerning the German Fisher estate.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. John Bell Gibson, after a fortnight's absence, will occupy his pulpit at the usual hours Sunday.
—The Baptists of Nashville want to establish a university there and will get up a memorial to the Baptists of America asking for aid.
—Rev. T. J. Godby will fill his regular appointment at the Methodist church Sunday morning and at McKendree at 7 o'clock Sunday night.
—Rev. J. W. Lynch, who is conducting the meeting at the Baptist church, bears a striking resemblance to Congressman Taubee, of the 10th district, and like him is an orator. He preaches the gospel with great earnestness and effect and his sermons are sure to do incalculable good here. The first confessions of the meeting occurred Wednesday night, when four young girls just budding into lovely womanhood went up and were given the right hand of fellowship—Miss Alpha Tyree, Annie Hale, Monte Harris and Minnie Munday. The meeting will continue till further notice with services at 10:30 a. m. and 7 at night.
—Hennet.—J. F. Rigney and wife have returned from a visit to Pulaski and Casey. James Robinson sold a half interest in a car-load of cattle at 21 cents and shipped Tuesday. Tom Woods bought Eubanks' cattle weighing 1,250 at $2.85 and shipped to Cincinnati and lost $30 on 22 cattle—good republican administration. The church here has a new fence around it. Henry Bald sold his young mules to John Woods at $50. Will McCarty sold Wesley Sutton some corn shucked in the field at $1.50. J. W. Bright sold to M. F. Herrin some at $1.40. Mr. Shugars has rented the Owsley farm for $800. Hubble and Walker have returned from an extended trip through the mountains to Middleboro. They are not down with the fever yet, but are a little puny. Mr. and Mrs. Swope have returned from Bradfordville. We get the JOURNAL all O. K. via Danville. Eliza Smith passed here en route for Birmingham Wednesday to visit her brother. Col. Underwood is in the fight, having another boy at his house. Will Floyd has returned home after driving horses at Swope's for some time. Bob Hoeker and Jerry Dawson, of color, are going to build on Cherry street.

DRUNKENNESS—THE LIQUOR HAB IT—IN all the World there is but one cure, Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.
It can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it, affecting a speedy and permanent cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been cured who have taken the Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. No harmful effect results from its administration. Cures guaranteed. Send for circular and full particulars. Ad-dress in confidence Golden Specific Co., 125 Race Street, Cincinnati, O.

A Good Cough Syrup.
There is nothing parents should be so careful about as selecting a cough syrup. Beggs' Cherry Cough Syrup costs no more than the cheap and inferior nostrums thrown on the market. The best is not too good, be sure and get BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP. We keep it hand at all times. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Rev. W. A. Boram, of the Harrodsburg Baptist church, and Miss May Fontaine, of Norfolk, Va., will be united in marriage on the 6th.
—Cicero Reynolds and Miss Susan, the pretty 18 year old daughter of J. M. Leach, were united in marriage at the bride's father's near Waynesburg yesterday.
—The Savannah News tells of a woman in Wadley, Ga., who has become a grandmother at the age of 30. She married when only 14 and her daughter did likewise.
—George Mover and Miss Julia Youm, aged 19 each and Pat McGarvey, Jr., 18 and Mary Ann Smith, 21 years, were married at Mr. M. D. Elmore's store yesterday by Judge T. W. Varan.
—J. J. Clancy, local conductor on the L. & N., and Miss Martha Fletcher, were joined heart and hand at Rowland Tuesday. Mr. Clancy is an exceedingly clever gentleman and his wife is said to be very pretty.
—Miss Mary, daughter of Hon. James B. Martin, a leading candidate for clerk of the court of appeals, was married at her father's residence in Glasgow Wednesday to Mr. F. B. Fleenor, of Bowling Green.
—The marriage between Prince Murat and Miss Gwendoline Caldwell has been indefinitely postponed if not altogether broken off. It is stated that the difficulty is caused by the groom being dissatisfied with the terms of the marriage settlement. It is her money and not the girl that the fortune hunting prince is after, and if Miss Gwendoline is worthy of her American birthright, she will show the fellow that hell hath no fury like a woman scorned.
—Miss Clara Huntington is now Princess Hatfield though her titled lord came near backing out when old Mrs. Huntington refused to give him the $3,000,000 instead of to his adopted daughter. Huntington has not paid the Prince's debts nor has he promised to do so, though he has allowed it to be understood if the young man behaves himself and is not reckless with the interest on his wife's dowry, that he may get a financial lift hereafter. The Prince has finally scaled his debts down to half a million dollars, and with a little economy he can pay this in a short time from the interest on his wife's fortune.

—At 7:30 on Wednesday evening in the parlors of Mr. G. R. Engleman two hearts that have loved from childhood were joined in wedlock's holy bonds. Miss Bessie V. Engleman and Mr. Bowen W. Givens were the participants in the God-ordained ceremony, and that each of them has cause to look far into a future full of brightness, no one can doubt. Attended by four of their most intimate lady friends, Misses Lizzie Bright, Gatewood Givens, Nannie Baughman and Fannie Pennington, and in the presence of a few friends and relatives, these happy young persons were pronounced husband and wife in an impressive and beautiful ceremony by Rev. Green Lee Surber. The bride was beautifully attired in a heliotrope cashmere, with French trimmings, and was a true picture of loveliness as she leaned on the arm of the man of her choice. She wore elegant diamonds and her trousseau is said to be very elaborate and costly. The bridemaids wore evening dresses and the contrast between them and the bride made a scene beautiful in the extreme. The groom is well known in this place and the county over and is universally liked. He is a young man of good business qualifications and of sterling worth, while the young lady, he is and should be proud to call his wife, is one of the most elegant young ladies in the State and possesses beauty of face and figure and of character also, to a marked degree. They start out in life under circumstances most propitious and that their ripper years may be as bright as are now promised, the EXTERIOR JOURNAL joins their many friends in wishing. The bride was the recipient of many useful and costly presents, further testimonials of her unbounded popularity. An elegant lunch was given them by Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Engleman immediately after the ceremony and yesterday they were dined by Mr. Givens' parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Givens. At present the happy couple will reside at Mr. Givens' present home, where he has a partnership with his father.

—Oliver Garrison, who owned the first steamboat that ran between St. Louis and New Orleans, committed suicide at the former city Monday. As he was a very old man he didn't cheat himself out of many days.

Beggs' Cherry Cough Syrup
Is giving splendid satisfaction to the trade and the sales are positively marvelous, which can be accounted for in no other way except that it is without doubt the best on the market. Ask for and be sure you get the genuine. We keep it. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

A Woman's Discovery.
"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night, and with one bottle she has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. She thus writes W. C. Hancock & Co., of Shelby, N. C.: 'Get a free trial bottle of A. R. Penny's drug store.'"

The "Mother's Friend."
Not only shortens labor and lessens pain attending it, but greatly diminishes the danger to the lives of both the mother and the child if used a few months before confinement. Write to the Bradford-Regulator Co., Atlanta, Ga., for further particulars. For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford.

PARKSVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—J. T. Bailey sold several fat cattle to J. F. Owens at 2 cents.
—Mrs. Harvey Brewer died on the Rolling Fork last week of pneumonia after a long illness.
—Mr. W. S. Aldridge has just moved into his new residence west of town, which is about completed.
—Mr. W. D. Latimer has been appointed postmaster, vice Geo. H. Hoeker resigned. The latter gentleman is still in charge.
—Mr. C. S. Parks is building an addition to his store house, which will afford him better facilities for conducting his prosperous business.
—Stanton E. Cozatt, L. & N. ticket agent at Clarksville, Tenn., who came home to recuperate, has returned and resumed his duties.
—A party of about 15 gentlemen will soon go to North Carolina to hunt bear and deer. They will go via Knoxville and Marysville, Tenn.
—Voters should remember that when called upon by the canvassers next week they will not be allowed a vote unless they deposit the ballot in the box at that time.
—Candidates are too thick for a laboring man who wants to do a full day's work. Five candidates for the democratic nomination for assessor are riding now and two for county judge.
—Game is abundant this year with us and dozens of rabbits and partridges are killed daily except Sunday. On the Sabbath some of our wicked small boys, and large ones, too, gather hickory nuts, which are very plentiful also. There are no chestnuts, except those told by the funny (?) folks of the 'ville. Beech nuts are also a failure this year with us.
—Prof. J. W. Rawlings, of the common school here, is announced as a candidate for superintendent of common schools of Boyle county. Mr. Rawlings is running subject to the action of the democracy. He has no opposition and of course will receive the nomination. Rev. R. H. Caldwell is a candidate for reelection; he runs "without politics."
—Rev. R. H. Caldwell and Mr. W. L. Caldwell and daughter, Miss Nannie, are at Elkton, Ky., attending some convention of the C. P. church, I think. Mr. S. C. Brewer is confined to his room by an attack of erysipelas on his arm. Will Armstrong is improving. Also Miss Irvine, who is ill with the typhoid fever. Mrs. M. J. Latimer and little daughter are much better.
—The examining trial of George Gordon for killing John Brooks and shooting at James Brooks and of the latter for shooting Gordon at this place Oct. 19th is set for Nov. 12th, here. Meanwhile both are out on their own recognizance. Opinion is very much divided as to who has violated the law. Some persons think Gordon acted in self defense; others think not. Eye witnesses differ as to who the aggressor was. Gordon's wounds, a shot in the forehead and one through the left leg, may become dangerous yet, as he is by no means improving, as was expected.

Multiply the price of your winter clothes by 47 per cent, and see how much you are contributing to the "protection of American industries." Not a pound of t. a is manufactured in this country, yet we are compelled to pay 15 per cent, on every pound imported. How does this help our working man?

They say every shot of one of Krupp's newest guns costs $1,500. That is to say it costs that much at one end of the shot. What it costs at the other end depends on how much the thing it hits is worth, and what it will cost to remove the debris.
