It is reported that Tom Carson, son of the late Judge Ransom Carson, is fatally ill at Crab Orchard from the effects of cigarette smoking. MR. AND MRS. J. F. LAUER have moved to Louisville, much to the regret of scores of friends made during their several years' stay here. J. T. HOCKER, who is conductor on a freight train on the C. V. CITY AND VICINITY.

Must be of locust or cedar and small as possible. Apply to W. P. Walton. BRIGHT FERRELL, a wheel-horse democrat of this county, but now in business at Junction City, has our thanks for a liberal sample of his wares, which we pronounce extra fine. ONE of the gentlemen in this office came within 3 of getting the capital prize in the last drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery. It begins to look like fortune, if not fame will some day crown the head of the newspaper man. MR. A. TRIMBLE, who has successfully run the Tribble House at Junction City for many years, has rented the Cumberland Hotel at Middlesboro, and will take possession February 1st. Mr. O. J. Thurmond will take charge of the hotel at Junction City. A DISPATCH from Nicholasville says: The residence of Mrs. Sallie C. Welch caught fire Saturday from a defective flue and the building and several outbuildings were destroyed. Part of the contents was saved. Loss, $3,000; insured in the North American for $1,000. Mrs. Welch formerly lived here.

A FIRST-CLASS store-room for rent. Centrally located in Stanford. T. W. Miller.

New white goods, Hamburgs, linen, edgings, table linen, napkins, &c. Severance & Son.

THE next attraction at the Opera House is the Royce & Lansing Musical Comedy Co. February 5th. It has been booked since November 16 and is said to be very fine.

ADDITIONAL calls on Mr. W. H. Miller to be a candidate to represent this county in the event the Constitutional Convention is called will be found in another column.

MR. S. S. MYERS received from his friend, Mr. A. L. Wilson, of Florida, a box of extra fine oranges raised by that gentleman, which he appreciates very much and which he is liberally dividing with his friends.

CITIZENS' ANTI SALOON MEETING.—All who are opposed to licensing the sale of intoxicants in the county of Lincoln, are requested to meet at the Court-house in Stanford on Saturday, 25th inst. at 1:30 o'clock P. M. The meeting to be irrefragable of party. Many Voters.

THE colored people are preparing for a well social and dance at Carr's restaurant on the night of the 23d. They have had a large number of invitations printed and upon them appears the names of Misses Sophia Whitley, Lena Salter and Annie Cook as committee on invitation.

I HAVE resumed charge of the Weatherford Hotel, at Hustonville, and will be glad to have my friends and the traveling public generally to stop with me. My rates are very reasonable and my table will be unsurpassed. Good livery attached. D. S. Carpenter, Hustonville.

THE surprise party gang got a black eye Saturday evening. Some 6 or 8 couples selected that time to surprise a young lady in the country, but on arriving at her home at a rather late hour she was found to be so sweetly sleeping that the raps, loud and long, on her door failed to disturb her slumbers.

THE Marshal arrested Ike Hubble and Henry Robinson, colored, on the charge of stealing $30 from Judge T. L. Shelton, but they proved that they found it and the judge was under the impression that he lost it on the street, so Judge Carson turned them loose. They had spent about $10 of the money.

A BUGGY containing Charley Carson and two lovely young ladies was overturned at the corner of Main and Lancaster streets Saturday afternoon and although all were thrown to the ground none of them were hurt. The display of hosiery is said to have been very fine. The buggy top suffered to some extent, but the damage was slight.

THE Daily Fort Scott Monitor says that the First National Bank, in which the Chenaults are largely interested, and many of our citizens are stockholders, has declared a semi-annual dividend, payable February 1, of 4 per cent, and is in a splendid shape. It is well managed and since its increased capitalization to $300,000 has the largest paid up capital in Southeastern Kansas.

SOME 75 of 100 citizens of Wayneburg publish a card in the Somerset Reporter denying that any Lincoln people went to Tateville to murder Squire D. Gooch. They simply went to get him to send some money to his destitute wife and family, whom he left to support themselves as best they can. They would be in the poor-house but for kind neighbors and friends who furnish them with food. The card gives Gooch a very bad name and names several parties, whom he has swindled in the meanest kind of way. As a majority of the signers are Gooches and presumably some kin to the fellow, it is pretty certain that they know whereof they affirm.

KILLED BY THE CARS.—Tim Arnold, one of the workmen on Capt. Geer's train, was killed near Laurel Station Thursday night. He had just finished eating supper and was stepping from the boarding car to the one he slept in, when he missed his footing and fell to the track. One of the men saw him fall and the train was stopped as soon as possible. He was found still breathing, but terribly mangled. Both legs were broken, a fearful gash was cut in his head and wounds showed on various other parts of his body. He lived only a short time and did not regain consciousness. The remains were brought here where his people live, for interment. He was about 20 years old and had not been at work for the road but a short time.

SPRINGROCK, 25 miles from Denver, Colorado, is the latest town on the booming calendar, or rather the town that is trying hardest to put on that appearance. The scheme is to give every other lot away for the small cost of recording the deed, which amounts to only $2.50, while the syndicate retains the intervening ones and will erect business and dwelling houses on them. This will induce the owners of the lots obtained so cheaply to build thus getting the outside world interested. Several lots have been secured by parties here and others have applied. Our friends, the Lancaster people, should not let this pass them, even if they are head and shoulders deep in the money Middlesboro has been the source of making for them.

FOREIGN fruits, candies and fancy cakes at R. Zimmer's.

OVERCOATS, cloaks and heavy boots at cost at S. L. Powers & Co's.

W. B. KIDD, of Clark county, has handled since the 1st of August, for the export trade, 4,470 cattle. The average weight was 1,580 pounds and the average price was $4.07 per hundred. The total value was $287,678.31.

B. S. TERRILL, of Berea, sold to Joseph Hendricks a car-load of cotton nules at $100. Col. Moberley has 10 yearling mules, 5 of which measure 15 3/4, three of them 15 2 and two of them 15 1 hands high. Who can beat this.—Register.

I WILL sell 50 shares of stock in the First National Bank of Stanford on next county court day in February to the highest bidder, unless sold privately before. H. T. Bush.

THE business of Mr. T. J. Hatcher has become so extensive that he has been compelled to employ an assistant and he has secured the services of Mr. Charles Kelley, a fine workman from Indiana.

SUICIDE OF JAS. M. PHILLIPS.—Worn out with suffering from which he could obtain no relief, Mr. James M. Phillips took his own life Friday afternoon. For ten years a continual pain in his head has driven him almost crazy and he had often threatened to end his earthly suffering by suicide. His family gave little attention to his threats, however, but how deeply in earnest he was is shown by his work of Friday. He seems to have gone about it in a methodical way. After writing several notes which he left on a table in a room that he took care to carefully close, he went into the stable which he also closed after him. He began by notching a rafter so that the rope could not slip, to which he tied a trace chain. Then fixing the wooden comforter that he always wore around his neck so that the chain would not tear the flesh, he looped it in position, and sliding from his perch in the loft, was choked to death, the fall failing to break his neck. About half an hour afterwards the notes were found and search for him commenced. He was soon discovered and strange to say the struggle had left no sign upon his features. He looked perfectly natural, his mouth and eyes being closed as if in sleep. Judge Varnon, on being notified, held an inquest, when a verdict was rendered in accordance with the above facts. In addition to a letter left for his wife in which he makes certain requests with regard to his private affairs, the following was found scrawled as if written on some rough substance:

FOR W. P. WALTON. JAS. M. PHILLIPS SUICIDED, Just because he had endured the torture for ten long years. Could get no relief from the Lord, although he had petitioned earnestly and fervently, and the physicians utterly failed. Hence this rash act. No comments please.

JAS. M. PHILLIPS. He also left a letter to Judge Varnon requesting him to ask Sam Harding, who holds the policy on his life for $5,000 for the benefit of his five children by his first wife, to collect the amount and pay his funeral expenses out of it before dividing it among them. He also held a policy in the State Grange for $2,000 for the benefit of his last wife, by whom he had four children. His property consists of 10 acres of land about a mile from town on the Danville pike, worth with the improvements perhaps $2,500. Mr. Phillips was 73 years old, a member of the Christian church and stood well with all who knew him. His remains were taken to Bryantsville for interment Sunday.

Dr. J. E. Gilbert, General Superintendent of the International Sunday School Institute, acting under the auspices of the Kentucky Sunday-School Union, will lecture at the Christian Church Saturday evening, Jan. 25th.
