SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., JANUARY 6, 1893

C. C. WALTON, BUS. Manager

PERSONAL POINTS.

Mrs. J. H. JULIAN is confined to her bed with grip. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gooch went to Harrodsburg Friday. Mr. Robert McAlister was over from Jessamine on business. Mr. Geo. H. Bruce, the boot and shoe man, was in town yesterday. Mrs. KENNIE BURNS has rented the "Red House" on Upper Main street. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MOKIN, of Nolichucky, are guests of Mr. O. J. Crow and wife. J. P. BRAY, representing the Central Cider Co., of Somerset, was here Tuesday. Mr. E. BELL has moved his family from Hubble to the Paxton farm, near town. Mr. J. B. PAXTON and wife have rented rooms of Mrs. Fannie Dunn and will keep house. Miss CETTIE THURMOND has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. May, at Frankfort. Mr. Joe P. BERTON, of Bowling, Ala., is here with old friends, as fat and as happy as ever. Mrs. JOE COPPEY went to Danville Wednesday to attend the Jackson-Shumate wedding. Dr. W. B. PENNY has moved his family to the W. H. Anderson property, on Somerset street. Miss MANNIE ALFORD came up from Louisville Wednesday and is the guest of relatives here. Mr. J. A. CHAPPELL is a little better and Dr. Peyton thinks the chances for his recovery are favorable. Miss BETTIE PAXTON was the first to arrive at this office a letter with the 10-cent stamp on it. GAO. E. STARR, Esq., of Liberty, was here this week on legal business and stopped at the Myers House. Miss NETTIE WRAY returned to her sister's in Louisville yesterday, after spending a few days at home. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. ELLIS are comfortably located in one of the pretty Helm cottages on East Main Street. Mrs. DR. BLACK and Misses Catha and Henry Fish, of Crab Orchard, have been the guests of Mrs. J. G. Carpenter. JAMES B. GENTRY has joined his brother Richard at Thomasville, Ga., and they will go together from there to New Mexico. MR. JOHN C. McWHORTER, door-keeper of the Lower House of the Kentucky Legislature, was the guest of his friend, W. H. JOHNSON. DR. C. C. TAYLOR, of Lake Creek, Tex., returned to Vanderbilt University, after spending the holidays with his aunt, Mrs. Lewis Dudder. Messrs. W. F. CARROLL and Arthur Smith, of Lebanon, are visiting relatives at Hustonville. The former paid us a pleasant call Wednesday. JUDGE J. B. DENNIS who is still traveling for a buggy house, was here yesterday looking even better than when he left Stanford a decade ago. MR. WILL CRAIG, of Millersburg, was here this week. He says that the arrest of Mr. Leon, the man who ran away with his daughter, Miss Mary, was made under a misapprehension. They were duly married in Cincinnati and as soon as proof could be had he was released from jail, which is a very damp and dingy kind of place to spend one's honeymoon. Mr. Leon is a scene painter, stands well and is not the worthless tramp the dispatches made him.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Get your birth stone rings at Danks', the jeweler. YOUR account is ready. Call and settle. I mean you. A. R. PENNY. THE Tri-Weekly Advocate, Danville, three times a week for $2. Write for copy. NEEDED.—What you owe me and need it bad. Accounts all copied. Please call and settle. A. A. WARREN. FOR SALE, CHEAP.—A good, gentle carriage horse, a nice phaeton and a good second hand carriage. George D. WEAREN. MY customers will greatly oblige me by paying their accounts, which are past due. Don't wait but pay at once. Miss Annie Wray. T. J. HATCHER has moved his shoe shop to the up stairs over Bruce & Yeager's livery stable where he will do work for cash only. THE Hustonville National Bank also declared a dividend of 3 per cent. Its surplus is now $15,000 and its undivided profits $2,945.72. BRODHEAD, Burgin and Shelby City have just been made money order offices. Our subscribers at those points will please make a note of this and send us an order, if they are in arrears. MR. W. H. HIGGINS is happy again. He is back with his first love, the grocery business, and can be found opposite the Coffey House, where he is disposing of cheap bargains for cash. Read his advertisement and call on him.

P. HAMPTON shipped over 200 rabbits to Louisville Tuesday. GOLD RING LOST.—Finder please leave at this office and receive reward. WE are closing out our stock of queensware and glassware at cost. W. H. WEAREN & Co. H. C. RUDLEY, the merchant tailor, may be found over the store of Severance & Son. ALL accounts of B. K. & W. H. Wear-en are ready for settlement. Please call and settle now. BACK AGAIN.—New store, new goods. Come and see us old friends and new ones. W. B. McRoberts. THE best resolve you can make with the beginning of the year is to pay your honest debts. Make it and stick to it. ACCOUNTS that are past due and not paid by the first of January will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection. We need the money that is due us NOW. Sine & Menefee. THE splendid Minstrel Co., which gave such great satisfaction here last winter, Sweeney, Alvino, Gorman & Goetz, are booked for a performance at Walton's Opera House, Monday night, Jan. 16. THE boys are telling on Capt. Frank Harris that he presented a box of cigars to the railroad man who addressed him a letter as superintendent and gave another 10 days who wrote to him as chief train dispatcher. He is master of trains. JOHN RIFE, of the West End, has bought out the store of Walter Greening at Hustonville. The price paid was $1,200. Mr. Rife will enlarge the stock of groceries and hardware and continue the business, while Mr. Greening will likely go to Texas. J. K. VANARSDALE is not through opening yet, but is prepared to wait on the public to the best and cheapest line of groceries and hardware ever brought to this city. Call on him and see if he is not the cheapest man that ever sold goods in the county. THE Stanford Water, Light & Ice Co. has declared a quarterly dividend of 2 per cent., payable at the office of Secretary and Treasurer A. R. PENNY. If it can do this well at the start a great deal may be expected by the investors, who evidently have a good thing. TO THE TEACHERS OF COMMON SCHOOLS.—The JANUARY draft has been received. Please call Saturday next, or as soon thereafter as convenient, and get your money. Remember I must have your teacher's registers properly signed by the chairman of board of trustees before you can receive last payment. W. F. McClary. ANOTHER COLD WAVE.—The weather continues to grow worse. Snow and rain have alternated till the streets are well nigh impassable, being as slick as glass. At this writing it is as cold as Christmas, add the following dispatch from Washington to this office received yesterday promises a greater frigidly: "Hoist cold wave signal. Temperature will fall 16 to 29° by Friday morning. JUDGE M. C. SAUFLEY has made the following appointments in his district: Boyle, Charles C. Fox, commissioner, no appointment for jury fund; Garrard, Jno. W. Miller, commissioner; R. E. McRoberts, trustee; Lincoln, R. C. Warren, commissioner; J. M. Cook, trustee, and Mercer, Thomas H. Phelps commissioner and Elder W. T. Corn trustee. Judge Saufley's first judicial act was performed yesterday, when he refused to take action on a motion to dissolve the attachment of E. B. Hayden against W. L. Murphy, because he had no power in vacation to adjudicate the questions involved. THE impromptu hop at Walton's Opera House Wednesday night, gotten up by Mr. and Mrs. Danks, was attended by 20 or more dancing couples, besides quite a number of spectators and proved a pleasant affair in every particular. It began at a reasonable hour and closed at 1:30 A. M., a very respectable time, considering that the boys usually stay all night and go home with the girls in the morning. The music was furnished by Prof. Lott's band, of Danville, and was very good. The following were the visiting young ladies: Misses Lillian Miller, Elizabeth Bennett, Richmond; Minnie Rosselle, Lexington; Sue Bright, Hubble; Allie Harlan, Deira Baughman, Danville; Jean Buchanan, Lottie Dillon, Crab Orchard. The Stanford ladies were: Misses Annie Hale, Annie Alcorn, Helen Saufley, Mary Dudderlar, Nan and Kit Baughman, Annie Shanks, Clara and Ophelia Lackey, Annie, Nettie and Georgie Wray, Essie Burch, Mary Bruce, Mrs. M. F. North, Mrs. B. H. Danks, Mrs. T. A. Rice, Mrs. Frank McKinney. The visiting gentlemen were: Willis Moore, Lancaster; James Yeager, Will Brewer, Will Harlan, Utter Pope, Danville; Dolph Rice, Will Marksburg, Garrard; Dr. D. L. Fry, Kirksville. The Stanford gentlemen were: B. H. Danks, M. F. North, T. A. Rice, Dr. A. S. Price, G. A. Lackey, W. B. McKinney, W. A. Tribble, Jack Rout, Thos. Yeager, Harve Helm, Will Wearen, Wallace Withers, Charley Carson, James C. Reid, Carroll Shanks, Frank McKinney, Joe Embry, Will Baughman, Jack Beasley, Jim Baughman, Carrol Bailey, J. P. and Will Burton.

It was snowing like Helen Blazes when we went to press last night. A number of Stanford people filled their houses with 4 and 5 inch ice. This is bad on the ice plant, but it will doubtless have all it can do next summer. THE Williamsburg Times says a negro cut Conductor J. B. Douglas on the hand, when he tried to eject him from the train for disorderly conduct. The negro's wife, who was on the train and also drunk, took a hand in the fray and made several vicious strokes with a knife at the conductor. Both Wood and his wife were finally put off the train and the man was knocked in the head. THE Glee Club, recently organized for social enjoyment, held its first meeting with the Misses Baughman, Monday night. Over 40 were present and if the initial meeting be indicative of the success of the club, its originators will deserve and receive the sincere gratulation of all the members. A by-law of the club prohibits an invitation to an outsider, but is not limited to membership. It will hold meetings every two weeks at the homes of the members and each entertainment will be different from the other. The one Monday night was a masked party and so well were some of the young ladies and gentlemen disguised that they were not known till their faces were uncovered. The manner of drawing partners for the supper, which was elegantly served and heartily enjoyed, was by matching cards. Quotations had been written on them and the cards cut in fantastic shapes. The pieces were drawn and the lady and gentleman, whose cards together gave the full quotation, became each other's company. This matching of cards proved one of the most amusing parts of the programme, which all enjoyed very greatly, and resulted as follows: Misses Elizabeth Bennett, Richmond, represented a Greek girl and drew Newt Craig, who appeared as a negro; Louise Bailey, Japanese girl, drew Harvey Helm, Uncle Sam; Eddie Adams, Danville, Phantom; J. H. Garrard, Manchester, Boody Villain; Ophelia Lackey, Milk Maid, W. H. Wearen, Hamlet; Clara Lackey, Sweet Sixteen; Will Severance, Josh Dye; Ophelia Summers, Grecian Girl, Wallace Withers in Hamlet costume; Nancy Baughman, Phantom; J. P. Burton, School Boy; Jennie Summers, Little Red Ridinghood; Will Craig, Gentleman of the 19th Century; Miss Deira Baughman, Danville, Pansy Girl, R. G. Denny, Catholic Priest; Sue Baughman, Desdemona; Will Burton, School Boy; Lotie Tipton, Japanese Girl, W. B. McKinney, Fireman; Annie Alcorn, Village Belle, P. M. McRoberts, Gentleman of the 19th Century; Miss Carroll Bailey, Kentucky Blue Bell, Dr. A. S. Price, Lady's Page; Gertrude Howard, Peasant Girl, J. S. Wells, Dude; Mary Alcorn, Old Fashioned Girl, Tom Lackey, Gentleman of the 19th Century; Nettie Wray, Empress Josephine, J. D. Wearen, Knight; Laura McAnally, Stanford Roller Mills, Will Baughman, Dude; Elise Whitman, Sunflower Girl, J. H. White, Manchester, Bloated Bondholder; Bessie Richards, Priestess, W. A. Tribble, Lady's Page; Kate Wray, Night, J. H. Baughman, Santa Claus; Georgie Wray, Winter, Gabe Lackey, Satyr; Katherine Baughman, Sunflower; Jones Baughman, Hustonville, Geranium; Albert Severance, Kentucky Pink, failed to secure a partner, as she was so ugly. The guests bade a reluctant adieu to their charming hostesses at 1 A. M. and went to their homes delighted with the entertainment, the memory of which will linger long in happy hearts. MATRIMONIAL MATTERS. —The buttons on the wedding dress of a New York millionaire's daughter, recently married, were made of jewels and cost $100 each. —Clever John Jackson, of London, and his pretty bride, who was Miss Nellie Shumate, of Danville, were made one at Danville yesterday, have our best wishes. May their lives be one continual season of happiness. —A very quiet wedding was that of Mrs. Sarah Perkins, sister of our clever distiller, W. H. Traylor, and Mr. George Evans, of Garrard, which occurred at 4 P. M. Wednesday. Only a few persons were present. Rev. Frank officiated. JUNCTION CITY. —Miss Lillie Shannon is visiting her cousin in Middleburg. —Mr. William Hunn, of Shelby City, went up to visit friends at Versailles. —Miss Mary Vanoy, of Stanford, is spending a few days with Miss Lizzie Hood. —Mr. E. L. Grubbs returned home Friday, after a short visit to friends in Monticello. —Mrs. I. M. Beasley has returned to the Tribble House to remain. Mr. E. Beasley spent a day or two with friends in Lincoln. —Miss Ora Vanarsdall, of Harrodsburg, who has been visiting Mrs. Jake Rose, has returned. —Mr. James Hockett, who is an operator at Rowland, returned home Saturday night and has accepted a position as night baggage man of the L. & N. —Miss Lillie Grubbs, of Shelby City, is spending several weeks with her friend, Miss Ed. Graves at Versailles. —Miss M. M. Inwiddie, of Hustonville, who was with her cousin, Miss E. of this place, went home

—Quite an enjoyable entertainment was given by the Misses Carney Saturday night. There was a large crowd present notwithstanding the inclement weather. An excellent lunch was served which was greatly enjoyed. A number of pleasant games was indulged in. —Henry Duncan, negro, was hung by a mob of London, Tenn., for the murder of a white woman. —At Nashville the democratic Senate caucus nominated William O. Dismukes to succeed himself as speaker. —A work train and a freight train collided on the Baltimore and Ohio, killing 8 persons and wounding several others. —Sam Jones is drawing great crowds at Hopkinsville. One of his choice sentences, as reported by the Kentuckian, was, "A saloon-keeper is like a louse, he lives off the head of the family." —It is stated that Post-master General Wanamaker's estimate of $1,500,000 as the profits of the government from the sale of the new series of Columbian postage stamps is likely to be exceeded. —Hon. Luzon B. Morris, who was elected governor of Connecticut by the democrats two years ago, but was denied his office by republican officers and courts, was inaugurated Wednesday, having been vindicated by re-election by a majority vote at the recent election. Bucklin's Arnica Salve. The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, on no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.
