O. P. Huffman bought of Sam Helm a small bunch of heifers at 24c, some of same of S. G. Scanlon at 3c and a bunch of hogs of J. H. Swope at 34c.

The Winchester Democrat says the meeting at the Cumberland Presbyterian church there closed with 77 conversions and 33 additions to the church.

Gen. John B. Castleman, Louisville, has offered the Shakers near Harrodsburg, $23,000 for what is known as the "Office Brick," and 700 acres of their land.

Box won the Kenton stakes at Latonia Saturday, defeating Eugenia Wilkes, White Frost and The Elector in the order named. White Frost was favorite.

At St. Louis 216 saddlers and harness horses sold at an average of $180. The highest price paid for a single pair was $1,350, the highest price for a single horse $900.

Cotton reached the lowest prices in 40 years, with the exception of 1894. The January future sold down to 6.10 cts, a pound, as against 6.29 cts. at the close on Friday.

The export of wheat during the month of September, just past, beat all records. It amounted to 25,803,838 bushels against 17,646,815 for the same period last year.

The Bourbon News says that Moses Kahn bought 70 1,380-pound cattle at 4c, and Welsh 43 1,500-pound do at 4c. J. E. Clay bought 100 shoats, 100 ponies, at $4 each.

At Durham, N. C., seven four-story wooden prize houses, filled with tobacco, and eight dwellings were destroyed by fire. The total loss is $250,000, with $200,000 insurance.

It is estimated that fully $530,000 was bet in the auction pools on the trots. It is a new record for Lexington. The association made money and will be able to pay out of debt.

A Minnesota farmer insists that corn makes a better and cheaper fuel than coal. He raised enough corn on 10 acres to heat his house and feed two horses and a cow through the winter.

The old mule owned by the Jones Lumber Company, at Williamsburg, fell from the tramway Thursday and was instantly killed. The mule had been at work on the trestle for 12 years.

B. Hayes Brammett, of Somerset, has answered the advertisement of the Queen of the Maoris for a husband and cabled her he will go to her as soon as she sends him the wherewithal for his passage.

Robert J. and John R. Gentry will pace a match race at Louisville Friday. Brown, the regular driver of the horses against time, will handle the reins over his choice, while Ed Geers will drive the other.

From January 1st to September 14th the Kansas City dressed meat houses killed 600,584 sheep, an increase of nearly 30 per cent. over the record for corresponding date last year. They report prices 75 cents to $1.25 higher than last year.

The greatest amount of money won on the turf by any single horse in any country is $200,000, which amount is to the credit of Isinglass. The largest American winner is Domino, $202,335. The sons and daughters of Longfellow won nearly $1,300,000.

The Advocate says that Cogar & Davis have handled 200 cars of wheat this season of 800 bushels to the car, making a grand total of 160,000 bushels. At an average of 80 cents per bushel, the firm has paid out fully $128,000. This wheat was mostly shipped South, but some of it East for export.

LANCASTER.

G. S. Greenleaf has gone to St. Louis to visit relatives.

Mr. T. L. Harris sold to W. G. Anderson a fine cow, weighing 1,670 lbs., at 3c.

Capt. Louis Landram leaves to-day (Monday) to attend the Grand Masonic Lodge at Louisville, representing Lancaster Lodge, No. 104.

Mr. Elisha Boyce, aged 22, died of pneumonia Wednesday at his home near Paint Lick. A long procession of friends and relatives followed the remains to Lancaster Cemetery Thursday.

J. F. Carter and George Robinson, of Paint Lick, went to Bloomington, Ill., several days ago in search of Grant Burch, who is charged with breaking into a store at Cartersville, also with breaking into James Henry's distillery warehouse near Paint Lick. They returned with him on Saturday night and he was lodged in jail. John Clossie is also held on the charge of breaking into the store-room.

The sensational report to the effect that all local option districts would become subject to saloon licenses after Sept. 28 proves to be a fake, as Chief Justice Lewis holds that all local prohibitory laws remain in force, the only change being that penalties for violating such laws shall become uniform. This news will be gladly received here and will put a quietus on the question which would have been agitated again.

If the republican administration is the cause of the advance in wheat it is surely the cause of the scarcity of water and all the evil effects resulting therefrom. The supply of wheat was diminished in the Old World by natural causes, and so is water. They have put a price on water in many instances, and in all cases we pay for the hauling. This gives the laborer employment, but there are more consumers of water than there are laborers, so they have failed to do the greatest good to the greatest number.

In 18 days after the death of L. N. Gastineau his widow received $2,000 from the Knights of the Maccabees. It would have been received in 10 days if J. Joseph the record keeper, had been at home to prepare the proof of death. He had been a member for about three years and his assessments on $2,000 amounted to about half what his premiums would have cost in an old line insurance company, and the security was just as good, there being 225,000 good men bound for the payment of the claims and the amount set apart for monetary purposes is the same as that set apart by the old system companies.

The people have said that insurance was too high by placing $15,000,000,000 of insurance in natural premium or assessment companies. News reached here Saturday that Mrs. J. I. Douglass, of Lebanon Junction, formerly of this city, was dangerously ill. Her uncle, W. J. Romans, aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Petty, and her brother, W. R. Jennings, left at once for her bedside. She died before their arrival and the remains were brought to Mr. Romans' residence in this city Saturday night. Funeral services were conducted by Elder George Gowen on Sunday at 3 p. m. and a very large crowd attended the burial in Lancaster Cemetery. Deceased was formerly Miss Lizzie Jennings, daughter of Mrs. Jane Jennings, and was in her 31st year. She leaves many prominent relatives, a babe 8 days old and her devoted husband, Mr. J. I. Douglas, together with a host of friends to mourn her untimely departure. She was a devoted member of the Christian church, a pure and noble young woman, to whom everybody was attached.

Over confidence has been the direct cause of many defeats in the different professions and vocations of life, and it is none the less true in political campaigns. The fable of the hare and tortoise is fitly applicable in many cases of defeat. Constant and united exertion alone insures success, especially when the enemy is working in the dark, and resorting to every scheme and cunningly devised plan to bring about defeat. The best political organizer in the State said that he always worked in an election just as if he needed one more vote and the result was that he was always elected. The democrats should learn a lesson from this and each should realize that the election of his ticket depends in a measure on his vote and his personal efforts to induce his neighbors and friends to vote. Constant work and perfect organization alone can insure victory. Let us pull together and have an old-fashioned love feast after the enemy has been defeated.

Saturday being the last day to place candidates on the ballot by petition the following were added for city councilmen: E. D. Bishop, James Dillon, William George and W. K. Shugars. This makes 11 candidates from whom six are to be selected. This will place the sable citizens of Battle Row in demand, as that place is to Lancaster as Tammany Hall is to New York, and the Old Ark is the Wigwag. A. L. Anderson will make the race for constable against T. J. Hammond, whose name is under the rooster. Mr. Hammond's friends claim that he is an easy winner. A petition to place the name of Mr. John Saunders on the ballot for magistrate was filed. The most sensational petition filed and one which will deal consternation in republican ranks was filed by Hon. Wright Kelley to make the race as an independent candidate for the Legislature with the picture of Abraham Lincoln as his device. He was the republican nominee for the same office in 1895 and was defeated, although Gov. Bradley carried the county by 357. Kelley's friends claim that he was traded off and they will now support him against Marscoe, the regular nominee. It is believed that his candidacy will weaken the republican ticket.

DELIBERATELY LIED.

MCKINNEY, Oct. 16.—In reply to Mr. J. M. Johnson's denial I will admit that he was not with the posse in pursuit of the girl but did give Upthegrove the revolver and told him to kill the rascal on first sight and further stated that he would stand between him and all danger, adding he had less use for a Negro than any man living. Mr. Johnson deliberately lied when he stated that J. S. Lee ever attempted to break up a republican dog fight on South Fork.

To the people of Lincoln—These are facts and can be proven by 15 ready witnesses. My proof is ready whenever he will pursue a course to clear himself.

I further state that Mr. Johnson said the reason he was now a republican is that the democrats knifed him too deep the last campaign. J. S. LEE.

President Spencer, of the Southern railroad, makes this gratifying report: During the year 1851 new manufacturing establishments of various kinds were located at points upon the company's road. There have been completed during the year on the lines of the company cotton factories alone working 163,000 spindles and 3,000 looms, the total cost of which has been nearly $2,000,000, and at the close of the year there are under construction additional mills which will include 62,500 spindles.

Three persons were killed and over a score injured in Robinson's opera house, Cincinnati, during the performance of "Dangers of a Great City" Friday night. The great central truss of the ceiling crashed down among the audience, and it is a miracle that many more were not killed. Of the many taken to the hospitals, several will die, while others will be crippled or maimed for life.

Yellow fever has made its appearance at Bay St. Louis, Miss. Seven cases and one suspect have been officially reported. Except at New Orleans the fever seems to be dying out for lack of material. At New Orleans Sunday there were five deaths and 24 new cases.

John Malloy, of Duquesne, Pa., prosecuted his eight-year-old son for stealing $42 from him and the jury in its verdict recommended that the court reprimand the father and let the boy go free.

Charles Duvall Decker, the N. Y. Journal newspaper correspondent, who rescued Miss Cisneros from a Spanish prison, forged a passport and sailed from Havana, reaching New York in safety.

The jury at Benton, in the case of Noah Franklin, charged with the murder of 17-year-old Daisy Sullivan, returned a verdict of guilty and fixed his punishment at life imprisonment.

At Hopkinsville Parker McComb was given a verdict for $7,000 damages against the L. & N. for the loss of both his legs, which were cut by a train. The case will be appealed.

A Scott county jury gave Sam Wright one cent against James W. Duvall, whom the former had sued for $10,000 for charging that he had stolen fodder from him.

An attempt was made Saturday night to wreck train No. 3 on the L. & N. near Lagrange. A young Negro, who confessed his guilt, is under arrest there.

A heavy snow-storm swept over Southeastern Idaho.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.—Miss Sue Woner's birthday party given in honor of her little niece, Mae Baker, of Burgin, and Marguerite Warren, of this place, was quite an enjoyable affair. Miss Jennie Hocker and Mrs. Wallace Varnon assisted Miss Emelyne Alexander and Miss Sue in serving the little tots. Those present were Misses Marguerite Warren, Katherine Reid, Annie L. Cooper, Louise Payne, Lucy Lee Walton, Elizabeth Higgins, Gracie Brady, Jen Saunders, Mary Craig Hayden, Martha Varnon, Louise Paine and Mae Baker.

RELIGIOUS.

It took 10 gallons of wine to serve 4,000 communicants at a service held by the Christian church at Indianapolis Sunday.

In response to a petition signed by members of all the churches, Rev. H. C. Morrison began a meeting at Bowling Green yesterday.

The Tennessee Baptist State Convention, in session at Fayetteville, voted not to allow the introduction of any resolution on the Whitsitt matter.

Dr. McGregor, of Atlanta, who recently held a meeting at the Baptist church, Danville, had 16 additions to last accounts at his meeting at Versailles.

Rev. Henry Miller was on yesterday's train en route to Middlesboro. In the last two months he has held meetings at Ford, Valley View, Silver Creek Chapel and Silver Creek School-house, in Madison, with a total of 100 brought into the fold of the Presbyterian church. He will begin a meeting at Kirksville the latter part of this week.

The Women's Parsonage Aid Society of the M. E. church closed a week of prayer by special services Sunday night, in which 12 ladies read papers and others essays on the work, as follows: Mrs. J. W. Bryant, Mrs. J. H. Turner and Misses Sallie Lynn, Stella Ruple, Annie Darst, Mamie Lynn, Fannie Spoonamore, Jennie Lynn, Jennie Pence, Grace, Catherine and Linda Grinstead. The music consisted of special selections furnished by the choir, with Mrs. J. H. Turner, of Nicholasville, as organist, assisted by J. L. Ray with violin. On the whole, it was a very creditable affair and the society deserves much praise and encouragement in its work.

BIG DINNER TO BE GIVEN AT CALVIN WHITT'S.

To the Editor of the Interior Journal: On Friday, Oct. 22, there will be a grand dinner at Calvin Whitt's on Cedar Creek, about three miles from Crab Orchard. Fontaine Fox Bobbitt is to speak on the past history of this country, and show who made it so great and boundless and what party well-nigh destroyed it. The candidates for county offices are invited to be there in full force and effect. Capt. Whitt has an inexhaustible well of the purest water in Lincoln county. Everybody invited and especial invitation extended to those terrestrial angels denominated the ladies, in common parlance.

CALVIN WHITT.

ED ROWLAND ON POLK MILLER.

DANVILLE, Oct. 16.—Mr. H. F. Smith tells me that you are going to have my friend, Polk Miller, with you, and I wish to say that he is undoubtedly the grandest entertainer it has ever been my pleasure to see. I had him here last year, and at my own home, and if any one wants to enjoy a good laugh, go and see Polk Miller. I never saw a man in my life who could tell a Negro story, or portray the old darkey better than he, and his banjo playing beats anything you ever heard. I had him a full house last year, and have already sold 200 seats for him for the 22d and will fill the house.

ED S. ROWLAND.

Retrenchment and reform seem to be the order of the day everywhere but in Lincoln. The Bourbon fiscal court has reduced the salary of the keeper of the poor house from $700 to $500, and has reduced the sum allowed the jailer for superintending the care of the court-house from $200 to $75. The appropriation of $500 to supplement the salary of the Commonwealth's attorney was discontinued.

John Sherman says the government of Spain may have the right to demand the return of Evangelina Cisneros, the escaped Cuban prisoner, and the punishment of her American liberator, but it is not likely the people would see her given up without a struggle.

President Patterson, of the Kentucky State College, has denied the use of the dormitory to Nuthall, Ward and Lee, the three best men on the football team, which means that the College will have no team on the gridiron this season.

William Campbell, an old soldier of Crawfordsville, Ind., ate a piece of bread literally covered with rough on rats and fearing that would not prove fatal ate a lot of Paris Green. He died several hours later after suffering untold agony.

At Carlisle, Ed Crump, aged 14, shot Sam Wilson, the same age, in the abdomen, from the effects of which he died in a few minutes. The youths were enemies, but Crump claims the shooting was accidental.

W. H. Hardin, of Woodgrove, O., is the father of a 11-pound baby, which is perfectly formed and which is apparently in the best of health. A silver dollar completely hides the little thing's face.

Friday, Oct. 22, has been set apart by the schools of Kentucky as a day dedicated to the memory of Daniel Boone.
