Chicago

FRANK J. REED, G. P. A., Chicago.
E. H. BACON, Louisville.
D. P. A. Looker, Louisville.

My wife has used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with great relief, and I can recommend it as a splendid liniment for rheumatism and other household use for which we have found it valuable.—W. J. CUYLER, Red Creek, N. Y.

Mr. Cuyler is one of the leading merchants of this village and one of the most prominent men in this vicinity.—W. G. PHELPS, Editor Red Creek Herald. For sale by CRAIG & HOCKER, Druggists.

MT. VERNON.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams rejoice over the birth of their first born—a three pound girl.

The large and handsome residence of Judge Bethurum near here was consumed by fire last Friday night; very little of contents were saved.

Elder Carmichael preached one of his best sermons on Easter Sunday, although in very feeble health. The congregation was large and enjoyed the beautiful thoughts upon the Resurrection.

At the last meeting of the W. C. T. U. at the home of Mrs. Dr. A. G. Lovell new officers were elected, being Mrs. Rosalind Nesbit, president; Mrs. Mary Smith, vice president; Miss Sallie Carmichael, rec. secretary; Mrs. M. C. Williams, cor. secretary, and Mrs. Geo. Gentry, treasurer.

J. W. Nesbitt has been at home from Virginia for a few days. Dr. George Lawrence has located in Lancaster. Miss Mamie Jones won the gold medal at Livingston. Mr. J. K. McClary entertained a number of friends at an Easter dinner. His charming daughter, Miss Margaret, assisted in entertaining.

All but one of the blind tigers of town have been closed by Judge Williams. One of the chief proprietors said he would not have been put in jail but for the work of the ladies. Yes, there is a strong temperance sentiment here and the women are not afraid to work and pray for "God and Home and Native Land." The beautiful example set by Miss Christine Bradley was heartily approved by the Mt. Vernon Union.

Several Presbyterian ministers were in our town, among them being Drs. McDonald and Ely, of Danville. It was said that Presbytery would convene here in May, but for some mysterious reason it has been transferred to Danville. We will say for the Mt. Vernon people that their hearts and homes are always open to deserving strangers and all will be hospitably entertained if the Presbytery should be held here, but we do not need a missionary by any means.

After 53 days of pain, which he heroically endured, the iron constitution of Mr. L. C. King at last yielded, and death came to his relief as stated in these columns at the time. He confessed Christ early in life, but was more firmly convinced of the wonders and beauties of His love as he lay upon a bed of unrelieved pain. He conversed touchingly with men who showed no love for religion and brought them to their knees by his bedside. A wife and four children weep for him. Bro. Ira M. Boswell preached the funeral sermon at the Christian church, throwing into the discourse all the tenderness of a gentle heart and adorning beautiful lessons for the living. The remains were interred at the old family burying ground.

HUBBLE.

Rev. Matthews will preach at the Methodist church Sunday morning.

A tax of 10 cents on the $100 worth of property and $1 poll has been assessed to repair the school house here.

On account of the rain last Sunday Bro. Gowen will fill his appointment at the Christian church next Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

Sidney Dunbar has gone to Russell county to see his sick mother. Mrs. A. L. Spoonamore has gone to Garrard to visit friends.

T. C. Rankin sold his wheat to Baughman for 90c. C. C. Gover bought some hogs of Frank Rigney at 3c. Wm. Blanks and Frank Bourne bought 70 acres of the Watty Sutton farm from Joseph Hamilton at $25. Charley Anderson bought some shoats here a few days ago at 3c.

Your scribe has talked to a good many democrats in regard to Hon. Jas. B. McCreary as nominee for Congress and judging from them we believe that Mr. McCreary will get a large majority of the democratic votes over any one who may run, or as the saying goes, "will carry this precinct solid." Most of the democrats here think he should be given the nomination without opposition.

Died, on the 13th inst., Ira Gooch, son of James M. Gooch. He had been on the decline for some months and his death was not a surprise. He was just in the prime of life, and this should be another warning to the boys who care nothing about their future. They should remember that the young may die while the old must die. Funeral services were held Thursday at 9 a. m., at the residence, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Singleton burying ground. The family has the sympathy of the entire neighborhood.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF STANFORD, KY.
Capital Stock $100,000. Surplus, $15,750

Attention of the public is called to the fact that this is the only National Bank in Stanford. Under the provisions of the National Bank Act depositors are secured not only by the capital stock but by the stockholders' liability for an amount equal in the stock so that depositors of this institution are secured by a fund of $200,000. Five sworn statements of the condition of the Bank are made each year to the United States Government and its assets are examined at stated times by government agents, thus securing additional and perfect safety to depositors.

This institution originally established as the People's Bank of Stanford in 1858, then reorganized as the National Bank of Stanford in 1865 and again reorganized as the First National Bank of Stanford in 1882, has had practically an unbroken existence for 40 years. It is better supplied now with facilities for transacting business promptly and liberally than ever before in its long and honorable career.
