MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Miss Nannie Trimbie, daughter of H. G. Trimbie, was married at Somerset Wednesday to Dr. S. O. Eads, of Arthur, Ill.

Warren Beckwith, Robert T. Lincoln's base-ball son-in-law, has enlisted in the army. He seems to have tired of married life quickly.

The marriage of Miss Edith Stayveant Dresser to George W. Vandebilt took place in Holy Trinity Church, Paris, at noon yesterday.

Rolly Doone and Miss Sarah Pendergass, each 15 years old, were married at the bride's home at Grand Rivers, this State. A big reception was given them by the groom's parents after the ceremony.

Miss Bruce Sandifer, daughter of Judge N. Sandifer, of Louisville, and Marshall A. Hill, of Covington, were married at Danville Wednesday by Rev. J. L. Clark. The groom is a member of the wholesale grocery firm of G. W. Hill & Co.

Mr. Geo. W. Metcalf, of Hopkinsville, and Miss Lella Tuttle, of Monticello, were married there last week. Mr. Metcalf had never met his bride until he went to Monticello to lead her to the altar. They were introduced by mutual friends some time ago, and the courtship was carried on by letter.

A couple were recently married in this section and the bride invited an old aunt to the wedding. The cards were well affairs and in one corner bore the inscription: "No children expected." After scanning the card closely over her specks, the old lady said: "That's all right, but they'll have 'em just the same."—Southside Items in Owingsville.

NEWS IN THE VICINAGE.

Mrs. Nannie Clark, wife of R. W. Clark, Lebanon, died of heart disease. Stafford Jones, a well-known citizen of Madison and a Mexican veteran, is dead aged 73.

Mat Belcher, a noted desperado, was instantly killed by Talton Napier, in Bell county.

Lee Brittain killed Jonah Saylor in Bell county, after Saylor had shot at him several times.

News comes from Somerset that Dr. George Perkins is in a precarious condition from paralysis.

Several hundred warrants have been sworn out at Danville against the owners of dogs who have failed to pay license.

The Middleboro News says that W. O. Speed and W. S. Tuttle, of Junction City, have been there with a view to locating.

The Centre College team will play the Kentucky University base ball nine on the Centre College grounds Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The fiscal court fixed the county levy at 62 cents. Dr. W. M. Gibson was given the pauper and jail practice at $175 per annum, succeeding Dr. L. J. Frazier, who has been jail physician for 20 years.—Richmond Register.

HUBBLE.

J. J. Walker has completed his barn, which is one of the best in the county. John House' little boy was playing with a elder mill a few days ago when it caught his hand in the cogs and so badly bruised it that one of his fingers had to be amputated.

Terhune, of Mercer county, was here last week buying mule colts, for which he paid $40 to $50 for good mares mules. Dunbar, Givens and the Eubanks brothers sold their hemp to Marksbury at $1. George Wood bought a lot of hogs to go on slop at 3¢ to 3½¢. G. A. Swinebrood and others sold to D. N. Prewitt a lot of lambs some days ago at 5¢, which he received here this week. A. M. Luce and George Wood sold to O. P. Huffman some fat heifers and cows at 3½¢. R. L. White sold his old wheat to the Stanford mills at $1.10. Ed Minor lost a mule colt from lock-jaw.

Miss Katie White has gone to New York. Miss Emma Johnson closed her school here Friday with a good exhibition and all were delighted with her as a teacher and a lady. T. C. Rankin is in Wayne county to see his father. S. Dunbar is having his house painted. E. A. White and sister, Miss Mattie, have returned from the commencement of J. N. Hughes' excellent school at Wilmore. The elocutionary exercises under the instruction of Miss Ella Carson, from this county were especially good. Mrs. George Lawson is on the sick list. George Wood is chilling again. Mr. Hughes, of Mercer, was here this week looking for a farm. He saw the Menefee and other farms but so far has not bought.

Dr. Tyler has sworn out warrants against 12 members of Company F, who participated in the rough treatment of his son, Private S. S. Tyler, several days ago. They were presented in the Lexington Police Court yesterday. Local option carried at Flemingsburg by 39 votes, a gain of 19 over the vote of three years ago.

POLITICAL POINTS.

WANAMAKER GETS LEFT. HARRISBURG, PA., June 2.—W. A. Stone was nominated by the republican convention for governor of Pennsylvania over John Wanamaker.

The supreme court has decided that a collector can remove his subordinates. OLLIE JAMES, of the first district, declines to become a candidate for Congress, giving as a reason that he does not wish to complicate matters.

Many unjust things have been said of President McKinley, but it remained for the El Diario, of Madrid, with unconscious humor, to perpetrate the following: "It will no doubt surprise our readers to learn that the Yankee President Magrinly is a naturalized Chinaman, having been born in Canton."

The Mt. Sterling Gazette says a big sensation will shortly be sprung at Frankfort seriously involving the reputation of a prominent attorney of that bar who is well-known throughout the State. The facts will all be brought to light through a suit in the courts, and if they are as have been represented to us, the gravest consequences are sure to follow.

Senator William Goebel presided at a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee in Louisville. The committee approved the list of precinct committeemen for Louisville and Jefferson county submitted by Committeeman John L. Dunlap. The action of the committee is considered a great victory for Mr. Goebel, who is making a strong race for the democratic nomination for governor.

MT. VERNON.

Judge Morrow says that there is business enough on the docket here for a three months' court.

The most delicious of all berries, the wild strawberry, is now on the market at 25¢ per gallon.

Miss May Miller expects to visit her brother, Mr. Mace Miller, at Oxford, O., where he has gone for his health.

W. B. Smith & Co.'s lime kiln is now the only one here, the other having been condemned by the city council.

Misses Sallie Adams and Carrie Butler visited Mrs. Graves at Livingston last week. C. C. Davis has been visiting in Pulaski.

The prospect is good for an excellent corn crop in this county. The farmers are giving more attention to cultivating the soil this year than generally.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will give an ice cream supper during the teacher's institute, which we learn will take place in July. Little Fred, the eldest son of Walter B. Smith, is critically ill. Mrs. Parish, of Pine Hill, was the guest of Mrs. Cleo Brown. Miss Ella Joplin and Josh Boreing, Jr., will teach the public school here.

The trial of Ex-Sheriff Mullins for killing Langford at Crooked Creek last November was to have been called Thursday. That of the Langfords for killing L. C. King is set for Friday. Several other murder cases are on the docket.

While Mr. Kreuger and an assistant were repairing the interior of his lime kiln Tuesday it caved in and buried them under the debris. A large crowd soon gathered, but no one but the heroic Fred Kreuger would venture into the death trap. He worked with herculean strength until both were extricated from their perilous position. Mr. Kreuger's eyes were badly injured and Mr. Gibson had two ribs broken. They thought they stood at death's door while thus entombed, and one said that the evil deeds of his life passed in vivid array before his mind's eye, hence he resolved upon a better course for the future.

While in Livingston recently I gathered the following news items from that thriving city: Miss Bessie McGee's music class will give an interesting entertainment in June. Mr. and Mrs. Roller and Mr. W. F. Sheridan have taken rooms with Dr. and Mrs. Cooper. Miss Ella May Saunders has recovered from a serious illness. Mrs. John Cook and Mrs. Garrard are on the sick list. Livingston's greatest need now is good pavements and as Mr. W. R. Dillion has 50,000 brick ready to deliver, the property owners have a good opportunity to improve their premises. Mr. John Magee has bought property and is pleasantly located on Main st. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morrow were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dillion last week. Bro. Boswell's meeting increases interest daily; a number of additions have been made to the church. Mrs. Fishback, an excellent musician, presides at the organ. Messrs. Bentley and Sparks assist greatly. Bro. Boswell's sermons, as usual, are full of power and his meeting promises results that will be of lasting good to Livingston.

O. H. Waddle, of Somerset, has wired Col. Castleman to draw on him for $200 to help out Company I, which is badly in need of equipment.

McKINNEY.

Born, to the wife of Geo. Reynolds, a girl, and to Mrs. Billy Jones, at South Fork, a boy.

The Ladies of the Maccabees are to give a strawberry supper at Ware's Hall next Tuesday night.

Dodderer & Kennedy bought last week 300 bushels of wheat of W. A. Coffey at $1.05; delivered last Saturday.

C. L. Crow and W. K. Shugars, who have been buying horses for the government, tell us that they have bought about 20 at an average of near $70.

Prof. J. W. Hall closed his school here a few days ago and returned to his home in Shelby City. It is understood now that he will teach the public school here the coming term.

Mrs. J. S. Lamb showed us an ear of corn a few days ago, grown on the Tom Lillard farm on the Danville pike, five miles from Stanford, 13 years old this Summer. The whole ear is still in a good state of preservation.

Misses Mary Mayfield, of Science Hill, and Fawna Bobbitt, of Midway, are guests of Miss Maggie McHardy. The latter will remain here for some time. Alvin J. Burton has been very sick for more than a month and his recovery is almost despaired of, as tuberculosis seems to be his chief trouble.

Rev. Miles Saunders, of Danville, who has the distinction of having served one church as pastor for 37 consecutive years, preached in the Presbyterian church here on the 23d. Prayer meetings are held here regularly on Wednesday and Friday nights, at Baptist and Presbyterian churches, respectively.

H. D. McClure, who has bought Dr. VanArsdale out, will sell his interest in his store here to Mr. Riffe, who will continue the business at the same stand. Mr. McClure will move to Stanford, and proud may she be of his citizenship. We regret to give him and his good wife up, but with them goes the profound respect of all the good people of this section, and we shall hope for, and expect, their success in their new home.

J. H. Vanhook has made some decided improvements in the appearance of the interior of his drug store. D. S. Riffe has added a staunch awning to the front of his store and furnished two good, soft, pine goods boxes for the entertainment of those who seek its pleasant shade, and are possessed of uncontrollable propensities for whitening. Mrs. James Brown, who a few days ago was dangerously ill, is now considered out of danger.

The C. S. railroad continues to transfer soldiers South and an estimate of the number of trains and the length of each passing this place in the last two weeks shows that one train nearly 15 miles in length might have been made up of the several sections as they have run. It is not known just how many soldiers these trains have carried, but supposition places the number at 55,000 or 60,000. Among this number the writer has a nephew, two brothers-in-law, four members of his Sunday school class and several personal friends. Of course, we hope for their safe return, but Spanish bullets are no respecter of American soldiers and our loved ones may fall their victims.

Clay Gooch has a bird dog, which seems to have a little more than ordinary "dog sense." One day last week Clay and his brother, Ova, were plowing in a field some distance from the house and Ova, on leaving the field for the night, left his coat on the ground near his work. The faithful canine remained on watch with it until darkness began to steal over the earth, then, seeming to realize the situation fully, he picked up the coat and carried it several hundred yards to the house and laid it down on the front porch where he guarded it until its owner relieved him of his charge. Clay says that if he "makes much" of another dog on the farm this one will look him in the face reprovingly and then sneak away as if he had been scolded.

ANOTHER CHANCE FOR PATRIOTS.

CHICKAMAUGA, May 31.—I have been authorized to state that Maj. Hilburn will be in Kentucky the coming week for the purpose of recruiting the 2d Ky. regiment. The purpose is to give each company in that regiment its full quota of men, 103 in number; and those who wish to serve in the capacity of a soldier will now have an opportunity of doing so. Watch the INTERIOR JOURNAL and see when Maj. Hilburn will be in your neighborhood and do not fail to give him your name.

It is reported here that we will leave for Manila as soon as the regiment is fully recruited. ROWAN SAUFLEY.

Mr. P. Ketcham, of Pike City, Cal., says: "During my brother's late sickness from sciatic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Pain Balm was the only remedy that gave him any relief." Many others have testified to the prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords. For sale by Craig & Hoeker, Druggists.

LANCASTER.

Misses Mattie and Lizzie Thompson, Katie and Lizzie Simpson and Will Embry are spending this week with relatives and attending commencement exercises in Hustonville. M. D. Hughes is organizing a Tent of Maccabees at Bryantsville. Mesdames D. R. Collier and R. L. Elkin have returned from a visit to Lexington, accompanied by Mrs. B. C. Dewees. Mrs. Dewees will be the guest of Mrs. Collier for a short time. Prof. Crawford, of Danville, accompanied Dr. Abbey here Monday evening. Dr. Abbey gave a very interesting lecture on "Cuba" to a small but appreciative audience. Geo. D. Lusk, who has been on duty at Curley's distillery, has been transferred to Oregon.

After many vigorous petitions, cross-petitions and kicks of all kind, we are finally blessed with a train service which will enable our citizens to go to Cincinnati or Louisville and back the same day; but alas the cost! Our mail service was the price. Through the intricate red tape maneuverings of the postoffice department, the hitherto much abused stage line between Lancaster and Stanford has been abolished, but as yet no instructions have been given the night trains to handle mail. Mail, which formerly reached here at 8 A. M., now gets here at 11:10 A. M. and the 3 P. M. mail at 5 P. M. Postmaster West is hot in the collar and is doing all in his power to remedy the evil, but it takes time—and lots of it.

Decoration day was observed by the local G. A. R. post and the K. P. lodge jointly. At 2:30 P. M., headed by the Lancaster band, they marched to the court-house, where they listened to addresses by Rev. Henry N. Faulconer, G. B. Swinebrood and others, after which they marched to the cemetery and showed their remembrance of their departed brethren, by deluging each of their graves with beautiful flowers. It was an unusual procession for these stirring war times. Each uniformed member, instead of bearing gun or sword, was armed with a floral wreath, provided by the ever ready ladies, for the occasion. A good crowd was in town to attend the exercises, as is always the case on decoration day, no matter how busy the season.

Two of the most notable society events of the season will occur next week. On Tuesday morning, the 7th, at 10 o'clock, at the Christian church, S. Cabell Denny and Miss Ada Farra will be married, the Rev. Geo. Gowen officiating. Miss Farra is the only daughter of Mrs. Fannie Farra, and a sister of John M. Farra, the popular 1st lieutenant of Co. L., Ky. Volunteers. Mr. Denny is the paying teller of the National Bank of Lancaster and a son of Mr. Alex Denny, president of that institution. Wednesday evening, 8th, at 9 P. M. at the Presbyterian church, the Rev. Henry N. Faulconer will lead to the altar Miss Margaret Masor. The ceremony will be performed by Dr. J. L. McKee, of Danville. All the friends of the contracting parties are invited. Miss Margaret is the oldest daughter of ex-Circuit Clerk W. B. Mason, and one of Lancaster's most charming society belles. Rev. Mr. Faulconer is the present pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place.

Frank M. Whittaker, who was his assistant, has been appointed freight traffic manager of the C. & O., vice W. P. Walker, deceased.
