A death-bed confession of a Hillsboro, O., woman, clears up a bloody murder which has been a mystery for 11 years.

The New York Ledger has been changed to a monthly, to avoid the competition of the Sunday editions of daily papers.

The U. S. Court of Appeals affirmed the decision of the lower court giving M. A. Spurr, of Nashville, two years in the pen for false certification of bank checks.

J. K. Jackson was run over and killed by an Illinois Central train while attempting to cross the track at Mayfield. His horse was also killed and the buggy demolished.

Paris is almost in a state of siege as a result of the strike of the workmen on the exposition and other buildings. The strike is spreading, and troops are scattered all over the city to suppress any disorders.

The $25,000 damage suit of Mrs. Henrietta Roth, widow of Joseph Roth, against the L. & N. and C. & O. railroads, was compromised after it went to trial, for $3,000. Roth was killed at a crossing in Louisville.

At Wilson's store, Ohio county, John Stone and Robert Powers engaged in a fight over a girl in which both were so badly hurt that it is thought they will die. Stone used a corn knife and Powers a pair of brass knucks.

George D. Saxton, a brother of Mrs. William McKinley, was assassinated while standing on the steps of a private residence, whether he had gone to make a call, in Canton, O. Mrs. Anna C. George is under arrest on suspicion of having committed the crime.

A French doctor says when a man has his head removed by the guillotine he retains the senses of sight, smell and hearing for three hours after the supposed execution, and that death by such a method is one of the most prolonged forms of capital punishment.

The steamer Warrimao, from Australia, reports that the Head Hunters, a cannibal faction of the natives of Rendova, recently captured a village, and, after putting many of the inhabitants to death, returned home with 30 prisoners. These 30 were killed and eaten at a feast given in honor of their victory.

Gov. Bradley has sent letters to the 31 circuit judges of the State calling their attention to the fact that peace officers are not entitled to rewards offered for the capture of escaped criminals in Kentucky, and urging them to be more careful in the future about ordering reward money paid to such persons. The governor has evidence that criminals are hid out till a reward is offered and then they are speedily brought in.

A dispatch from Washington says that the war bond issue was a god send to the banks, which are absorbing most of the small holdings. Its effect is noticed in the increase of circulation as shown by the treasury reports. While the whole increase of circulation for the year ended September 30 was $22,574,462, the increase in the single month of September was as much as $9,277,697. The entire circulation of National bank notes on October 1 was $235,356,950.

Captain Wainwright, owned by J. G. Cecil, of Danville, brought $825, at Shanklin's sale. He is a black colt by Gambetta Wilkes, foaled in 1897, and has gone a trial quarter in 35 1/2 seconds. He was bought by Wm. Runyan, of Philadelphia.

The commissioner reports the yield of corn in Kentucky at 32 1/2 bushels against 23 last year. Pastures are the finest ever known for the season of the year.

Nine men constitute a jury in Mexico, and a majority gives the verdict. If the jury is unanimous there is no appeal.

CHURCH CHATTER.

REV. H. A. NORTHCUTT.

Rev. H. A. Northcutt, the Missouri evangelist, is drawing great crowds to the Christian church and the members are enthusiastic over his eloquent and convincing sermons. All who have heard him are singing his praises and a glorious meeting is predicted. Services at 10 A. M. and 7 P. M. daily.

A pretty good picture of Mr. Northcutt is given above. He is a native of Missouri but in his evangel of 12 years he has preached all over the United States and Canada and the conversions by his efforts have averaged 800 a year. The general board of the Christian church employs him and the fact that it has held him so long is proof of his high standing as an evangelist. Mr. Northcutt's father was also a preacher and for 44 years told the story of Jesus and his love.

"Uncle" Joe Hopper, of Perryville, will begin a meeting at Corbin this week.

Ed Hubbard and Samuel H. Jones will begin a meeting at Mt. Moriah church, Highland, next Sunday.

The W. C. T. U., of Ohio, demands woman suffrage, condemns President McKinley for permitting the canteen in the army camps and opposes the use of birds on ladies' hats.

Dr. Woods in his Bowling Green Courier pays a beautiful eulogy to Rev. George O. Barnes in mentioning the fact that he is old and in need at his home in Sanibel Island, Fla.

Rev. Henry N. Faulconer tendered his resignation as pastor of the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. He will engage in evangelical work in the mountains of Kentucky.—Lancaster Record.

Rev. John R. Reeves, presiding elder of the Lexington district, was badly injured at Mason. He bought a Southern railroad ticket for that place, but the train ran through there at 20 miles an hour, and he jumped off and was seriously hurt.

McKINNEY.

George McKinney, Jr., is the happy father of a fine boy whose advent in the family was announced on the 1st.

Rev. A. Mobley preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning, and Rev. Marshall discoursed at the Presbyterian church in the afternoon.

The cannery closed down last week after the longest and most successful season's business since its establishment. The buzz of the machinery, with largely increased capacity, will be heard on time next Summer.

Miss Georgie Moore gave a birthday party Friday evening and entertained a number of her young friends, but many were kept away on account of the rain, which fell here incessantly from early morning until late in the night.

S. R. Wallis has moved back from Dix's river and is now peacefully domiciled in his old home South of town. Rev. W. P. Morgan has arrived with his family from Crab Orchard and has moved into the property recently vacated by W. T. Dodd.

A number of young men whose names we withhold, and whose friends are deeply pained at their action, got drunk (so one of them, we learn, has confessed) Sunday night and went to Mr. Lamb's on Middleburg street and tore down a lot of his fence, and disturbed some of their best friends by their loud cursing and bad behavior on the street. Such shameful conduct is the result of the illegal sale of whisky in this section.

In Justice Coffey's court here, Saturday, a couple of rude boys, Claude Sipples and Arthur Phillips, were fined $20 each for disturbing the Sunday School at New Salem church a few days ago. A darkey damsel of the Turnersville neighborhood was also fined $5 for assaulting another lady of like description. James Bastin was honorably acquitted of the charge of illegally appropriating to his own interests a quantity of molasses or other property claimed by John Lay.

Old fashions in dress may be revived, but no old fashioned medicine can replace Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists, Stanford.

NEWS IN THE VICINAGE.

Diphtheria is raging in many parts of Mercer county.

Bell county has a voting precinct known as South America.

The temperance people of Richmond, Waco and Union City magisterial districts have filed another petition for a vote on local option to be taken Dec. 11.

Willie, the six-year-old son of Dr. W. B. Burnside, died at Barbourville, Saturday of diphtheria. The little one was a relative of Mrs. M. C. Burnside, of this place.

Adair county went dry by a majority of 540. The call for the election takes liquor out of the hands of the druggists and only distillers can sell in quantities not less than five gallons.

While returning from church at Woodstock, Elix Eldridge and Walter Estes engaged in a quarrel, which ended in Eldridge shooting Estes in the right shoulder, inflicting a painful wound.

At Evergreen, Jackson county, Rev. James Tansford and son shot and killed William Rose, an alleged moonshiner, who wanted to get revenge on them because he thought they had informed revenue agents on him.

W. P. Riggins, who was up from Casey Saturday, said that he saw several car loads of pumpkins go off in the freshest Friday in Green River. He also says that much of the corn in the river bottoms is rotting.

Jesse Lynch was tried by the U. S. court at Louisville for representing himself as John Large and obtaining a letter with $150 in it from the Williamsburg postoffice. The jury disagreed and he was held to the February term.

A "smooth" stranger who gave his name as Robinson presented a check to the Madison National Bank, of Richmond, for $795.92 with the firm name of Hurst & Fowler signed. Teller Crutcher telephoned to the firm which disclaimed any knowledge of the check and when he turned to notify the stranger he had departed.

The Cincinnati Post has a dispatch from Maysville that Mrs. Crump, who was secretly pardoned out of the penitentiary by Gov. Brown for the murder of her husband, was married recently to a man in London, who fell in love with her while she was in the pen and that she is now living in that mountain town. The name of the husband is not given.

An attempt was made at Richmond by unknown persons to assassinate Allen Zaring, book-keeper for the J. W. Zaring Grain and Mill Company. Returning home at a late hour, he was fired at three times, and was compelled to hide behind a tree to escape the murderous aim of the assassin, who was only a few feet distant.

Col. Bennett H. Young bought the Richmond, Nicholasville, Irvine and Beattyville railroad for a syndicate composed of Fawk, of England; McGann and Frayer, of Canada; Dr. G. W. Evans, C. D. Chenault, of Richmond, B. B. Millon, D. M. Chenault, Judge John Chenault, Cabbell H. Chenault, G. W. Evans, Jr., and Bennett H. Young, for $160,000, the upset price.

Secretary Alger has sent a very unsatisfactory answer to the questions of the war investigation commission, and will be asked to try again. He fails to name the person responsible for the location of any of the camps save that at Jacksonville. He blames the navy department for delaying the Santiago campaign.

Work on the Spanish cruiser Vizcaya has been abandoned, a hole 50 feet long in the hull having been found by divers. The Teresa will leave for the United States next week.

DANVILLE.

Messrs. Lillard & Stout are adding a steel ceiling and other improvements to their drug store on Main St.

Prof. Wolf, of Lexington, has been engaged as musical director of the Centre College mandolin and glee clubs.

The music lovers of Danville will be glad to hear that they can purchase their music at home. Mr. McMurray of Marysville, Tenn., has rented a room in the Clemens House and will open a music store some time this month.

The Centre College athletic association held a meeting in the gymnasium Wednesday and the following officers elected: president, Lovell Yerkes, vice-president, Sam Childs, secretary, Frank Taylor, treasurer, Eugene Cook.

The commissioners of the D. & D. institute held a meeting last week and in addition to other business transacted, purchased the property south of the institute, formerly owned by Squire Dodd. It joined the grounds of the school and was purchased at a low price.

Mr. Lewis Marshal, of New Mexico, who visited Danville this summer sent his sister, Mrs. Cabell Breckenridge, some fine pippin apples. Two very fine specimens can be seen in the window of Kinnaird & McGoodwin's, each weighing 1 1/2 pounds and five inches in diameter.

Synod which convenes at the 2nd Presbyterian church Tuesday, promises to be unusually interesting. The inauguration of Rev. C. K. Crawford as professor in the Theological seminary will occur on Wednesday and inauguration of Dr. W. C. Roberts as president of Centre College on Thursday. 100 visitors are expected.

Miss Bohon entertained the Junior Social Club Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. McFerran. Miss Edna Coulter has gone to the Omaha Exposition. Mrs. James Lane Allen received her friends informally Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Misses Bering and Scruggs, the popular visitors of Mrs. D. W. Mahan, have returned to Decatur, Ill. The invitations to an informal reception for Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock were recalled by Mrs. Geo. H. Bruce on account of illness in the family. Mrs. John Huguely is visiting relatives in Lexington. Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Roberts will entertain the Synod, the faculty and board of Centre College Tuesday. Mrs. Wm. Robinson, who has spent the summer in Chicago, is with her sister, Mrs. Dave Logan.

HUBBLE.

George Wood shipped a load of cattle and hogs to Cincinnati Saturday. J. H. Pence, the new preacher in charge, will preach at the Methodist church here Saturday night and Sunday morning. News comes from George White in Denver, Col., that his health is not improving any now. He has been there for some months for lung trouble.

FIELDS & HANSON'S MINSTRELS.—When you hear the exhilarating sound of Fields and Hanson's Grand Concert Band next Saturday, 15th, and see the entire company on parade, you take it as a gentle reminder of the fact that it is time to purchase your tickets for the evening entertainment, which will, it is boldly claimed, excel anything yet seen here in minstrelsy. The programme is one succession of absolute novelties and timely hits and includes the new first part, an Evening with the Elks, The Golden Showers, a Spectacular March, The Grand Old Guard, The Magnificent Dancing Diversions and several other positive innovations, terminating with The Dance of Dawson City 400. The above attraction will appear at Walton's Opera House, Saturday 15.

HOW TO PREVENT CROUP.

We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always prevents the attack. It is a household necessity in this county and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than of all other cough medicines combined.—J. M. Nickle, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickleville, Pa. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists, Stanford, Ky.

LYTLE.—The young folks hereabouts, especially George Farris, of your city, will regret to hear that the boat that has been on Bright's Mill Pond, so long, was taken off by the high water of Friday. The corn in this vicinity is fearfully damaged. Farmers say they will have to shuck it out right away and let it cure in the heap and then crib. Alpen won the stallion stakes, worth $18,000, at Hawthorn Saturday.

Hair Hints

Is your hair dry, harsh, and brittle? Is it fading or turning gray? Is it falling out? Does dandruff trouble you? For any or all of these conditions there is an infallible remedy in Dr. Ayer's Hair Vigor.

"For years, I was troubled with dandruff, large flakes scaling and falling off, causing great annoyance. Sometimes the itching of the scalp was almost unendurable. Prescriptions from eminent physicians, put up in my own drug store were tried, but failed to afford relief. At length I used Dr. Ayer's Hair Vigor, and in one week I found it helped me. At the end of only two weeks, my head was entirely free from dandruff, and as clean as a child's. I heartily recommend Dr. Ayer's Hair Vigor to all who are suffering from diseases of the scalp."—EDWIN NORDSTROM, Druggist, etc., Sacred Heart, Minn.
