

NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

A. C. Buchanan is dead at Richmond, aged 79. A snake three feet long was killed at Richmond last week. Tom Callon, confined at Middlesboro for murder, escaped. Hamilton College's graduating class will number 19 this year. Judge R. E. Williams, father of Mrs. Fayette Danlap, died at Bloomington, Ill. A Commercial Club with Wm. Hendon president, was organized at Lancaster. The L. & N. earnings for the 2nd week in February show a falling off from the same week of last year of nearly $100,000. Albert N. McClure, who graduated at West Point last week, has been assigned to duty with a regiment at Manila. He is from Casey county.

COL. W. F. SHERIDAN.

The handsome, popular and capable train dispatcher, Col. W. F. Sheridan, has been promoted to dispatcher on the Henderson division of the L. & N., with office at Burlington. The heavy coal business of that division and its feeders makes the job a very complicated one and the company knew it had not a better man in its employ for it. Everybody on this division regretted the departure of the jolly and clever chief, while rejoicing in his promotion. By the change Mr. L. M. Westerfield, who is one of the most careful and competent dispatchers on the road, is advanced to chief and his friends are glad at his good fortune.

LANCASTER.

It is believed that the peaches have been killed but that the apples were not injured by the cold snap.

The Kentucky Colonel's statement of Postmaster Ward's coal freeing when red hot is the biggest one that has been told about the cold weather.

Eld. Charles Powell will begin his work as pastor of the Christian church next Sunday, the splendid work of Eld. Ellet having ceased last Sunday.

Capt. W. J. Kinnaird stopped at home a few days while on his road from Middlesboro to Nashville where he will locate and take charge of a life insurance office.

The fiscal court convened Saturday but no business of importance was transacted as the weather has been too cold to locate quarries and arrange for working the roads.

The coal famine has disappeared and a full supply is on the market. Truly these light afflictions are but temporary and sweet relief follows quickly on the track of each cold wave.

I have my hat off in acknowledgement of the very handsome compliment paid by that excellent paper, the Richmond Citizen, in referring to the correspondents for the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

Mrs. Pauline Rigney, mother of W. O. Rigney, has purchased Mr. S. D. Rothwell's residence on York street, for $1,100. Mr. and Mrs. Rothwell will move to Dripping Springs and make that famous watering place more attractive than ever.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

Elder C. E. Powell will preach his first sermon at Lancaster Sunday.

The stoves in the Baptist church at Lancaster have been in use since 1851.

During a sanctification meeting in Hopkins county, Miss Dora Brown, fell dead from excitement.

Rev. Henry Miller, synodical evangelist, has received a call to a church in Rockbridge county, Va.

A. P. Rowe, mayor of Fredericksburg, Va., won the prize for not having missed a Sunday school in nine years, although he is 82.

The Methodist preachers at Atlanta denounced the steal from the treasury for the benefit of the Nashville publishing house and demanded the resignation of Barber and Smith.

Rev. J. J. Spencer preached a stirring sermon at Lexington on the recent cowardly murder of Jacob Keller by King McNamara, and advocated a union of moral elements to crush out lawlessness in that city.

Napoleon Bonaparte Marks, aged 89, was baptized at his residence in Lexington Sunday and received into the Methodist church. He is a tailor and made clothes for Henry Clay and the other distinguished Kentuckians of the Commoner's day.

Rev. F. E. Vance, late of Shelbyville, Ky., but now of Ohio, was found guilty of every charge of immorality against him, notwithstanding his wife pleaded with the elders to forgive him as she had done. As Brer Vance had flirted with a girl and made love to her, it looks like the preachers might forgive him, if his wife could.

In an address to the Y. M. C. A. at Henderson, Bishop Dudley said: "I hold that the saloon is the worst element of our civilization and is doing more to degrade our young men than anything else. May be the Y. M. C. A. will some day put something in the place of the saloon. The saloon is inevitable and will remain until something takes the place of it."

ANECDOTE OF GEO. WASHINGTON.

HUNTSVILLE, Feb. 18.—In looking over some Millennial Harbinger published away back in the '60s, I found the following letter, and as the writer suggests, would it not be a good idea to publish it in your next issue? Yours 22ndly. WES. TENDER.

NEW HAVEN, Feb. 15, 1869.—In 1796 I heard the farmer referred to narrate the following incident: Said he: When the British troops held possession of New York and the American army lay near West Point, one fine morning at sunrise I went forth to bring home the cows. On passing a stump of brushwood, I heard a moaning sound like a person in distress; on reaching the spot I heard the words of a man at prayer. I listened behind a tree. The man came forth; it was George Washington, the captain of the Lord's host in America. This farmer was a member of the Society of Friends, who, being opposed to war on any pretext were lukewarm, and in some cases opposed to the cause of the country. He was a Tory, however. Having seen the general enter the camp, he went to his own home. "Martha," said he to his wife, "we must not oppose this war any longer. This morning I heard the man, George Washington, send up a prayer to Heaven for his country and I know it will be heard." This friend dwelt between the lines and sent Washington many items concerning the movements of the enemy, which did good service for the good cause. From this incident we may infer that Washington rose with the sun to pray for his country. He fought for her at meridian and he watched for her in the silent hours of night.

Every editor of a newspaper, journal or magazine who has three drops of American blood in his veins, should publish this anecdote on the 22nd of February while wood grows and water runs. This day I enter on my 85th year. GRANT THORNTON, SR.

MIDDLEBURG.

The mercury's lowest reading here was 33 below. Birds froze to death, clocks stopped and the devil was to play generally.

The Baptists at this place are contemplating building a parsonage—to have same completed by fall—so that their pastor may reside among the flock, which is a good idea. If built, it will be located just back of the Baptist church.

The Indian creek ink slinger seems to be in bad straits i. e. since the cold snap he can think of nothing to draw on but a "bridge" that was never thought of—and some fool thing he can throw up to the writer. I guess the article of "T. H." from Danville "will hold him for awhile" and as for what he says about the character of my news, I care not a continental. I can't see any "fib" in quoting prices of sheep, or predicting the outlook of crops. Whenever we do send in a communication, the people can bank on its reliability. We write under the heading "Middleburg" and don't go to Indian Creek or Grove to learn the news, of those respective localities. If Brer B. gets a fresh news item from the burg (and he never does) he sends a courier after it. CLARENCE COLEMAN.

LEUNG IRRITATION.

Is the forerunner to consumption. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey will cure it, and give such strength to the lungs that a cough or a cold will not settle there. Twenty five cents at Penny's Drug Store.

A MARRIAGE AT OWENSBORO WAS SOMEWHAT OUT OF THE REGULATION ORDER.

It occurred two hours after the bride had given birth to a child and a policeman was the principal witness.

THE EAGLE, KING OF ALL BIRDS.

Is noted for its keen sight, clear and distinct vision. So are those persons who use Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve for weak eyes, sore eyes of any kind or granulated lids. Sold at Penny's at 25 cents.

Wallace Hale, of Cloverport, Mo. tried to kill himself when he found it necessary to make an assignment. He is known as "Honest Wallace" and he feared the people might think it a misnomer.

COUGHED 25 YEARS.

I suffered 25 years with a cough, and spent hundreds of dollars with doctors and for medicine to no avail until I used Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. This remedy makes weak lungs strong. It has saved my life.—J. B. Rosell, Grantsburg, Ill.

Robert Howard, a Chicago Negro hung for murder, was chewing vigorously on a piece of gum, when the black cap hid his mouth from view.

ABSOLUTELY NO DANGER.

SAYS THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

I personally superintended the fumigation and disinfection of the INTERIOR JOURNAL rooms, the infected one, halls and adjacent rooms, and pronounce that there is absolutely no danger from contagion in them or from papers or other mail matter sent from the office.

J. F. PEYTON, Member Board of Health, DANVILLE.

Dr. Henderson, of Chicago, occupied the pulpit of the 2d Presbyterian church Sunday.

W. R. Scott has been given the contract for the plans and specifications for remodeling the court-house.

Telegrams were received by relatives here announcing the deaths of G. P. Proctor, of Springfield, Mo., Mrs. Mary Bogie, of St. Louis, and Col. Williams, of Bloomington, Ill., who was the father of Mrs. Fayette Danlap. Mrs. Danlap left at once to be present at his funeral.

Many beautiful palms were injured and some killed by the severe cold weather. It seems remarkable that any plants escaped. Many of the needy colored people were kept from freezing by keeping fires in the colored churches, money for fuel being furnished by the charity fund.

One of the most elegant receptions of this winter was given by Miss Josephine Reid Friday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Spence. Receiving with Miss Reid were Mr. Horace Bowman, Miss Spence, Mr. James Reid and Miss Virginia Bowman. Delightful refreshments were served in courses by Klein, of Louisville.

Mrs. Wm. Cecil has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Lemuel McHenry, of Louisville. Dr. Henderson, of Chicago, is the guest of Dr. W. C. Roberts. W. W. Wiseman is in Michigan. Mrs. D. W. Mahan entertained at tea in honor of Miss Parker, of North Carolina, and Miss Yeiser, of Paducah. Miss Virginia Bowman issued invitations for Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Spence, the guest of Miss Josephine Reid. A. B. Robertson is in New York for spring goods. Misses Jane and Sarah Cecil will entertain at luncheon on the afternoon of the 23d in honor of Miss James, of Tennessee, and Miss Bradley, of Frankfort. Miss Nancy Hugely returned Saturday from a long and delightful visit in Washington, D. C. R. H. Danlap, of Kansas City, is expected in Danville for the 23d. Charles Boldrick, of Lebanon, a former Centre student, is with friends in Danville. Fred McKnight, of Louisville, late of the 4th Kentucky, is the guest of Nicholas McDowell, Jr. Mrs. W. B. Thomas is with friends in Louisville. Miss Eva Grant received Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Oliver, of Springfield, Ill. Miss Genie Bright has returned from a delightful visit to friends in Dayton, O. Mr. Thornton, of Indiana, is the guest of Dr. C. H. Martin. Misses Mary Weiser and Nellie Scott, of Lexington, are guests of Miss Bessie Dunlap. She will entertain in their honor Friday evening. Miss Oliver, of Springfield, Ill., is the guest of Miss Ediza Hutton Caldwell. Mrs. Jerry Caldwell and Miss Susie Fox have returned from Martinsville, Ind.

NOT CLASSED.—Of course W. P. Walton in the INTERIOR JOURNAL has the best semi-weekly in Kentucky. Saying that is no disparagement of other semi-weeklies, because Walton's is away out in a class by itself.—J. M. Allen in Cynthiana Democrat.

GRIP'S RAVAGES DORMED.

So much misery and so many deaths have been caused by the Grip, that every one should know what a wonderful remedy for this malady is found in Dr. King's New Discovery.
