The best materials combined with skill and accuracy insure good results. No other methods are ever in our prescription work. Penny Store.

PERSONAL AND SOCIETY GOSSIP.

AS ALICE ALCORN has our thanks for the Manila papers. Her husband is the wife of D. M. Anderson of Preachersville, a girl. MISS JANE LYNE, of Jessamine, is guest of Miss Fannie Shanks. R. J. TERRY has had a severe attack of rheumatism but is improving. MISS GEORGIA LEWIS is studying photography's art under Miss Sawyer. Mrs. D. S. JOHNSON, of the West, left Tuesday for Texas to prosecute her two months' confinement. Mattie WITHERS is able to be out in.

MRS. C. H. PAINE and children, of town, arrived yesterday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Tate. Miss Witt accompanied them. B. ADAMS, who was here from Paducah Wednesday, tells us that boys there were doing lots of practicing for the minstrel performance by will give soon. J. D. HOLDERMAN, who has successfully managed the electric light plant Lebanon for several years, has moved to Catlettsburg, where he will be in charge of the plant. WILL KENNEDY was here a few days to send our paper to his brother, Le H. Kennedy, who has just returned with Contractors Reinhardt and the Short Line R. R., in West.

are indebted to our friend, Will Land, for a list of subscribers gotten by him in Lexington. He also regrets the absence of a democratic there and thinks there is a for in the establishment of one by the man. He is waiting for his paper, Dr. P. P. Sheart, of Sterling, Kas., surgeon of the Missouri Pacific railroad, says: "I am a democrat and populist in this city, to a man, stand firm for Beck. I have yet to hear a republican offer any excuse for Taylor's handed and insurrectionary acts." ONE of those from here who attended the funeral of Gov. Goebel at Frank yesterday were: Messrs. R. C. an, Harvey Helm, M. S. Baughman, J. P. Bailey, J. W. Baughman, rest McClary, Cabell Owens, J. G. on, Jr., J. H. Meier, Oscar Huffman, Logan Wood, W. W. Withers.

TEMPLE, TEXAS paper says that S. R. Kennedy, who is a brother of S. M. C. Williams, of this place, has been promoted from a dispatcher on the Santa Fe to train master of the southern division, which includes three ranches. The paper pays Mr. Kennedy high compliments and adds: His many friends will rejoice at his good fortune all the more, as they realize it is a reward of merit. They will look for honors new and greater still.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS. NEW BATTENBURG materials at Severns & Sons'. THE latest designs in stationery at Hig & Hocker's. WE will give top prices for real values. Hill & Beck. REGAINS in sewing machines for 10 days. Warren & Shanks. NOW is the time to buy a Dalm's Corn Crusher. Higgins & McKilney. A DOG belonging to John Christman bit Mr. W. S. Warren on one of his making a painful sore.

AFTER several days of rain during which the mercury got almost to 70, it a tumble last night and this morning gotten as low as 20. THE democratic girls of Stanford College are getting up a fund toward erecting a monument to Goebel. They made up about $100 themselves and are working for the good cause. E. W. C. Greening has bought M. Givens his residence and livable building in Hustonville for $1,250. Mr. Greening will like it up a business house where the lence stands.

WHICH is it a lie or a bluff about the N's moving its shops and offices to Louisville? Coming from the Louisville Post and Dispatch, as the we did, certainly nobody will believe there is any truth in the statement. Had there been those papers would have mentioned it. LINCOLN'S TRIBUTE.—The Courier Journal makes special mention of the tribune sent from this county. It is both beautiful and costly, being a shaft of mixed flowers, with a white dove perched on the top holding in its bill a pink streamer with this inscription: Sympathy of the democrats Lincoln county.

NICE line of dinner sets just in at Geo. H. Farris & Co's.

NEW stock of bracelets, hearts and all kinds of jewelry at Hamilton's.

OUR stock of buggies and road wagons is open. Call in and see them. Wearon Bros.

THE Laurel county fair grounds will be sold next Monday at London. See ad. in this paper.

CLOVER, timothy, orchard grass, red top, millet and garden seeds of all kinds. Hill & Beck.

If you "eat to live" see us. If you "live to eat" we've got lots of good things. Warren & Shanks.

OLD MOCK WHISKY.—G. D. Weatherford has a contract for full control and sale of Old Mock Whisky in Hustonville. H. C. Mock.

A CHANGE.—I have my rented my residence I now occupy for a smaller one, and next Monday at court house will dispose of some furniture. Mrs. Kate Dudderar.

BIG SALE.—E. C. Walton, of this office, has bought of Mr. J. C. Hays a third interest in his Cumberland Avenue lot in Middlesboro, which cost in 1892 $4,000, for 50c.

THE L. & N. office here uses nearly 1,000 revenue stamps monthly. It takes no little time to cancel that number and Agent Rice, like the rest of us, would be mighty glad to see the act repealed.

It was pouring down rain at the time, but it did not prevent a good crowd of people assembling at the court house Wednesday afternoon to give expression to their feelings over the series of outrages at Frankfort.

MORE SMALL-POX.—Judge T. L. Shelton tells us that the family of William Bunn, of Rowland, numbering nearly a dozen members, is down with small-pox, of the light form that has been in that section so long.

WE had great difficulty in getting our special through from Louisville Tuesday, delaying us a couple of hours, but Mr. Joe S. Rice worked manfully for us and laid us under additional obligations. By the way, Mr. Rice tells us that the London operators handled that day and night, 20,847 words for the dailies.

A. C. SINE will begin at once to build a modern two-story residence with tower and other ornaments for W. H. Higgins, to cost $3,000. He takes in part pay the John McRoberts property in front of the College. Mr. Higgins' present residence will be torn down and the new one built on its site.

THE fellow, Von AFX, who started a cheese factory at Ottenheim and worked several of our merchants before he skipped out, and who played a similar game in Louisville and got caught, tried to play crazy while in jail there, but the court decided he was shamming and remanded him back to jail. He was tried Wednesday and given two years for horse stealing.

IT'S going to take a great deal more than the repeal of the Goebel election law to elect another set of republicans in Kentucky. The sore and flip-flop democrats are alone responsible for the rads carrying the State, even on the face of the returns, and even they have seen enough of misrule and usurpation to make them sick of the gang they have lately associated themselves with.

THE movement to raise funds by popular subscription for a handsome monument to Kentucky's greatest statesman is rapidly assuming large proportions. Gov. McCreary and Col. D. R. Murray have had the subscription certificates printed, which contain the last words of Gov. Goebel. "Tell my friends to be brave and fearless and loyal to the great common people," and it is expected that the latter will respond with an enthusiasm unprecedented, as the subscriptions are limited to $1. The ladies will also raise a fund in the same way. Mrs. M. C. Sautley has been designated to receive subscriptions in this county from them and the writer from "the great common people." All subscriptions sent to us will be duly acknowledged in this paper. Do not wait to be called on, but subscribe at once.

THROAT CUT.—E. F. Brockman came to town Wednesday with a gash in his throat almost from ear to ear and showing signs of having bled profusely. He says that he, Bob Bowlin and Tom Leisure went to the house of Mrs. Crabtree in the knobs and that after they had been there a short time Leisure pulled his pistol and brandished it over Mrs. Crabtree, who was sick and lying in bed. Brockman protested against such doings and he and one of the girls attempted to get him away, when he pulled the trigger of his weapon and fired into the side of the house. Just then Bowlin, who hails from Crab Orchard, jumped up and drove a knife into Brockman's neck, making a gash five inches long and barely missing the jugular. Brockman says he never had been at Mrs. Crabtree's before and did not know the character of the house. Marshal Shannon arrested Bowlin yesterday and he was held in bond to an examining trial Monday.

LONG IN THE HARNESS.—Mr. W. P. Walton has just celebrated the 25th anniversary of his connection with the INTERIOR JOURNAL at Stanford. He bought the plant from its founders, Hilton & Campbell. Mr. Walton is one of the most vigorous and graceful writers in the State, and his paper is a model of country journalism.—Louisville Times.

To give some idea of how anxious people in the West End were to contribute to the fund to send a floral design to be placed on Gov. Goebel's grave, we give this paragraph from a letter from George D. Weatherford, of Hustonville, who sent a check for $33.50: "We could have raised twice as much if it had only been necessary. Everyone was anxious to contribute." McKilney and Turnersville admirers of the dead statesman sent down $12.50 as a contribution to the popular fund. The list Mr. Weatherford sent shows that 75 Hustonville and Moreland people contributed. We would print the list if space permitted. Our people also responded liberally.

So far the entertainments offered by E. H. Beazley & Co., have greatly pleased all who have attended. The "Uncle Josh Picture Play" Wednesday night was one of the best of the series. In addition to the pictures of the play, Mr. Arthur C. Coit, gave a number of moving pictures such as the charge at San Juan and others, while the songs of Miss Evelyn Roth were also beautifully illustrated. The serpentina performances of Miss Pearl Miller under calcium lights of every hue, was wonderful and elicited great enthusiasm. The next and last of the Beazley course will be Dr. Willett's lecture, March 19.

A NUMBER of Baptist here say that the Western Recorder will no longer be a welcome visitor to their firesides, unless Dr. Eaton positively and with no semblance of evasion shall prove that he did not say, "I am sorry Goebel was shot; I wanted to see him hanged." A "Baptist" at Brodhead writes that he hopes the doctor will clear himself, if innocent, but, if not, too much condemnation can not be heaped on him. The published four days after the charge was made the Recorder of yesterday contains not a line in refutation of it, nor does it mention the assassination editorially at all. On the other hand the Baptist Argus denounces the deed and says a state's ransom, if necessary, should be spent to bring the assassin to justice.

LINCOLN CITIZENS SPEAK. A MEETING of the citizens of Lincoln county, called to express their sentiments on the cowardly assassination of Gov. Goebel and Taylor's infamous acts of lawlessness and usurpation, was held Wednesday afternoon. Hon. R. C. Warren explained its object and moved that Joseph B. Paxton, Esq., be chosen chairman. It was so ordered unanimously, and Dr. E. J. Brown was made secretary. On motion, a committee of five, consisting of Hon. R. C. Warren, Judge James P. Bailey, O. P. Newland, M. S. Baughman and W. P. Walton, were appointed, who reported as follows:

In the exercise of our right and duty as freemen to peaceably assemble and plainly express our convictions upon all matters affecting our liberties or our interests, and in view of the unprecedented state of affairs now existing in Kentucky, we, citizens of Lincoln county, in mass meeting assembled at the court house at Stanford on the 7th day of February, 1900, uninfluenced by mere partisan feeling, but actuated solely by our concern for the welfare and fair name of the Commonwealth, do resolve:

1. That the recent assembling of an armed, partisan mob at Frankfort and the quartering of said mob in the State buildings where and while the General Assembly and the court of appeals were in session, was a defiance of public decency and order and a crime against free institutions.

2. That the natural, if not the intended, culmination of these proceedings was the murder by an assassin concealed in the executive building, which had been converted into a bivouac for the mob, of Wm. Goebel, a lawful contestant by lawful methods for the office of governor, and a Senator in the General Assembly, while he was peaceably proceeding to his seat in the Senate chamber.

3. That this heinous deed will be an inextinguishable stigma on Kentucky and on Kentuckians as long as the coward who perpetrated it, his advisers, abettors and accessories remain, any and all of them, undetected, untried and unhanged.

4. That we denounce in unmeasured terms the acts of W. S. Taylor in dispersing the Legislature with bayonets, for ordering it to London, for defying the courts, practically suspending the writ of habeas corpus and his entire dastardly course.

5. That we pledge ourselves to give Gov. Beckham our earnest support. The resolutions were adopted with an earnestness which showed how determined our people are. In answer to calls, Hons. R. C. Warren and Harvey Helm made feeling speeches, eulogizing the victim of the conspirators of assassination and denouncing Taylor's damnable acts, then and since in a forcible and eloquent manner.

SLAUGHTER.—The following dispatch was received this morning: Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 8.—Mrs. L. J. Slaughter died at my house at 5.15 this P. M. Remains will be shipped from here to Crab Orchard, reaching there Saturday about noon. Funeral will proceed from train. J. I. McKilney. Mrs. Slaughter was the mother of the late D. G. Slaughter and a very excellent woman.

ONE OF TAYLOR'S MEN.—Marshal Joe A. Shannon, of Crab Orchard, was down yesterday afternoon and told us of arresting in Jackson county Dr. W. R. Johnson, wanted in Guthrie, Oklahoma for forgery and Lebanon, Mo., for swindling in a land trade. The officer strapped him on a horse and made him ride before him toward East Bernstadt, where they were to take the train for this place, but while riding in the dark, Mr. Shannon's horse fell and Johnson, taking advantage of it, made his escape. When Mr. Shannon went to his house, Dr. Johnson was getting ready to pull some teeth for a patient and seemed not a bit surprised when the officer told him he had a writ for him. Johnson is one of the men Taylor pardoned at Frankfort before trial for carrying concealed weapons and Mr. Shannon thinks that he may have had something to do with the assassination of Gov. Goebel. He is the one who charged the Frankfort police of robbing him of $167. He is rather a good looking fellow, 25 or 30 years old, six feet tall and has not the appearance of a mountaineer. He is said to have several wives and is considered a very bad man. Mr. Shannon says he shot Andy Tilford in Rockcastle several years ago, moved to Indian Territory, where he killed a man and once acted in the capacity of a U. S. marshal some where out West.

LAND AND STOCK. Smith & Nell bought six aged mules in Adair at $55. J. M. Hill will have on the market Monday six mare mule sugar colts. * Horace Bowman sold to George Coar 20,000 pounds of hemp at $4.76.—Advocate.

Robert McAllister has bought a farm of 340 acres near Walnut Hill in Fayette at $64. G. M. Siler is back from Mississippi, where he sold a car load of horses at $40 to $125. George T. Wood bought the 25 700-pound yearlings advertised by H. T. Bush at 4c. They were a fine lot. Cattle sold at 2 to 6c at Richmond court Monday, says the Pantagraph. Good mare mules brought $100 to $145. D. A. Twaddle sold to Wm. Knight, of Pendleton county, the Reid farm, near Kingsville, containing 100 acres, for $950.

Beazley Bros. sold to Jordan & Son, of Atlanta, two plug horses for $90. S. T. Harris sold to same a harness gelding for $125. M. S. Baughman is using his fast Naboth pacer on the road and he is indeed a great roadster. He can pace miles in 2:15 and trot them in three minutes, is as gentle as a dog and as handsome as a picture. He is worth $1,000 of any man's money and not a copper less will buy him. Mr. Baughman has refused some fancy offers for him.

W. W. Lyon and A. Hunn sold to S. T. Harbison three harness geldings at $165, $85 and $77.50, to Powell & Harper a pair of 16-hand mare mules for $265, to Edgar Reynolds a mare mule for $110, to Bright & Fox eight 15-hand mules at $100 and to F. L. Shelby a plug horse for $45. They bought of Mr. Shelby a lot of sheep at $1.50 and some butcher stuff at 2 1/2 to 3c.

Mahony's meeting at Perryville, Mrs. Mahony tells us, is developing great interest, and there has been one addition to yesterday.
