

A. B. Robertson & Bro. DRY GOODS

Danville, Kentucky.

LADIES' Man-Tailored Suits $7.50.

These were not made to sell at this price, in fact they are worth twice the price. They are single suits, mostly, and while are in good staple styles, they are not the latest. Anyone wanting a really first-class "Man-Tailored" Suit, made in the very best manner of fine, all wool materials, for a little money, should see these suits at once. Skirts are all gored with inverted plait back. Coats all silk lined. Styles are tight-fitting, single and double breasted coats, Sans Revere and 1/2 tight-fly front coats of Venetians, Homespuns and Cheviots, sizes 32 to 40.

Man-Tailored Suits $10.00.

The best values ever offered anywhere in Ladies Suits. All are of the very best tailoring; styles are all good; colors are desirable; skirts are correct gored, flared shapes; coats are all Silk Lined and some Suits Lined Throughout with Silk.

WALKING SUITS made of $2.00-yard Plaid Back Suitings in Sans Revere and double-breasted styles. Suits in Double and Single Breasted, Sans Revere and Fly Fronts, in Fine Homespun Venetians and Cheviots in blacks and colors. Some are all silk lined. Any suit in the lot would be cheap at $15.00.

BLOUSE SUITS.

We have the finest line in Central Kentucky. All colors and sizes, plain and fancy, from $13.50 to $30. Our suits have been so successful that we had to make a second New York trip to replenish our stock, therefore we are showing almost an entire new line since October.

Velour Blouses.

Undoubtedly the dressiest wrap on the market, becoming to everyone; rather expensive, seemingly, until you price the materials, then you see that they are cheap. Prices are $20 to $35. Stock limited.

CLOAKS.

We have no shoddy cloaks. Any you buy of us will give you good service and cause you to buy of us again. Our line is new since Oct. 15. Box coats and 3/4 coats for children, misses and ladies at every price from $4 to $30. See our new child's box coat for style and quality; ladies' and misses' jackets in profusion from $4 to $18.

FINE FURS.

More Real Furs than you will see in any 10 stores in this section. We charge you very little more for real Martins, Minks, Sable Foxes, Beavers and Blue Fox than you are usually asked for imitations. Scarfs, Long Boas and Collarettes $3 to $30.

PETTICOATS

Should hang right as well as outside skirts. The common skirts that you usually see do not hang well. We have Mercerized Satteen Skirts at $1.50 to $3, cut exactly like $6 to $12 silk ones.

Christmas Opening,

Friday, Nov. 30, when we will have on display thousands of articles suitable for presents from 5c to $75 each, worth taking a day off to see this show.

PERSONALS.

W. A. CARSON was in Cincinnati this week. MR. P. H. DAVIS was in Mt. Sterling this week. MR. JOHN LEE ELKIN, of Lebanon, was here this week. MR. J. S. HOCKER went to Indianapolis yesterday on business. MRS. J. D. HOLDERMAN went down to Lebanon Tuesday to visit friends. MR. W. T. HOOK, of Rockcastle, was here yesterday hunting a small farm. MR. AND MRS. GEORGE H. FARRIS have taken rooms at the St. Asaph Hotel. MR. J. C. LYNN was selected as committee man from his precinct—Danville No. 4. MRS. ISAAC JONES, the aged mother of Mr. Josh Jones, is very low of pneumonia. J. T. BLANKENSHIP, Livingston's lightning contractor, was here Wednesday. REV. A. S. MOFFETT, of Lebanon, passed up to Jellico Wednesday to hold a meeting. MR. W. C. COOLEY and family, of New Hope, are visiting his father, Mr. Ben Cooley. MESSRS. J. B. BROWN and Charles Lanham, of Casey, were in to see us this morning. MR. AND MRS. J. K. BAUGHMAN, of the West End, are with Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Baughman. MRS. JOHN L. DUNCAN, of Toledo, O., is visiting her parents, Eld. and Mrs. Joseph Bailou. C. L. DAWES went to Somerset yesterday to see his brother, W. E. Dawes, who is very low. MRS. R. S. LYTLE and little Corrie Penny were over from Danville Wednesday with friends here. WALTER WALKER and Miss Bettie Rochester attended the Bright-Ramsay marriage Wednesday night. MR. J. K. CHRISTIAN, the turkey man, left yesterday for Boston to see after a shipment he had made there. MR. JOHN P. JONES and friends, Messrs. Elliott and Wilmot, killed 146 birds on their hunt in Adair county. BORN, to the wife of J. A. Tucker, a son. The mother is the pretty daughter of J. H. Stephens, of the East End. REV. S. M. RANKIN went over to Troy, Woodford county, yesterday to hold a meeting. Mrs. Rankin accompanied him. MESSRS. BEN HARDIN and P. M. Berwald, with their wives, are here from Monticello, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hardin. MR. JOSH WILSON, who was here from Bee Lick Wednesday, tells us that there are several cases of typhoid fever in his section. ROBERT JONES, of Bozeman, Mont., and John K. Jones, of St. Joe, Mo., are on their way to this place to see their mother, Mrs. Isaac Jones, who is lying at death's door. MESSDAMES J. W. ALCORN, W. A. Tribble and J. S. Owsley, Jr., and Miss Kate Alcorn are attending the meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at Winchester. ELDER F. W. ALLEN and family left Wednesday for Chillicothe, Mo., to reside. During their stay of two years here they made many friends who disliked very much to give them up. MESSDAMES ROBERT CHAPPELL and W. F. Butcher, who have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Adams, returned to their homes at Lebanon Junction and Lexington yesterday. MRS. T. J. FOSTER gave a delightful luncheon Wednesday in honor of Mrs. J. W. Hayden, of Winchester. Some 20 of her lady friends were present and several hours were very pleasantly spent. MISS CALLIE HORTON went to Lexington yesterday to take the position of bookkeeper and stenographer for the Morning Democrat. Miss Horton held a similar position for five years very creditably in this office. MRS. M. D. GREGORY, of Covington, has gone to Roswell, N. M., for the benefit of her health. She is a great sufferer from asthma. Mrs. Gregory is a daughter of Judge and Mrs. James P. Bailey, who were over to tell her goodbye. THOMAS D. NEWLAND, JR., has secured the position of bookkeeper for the Pittsburg Coal Co., at Pittsburg, and he will go up in a few days to begin work. He is a fine young man and will fill with credit any position he accepts. WEDNESDAY'S Louisville Times prints a good picture of Gen. T. T. Garrard, of Manchester, his daughter, Mrs. L. T. Green, who used to live here, Mrs. J. M. Conant, his granddaughter, and Edward G. Conant his great-grandson—four generations—the youngest of whom is about 25.

WARREN & SHANKS are still offering their entire stock of Hardware, Groceries, Queensware &c., for sale. First-class stand, clean, fresh goods. Good run of custom. Fine opening for any one wishing to go into business.

OLD APRON.—Mr. Charles A. Redd, Jr., of Crab Orchard, showed us yesterday a silk Masonic apron which is 121 years old. It was given in his wife's father years ago by Mr. Felix Glibert, formerly of Clay county, and is a relic of which the owner is very proud.

PROF. L. R. HUGHES' school at Rowland will close another successful term this afternoon after afternoon after appropriate exercises. His sister, Miss Myrtle Hughes, has assisted him and their work has been most satisfactory. Mr. Hughes has taught there five years.

MR. J. M. McROBERTS asks us to say that our informant quoted him wrong when he told us that when he was a boy there was good swimming in Hawkins' branch from George D. Hopper's to the Gentry farm. What he did say was there were numerous pools between the two places in which a man could swim almost any time of the year.

A STANFORD gentleman, who has two sons at college, would like to know some good institution of learning where that brutal sport, if it can be called sport, foot ball, is not tolerated. He says he does not intend for his boys to patronize a college after this year where more attention is given foot ball and base ball than to studies.

GREENBERRY BRIGHT tells us that he has bought a half interest in the grocery store of W. B. Holmes at Danville and that they will add a large line of farming implements. Both of the gentlemen are popular and they should do a good business. Mr. Bright has rented a residence in the Otter addition and will move his family to Little Britain after his sale on the 28th.

ATTENTION is called to the announcement of Mr. W. I. Herrin, of the East End, for jailer of Lincoln county. He has been a hard worker for the cause of democracy for years and this is his first time to ask a favor of his party. That he will make a fine race and a splendid jailer, if he wins, no one who knows the clever gentleman will doubt. "Ike" Herrin is popular with all classes and the man who beats him will realize that he has been in a monstrous hard race.

CIRCUIT COURT.—After two days' of trial, Art Hocker for killing George Garnett, also colored, was given 11 years in the penitentiary. The jurors stood from two to 21 years. It was a bad case, no doubt, but Hocker made a splendid witness for himself and probably saved his neck by his straight and seemingly truthful narration of the killing. Ashby Warren, for the prosecution, made his maiden speech, which was highly complimented by the lawyers and others who heard it. Judge Varnon was assisted in the defense during the last 14 days by Col. T. P. Hill, who made a splendid plea for the prisoner. Mack Hocker, colored, got a year for cutting Wm. Bright, a Negro preacher.

The grand jury adjourned Wednesday after returning 22 indictments, mostly for breach of the peace and carrying concealed weapons.

The case of J. B. Foster against C. E. Gentry and the Messrs. Dawson in which the former sues for $445 for sheep killed and damaged by dogs the latter gentlemen were hunting with, occupied the court all of yesterday and is still on trial. Judge J. W. Alcorn is representing the plaintiff and Col. W. G. Welch and W. S. Burch the defendants.

LEAVE your order for black cake for Thanksgiving and Christmas. I can furnish to you much cheaper than you can make them. John H. Meier.

A 10-YEAR-OLD son of Fount Privitt, of the McKinney section, died Wednesday. He had been an invalid from his birth, never having been able to sit alone.

If Gov. Beckham's official majority is 3,553, which it seems to be, Mr. Jerry Briscoe wins in our guessing contest and he will get this paper a year free. He guessed 3,500. Kowan Sauley, of this office, was the next nearest, his being 4,000.

NOW is a good time to place your order for holiday pictures. Miss Sacray.

LOST between Alex Traylor's and Joseph Price infirmary, a silver match case. Reward, Dr. J. G. Carpenter.

IT is the intention of THE INTERIOR JOURNAL to issue a handsome Christmas edition about Dec. 10. It will be a splendid opportunity for merchants who handle Christmas trix to advertise them.

BAD LUCK.—Mr. "Ike" Herrin, of the East End, is glaying in bad luck. A short time ago he lost by death a fine horse, soon after a splendid milk cow died and only a few days later he lost $20 out of his pocket.

THE following was handed in by Hon Fontaine Fox Bobbitt: "Judge Sauley to William Burton, juror. Now why do you wish to be excused, by the court, from serving on this jury because neighbors and friends are in litigation? Suppose in every case coming up before me as a court between my friends I should want to be excused or decline to act and should descend from the wool sack and call for the election of a special judge? Yes, said Burton, but they can pick up such a juror as I am anywhere on the street, but they can't find such a judge as you anywhere. He was excused."
