

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Lot of sheep for sale or to trade for hogs. A. R. Mathey, 2.
Miss Lucy Smith was thrown from her horse in Bell county and killed.
The London Kentuckian has suspended. It failed to fill a long felt want.
Henry Withite, who killed Pleas Vaughn in Laurel, was given four years in the pen.
G. B. Breeding, a Columbia merchant, has assigned. He owes Louisville merchants $4,000.
Bourne G. Pennington does not go to Stanford, but remains in Middlesboro and is a mine's purchasing agent for mules.—News.
William R. Henderson, son of David Henderson, of Rockcastle, died last week, aged 22. He was one of the best young men in the county.
W. Q. Emlison, who used to make Stanford in his travels for his whiskey house, died suddenly in Louisville. His place of business was Lebanon.
W. O. Goodloe, lawyer and Confederate veteran, died suddenly at Danville Friday of hemorrhage of the lungs, with which he was stricken at the dinner table.
James B. Clark, of Bourbon, sold to J. B. Hunter, of Buffalo, Ill., a five year old 16 hand high jack, for $700. This fine jack goes to Mr. Hunter's farm in South Dakota.
A. G. and J. M. Craig sold to James I. Hamilton, of Lancaster, a saddle gelding for $90 and to J. C. Hays, of Crab Orchard, a pair of mules for $135.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

William Smith, white, and Frank Snyder, colored, had a difficulty at Mt. Morgan coal mines, in Whitley County, in which shotguns were used. Both men were wounded.
"Aunt" Katie West, the oldest woman in Whitley county, died Sunday of old age. She was 104 years old and leaves four generations of offspring, numbering several hundred.
The wife of Rev. J. H. Pence, formerly of Rowland but now of Harp, Franklin county, died last week in a Cincinnati infirmary. Besides her husband she left two children, aged 15 months and four years, respectively.
The four-year-old daughter of William Carmackie, of Burgin, met with a horrible accident which resulted in the little one's death. While playing near a tub of boiling water the child slipped and fell in and was scalded badly from head to foot. She only lived a few hours.
Mrs. Kate West, who died at her home on Jellico creek, was probably the oldest person in Whitley county, having celebrated her 100th birthday the 19 of last October. She leaves a large number of descendants, having been connected with many of the best families of the county.
A Danville dispatch says: City Attorney Henry Jackson and Chief of Police Helm made a regular Carrie Nation raid on Danville's blind tigers. Through the aid of a detective, over 130 warrants have been issued against Negro joints and judgments are being entered without contest in any of the cases. The fines and costs will approximate $7,000.
A double tragedy occurred at a dance at Jellico, Saturday night, as the result of an old grudge between two miners named Strunk and Sargener. The two men were dancing. One of them accidentally jostled the other, and a quarrel resulted. Strunk fired at Sargener, the ball passing entirely through his body and killing a boy named Martin, who was directly behind him. Sargener fell without a moan, being killed instantly. Strunk fled.

DANGER OF COLDS AND LaGRIPPE
The greatest danger from colds and la-grippe is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is certain preventive of that dangerous malady. It will cure a cold or attack of la-grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Craig & Hoeker, Druggists.

Forty-seven murderers, under sentence of death by hanging, are awaiting death from natural causes in the Kansas penitentiary, because that State hasn't now, nor has had for many years, a Governor with the nerve to sign a death warrant.
An ex-Texas Hoosier has confessed that he has stolen 98 horses, killed three men, and now wants to be an angel. His new-felt want should be filled immediately, if not sooner.—Louisville Times.

When Sarah Bernhardt insured her life at Chicago the other day for $100,000, she confessed to 57 years of age, a pretty old girl to still retain so great a place in the hearts of amusement lovers.

Mrs. Stevens, president of the W. J. C. T. U., indorsed Mrs. Nation.

LANCASTER.

Elder A. R. Moore preached Sunday evening on "A Pillar in the Temple of God."
A tobacco firm at this place has made purchases to the amount of $30,000 from the farmers of this section.
The Blue Grass Grocery firm will move their stock from the Thompson block to the G. S. Gaines store-room.
Miss Murphy, of the Garrard Graded School, gave the children of her department a candy pulling Friday afternoon.
Miss Ann Dunn has been in what was considered a fatal condition from pneumonia. Her brother, Erasmus Dunn, has also been ill of grip.
Mrs. Samuel Haselden entertained Thursday evening in honor of the Misses Robertson, of Cynthiana. Mrs. Mattie Fox is visiting in Louisville. Miss Dove Harris is at home again, after a visit to Lexington.
A talented set of Negro musicians have formed a troupe known as the "Harris Minstrels." They gave an entertainment Friday night, which was pronounced quite good, and was attended by a number of white citizens.
E. R. Fox, of Louisville, secretary of the Kentucky Sunday School Association, lectured at the Methodist church on Friday evening and county officers were elected to prepare for the State convention at Danville in August.
The Ladies' Aid Society, of the Christian church, will meet next Saturday afternoon with Mrs. K. Ways, at the home of R. H. Batson. The Social and Industrial Club meets this afternoon with Mrs. Banks Hudson.
Mrs. Eliza Moberly, of the Stone neighborhood, died at her home Friday night of pneumonia. She was about 65 years of age and leaves a family of seven grown children. The remains were taken to Richmond Sunday for interment.
Senator George T. Farris is just back from a canvassing tour and reports Casey solid for him. He also believes Lincoln just as favorable, as he learned nothing to the contrary. He feels quite hopeful and sees no reason now why he will not get the nomination.
James I. Hamilton bought a horse of J. Bourne for $80, and J. A. Robinson bought a calf for $17 50. L. Saunders a farmer of this county, raised 3,000 pounds of hemp on a two-acre plot of ground. Garrard's hemp and tobacco yields this last season are unusually fine.
Miss Fannie Spratt and Richard Brown, both of Palot Lick, are to be joined in the holy bonds of wedlock Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents. This union was to have been consummated several weeks ago, but an attack of measles befell the seamstress and hindered the completion of the bridal finery.
A novel entertainment will be given here at the court-house in the near future known as "A Trip to Tramp Town." "Faust" drew a well-filled house Saturday night, and the audience was much pleased, especially with White's impersonation of Mephisto. The leading role could hardly be surpassed, even on New York or London boards.
Mrs. Martha A. Leavell died at the home of her daughter in this city Saturday night, after only a few hours illness, supposed to be a combination of asthma and grip. She had reached the age of 70 and was for 39 years the widow of Louis T. Leavell, once a wealthy farmer and bank president of this section. She leaves only one daughter, Mrs. Dorcus Walker, the widow of the late Judge Wm. E. Walker. The funeral was preached Monday afternoon at the Presbyterian church by Rev. A. W. Crawford, and the interment followed in the Lancaster cemetery.

Today, at high noon, Miss May Z. Hughes, of this city, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hughes, will be led to the hymenal altar by Mr. H. P. Noland, of Independence, Mo. Elder A. R. Moore, of the Christian church, performing the ceremony. Miss Hughes is an attractive young lady of the blonde type of beauty, and an unusually talented musician, having pursued with great diligence the study of this art from childhood, and then continuing the course at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. The groom is a bright young lawyer and an ambitious young man, and the newly-espoused couple will sojourn for a short time at St. Louis and other points in Missouri and then go to Seattle, Wash., to build a home and fortune in that far-away Western port.
Mrs. Naenie T. Carpenter, of Danville, visiting here at her late home, was found dead in her bed Sunday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ansel George. She was mingling with her many friends on the streets Saturday afternoon, ate a hearty supper and took part in animated and congenial conversation until rather a late hour. There was no response to a knock on her door and it was supposed she had been dead for hours. Her death was due to heart disease, which may have been induced by grip in the form of lumbago, from which she was a sufferer several weeks ago. Mrs. Carpenter was a Miss Thompson, of Woodford, and leaves a brother and sister, Mrs. G. S. Gaines, of Danville. She had reached her 64th year, and had been a widow about six months, her husband, N. B. Carpenter, having died here on the 18th of August, after an invalidism of 10 years. A funeral was preached at the Baptist church by the Rev. Mr. Woolford Monday morning and the remains were taken to Lexington to be interred beside those of the husband.

POLITICAL.
Montgomery democrats will hold a primary April 19.
A bill was introduced in the Illinois House to punish kidnapping by hanging.
J. H. Davis, of Williamsburg, has been appointed deputy collector by Collector Denton.
An anti-cigarette bill has passed both houses of the Delaware Legislature, and will be signed by the Governor.
Friends of Richard Croker in London declare he will never re-enter active political life. He is said to be in bad health.
Federal Judge Achenson, at Pittsburg, decided that United States Marshals or their deputies can make arrests in emergency cases without a warrant.
Harry Baker, who died at Erlanger last week, was a candidate for Congress in the Sixth district eight years ago, and was beaten by half a vote by A. S. Berry.
The war in the Philippines is so nearly over that Secretary Root refuses to let 10,000 volunteers come home until he has 17,000 more to take their places.—Bryan's Commoner.

The extravagance of Congress in its appropriations received attention in the Senate in the discussion of the Agricultural Appropriation Bill. The principal speakers were Messrs. Lodge and Hale.
Senator Stillwell, of the Indiana Legislature, who introduced a resolution asking Gov. Durbine to extradite fugitives Taylor and Finley, is in receipt of a threatening whitecap letter from New Albany.
A bill was introduced in the Minnesota Legislature appropriating $10,000 for a statue for late United States Senator Cushman Kellogg Davis, to be placed in Statuary Hall, in the National Capitol at Washington.
Judge William H. Holt, United States district judge for Porto Rico, deposed the Executive Council of Porto Rico is no more subject to injunction than the Senate of the United States. Investors are disappointed.
Reporter Turner, of the Court of Appeals, asserts that the delay in publishing the court reports is chargeable to Public Printer Fetter. Mr. Fetter, in his response to the court rule a few days ago, placed the responsibility on Reporter Turner.

To The Democrats Of Lincoln County.
Having been solicited by many friends, not only here but from over the county generally, I herewith announce myself a candidate for judge of Lincoln county, abiding cheerfully the result of the primary already ordered for March 16th, next. In doing this I have considered the responsibilities that devolve upon a county judge and should the voters entrust me with that office, I will discharge the duties thereof to the best of my ability, having always an eye single to the best interest of the county. All my life I have been a democrat and have contributed whatever of influence and support I could command to the advancement of democratic principles and the success of the party. Hoping you will look on my candidacy with favor, I am yours in democracy,
J. D. SWOPE,
Hustonsville, Feb. 18.

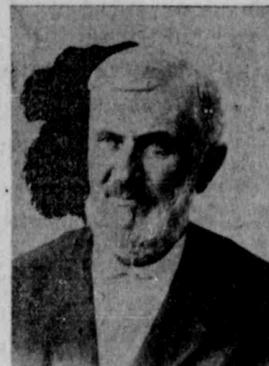

ATTENTION COMMITTEEMEN!
A meeting of the Democratic County Committee is called to meet in Stanford Saturday, Feb. 23rd, 1901, at the office of the secretary. The candidates for nomination for county offices will on that day submit the list of names of persons whom they wish to act as officers of the election in each voting precinct and the officers shall be as nearly equally divided as possible amongst the various candidates.
R. C. WARREN, chm'n.

"I hobbled into Mr. Blackmon's drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with which I suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said: Well, if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it." I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism." Sold by Craig & Hoeker, Druggists.

It took two hours to find a judge to appoint a receiver for one of our unesteemed distemporaries, and it will require a much longer period of time for the receiver to find anything worth receiving.—Louisville Times.

The total assessment of Fayette county is $20,739,067, an increase by the supervisors of $176,668.

THE LATE J. "TINE" COOK, Of Lancaster.

HUSTONVILLE.
W. L. Evans has built an excellent ice house, but it looks like he wont get it filled this season.
Our people generally deeply regret the proposed departure of Mr. J. W. Lockridge and family. They will move to Monticello, where Mr. L. has bought a large boundary of timber land.
W. L. Evans' store is indeed a thing of beauty and his friends hope it will prove a joy forever in bringing him in lots of shekels. June H. Reid is assisting as salesman and business is starting off nicely.
W. S. Drye has received a dozen of the finest horses ever brought to Hustonville; one of which he refused $350 for the other day. He is a magnificent specimen of the equine family and Mr. Drye says that it will take $500 to make him part with him.
Miss Alice Cabbell is ill. Miss Alice Drye is back from Marion greatly improved in health. J. B. Adams and family are thinking of moving to Danville. Paul Drye was up from Marion last week. Mrs. J. W. Allen was able to drive to Mr. Samuel Reid's Sunday. L. M. Reid was in Cincinnati last week. J. B. Dunlap, of Kansas City, was with relatives here. Harry B. Hoeker, of Danville, was up Sunday.
Mr. Terry Goode, aged 94, is quite sick. He is probably the oldest man in Lincoln county and beyond doubt the most systematic one. For the last half century his shoes, clothes and hat have been put in the same place each night, his watch has hung on the same nail, while each and every farming implement is put in its proper place before he retires. He can tell in an instant where every hoe, plow, piece of harness, &c., &c. are while the night is never too dark for him to find, without aid of light, any of his possessions. Mr. Goode's family is using the cook stove he bought nearly 50 years ago, while the sifter he got when he first went to house-keeping still does its daily work. He has a corn cob he has shelled corn with for over 35 years and uses the old shuck horse collar pads he bought before leather collars were made. While not an up-to-date farmer Mr. Goode is a good one and has done well for the 10 children he has raised.

CRAB ORCHARD.
Mr. Joe Newland and W. D. Ramsey leave for Florida Tuesday, to be gone several months. They will take a cook and camping outfit along and expect to enjoy life wherever it suits them best.
The Nicholasville Telephone Company is having several thousand poles bought here and with spokes, staves, logs and lumber of all kinds, the railroad siding presents a busy appearance.
Measles is prevalent in our community and the families of Mr. J. H. Collier and T. M. Holmes both have it. There are 10 in each family to be afflicted. Whooping cough is also numbered among the latest arrivals.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Redd, Sr., will celebrate their golden wedding Tuesday, having been married 50 years. Both are yet hale and hearty. Mr. Redd is 86 and Mrs. Redd 76 years of age. They will entertain a number of relatives and friends.
Dr. J. W. Guest spent Sunday with his parents and returned to Louisville Monday. Will Brooks left for Cincinnati Sunday to be gone until spring trade is over. Miss Averilla Livingston left Friday night for Lebanon, O., to enter Normal school. Mr. John Riddle rented the coal and feed store of W. D. Ramsey and will be pleased to wait on the public during Mr. Ramsey's absence. Mrs. Jane Dickerson lost a valuable cow from hydrophobia. Mrs. Will Morrow stopped off at Crab Orchard on her return from Mt. Vernon and is a guest of Mrs. J. A. Holdam. We would like to see our townmen, Messrs. Ike Herrin and J. C. McWhorter both elected to the offices they seek.

The Laurel circuit court convened at London with seven murder cases and anywhere from 500 to 600 minor criminal cases on docket. This is the same quiet, peaceful retreat, and extolled law-abiding place to which Fugitive Taylor in his hour of extremity attempted to adjourn the Kentucky Legislature.—Glasgow Times.
