VOL. XXIX.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, MARCH 22, 1901. 9 A M.

NO. 8

MIDDLEBURG.

The sick are all improving. Miss Lula Benson will visit her uncle at Franklio, Ill., about April 1st.

Charley McWhorter bought 26 shoats of Joseph Gribble and Wallace Evans, of Grove, at 31c.

Reuben Staton, C. C. Jones, W. J. Godby and E. E. Kelsay are the officers of the election here.

Dr. J. M. Haney is building a neat and commodious office, which will add to the appearance of College Street.

Ethel McWhorter, who went to Mill nois three weeks ago to make his home, returned Thursday. He says the weather was too "zeroey" out there for him.

The democratic primary in Lincoln may have been hot, but the republican primary in Casey is already "hotter" and bids fair to reach the superlative degree before the end. Democrats are taking no part except to clap their hands and yell "Sic 'em Tige."

Joseph Gribble, of the Grove section, was here a few days ago and told us of his exciting experience with fire some time since. He said when it struck his farm it went through by leaps. To save fencing was out of the question and his efforts were directed toward saving his buildings. He and Mrs. Gribble fought the flames for nearly 24 hours without eating or sleeping, before safety was assured. He had about 300 panels of fence burned and it is a great wonder that his house and barn were saved.

MATRIMONIAL.

Mrs. Isaac Adams, of Letcher county, is seeking divorce after three weeks of married life.

James H. Heath, aged 17, and Miss Hettie Abrahams, 20, were married at Miss Harriet Abrahams' Wednesday.

T. B. James and Miss Mamie Reed, W. W. Seay and Miss Ethel Gontley, eloping couples from Springfield, were married at the Commercial House, Harrodsburg, Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock, having driven all night to reach that point.

Bristol, which is half in Tennessee and half in Virginia, is shortly to have a novel celebration. Rev. Alfred H. Burroughs will marry his thousandth couple since that place became a Gretna Green, in the opera house, the occasion to be made a big demonstration.

Miss Lena Paithe, 30, a trained nurse, was awarded $100 by a jury in the suit for $5,000 against Charles W. Rising, 51, a wealthy real estate agent for breach of promise. Being asked if Rising had ever kissed her, she assumed a very dramatic air and said: "Only on the hand and cheek; no man ever kissed these lips."

Mr. J. R. Boswell, of Shelby county, was married to Miss Annie Pickett at Mr. Wm. Severance's Wednesday morning, Rev. J. W. Hagin performing the ceremony. Miss Pickett was here visiting her sister, Mrs. Severance, and although the family had made some preparation for it, the marriage was a genuine surprise to Miss Pickett's friends. She made a number of friends during her visit here and there are several young men who heard with regret that she had become Mrs. Boswell. The bride is an exceedingly bright, handsome lady, while the gentleman who won her is one of Shelby county's most successful young farmers. They drove to Junction City after the ceremony, where they took the train for home. Mr. Hart Pickett, brother of the bride, came up from Pinchville to attend the wedding.

To Fellow Democrats.

It is needless for me to tell you that I was defeated Saturday for the nomination for jaller and it ought to be just as useless to say that I am for the straight democratic ticket, for you all know that I am neither a scratcher nor a bolter, but stories are afloat and I take this method of setting myself straight in the eyes of the people. Not only am I for Mr. Herrin, who defeated me, but I am ready and willing to do what I can to help elect every man on the splendid ticket nominated. I am profoundly thankful for the good work my friends did for me, and although it is a little early, I want to tell them and the rest of the democrats of Lincoln county that I am now a candidate for the office of jaller four years hence and that I ask their support. If I die in the meantime I have some good democratic boys, who would fill out my unexpired term with credit.

DINK FARMER.

AN HONEST MEDICINE FOR L.A. GRIPPE.

George W. Watt, of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used only one bottle of it and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

R. A. Caplinger, a student in a local business college, was arrested at Lexington, charged with the murder of John Neal, of Smithville, Decatur county, Tenn.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

The Newport races begin April 6 and last 45 days.

Wm. Cloyd sold to Harry Lockridge a pair of mules for $175.

HAY.—100 bales of good timothy hay for sale at 50c per bale. Mark Hardin.

Five hundred bales of Timothy hay or sale J. S. Owsley Sr., Stanford, Ky.

Mark Hardin bought of E. H. Beazley a lot of sows at 4fc and seven shoats for $21.

Jesse Martin bought 45 sheep from Claude Rogers at $5 75 head.—Woodford Sun.

Tom Williams has bought the Ingle-side and Tanforan race tracks near San Francisco for $600,000.

Garry Herrmann, the Derby favorite, went a mile in 1:48 at Churchill Downs, Louisville, the other day.

At Dr. Lawwell's sale in Boyle 30 three-year-old feeders sold at $37.02 and Polled Angus cattle $17 to $65.

The sale of the world's champion trotter, The Abbot, 2:03½, for $40,000, to Fred Gherken has been practically completed.

George W. Jenkins, a three-year-old by Esher, and at one time thought to be a prominent candidate for all Western Derbies, has been retired to do service in a brewery wagon.

The great match race is off, owners of the Abbot and Boralma being unable to agree on terms. Scannell is now ready to match his horse for $50,000, proceeds to go to charity.

The Secretary of Agriculture estimates that over $6,000,000 worth of young live stock were saved during 1900 by the prompt use of medicine for blackleg sent out by the department.

Thomas Lawson, the millionaire banker and sportsman of Boston, now offers to back Boralma against any trotting horse for $250,000, the race to be run in September, the best four heats in seven.

Pork for delivery in May soared to $16 35 per barrel at Chicago Tuesday, $2.50 higher than the price at the beginning of the month and at the highest point since the Lipton squeeze in ribs.

1,000 acres of corn, grass and meadow lands to rent for balance of this year and to lease for 1902 and 1903 to responsible parties only. Will rent or lease in lots to suit renter. Dwelling and several tenant houses, also 100 acres of growing wheat. See display ad later of stock, personality, &c. A bargain can be secured by applying at once. George S. Shelby, Shelby City, Ky.

At Mt. Sterling Monday there were about 1,500 cattle on the market; medium quality. Best feeding steers sold at 4½; yearlings from 4½ to 5½; heifers 3½ to 4½; cows, 3 to 3½; bulls, 3c; canners, 14 to 2c. The highest price of the day was $285 for a pair of mare mules. On medium mules prices were too high for buyers to take hold, so very little trading was done.

CHURCH MATTERS.

There are more than 31 miles of saloons in Chicago, and less than eight miles of churches.

Rev. A. D. Rash died of paralysis at Winchester. He was pastor of the Baptist church here in the 70's.

Rev. J. W. Hagin's subject Sunday morning will be: "Right Use of Influence." At night: "Courage of Conviction."

Rev. George W. Young, the eternal agitator of the public conscience, will speak at the court house in Lancaster March 26th, at 8 P. M.

President E. E. Wood, of Williamsburg, writes: "We have had a most successful session of Williamsburg Institute. We have enrolled 415 students since the 1st of January and our entire enrollment for the year will reach about 450. We have had a protracted meeting during which 25 young people professed conversion."

The State Christian Endeavor Convention, which was to have been held in Cynthiana in May, has been abandoned, and no State convention will be held this year. The reason for the change is that the International Convention will be held in Cincinnati in July and so many endeavors will attend the big convention it was thought that many would on this account forego the pleasure of attending the State convention.

This from the Baptist Recorder seems to be a crow over proselyting: Pastor Wm. Nowlin writes from Lexington: "I baptized six candidates Sunday night, representing five new families. Three were from the Methodists and one from the Presbyterians. I have three other Presbyterians, several other Methodists and two Campbellites for baptism. We could have had five other additions if we had taken alien immersion."

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well-known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug."—Sold by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

MT. VERNON.

Ballast crushers at Sparks' Quarry and Mullins' Station will start up next week.

Many of our merchants and citizens purchased late patent lights and the old town now puts on an illuminated appearance at night.

The new lessees of the Pine Hill mines will shortly reach the Skaggs Creek vein which is considered the best coal in the mountains.

F. L. Thompson, of this place, commercial tourist for a Louisville house, sold more goods last year than any other drummer of his large wholesale house.

Henry Ramsey, living in the northern portion of the county, is said to have small-pox. He lately returned from Corbin. The health board has taken charge of the case.

We are informed that the contract was to be awarded at Richmond today, Thursday, for the construction of six miles of the Brush Creek Valley railroad. This place has a party interested in one of the bids.

The extensive stone saw mills at Langford started up Monday and will be kept busy until next winter. The product from these quarries goes to Cincinnati, Chicago, New York, Baltimore and many other cities.

Frank Tink Mullins, who accidentally shot himself on Crooked Creek, is improving. Lloyd Marot had a fall and seriously sprained his hand. W. R. McClure and family have moved to a point near Guthrie, Oklahoma.

In cases of sickness, death, sorrow, or despondency, our good friend, Jno. W. Brown, is a comforter indeed. He is no respecter of station but is prodigal in his deeds of kindness to all and in a quiet, unostentatious manner.

Bill Bryant, of Clay county, who was in jail here charged with forgery at Livingston, escaped Wednesday night by cutting a hole in the ceiling and prizing a brick beside a window on the second floor. Four other prisoners remained, including E. K. Wilson, who made no attempt to leave.

Mrs. Georgia Jones is here from Middleboro to see her daughter, Mrs. L. W. Bethurum, who has been ill for two weeks. The Joplin Hotel, this place, has been rented by Mrs. Jones, of London, who will take possession on April 1st. A daughter of John Fredricks' was sent to the reform school last week. Mrs. Reuben Mullins, after nursing five members of the family through serious spells of sickness, has fallen ill herself. Mrs. C. C. Williams has returned from Topeka, Kas, where she went to see her sister, Miss Clara Whitehead, who had sustained a fracture of both wrists from a fall. The injuries are progressing favorably towards recovery. Mrs. Nathan Schooler, of Paint Lick, is visiting the family of Willis Adams here. Mrs. B. F. Fuquay is here from Mitchell, Ind., nursing her husband, who has been seriously ill. Mr. Fuquay has lumber interests in the county. A. E. Albright, one of Rockcastle's best citizens, lately in business in Cincinnati, is now running a store at Brodhead, his old home, and is doing a flourishing business. Mrs. David Henderson continues ill. Mrs. Theo. Wesley has returned from Middleburg. Mrs. L. W. Bethurum is slightly better.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

The wife of W. B. Hurt, of Columbia, died the other day.

Mrs. R. A. Burton, widow of the well-known digger, died at Lebanon.

Mrs. Susan Dickerson, of Beuna Vista, Garrard county, is dead, aged 96.

C. J. Cunningham has bought Owen McIntyre's interest in the Burgin Record.

Clarence Coffee, of Shelby City, was badly hurt by being thrown from his horse.

Jamaica is the name of a new post-office in Estill and John Reese is postmaster.

Lucian B. Nelson, of Danville, has been recommended for appointment as a dental surgeon in the regular army.

W. H. Kirby, formerly a passenger conductor on the K C, has embarked in the horse combination sale business in Paducah.

Mrs. Samuel Bell, of the Dunnville section of Casey, died a few days since. She was a sister of Messrs. Bob and Curd Williams.

Jim Stanley, who is charged with abandonment in Knox county, was arrested at East Bernstadt, by Deputy Sheriff Hopkins, but managed to escape.

The new Lodge of Elks at Danville elected W. G. Dunlap exalted ruler; W. S. Rowland, esteemed leading knight; Guy Wiseman, esteemed loyal knight; A. C. VanWinkle, lecturing knight; J. H. Letcher, secretary; F. N. Lee, treasurer.

At W. O. Newell's sale at Somerset 20 shares of First National Bank of Meridian brought $194 a share and 20 more shares brought $200 a share. The First National Bank stock of Jackson, Miss., brought $200 a share; Florence, Ala., Bank stock brought $80 a share. The Government bonds brought exceedingly high prices.

The wife of Congressman Vincent Boreing nas appealed judgement from the Laurel Circuit Court in the divorce suit against her husband which granted an absolute divorce, but refused alimony, notwithstanding the proof that her husband has a comfortable estate. The petition alleges that Boreing is worth $60,000 and gets a salary of $5,000 and asks that alimony be given.

Friends of Judge W. H. Swiggart, of Nashville, are urging him to run for governor.

LANCASTER.

The lawyers are now in the midst of the argument in the Ray case.

B. F. Hudson bought of W. B. Burton a fine combined sorrel horse for $155.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Merritt will remove to the Underwood place on Water street.

The prospects are that the A. G. Field's minstrel troupe will draw a good house Friday night at the opera house.

The Christian Endeavor Society organized by Elder A. R. Moore now numbers over 50.

Misses Arnold, Elizabeth Brown and Georgie Petty are to act as assistant clerks in the millinery establishment of Miss Dove Harris.

The sum raised at the Christian church was somewhere near $60. It is intended to augment this amount by additional subscription.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wright left Thursday for Indiana, where they will reside. Mrs. S. A. Harris is quite ill of bronchial pneumonia.

Mrs. George Evans has been extremely ill within the last week. Miss Lena Bright has again suffered a relapse, but is now somewhat improved.

Misses Laura Smith and Sallie Tillet, milliners, are making a tour of Louisville, Cincinnati and Indianapolis in the interest of their business.

Butter is a rare and expensive commodity in this section. Some town consumers have been without this palatable article of food for nearly a week.

Malcolm Tillet and sisters are preparing to erect a handsome brick building, combining a store-room and dwelling on their lot on Danville Avenue.

There was a parlor meeting Thursday afternoon in the W. C. T. U. rooms in honor of Dr. Frances Woods, of Iowa, and Miss Laura Clay, of Lexington.

The rear portion of Mrs. F. Farris' farm has been rented to Mr. Burke and a number of trees are being cut down preparatory to its cultivation in tobacco.

The sale of Mr. and Mrs. George Wright's furniture and household effects took place Wednesday afternoon on the public square. Articles brought an unusually good price.

Miss Dove Harris has opened up her new millinery establishment in the Garrard Hotel block, and has an accomplished trimmer, Miss Fannie Harris, of Circleville, O.

Master Joe Francis Price has returned from a visit to Alex Francis, of Stanford. Miss Besie Shumate, of Danville, has been the guest of her sister, Miss Janie Shumate.

The residents of the vicinity of Dix River report that it was never known to be so low during the winter season, and a number of mills could not grind along its course for lack of running water.

The scarcity of grass at this period is proving quite a damage to the raising of lambs. Some farmers have lost a number because of a lack of early spring grazing for their necessary sustenance.

The grand jury has been making investigation into what is reported to be bogus whisky prescriptions. It is believed the names of some of the local physicians have been forged and an attempt is being made to discover the miscreants.

Thomas Barnes, who until six or eight months ago was a resident of the Gilbert's Creek locality of this county, killed himself Wednesday at his recently adopted home of Danville, Ill. He was about 60 years old and for several decades had been a familiar figure in his frequented haunts of his late neighborhood.

Louis Landram, the efficient editor of the Central Record, has been in Louisville this week as one of a committee to arrange for the annual trip of the Kentucky Press Association. Mr. Landram, though one of the youngest editors of Kentucky, is held in high esteem by his brotherhood, and frequently receives complimentary notices from their quills.

Embry's All Right.

I desire through your columns to sincerely thank my friends for their earnest efforts in my behalf in the late primary. I certainly appreciate what was done for me by them and shall feel grateful therefor as long as I live. While I would have been glad to have received the nomination for assessor yet I cheerfully yield to the voice of the majority and the whole ticket nominated by the party at the late primary will receive my earnest and cordial support in November.

Very truly, J. T. EMBRY.

According to the census bulletin just issued the largest territorial division subject to the United States is Alaska, with an area of 590,844 square miles.
