E. C. WALTON.

W. P. WALTON.

Is a Candidate for Railroad Commissioner for the 2d District, subject to the will of the democracy.

LINCOLN county has a right to feel proud of her representative and Senator elected two weeks ago. Both Messrs. North and Farris have had experience in the House and Senate, respectively, and they have proven that they are well equipped for the offices to which they were elected. Mr. North distinguished himself by his good work of four years ago and won the plaudits of his constituency and praise of his colleagues by strict attention to the business he was elected for. He is the author of a number of bills that became laws and introduced several that had they passed both Houses, would have made Kentucky a better State. Mr. Farris' services began when Mr. North's did and he was at Frankfort during the "reign of terror." He was in the Senate when that body was chased through the streets of Frankfort at the points of bayonets, in the hands of Taylor's soldiers, but such treatment swerved him not from his line of duty. That he has made an enviable record as Senator, even his enemies will not gainsay, and profiting by the experience of the last four years he will be in a far better position to serve his constituency and the State alike next term. Both gentlemen are ardent admirers of Gov. McCreary and it will be with a feeling of pride that they will cast their votes for that distinguished gentleman for U. S. Senator.

A MAN in Indiana has been arrested 170 times in the last 15 years for drunkenness. He has spent 1,439 days in jail and has cost the county $661.65. He was once the wealthiest man in the county and has spent his whole fortune in drink. Had the drunks occurred during the last year or so it could have been readily proven that Govs. Mount and Durbin drove the fellow to drink by harboring assassins, refusing to honor requisitions for such, etc.

As a result of the court of inquiry which he found it necessary to ask for Rear Admiral Schley has spent $20,000 he had saved for his old age, and also all the prize money. He is poorer than when he was a cadet at Annapolis, says a dispatch. It isn't money the grand old fighter wants. He wants the charge of cowardice wiped out and its dollars to doughnuts that he will succeed in having it done.

THE veteran actor, Joseph Jefferson, suggests that hereafter the people elect two presidents; one to shake hands with the people and the other to attend to the affairs of the nation. A good idea. Nearly half of the president's time is spent in handshaking, while a greater part of the rest is given to the tales of woe of the Congressmen and Senators who want offices for their friends.

COL. JAMES ROGERS, of Lexington, told the Cincinnati Enquirer that he had rather bet on Gov. McCreary being the next U. S. Senator than on any horse race he ever saw. "Not only are 95 per cent. of the democrats in our city and county for McCreary, but he is the choice of an immense majority of democrats all over Kentucky. They can not beat him," he added.

HON. GEORGE T. FARRIS has announced himself a candidate for the democratic nomination for presiding officer of the Senate. A better man for the place could not be found and we sincerely hope the clever gentleman and dyed-in-the-wool democrat will get there with both feet.

AND now Judge Milton J. Durham has been given an office by the republican party, which he fought for years. He was appointed deputy revenue collector at Lexington. Next.

THE problem that is said to be worrying President Roosevelt is, how to put Greater New York in republican hands.

POLITICAL.

Hon. D. L. Moore, of Harrodsburg, may be a candidate for Congress.

A two-billion dollar glass trust is now being planned. This is a monopoly that the people ought to be able to see through.—Bryan's Commoner.

The president's high regard for Booker Washington is to be shown, it is said, by having him as a guest at one of the White House dinners this season.

Judge McBeath, of Elizabethtown, has announced his candidacy for appellate judge in the 2d district. He is at present circuit judge and is an able jurist.

According to the ruling of the commissioner of internal revenue the Philippines are regarded as domestic territory for customs and internal revenue tax purposes.

Horace Speed, formerly of Kentucky but now United States District Attorney for Oklahoma, has been offered the governorship of that Territory by President Roosevelt.

Wayne county republicans will contest.

Mrs. Mary Marsh has been appointed postmaster at Sumpter, Wayne county. Prince Ching has been ordered by the Empress Dowager to conclude the Manchurian treaty with Russia.

The new Hay-Pauncefote treaty was signed at Washington by Secretary Hay and Ambassador Pauncefote.

United States District Attorney R. D. Hill is not eligible for reappointment, as he lives in the Eastern district.

The modified ship subsidy bill will put greater restrictions on the admission of foreign ships, and Senator Vest says it will pass.

The democratic judge in Bath county will overcome the republican majority in the fiscal court by adding two new magisterial districts.

In the meanwhile, ex-Congressman McCreary continues to smile, as he sees the time approaching for him to foreclose a mortgage on the Senatorial seat.—Louisville Post.

William C. Buderus, of Sturgis, S. D., has been debarred from practicing before the interior department because he expressed joy at the assassination of President McKinley.

The women of Paris are organizing a movement to influence future elections. Men who do not avail themselves of the right of franchise will be excluded from their drawing rooms.

At Russellville, Judge Crewdson granted an injunction against the Logan county election commissioners, as a result of which they must issue certificates of election to candidates on the face of the returns.

Alabama's new constitution has received a majority of about 30,000 votes, but the anti-ratificationists claim fraud has been perpetrated, and have decided to organize a new party to make a fight for State officers next year.

When the banks issue all the money and the trusts own the attorney general, then the people may begin to realize that they were mistaken when they thought a full stomach the acme of human happiness.—Bryan's Commoner.

Bills are to be introduced at the approaching session of Congress to further strengthen the gold standard bill. One will make it mandatory to exchange silver for gold and the other is intended to give greater elasticity to the national bank note circulation.

The first act of the incoming legislature should be to offer such a reward for the fugitive conspirator assassins as will bring them dead or alive. The time for temporizing is past. Let the soundreils be brought to justice, no matter what the cost.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

Another postoffice has been named after the late President, making 19 in all. This will be continued until there is a postoffice in every State bearing the name of Mr. McKinley. Twelve postoffices have been named after Mr. Roosevelt, a majority of them being in the Southern States. All of these offices but one were established previous to the death of Mr. McKinley.

President Roosevelt does well to consult with Gov. Bradley as to political affairs in Kentucky. The governor does not know it all, nor does he possess all the statesmanship in the republican party in Kentucky, as the democrats always assert when they are trying to stir up factional strife in the party, but he probably knows more politics than any other one man in Kentucky or in the south. And he is by long odds the ablest, the most brilliant and the most aggressive republican leader in the South.—Louisville Commercial.

The National Fox Hunters' Association is in session at Estill Springs. The next thing is the big hunt at Crab Orchard Springs, which begins on the 25th.

Joseph A. Craft, the new collector for the 5th district, assumed his duties yesterday, and the entire office force—the same that served under Sapp—was sworn in.

Instead of returning the body of Chas. Goodman to Jeffersonville, Mayor Duley, of Little Rock, has ordered it turned over to Mrs. Rathbun, refusing to believe that the man in jail in Jeffersonville is Rathbun, though the prisoner admits his identity.

The mule market was dull, only a few changing hands and at low prices. Horses sold at $20 to $125.
