VOL. XXX.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, APRIL 11, 1902. 9 A. M.

NO. 12

NEWS NOTES.

The snow in some parts of Pennsylvania is two feet deep.

Paris lodge of Elks has called off its street fair and carnival for May.

Col. Blanton Duncan, formerly of Louisville, died at Los Angeles, Cal.

Three men were blown into fragments by a boiler explosion at Peoria, Ia.

San Francisco, it is said, has one saloon for every 22 adult male inhabitants.

Chinese attacked a Russian military post and were repulsed with a loss of 20 men killed.

Barney Riggs, feudist and fighter, was shot and killed in a feud in Texas by Buck Chadburn.

O. C. Harris, of Owingsville, who committed suicide, left a note saying: "I couldn't help it."

Asa Humble, a moonshiner, was killed in a fight with deputy U. S. marshals in Hardin county.

A Norwegian government commission reported in favor of the Holland type of submarine boats.

A young son of A. J. Scrivener near Irvine was burned to death in a fire which destroyed the house.

Thomas Gallagher, the oldest conductor on the Pennsylvania railroad, is dead at New Brunswick, N. J.

Private Richter, of the 28th infantry, died in the Philippines from being gagged for back talk to Lt. Sinclair while drunk.

Since Jan. 1 10 new cotton oil mills, with an aggregate capital stock of nearly $1,000,000, have been organized in Mississippi.

George T. Gilliam, a prominent Peoria, Ill., attorney, was fined and given a long workhouse sentence for defrauding a woman of $4,000.

Though urged to make it $600,000 the great State of New York provides but one-sixth of that sum for her exhibit at the St. Louis Exposition.

The Kentucky Board of Pharmacy will take immediate steps to enforce the new law prohibiting the sale of cocaine except on prescription.

Customhouse authorities at San Francisco were notified to be on the alert to discover the shipment of arms from this country to the insurgents in China.

At the Charleston Exposition President Roosevelt presented a sword to Maj. Micah Jenkins and delivered an extended speech, treating current problems.

George Cooksey, just back from the Philippines, shot and killed Ralph Marcum, marshal of Fallsburg, this State. The officer attempted to arrest Cooksey.

The Negro church will not be built near the governor's mansion at Frankfort. Judge Cantrell dissolved the injunction, and said a Negro church was nuisance per se.

Adj. Gen. Murray has issued an order permitting armed Confederate veterans from other States to pass through Kentucky on their way to the reunion at Dallas, Texas.

In an affray between school boys of Parkland, near Louisville, Preston James, aged 13, shot Arthur Fible over the heart with a 32 calibre revolver. The wound may prove fatal.

A dispatch from Phoenix, Arizona, says that 20,000 Indians on the Sacaton reservation are suffering from famine. They are short of water, and, as a consequence, are short of supplies.

A Knoxville dispatch says: W. H. Wells, the engineer of construction of the Southern railway, is in the city and says that the plan which was on foot to build the extension of the road from Burgin to Jellico, has been abandoned.

Maj. Littleton W. T. Waller testified before the court martial at Manila that Gen. Smith instructed him to kill and burn. He said he asked Gen. Smith to define the age limit for killing, and the reply was: "Everything over 10."

Several officers of the Marine corps testified corroboratively.

While greatly absorbed in the station show at Paris, James Paynter, of near Carlisle, was relieved of $25 by Charles Salsbury, residence unknown. Salsbury was detected in the act by Deputy Jailer Gibson, and in an endeavor to escape, was brought down by a bullet in his right leg.

The purchase of the Atlanta, Knoxville and Northern railway by the L. & N. has been officially announced. This purchase is said to be an aggressive step against the Southern railway, and by the construction of a line from Jellico to Knoxville will give the L. & N. its own road into the latter city and a direct line to Atlanta.

BETTER THAN PILLS.

The question has been asked "In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to pills? Our answer is: They are easier and more pleasant to take, more mild and gentle in effect and more reliable, as they can always be depended upon. Then they cleanse and invigorate the stomach and leave the bowels in a natural condition, while pills are more harsh in effect and their use is often followed by constipation. ## WAYNESBURG.

If this does not find the waste basket too soon, we may try our hand again ere long.

Spring seems to be here in earnest at last if we would judge by the early flowers and new hats of the ladies.

As we see no letter in the I. J. from here, we concluded that a sorry one might be better than none, hence these items.

Everybody here who takes the INTERIOR JOURNAL (and that is most every one) was very glad indeed that the time of printing was changed so that we could get "the cheapest and best" on the day it is printed.

The contract for the erection of the Maccabee Hall was let to Mr. L. G. Gooch and we venture the assertion he will spare no pains to put it up in a first class manner. By the way, the K. O. T. M. of Waynesburg, have a tent of about 60 members and will soon have one of the best halls of any tent in the State.

W. R. Singleton is on the sick list. Uncle Clark Reynolds continues ill. E. W. Reynolds and wife have returned from a visit to Tennessee. They will spend about three weeks with friends and relatives here before leaving for Dawson City, where they will make their home for a few years at least. Alfred Singleton is visiting his father. He has been in Uncle Sam's employ for quite a while. Marion Williams and wife, of Kingsville, were visiting friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Waynesburg is enjoying a very prosperous season at present. There are three houses now in course of construction, besides the Maccabee Hall. Bud Gooch, our bustling blacksmith, is also erecting a store house and when completed, he, with Dr. M. G. Bryant as a partner, will put in a stock of drugs and groceries. M. M. Howard is building a very nice cottage and we have heard it hinted that he is getting tired of a bachelor's life. So young ladies be on your guard or you might miss a chance to be mistress of that splendid cottage. A word to the wise is sufficient. Rev. T. M. Smith filled his appointment here Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moser, of the McCormack Church neighborhood, were visiting in this vicinity Saturday and Sunday.

MIDDLEBURG.

School is progressing nicely with a fairly good attendance.

C. L. Pruitt, our new merchant, expects to get into his new store on Race street by the 15th.

Miss Effie Lee Sandidge, of McKinney, who has been visiting Mrs. Mattie S. Durham, has returned home.

Rev. Gilliam preached at Green River Sunday morning and night, as also did Rev. Taylor at the M. E. church.

Hon. Ed. Parker, republican candidate for Congress in the 11th district, passed through town Monday afternoon.

Lewis Bros' Minstrel Troupe will give a performance at Keeney's Opera House Saturday, 12th. They come very highly recommended.

The box supper given at the college for the benefit of the Christian church was a success in every sense. Some boxes brought as high as $5.

The Yosemite and Poplar Hill base ball teams crossed bats on the Middleburg grounds, resulting in a victory for Yosemite. The score was 19 to 9.

Wm. Miller is visiting relatives at Phil. J. C. Collinsworth, of Parkersville, but formerly a merchant of this place, is visiting his many friends here.

Virgil R. Coleman has returned to Thurmond, W. Va., where he holds a lucrative position with the C. & O. Ja. son Wesley and Thomas Miller were in Danville Monday. Theo. Wesley, wife and daughter, of London, are visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Wesley. Edgar Miller is contemplating a trip West in the near future.

BEAUTY AND STRENGTH.

Are desirable. You are strong and vigorous when your blood is pure. Many—nay most women, fail to properly digest their food and so become pale, sallow, thin and weak, while the brightness, beauty and freshness of the skin and complexion depart. Remedy this unpleasant evil by eating nourishing food and taking a small dose of Herbine after each meal, to digest what you have eaten. 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

A story is told of a man in Massachusetts who sold a scrubby farm for $12,000, although its value was not more than $1,000. "How did you do it?" a friend asked him. "Well," he replied, "I had $1,000 worth of farm and $11,000 worth of view."

Lawrenceburg will have a street fair, a contract having been signed with the Cincinnati Carnival Company to give an entertainment, beginning May 19th, and continuing four days.

Try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, the best physic. For sale by Craig & Hocker, druggists.

KINGSVILLE.

There is a coal famine here. Dr. J. W. Acton is convalescing. Now that lent is over, why not have an old fiddlers' contest?

We congratulate our excellent sheriff, Mr. M. S. Baughman, on his good luck.

Rev. Thompson held services at the Methodist church Saturday evening, Sunday morning and evening.

Stanford has gotten ahead of us in the discovery of oil. Now lets get ahead of Stanford by establishing rural free delivery.

W. L. McCarty sold to a Mr. Foley a half acre of land on the pike near town for $25, on which Mr. Foley is building a blacksmith shop.

Joseph Jenkins was severely injured by "Colonel" Gooch accidentally striking him on the head with a pick, while engaged in section work on the railroad.

Business continues very brisk. Immense quantities of ties, spikes and lumber of all kinds come here for shipment. Most of it comes from Casey and the timber in that county must be inexhaustible.

John Green Walls and pretty bride are with his mother and sisters here. "Johnny" is a fine young man and tho' he didn't let us know of his intention to get married and thus denied us the pleasure of a "write up" of the happy event, we offer congratulations just the same.

There is a marked improvement in the choir service at the Christian church in consequence of the beautiful selection of hymns from the new books and the acquisition of several new voices. Among others, Mr. Will King, of Oldham county, who has a trained voice, is quite a help.

Mrs. C. G. Baker has the "cheapest and best line" of spring millinery in the town and we beg her pardon for overlooking the fact and intimating in our last letter that our milliners were not aware of the advent of spring in all its beauty, for it was circumstantial to that apartment. Mrs. Baker, though she has the business all to herself, takes no unfair advantage but, as intimated above, her prices are most reasonable (i. e. as reasonable as a woman's head where millinery is concerned.)

Wallace Walter and family have moved to Stanford and Mr. Cundiff and wife will occupy the house vacated by the Walters. Mrs. Cundiff is sufficient recovered to be removed from Norway to her home here the latter part of this week. G. A. Walter is an addition to the boarders at the Pennybacker hotel. Mrs. B. C. Pennybacker has returned from Somerset, where she had gone to establish her sister, Mrs. Lottie Champ, and children in their new home Manfred Chevrolet. J. M. McCarty's splendid clerk has resigned his position to accept a position as brakeman on the C. S. Operator C-leigh was down from Moreland Monday. Mrs. Fannie E. Carey is visiting her son, Wm. Carey, and wife at Lebanon Junction. Miss Effie B. Carey, who has been at Ludlow for several months, is expected home this week. Mack Williams, of Burgin, was down to see his mother Sunday.

William T. Stead has made public what he terms the political will and testament of Cecil Rhodes. The document consists of jottings made by Mr. Rhodes and sent to Stead for the latter to put in good English. His main political object, the fragments of notes show, was the peace of the world. He conceived of two agencies to accomplish this purpose. One was to follow in organization the lines of the Jesuits, and was to consist of men of great wealth, which was to be primarily devoted to this object, and the owners would thus be spared from "the hideous annoyance of incompetent relatives." The second agency was the racial unity of the United States and Great Britain, based on the American Constitution.

GOOD FOR RHEUMATISM.

Last fall I was taken with a severe attack of muscular rheumatism which gave me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I had seen advertised in the South Jerseyman. After two applications of this remedy I was much better, and after using one bottle, was completely cured. Sallie Harris, Salem, N. J. For sale by Craig & Hocker, druggists.

It is authoritatively announced that a consolidation of about two-thirds of the hardware jobbing interests is on the eve of completion. The proposed capitalization is $120,000,000 and the incorporation will be under New Jersey's laws. It will be the largest mercantile house in the world as distinguished from manufacturers.

The diameter of Jupiter, according to Prof. T. J. J. See's new determination, is 88,203 miles; that of Mars, 4,155 miles, and that of Mercury 2,657 miles.

LANCASTER.

The best butter has commanded 35c per pound. Dame Rumor predicts the marriage of a bright young lawyer.

J. S. Kelly will open a photograph gallery here at an early date.

Rev. J. E. Woolford will preach at Herring's school-house on Sunday afternoon.

Sim Anderson has accepted a clerkship in H. T. Logan's shoe and clothing store.

An "ice cream social" will be given at Herring's school-house on the night of the 19th.

The Presbyterian Missionary Society will hold a "Bazaar" at the Odd Fellows' Hall on the 18th.

Mrs. Margaret Hobbs gave an ice cream supper Monday night in the rear of the Geiger grocery store.

Rumor also has it that a young lady of the Point Leavell vicinity, is soon to wed a gentleman of the clerical persuasion.

Rev. C. M. Chumbley went to Danville Wednesday to unite with the Transylvania Presbytery. He was accompanied by W. C. Wherritt.

A Sunday school will be organized at Herring's school house next Sunday afternoon by H. A. B. Marksburg, assisted by Miss Amanda Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Richardson have recently taken up their abode in Lexington. They will open a boarding house in a desirable part of the city.

Jim Anderson, son of Mrs. Sue Anderson, is filling a good railroad position at $75 per month. He will soon be called to Alabama in connection with the same service.

There will be a formal installation of the new pastor of the Presbyterian church, the Rev. C. M. Chumbley, on the 20th, and Dr. J. L. McKee, of Danville, will be one of the officiating ministers.

A petition has been sent from this county to Gov. Beckham calling for an extra session of the Legislature because of the miscarriage of the Registration and School Book bills. The governor refused to grant it.

The $5 hat offered to the person who guessed nearest the number of violets in the glass jar exhibited at Miss Lillie Noel's millinery opening, was awarded to John Dunn, a 12-year-old boy of this place. There were 550 violets in the jar.

Gus Sun's American Minstrels will appear here at the opera house to-night with a full company and unusual novelties and attractions. This same company was here last winter and generally pronounced one of the finest that has visited the city.

The W. C. T. U. have so arranged that they will hold open sessions and render an interesting program once a month. The members will alternate in taking part in these exercises and outside vocalists and elocutionists will also be asked to participate.

News has been received of the death of Wm. Bettis, a wealthy citizen of New Orleans, but a native of this county. He married Miss Lizzie Hudson, daughter of Dr. Hudson, years ago a practitioner of this city. His wife still survives him and a sister, Miss Ann Bettis, of this community.

Mrs. George Miller Lusk is with Mrs. R. E. Hughes in Louisville. Mrs. Louis Landrum and Miss Althea Marksburg are on a shopping expedition in Cincinnati. Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, of Louisville, are guests of Mrs. W. T. West. Mrs. W. A. Price visited Mrs. S. P. Grant in Danville the first of the week. Mrs. J. M. Farra is visiting her sister, Mrs. George A. McRoberts, in Covington. Mrs. Lottie Harris has returned from a visit to Mrs. William Broadbuss at Louisville. D. M. Lackey is quite ill. Little Katherine Harris is much improved, after a two weeks' illness. Mrs. James N. Deacy is convalescing, after an attack of grip. J. E. Stormes is in Louisville on a business trip. Misses Lucy and Tommie Francis have returned from a visit to Danville relatives. T. W. Reid has had a relapse, and his case is considered quite serious. Miss Susan Fisher Woods, of Stanford, has been the guest of Mrs. W. S. Beazley, and a certain gallant widower is as exhilarant as a Spring morning. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Price, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Price, W. J. and Herbert Price, of Danville, attended the birthday dining of Mrs. Susan Price on Thursday.

A VALUABLE MEDICINE.

For Coughs and Colds in Children.

"I have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs and colds," says Chas. M. Cramer Esq., a well known watch maker of Colombo, Ceylon. "It has been some two years since the City Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine and I have repeatedly used it and it has always been beneficial. It has cured me quickly of all chest colds. It is especially effective for children and seldom takes more than one bottle to cure them of hoarseness I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine and they are all as well pleased as myself over the results." ## Modern Drug Dealing.

The elements that enter into perfect drug service are, we believe, these: Competency, quality, courteousness and a fair profit policy. We endeavor to give all these the fullest expression. While in some things there is legitimate need of varying qualities, in medicinal drugs there is not. We handle one grade only---the highest---yet our prices are apt to be less than inferior are sold for
