VOL. XXX.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1902. 9 A. M.

NO. 75

MR. HENRY M. BOSWORTH, OF FAYETTE.

We take pleasure in formally announcing the candidacy of Mr. Henry M. Bosworth, ex sheriff of Fayette county, for State treasurer, because he is worthy, well qualified and eminently deserving of an honor to which he would aspire. Besides he is a democrat above fear and above reproach, who always contributes his time and his money to the cause and never fails to vote the whole ticket. If Mr. Bosworth had never done anything else than arrest Caleb Powers, that alone should entitle him to the highest consideration. But for him, that condemned cooperator in assassination would now doubtless be with his principal, Taylor, and co-conspirator, Finley, a refuge from justice under the protection of a governor who should himself be made to do penal service for harboring criminals. Mr. Bosworth will make an active canvass, and being the master of man to make friends, he is sure to add scores to his list where ever he goes.—Lexington Democrat.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Eld. J. G. Livingston will preach a Thanksgiving sermon at Pine Grove Thursday at 11 o'clock A. M.
Rev. Wm. Wood, of Harrodsburg, held an eight-day meeting at Pleasant Grove church, Daviess county, which resulted in 60 conversions.
The meeting at the Baptist church, Brodhead, closed Friday with 43 additions to that church. Revs. R. R. Noel, of this place, and J. E. Wolford, of Lancaster, conducted the meeting, which was a splendid one.
The meeting at the Baptist church which has been a most interesting one and which has been the source of much good, will likely close on Wednesday night. Our people are greatly pleased with the pastor, Rev. O. M. Huey.
Thanksgiving services will be held at the Christian church beginning at 10.30 Thursday morning. Revs. S. M. Rankin, O. M. Huey and J. W. Hagin will make 15-minute talks. Eld. B. J. Pinkerton and Rev. R. B. Mabony will also participate in the services. Rev. D. J. Ross will not be in town.
The elders of the Broadway Christian church, Lexington, have sent out the following ballot appended to a circular setting forth the conditions under which the vote is to be taken. The ballot is as follows: "Are you in favor of the introduction of instrumental music into the worship of the Broadway Christian church?" "Please write 'Yes' or 'No,' and sign your name below."

That man in Western Kentucky who waited until he was 112 years old before joining the church, must have a good idea of his finishing powers. Would that some jockeys had such faith.—Lexington Democrat.

John Skain, as administrator of the estate of Turman James Murphy, who died at Lexington a few days ago, opened his private box and found bank check, notes and securities amounting to about $50,000.

A suit for $15,000 was recently filed here against the L. & N. railroad company. Frank Moss, of this city, claims that two or three cases of typhoid fever in his family, both last year and again this summer, were due to the foul condition of a pond located on one side of the railroad track and in the immediate vicinity of his residence. The plaintiff affirms that improper drainage of his premises is due to the railroad hemming in a quantity of water, which has developed into a stagnant cess-pool. The lawyers for the defense are Shelby and Breckinridge, of Lexington, and L. L. Walker, of this city.

In a Montreal police court recently the presiding magistrate asked a prisoner what he was doing at the time of his arrest.

"I was waiting," said the accused.

"Waiting for whom?" asked the magistrate.

"Just waiting," came the reply.

"What were you waiting for?"

"For my money."

"Who from?"

"The man I was waiting for."

"What did he owe you it for?"

"For waiting."

"I do not understand," said the perplexed magistrate. "Explain yourself."

"I thought you understood that I was a waiter in a restaurant," said the prisoner.
