

Is a thing of the past. When we meditate over it we are reminded of many things left undone. One of the most important is your account with

H. J. M'ROBERTS

Has been left unpaid. Now don't let him have to stop you on the street and ask you for it or have to write you about it, both of which he is sure to do. Don't wait until he sees you then tell him to wait until you sell something or collect something. You know now that you owe him so get ready to pay him. His place of business is open from 7 A. M. to 9 P. M.

PERSONALS.

MR C M RICE is down with grip. GEO L PENNY is up after a few days' illness. MR J W HAYDEN, of Paris, was here Saturday. DR J K VANARSDALE was in Louisville last week. PROF L R HUGHES is threatened with appendicitis. "UNCLE" DINK FARMER went to Indianapolis Sunday. T. D. NEWLAND, JR., went to Harrodsburg yesterday. HON. B. K. BOURNE, of Henry county, was here last week. GEO H FARRIS has been in bed for a week with a deep cold. HON HARVEY HELM and Mr. A. C. Dunn went to Frankfort Friday. D. H. SKINNER, of Hustonville, took Saturday's train for Stonega, Va. MR C W JELF, of Nicholasville, has taken a position in this office. MRS. R. K. HOURIGAN, of Marlon, was a guest at Mr. H. C. Ropley's. DR. JOHN M. BECK is again at college in Louisville studying medicine. A LITTLE daughter has arrived at the home of Mr and Mrs C. E. Tate. MISS DELPHIA NEWLAND, of the East End, is with the Misses Newland. MRS I N BOLLING, of Pineville, spent Christmas with the folks at home. MR. DEXTER BALLOU and family have moved to rooms in Mrs. Straub's house.

MRS LEWIS L WALKER, of Lancaster, was here Saturday en route to Louisville. LEE HILL left yesterday to finish his course at the Louisville College of Dentistry. MRS. H. V. ARNOLD and children, of Paris, spent Christmas with Mrs. Belle Austin here. MR. M. G. ALDRIDGE, a good Garrard county friend of this paper, was a substantial caller Friday. MANLEY HUEY left Saturday for Frankfort, where we hope he will be elected cloak-room keeper. MR A T NUNNELLY left Sunday for Texas after spending Christmas with his good old parents here. MISSES MAY TRAYLOR and Susie and Margaret Zanoce, of Lancaster, are visiting the family of U. S. Traylor. DR W B PENNY, wife and Miss Robbie Penny, of Danville, spent several days with the former's mother here. MISS MATTIE STRINGER, of Stanford, was here from Friday till Sunday visiting the family of Willis Griffin. Mt. Vernon Signal.

CABELL WOODS is back from the Philippines. He wrote his mother, Mrs. Adelia Woods, last week from Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont. REV. AND MRS. HARVEY S MURDOCK, who have been doing missionary work in Perry and Breathitt counties, were guests of Hon. and Mrs. J. N. Saunders. IN remitting for his paper from Winchester, Mr. A. J. Earp says the year just closed has been the most successful one he has ever experienced in the photograph business. COL. T. P. HILL made his 32d payment for this paper yesterday. During the 31 years he has read the I. J. he has never been as much as five days behind on his subscription. MR HUGHES ALDRIDGE, of Lancaster, who bought out James T. Jones' tin and plumbing business, has taken charge. He has moved his family to one of Dr. W. B. O'Bannon's cottages on Lancaster Avenue. HON. J. M. ALVERSON is now serving his constituency in the Legislature at Frankfort. If he makes as good a Representative as he has made this paper a faithful attaché Lincoln county will have no reason to rue the day she sent him to represent her. JUDGE JOSH SWOPE has removed his stock of groceries to Lexington and we will miss him. George Hunn, of Moreland, spent the holidays with his father and mother on Mt. Vernon St. T. J. North, of Lincoln county, was the attractive guest of the Misses Hunn.—Somerset Journal.

MRS. J. R. BEAZSEY is ill. MRS ADELIA WOODS is visiting at Paint Lick.

HANDSOME MISS JEAN WARREN returned to her home in Boyle yesterday after a delightful visit to the Misses Warren

LOCALS.

WE want everybody to come to the auction Grand Leader.

DON'T miss the bargains in shoes we are offering this week. John P. Jones.

LOST.—A black golf glove between McRoberts' Drug Store and the Presbyterian church on Christmas evening. Return to this office

JAN 8.—The Jesse James Bandit King Co. will hold the boards at Walton's Opera House, Friday night, Jan 8. Bear that in mind.

THE old year is gone and the new one has come. Carson & Pence want what you owe them and take this method of so informing you 3494.—Ticket No. 3494 draws the handsome Davenport given away by Cummins & McClary, the up-to-date clothiers and furnishers.

THE supervisors, Messrs Emmett McCormack, E. D. Kennedy, J. B. McKee, C. A. Redd and W. H. Shanks, began their work yesterday.

LEG BROKEN.—James Johnson, little son of Mrs. Sallie Johnson, had his right leg broken between the knee and ankle by catching the member in a buggy wheel.

R. G. JONES sold to Harve Broadus a cottage near Parsons & Woner's mill for $800. It cost him $500 about a year ago. Property is advancing in the best town on the map.

A GOOD white woman without children, who can cook well, can get a good home and liberal wages by immediate application to G. B. Swinebroad, Lancaster, Ky. Good room and not a great deal of house work to do. 2t.

B. D. CARTER, of the Turnersville section, has bought a half interest in I. M. Bruce's livery stable and the firm name now is Bruce & Carter. They will put in a lot of new horses, buggies, drummer's wagons, etc., and will have a splendidly equipped stable. Both of the gentlemen are popular and energetic and we bespeak for them a liberal share of the livery business here. Mr. Carter has moved his family to the Withers cottage on Danville Avenue.

RAPID GROWTH.—Dr. W. D. Tardif, who is the Grand Secretary, tells us that the Endowment Bureau of the United Brothers of Friendship and Sisters of the Mysterious Ten has made phenomenal growth since its organization in December of 1902. When organized, the Bureau had to borrow money to have its insurance policies printed and now there are about 12,000 policy holders. Nearly $9,000 came thro' Dr. Tardif's hands last year and the writing he did would fill several large volumes. The Bureau paid out about $4,000 in death claims last year, $183 of which was to policy holders in Stanford. This office does most of the printing for the order and it has no better patron than Dr. Tardif, who knows what he wants and always pays cheerfully for what he gets.

THERE have been so many entertainments since our last issue that space forbids an extended mention of them all. On Thursday evening Miss Sallie Taylor Woods entertained very charmingly in honor of Miss Coralee Conway, of Lexington, and on the following evening the Misses Engleman gave a delightful party in her honor. On Friday afternoon from 3 to 5, Miss Marie Mahony received in an elaborate style to meet her guest, Miss Elizabeth Jefferson, of Louisville. Some 25 couples were present and it was a most happy occasion. The parlors were beautifully decorated with smilax and holly and the colors of green and red prevailed throughout. Ices and frappe were served. Those who received were Misses Mahony, Jefferson, Josephine and Jean Warren, and Tevis Carpenter. Mrs. W. A. Tribble gave a magnificent 6 o'clock dinner Saturday evening to Hon. H. K. Bourne, Miss Anne H. Shanks, Mr. D. H. Brock and Miss Mary Hall. Mrs. J. S. Owsley, Jr., received on Friday afternoon in her usual charming manner and on Saturday evening Miss Chloe Baughman was at home to a number of her friends.

LOST.—Collarette. This office DON'T fail to attend the auction Grand Leader

JANUARY 7th, 8th, 9th and 11th are auction days. Grand Leader

KEEP your eyes on Penny's drug store windows. The INTERIOR JOURNAL'S Legislative bulletins will be found there

THE Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church will meet with Mrs. T. F. Spink at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. All members are requested to be present as important business is to be transacted. Mrs. R. B. Mahony.

HURT.—Mr. A. W. Carpenter was considerably bruised and had a narrow escape from death by his horse backing off of a bridge near Turnersville. Both the animal and vehicle were badly used up. The horse scared at a big rock on the bridge.

BANK STATEMENTS.—Your attention is called to the bank statements which appear this issue. A perusal of them will at once convince you that the four banks of this county and the Commercial Bank of Liberty are substantial institutions and that stock in them is a safe and paying investment.

TO YOU—I have bought H. D. Campbell's restaurant and confectionery and cordially ask a portion of your patronage. I make a specialty of public day dinners and will serve you a good meal any day from 6 A. M. to midnight. Oysters served in any and all styles and bulk oysters for sale. James T. Jones.

JAMES T. JONES, who recently sold his tinning and plumbing business to Hughes Aldridge, bought out H. D. Campbell, the restaurant and confectioner, Saturday and took charge at once. He should and doubtless will do well in his new line. Mr. Campbell has not decided what business he will engage in but we hope he will strike something good in Stanford.

MCALISTER.—Mr. Robert McAllister, who was born in Stanford and who spent the greater portion of his life here, died in Lexington Friday night of locomotor ataxia, aged 49. A wife and two sons, G. H. and J. W. McAllister, survive. Mr. McAllister was a warm-hearted, kind man and the news of his death was received with much sorrow. He was a brother of Mr. Joe H. McAllister, of this place, and like him, was a good citizen.

WE desire to sincerely thank our dear friends and neighbors for their great help and sympathy during the illness and death of our dear wife and mother, and to the kind doctors—Reid and Brown—for their unremitting care and attention. Also to express our heartfelt thanks to the Maccabees and Knights of Pythias for the expression of sympathy in the beautiful flowers sent. May the Lord bless each and all. J. L. Totten and children.

STEAMER BURNED.—The steamer "Burnside," belonging to the Burnside & Burksville Transportation Co., of Burnside, burned at McMillan's Landing 121 miles down the river from Burnside Tuesday night. The packet plied the upper Cumberland between Burnside and Celina, Tenn. The boat had been rebuilt last summer at a cost of nearly $20,000, and was on her second trip of the season. The cabin boy, a darkey, was lost. The loss will be felt keenly by the boat people and shippers of this section. Cause of the fire unknown. COLEMAN.

MCKECHNIE.—In the death of Mr. James McKechnie, Sr., Wayne county lost one of her best citizens. The old gentleman lived to be 82 years old, some 36 of which he spent in Wayne. He was born in Scotland and came to this country in 1867. He, his wife and several children landed in Stanford first and spent the night with Mr. Samuel Cowan, who then lived where Mr. James E. Lynn now resides. From there they went to Wayne county, where Mr. McKechnie embarked in business, in which he was reasonably successful. Nine children were born to Mr. and Mrs. McKechnie, six of whom are now living. Included in the number is Jas. McKechnie, one of Lincoln's best citizens. Two years ago Mrs. McKechnie died and since her death the husband failed greatly in health and death must have been a sweet relief to him. McKechnie's death broke up a happy married life of 60 years.

1903 Marks the close of the most satisfactory year of our business. It shall be our aim to always improve our service and the quality of our merchandise and thus make our sales of the new year much larger than in 1903. Careful buying, low prices, high qualities and our close touch with the best markets enable us to show choicest values in our every line. We have already made it possible for Lincoln county people to buy NICE GOODS without having to go away from HOME, and we shall constantly strive to be of further service to the buying public. Trade with us through 1904. We will be easy on your bank account. Cummins & McClary.

Nineteen Hundred And Four-ward. Is our watchword for the new year. The INTERIOR JOURNAL let the cat out before we intended it should, but it is true that we will have more room by the addition of the room now occupied by the Grand Leader. We have been crowded for some time and as we expect to enlarge the lines we now carry and add some new ones, so we had to have more space both for the comfort and convenience of our customers and ourselves. To Our Customers.—You have helped to make this a banner year for us and we want to thank you for your patronage and patience in waiting when we were unable to handle the big crowd of shoppers as quickly as we would like. We have improved our system for this year and promise you better service than ever before. Remember it is the customer's pleasure and convenience first with us. Use us, use our store, use our goods—we will give you your money's worth. SEVERANCE & SON.
