NO. 18

MATRIMONIAL.

Miss Ada Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gray, and Walter Glenn, a machinist in the Q. & C. shops, were married at the Methodist parsonage at Somerset.

It is reported here that George E. Dunn, formerly of this place but now of Mobile, Ala., is soon to be married to Miss Lottie Elder, a charming young woman of Nashville.

John H. Smiley, son of Thomas H. Smiley, and Miss Stella May Richardson, both of Lexington, were married Wednesday. Miss Edna Baughman, of the West End, was one of the guests at the wedding.

Col. Isaac Shelby, of "Arcadia," Lincoln county, announces the engagement of his daughter, Jean Steel, to Mr. Peter M. McRoberts, of Stanford. The marriage will be celebrated early in June. The news is very interesting here as it will be a union of two very prominent and widely popular social favorites, and both are well known in Lexington. Miss Shelby has numerous kinsmen in this city and she is one of the brightest and most charming members in a very large family of attractive daughters and sons reared at "Arcadia," the splendid old country home of the Shelby's near Danville. Mr. McRoberts is a successful and influential lawyer of his city.—Lexington Leader.

RIGHT HERE IN STANFORD.

Penny guarantees to refund money if Hyomei fails to cure the worst case of catarrh.

It is no uncommon thing to see a medicine advertised as a "guaranteed cure." But investigation usually shows that the guarantee is made by some unknown firm hundreds of miles away.

The guarantee, though, that comes with Hyomei, is entirely different. It is made by Mr. Penny, one of the most reliable drug firms in this section. He advertises that if Hyomei does not cure the worst case of catarrh, he will return the money without any question or argument. No business house in Stanford has a better reputation for square dealing than Mr. Penny and when he guarantees that he will refund the money if Hyomei fails to cure catarrh, no one has any question as to the agreement being lived up to, both in the spirit and letter.

Hyomei is very easy and pleasant to use. Just breathe it through the little inhaler that comes with every outfit; every breath will bring recovery so much the nearer. It kills all the germs of catarrhal troubles in the air passages of the head, throat and lungs, soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane, and is the only natural cure for catarrh.

The complete outfit costs but one dollar, and extra bottles of Hyomei can be obtained for 50 cents. Do not let a slight catarrhal trouble develop into one that may be serious and chronic. Use Hyomei at once, remembering that you run no risk whatever when you try Hyomei on Mr. Penny's offer of "No money, no pay."

DIAGNOSIS.

First a sneeze and then a shiver,
Then a fever and a chill;
Then a qualm and then a quiver
And a general painful thrill;
Then a muscular contraction,
Like an alligator's dip;
Lazitude and dull inaction—
It's the grip.
Mustard baths and pills and powders,
Superheated lemonade;
Tepid broths, insipid chowders;
Spoons and bottles on parade,
Somewhere birds are sweetly singing,
And the lambkins gaily skip,
But in vain; the knell is ringing—
It's the grip.

Capt. J. S. Chapman, aged 74, is dead at Columbia.

The brisk inquiry continues and the tendency toward higher prices is evidenced by a decided advance in desirable locations.

From the Pittsburg Dispatch April 23rd: "In the eighth Pfeister's place was taken by Howard Camnitz, who managed to stop the scoring. It was the first time the fans had seen the young Southern gentleman in action, and from the amount of applause bestowed upon him when he walked to the bench after having blanked the Reds in the eighth, showed that they liked him real well. Camnitz has everything in his repertoire that goes to make a successful pitcher. Above all, he seems to have nerve, for no sooner did he mount the rubber than he began to shoot the ball over the plate. He used a quick-breaking outshoot with good effect, and, while two of the Reds managed to connect for singles, he had the others guessing at a lively rate."

Some "Hoss Sense."

Reasons why a tin roof, not a sheet iron, is the best roof made:

- 1st. It will last three times as long as the best shingle and will cost very little more.
  - 2nd. It will conduct lightning as good as any lightning rod, if the gutter is connected to a tile, with down spout.
  - 3rd. There is 50 per cent. less danger of fire and it will reduce the insurance enough to pay the difference between it and a cheap roof.
- See S. H. Aldridge, the tinner and plumber, that does the work. Phone No. 116.
