

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXII.

STANFORD, KY. FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1904. 3 P. M.

NO. 71

HUBBLE.

Slas Moss weighed up his hogs sold some time ago at $1.95.

Higgins Alcorn has another case of typhoid fever in his family.

A. P. Sloan and Lee Rankin sold their fat hogs to J. C. Johnson at 41c. Most of the hay balers have stopped on account of the dry weather causing the hay to powder up.

Mr. Scott McGuire informs us that he is going to Oklahoma prospecting. We regret to give him up.

R. M. Johnson has built a dwelling at the zinc mine near here and he and his wife have gone to housekeeping.

Elvy Miller, of Rochester, Ill., is in buying a few car-loads of cattle weighing from 800 to 1,100 pounds at 3 and 3 1/2c.

Harve McBath has just returned from a two week's visit in Poland. Jas. J. Wilmoth has a fine girl at his house.

Ben Underwood is thought to be doing nicely under treatment in Louisville. Mrs. Jos. Ross is low with consumption.

Dogs are dying by the dozens in this community from barking at candidates. Can't they let up a little till it rains and settles the dust?

M. G. McClure and wife, of Miltonville, were up visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. A. Hammonds. J. B. Robinson, of Chattanooga, attended his brother's funeral Sunday afternoon.

A. P. Sloan and Dave Rankin sold 20 head of cattle from the bunch they bought in Wayne some weeks back to T. C. Rankin at 3 and 3 1/2c, weighing 350 pounds. Jas. McKechnie sold 200 bushels of Irish potatoes at 45c.

Mrs. C. B. Yeager is moving her household goods to Stanford and will make her home there as soon as her sale is over. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miller have moved back home from Mt. Vernon and say there is no place like Hubble.

PREACHERSVILLE.

J. H. Thompson sold to S. J. Tatam, of Crab Orchard, 500 bales of hay at 50c and bought of Logan Thompson 100 barrels of corn at $2 and 50 of August Bartels at same.

Menefee Elmore has developed a new kind of corn. The shoot comes out of the ground and produces a nice ear of corn without any stalk or tassel above it. We doubt if kernels of this corn would ever germinate. If this freak of nature should ever make a good yield of corn it is certain that fodder would be scarce.

Miss Flossie Sutton, of Lexington, enjoyed a visit to her sister, Mrs. Kennedy. Miss Katie Payne is visiting relatives here. Walter Johnson, of Springfield, Ill., is enjoying the pleasures of country life at the home of his aunt, Mrs. J. C. Horton. Messdames J. L. Anderson and W. H. Cummins left Tuesday for an extended trip to visit relatives in Kansas and Oklahoma.

Rev. Jordan has just closed a successful meeting at Cartersville. Quarterly meeting was held at the M. E. church Monday night and Tuesday. The presiding elder, Rev. Simpson, could not be present and Rev. P. J. Ross, of Stanford, preached instead and had charge of the meeting. The protracted meeting begun at the Baptist church Tuesday evening. Rev. Kimball preached an excellent sermon. He will be assisted by Rev. Carmichael, the pastor. Revs. Huey and Jones, of Stanford, and Rev. Mearle, of Flatwoods, were present at the services on Tuesday evening.

Better Than Pills.

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is—They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle and so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then they not only move the bowels but improve appetite and aid the digestion. For sale at 25 cents per bottle by all druggists.

The Lexington Democrat makes a great campaign offer of its Sunday and daily edition from now until after the November election for $1. This is about a cent a copy and is not only the cheapest daily you can get but the best democratic organ you can read during the present campaign. This office will take your order for the Democrat but the cash must invariably accompany it.

Broke into His House.

S. Le Quinn of Cavendish, Vt., was robbed of his customary health by invasion of Chronic Constipation. When Dr. King's New Life Pills broke into his house, his trouble was arrested and now he's entirely cured. They're guaranteed to cure. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

Fire at Nashville destroyed the new freight sheds of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad. The loss is upward of $300,000, with no insurance.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. O. M. Huey will preach each night next week at the Baptist church. The Southern Presbyterian Synod will meet next in Louisville on the third Tuesday in October, 1905.

James H. Tilman, former lieutenant governor of South Carolina, who killed Editor Gonzales at Columbia, will enter the Methodist ministry.

Dr. E. L. Powell, of Louisville, was elected president of the American Christian Missionary Society at the convention held in St. Louis.

Steps were taken toward the amalgamation of the Free Baptist Church with the Disciples of Christ at the convention of the latter in St. Louis.

Rev. O. M. Huey's subject Sunday morning is "Awake thou that sleepest; put on thy beautiful garments." At night, "How we May Know that we are Christians."

Revs. R. E. Noel and W. R. Davidson are conducting an interesting protracted meeting at Pleasant Point church. There have been some 15 or more confessions to date.

The legacy of Mrs. Sallie Grundy, giving 600 acres of land, a fine residence and farming implements and $10,000 in money for an orphan's home in Washington county was accepted by the Synod of the Southern Presbyterian church in session at Shelbyville.

The statement is made by the Chaplain in Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic that in the hospitals of Washington are 1,000 insane soldiers who returned from the Philippines. He declares their plight to be due to lack of church work in the army and navy.

The ceremonies inaugurating Rev. Frederick W. Hinlitt, Ph. D., D. D., president of Central University, were begun at Danville at 11:30 yesterday before one of the largest and most representative audiences that ever gathered in the Second Presbyterian church, the rostrum being thronged with notable men from different parts of the country, Gov. Beckham among them.

Rev. J. McCloskey Blaney, of Frankfort, made the introductory address, which was followed by addresses by the moderators of the synods of Kentucky. The charge to the president-elect was delivered by Rev. H. Geison Rout, of Versailles, after which the inaugural address was made by Dr. Hinlitt.

KINGSVILLE.

Rev. Powell, of Lexington, failed to fill his appointment at the Christian church last Sunday, but will come next Sunday, we are informed.

Mr. Dunn's store was broken into a few nights ago and some goods were taken. Mr. Cross' house was also broken into and besides other things a $10 revolver was stolen.

Mr. Ed Claypool, is local agent for an excellent soap, which, owing to its good merits and Mr. Claypool's loquacity, is proving a money maker. Mr. C. rarely makes less than $3 per day.

Dr. Warren, our teacher, went to Woodstock Friday to see his wife and baby girl. Mrs. Warren and baby will join her husband very soon. Mrs. Bud Gooch is convalescent. Champ Francis is quite sick.

Mr. James Lyon was here Saturday electing for his son. Mr. Hodges came down from Lexington Monday. Mrs. E. W. Creighton and little daughter, Julia Anna, returned Monday from a month's visit to relatives at Verona and elsewhere. Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Chevolette are very proud of their new boy. He will be a democratic voter some day. Miss Euphrosia Taylor, who has been attending school at Williamsburg, has returned home to remain for awhile on account of the prevalence of typhoid fever there. Mr. and Mrs. John Hart have postponed their Oregon trip for a year or so and have gone to Cumberland Falls where Mr. Hart has lumber interests. Mr. F. M. Dunn has returned home from a visit to Grant county relatives.

A Call On Mr. Crow.

We, the undersigned democrats and tax payers of the Hustonville magisterial district do most earnestly request Mr. O. J. Crow to become a candidate for the office of magistrate of his district at the primary to be held Dec. 3, 1904: J. K. Baughman, W. S. Drye, J. P. Goode, J. G. Weatherford, J. R. Rout, George D. Weatherford, W. B. Wright, A. J. Adams, C. W. Adams, W. H. Lair, W. M. Vandersall, A. B. C. Diawiddle, J. M. Carter, Sr., A. Newton, J. H. Reid, Hill Jennings, J. P. Cox, T. S. Best, W. M. Myers, James C. Reid, C. B. Reid, H. C. Baughman, A. B. McKinney, R. S. Scudder, J. B. McKinney, J. N. Cash, T. W. Walker, Logan Montgomery, Thomas C. Dodd.

More than 500 persons in the United States are 100 years old or over. There were 200,584 persons who could not tell their ages to the census takers.

NEWS NOTES.

The worst snow storm of the season has been raging about Cheyenne, Wyo.

The handsome school building at Simpsonville, Shelby county, burned.

An organized gang of pickpockets is said to be following the Bryan special train.

Work is soon to be begun on the Carnegie Palace of Peace at The Hague.

The R. A. Patterson tobacco factory in Richmond, Va., burned, causing a $100,000 loss.

G. L. Whitesides, an Oldham county farmer, dropped dead while attending a sale near LaGrange.

For the first time in history, the total number of money orders last year passed the 50,000,000 mark.

The Middlesboro Children's Home, at Shelbyville, Ill., was destroyed by fire. Two children perished.

A San Francisco woman was robbed of $4,000 worth of jewelry on a train between Cleveland and Chicago.

A gale on the east coast of Florida did much damage. Several persons lost their lives in the wreck of a schooner.

An Eastern syndicate is said to have bought 10,000 acres of land in Letcher county, Ky., to be immediately developed.

Snow and hail fell Wednesday in Eastern Kansas, driven by a strong north wind and the temperature fell to 41 degrees.

At the fifth trial at Georgetown Church Brown was given 15 years in the penitentiary for the murder of French Lair.

Colonial Dames of America honored their president, Mrs. Herbert A. Clarbourn, of Richmond, Va., at the World's Fair.

In honor of Miss Helen Keller, who was born deaf, dumb and blind, "Helen Keller Day" was observed at the World's Fair.

In a speech at a banquet in Chicago, Gen. Funston advocated the enactment of a Federal law to prevent desecration of the American flag.

Kentucky stands far up in the lead in the list of awards made to the exhibitors of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, having a total of 186.

An armory to cost $325,000 and to contain an amphitheater which will seat 15,000 people will be erected by the fiscal court of Jefferson county.

To avoid a repetition of the fatalities which attended the opening of the Brooklyn bridge, it has been decided to begin the operation of the New York subway at midnight, October 27.

The Interstate Commerce Commission issued a report showing the number of casualties to persons on railroads in the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, to be 55,130. Of this number 3,787 were killed. The total number of collisions and derailments was 11,391.

WAYNEBURG.

W. R. Singleton is having his sorghum made. C. C. Gooch is having a cellar dug.

The box supper at the seminary was well attended and a snug little sum was realized for the benefit of the library.

Eld. Joseph Ballou will preach to the congregation of the Christian church at Walton's Opera House Sunday morning.

Miss Asa Hicks spent last week with Miss Etta Gooch. Mrs. Lucinda Pittman has returned from Pendleton county, where she had been visiting relatives.

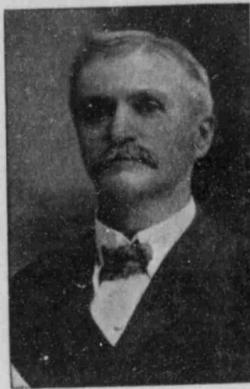

Miss Verna Gooch returned to Lexington Tuesday, where she is attending school. She and Miss Della Singleton were visiting at Burnside. Miss Osa Wheeler, who has been very sick with nervous prostration, is convalescing. Mrs. Theo Reynolds and Thomas Williams are getting along nicely with fever. W. D. Johnson is threatened with the same disease. Mrs. Susie McMullin is here from Missouri with her daughter, Mrs. V. Singleton. Mrs. Geo. Ellison spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. McKenzie. Mrs. H. H. Singleton has been visiting Mrs. L. Doty at Burgin.

Saves Two From Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine, and to-day she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for Coughs and Colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store. Trial bottles free.

Saves Two From Death.

David Bennett Hill, of New York, who is speaking in Indiana, telegraphed Vice Presidential Candidate Davis that the Hoosier State would go democratic.

MR. ADAM W. CARPENTER.

Prohibition notices for Congress in this district, a certain gentleman and a most excellent citizen. Of course he will not win but that he will poll the full strength of his party, there is no doubt. Mr. Carpenter is a wealthy West End farmer and a man of ability.

Crab Orchard.

James L. Anderson is completing his cottage on Stanford Street, which is quite an addition to that end of town. Perry King has bought the old Vanderpool property near the depot.

Miss Bettie Higgins is visiting in Somerset. Miss Kate Redd, Mrs. Willis and family have just returned from St. Louis. Mrs. Holdam Stewart writes to her family that she is delighted with California and will locate there.

Mr. Henry Wells and two oldest children are very sick with typhoid fever. Little Carl Cummins is better. Dr. R. G. Redd is much improved. Mrs. Barker is visiting at Mr. Grove Kennedy's and attending the quarterly meeting of M. E. church.

Mrs. George Stephenson is getting up a musical which promises to be quite an interesting event, consisting of music and recitations by local talent. The proceeds will go to the church and everybody is invited. Stanford, Lancaster, Mt. Vernon and Brodhead have special invitations. Admission 15 cents for adults, 10c for children. All come and help a good cause. Notice of time later.

It is with regret that we give up such good christian families as Mr. McWhorter's and Mr. Condon's. Mr. McWhorter is an active member of the Baptist church and his entire life here has been devoted to fighting wrong and upholding right and his splendid wife and daughters will be sadly missed. Mr. Condon is as good a member as the Christian church ever had and his place will be hard to fill. We heartily commend them to any locality they move to, as being worthy of trust and respect.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Humphrey B. Farris has been appointed postmaster at Silver Creek.

Howard Fee, son of John G. Fee, of Berea College, is dead in California.

Thomas F. Cleaver, of Lebanon, who was injured by a passenger train, was given a verdict of $7,500 against the L. & N.

The L. & N. railroad will spend a large amount of money in reducing the grades and straightening the curves on its Jellico branch.

A little son of G. B. Hazard, of Kalfley, Adair county, was thrown from a buggy in a runaway, receiving injuries from which he died.

H. P. Barrett, of Henderson, was elected Grand Junior Warden of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Kentucky on the fifth ballot over Virgil Smith, of Somerset, in an interesting contest.

In the circuit court at Harrodsburg Clarence Steele was awarded a judgment for $5,000 damages against the Southern railway. Steele was badly hurt in the wreck near that city last June.

Everett Burgin fell from a chestnut tree near town and sustained injuries from which he died Tuesday morning. He was about 60 feet from the ground when he lost his balance and fell—Casey News.

Joel Wilder, postmaster at Colledge, Pulaski county, was indicted by the United States grand jury at Covington for embezzlement of $75 of funds Wilder is a Methodist minister and country merchant and was arrested while conducting a revival. His wife aided him in the operation of the post-office and they got their post-office accounts mixed up, which caused the shortage.

A Love Letter.

Would not interest you if you're looking for a guaranteed Salve for Sores, Burns or Piles, Otto Dodd, of Ponder, Mo., writes: "I suffered with an ugly sore for a year, but a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me. It's the best Salve on earth. 25c at Penny's Drug Store."

FALL SUITS. FALL OVERCOATS.

No man has any excuse for not being well dressed. It won't cost much, and we have the correct styles and colors ready for instant service. Always glad to show them.

T. O. MILLER, Danville, Ky.
THE GLOBE.

H. J. HEINZ & CO.'S

New goods just received at

W. H. HIGGINS'

If you want something good to eat, leave your order for Cherry, Peach, Blackberry, Strawberry, Pine Apple, Red and Black Raspberry, Damson Preserves; also Apple Butter, Sweet and Sour Pickles, India Relish, Queen Olives, Evaporated Horse Radish, Sweet Onions, Chila Sauce, Tomato Chutney, Baked Beans, Mustard Dressing, Worcester and Pepper Sauce, Pearl Onions, &c.

W. H. HIGGINS,
STANFORD, KY.

THE NEW STORE

Is the Place to Get the Best Goods For the LEAST MONEY!

We wish to announce to the people of Stanford and surrounding country that our FALL and WINTER stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Caps, Ladies' and Gent's Furnishings is now complete and we invite each and every one to visit our Store and examine our stock and prices, which we hope will be of interest as well as important to yourself as to us. Don't forget The New Store. It is the place to get the Best Goods for the Least Money.

Sam Robinson,

Next Door to Lincoln County Nat. Bank.

Stanford, = = Kentucky.

School Supplies and School Books.

W. B. McRoberts, DRUGGIST,
STANFORD.

SHOES!

We are now showing a great line of FALL and WINTER SHOES for all sizes of feet. Call in and let us show you our line before making your FALL PURCHASES.

W. E. Perkins, Crab Orchard, Ky.