We have accordion pleating done. Severance & Son.

WHITE Plymouth Rock eggs 50c for 15. W. B. McKinney.

ASK those who attended last Friday night about David Garrick.

THE U. D. C. will meet with Mrs. J. N. Saunders at 2:30 this afternoon.

If you want the right kind of jewelry at the right price, see W. H. Mueller.

SHEPHERD PUP. - Will give one year's subscription to INTERIOR JOURNAL for a weaned pure Shepherd Dog pup. This office.

MR. WILL SEVERANCE has bought of Mr. John W. Wallace his blacksmith shop and will raze the building and convert the space it occupies into yard.

JAMES H FLOYD will be carrier on the rural route from McKinney with Frank P. Bobbitt substitute. The route is scheduled to commence May 15.

I HAVE accepted the agency for a monument house and will be glad to figure with those thinking about buying a tombstone or monument. J. C. McClary.

In mentioning the death of Mr. Joe F. Hocker, the London Local says: "The writer has known Mr. Hocker 20 years as a personal friend and feels the deepest sympathy for his bereaved loved ones."

MR. W. P. RICE, a brother of Mr. Charles M. Rice, bought the Midway Saloon fixtures and stock at the sale Saturday afternoon for about $425. A transfer of the license to him was made yesterday.

SUNDAY was a beautiful, bright Easter, but just a bit too cool. New dresses, new hats, etc., were much in evidence, bearing silent testimony to the prosperous business our milliners and dress makers are doing.

PROF. CHAS. PALMER, of Central University, who has been employed by the U. S. government to make a report of the subterranean water supply of Kentucky, was in the county last week investigating the conditions between Stanford and Halls Gap.

SINCE the change of schedule some two weeks ago not a single Northbound train has been on time and connections have been knocked into a cocked hat. Leaving here in day time it takes 16 hours to go to Danville, 10 miles distant, and 10 to Somerset, 33 miles by pike and rail. Can't some change for the better be made?

MARRIAGE. - Mr. H. M. Reed, of Hunford, California, and Miss Mollie Mershon, of this place, were married at the home of Rev. O. M. Huey by that gentleman Sunday evening. The groom is said to be a man of means, while the bride is a splendid young woman. She is a daughter of the late Gran. Mershon.

MR. J. M. JOHNSON, the Waynesburg postmaster, is probably the biggest buyer of eggs and poultry in this section. He ships from Waynesburg nearly every week a car-load of eggs and chickens, which he and his agents buy in this and adjoining counties. Last week he shipped 250 cases of eggs and 1,000 chickens, geese, etc.

MR. EZRA S. GOOCH, formerly of the Waynesburg section but now a prosperous Somerset merchant and the only democrat in Pulaski county holding an office, is a candidate for police judge and his many friends hereabout hope he will win his race. He has made a capital magistrate and will make as good if not a better police judge. Any way give him a chance and we'll wager the good people of the "Queen City of the Mountains" will not regret their choice.

BURGLARS. - Burglars entered Mr. S. P. Gray's store Saturday night but if they took anything away with them that gentleman has not missed it. Entrance was effected through a back window and the chisel used in prizing the shutter was found to belong to J. A. Allen & Co., whose tool house was also entered. The cash drawer in Mr. Gray's store only contained a few coppers and the thieves graciously left those. Mr. Gray and family room over the store but they failed to hear the visitors.

THE L. & N. will run another $1.50 excursion over the K. C. to Cincinnati Sunday. The train leaves the Stanford depot at 5 A. M.

THE new 5 and 10c department at John P. Jones' promises well to be the biggest little success ever achieved by a Stanford store. We say "little" because this department is only one small adjunct to their fast growing business.

EVERYBODY is on the quiver to see the "Tom Thumb" wedding. How can we old folks afford to miss an entertainment given by the little tots. Children two and a half and three years old will play the principal roles. "David Garrick" will not have been in it when the "Lillie Puts" put in their appearance.

PETTUS. - Dr. J. Henry Pettus died at his home at Crab Orchard Saturday morning after a protracted illness of pneumonia, aged 28. He is survived by a wife, who was a Miss Merimee, and two bright, pretty little children. Dr. Pettus was a son of the late Dr. J. D. Pettus and was a warm-hearted, clever young man. He was a Mason and an Odd Fellow and his popularity with his brothers was shown by 127 of them attending his funeral by Rev. O. M. Huey at the Baptist church, Crab Orchard, Sunday morning. Early in life Dr. Pettus professed religion and let us hope that he is now basking in the sunshine of the God Who gave him. The widow and children, aged mother, sisters and brothers have much sympathy in their dark hour of sorrow.

THE Central Kentucky Medical Society convened in Walton's Opera House Thursday, April 20th, with the following members present: Drs. J. T. Wesley and J. M. Haney, Middleburg; Ed Alcorn and Bertie Carpenter, Hustonville; Fayette Dunlap, J. R. Cowan and Spurgeon Cheek, Danville; Pitman, Parkville; J. F. Peyton, L. B. Cook, H. Reid and J. G. Carpenter, Stanford; Dr. Bertie Carpenter presided and Dr. J. G. Carpenter was appointed secretary in the absence of Dr. Steele Bailey, of whom it may be said, "nonest cum laude et dignitate Utahe," 7,500 feet above the sea, reigning and resting in the Wasatch mountains with sunshine and Pike's Peak above him and terra firma below. The minutes were read and adopted. Dr. Henry Pitman, essayist, discoursed on Etiology, Pathology and treatment of rheumatism. Dr. J. T. Wesley led in the discussion and showed erudition, logic and beautiful diction, and proved "Oslerism" a fallacy. Drs. Dunlap, Cook, Cheek, Carpenter and Brown debated the subject. Dr. Cook presented a paper on typhoid fever; Dr. Wesley discussed same from a standpoint of immunity infection and aetiology. Dr. J. G. Carpenter spoke on the propagation of typhoid fever poison - and flies being the carriers of the typhoid poison and contaminating fruits, food, water, milk and butter, and that all fruits should be peeled or boiled or heated before taken into the mouth. Dr. Carpenter also gave a talk on the early diagnosis of Hernia Minimum of Taxis and early operation. An omnibus discussion followed, endorsing the views presented. Drs. Edwin Caldwell, Alcorn and Cheek were appointed a committee on questions and Dr. Caldwell was made chairman. Scarlet fever was chosen for discussion at next meeting. Dr. J. T. Wesley, of Middleburg, essayist. The society extended a vote of thanks to Mr. W. P. Walton for free use of the opera house and adjourned to meet in Danville on the third Thursday in July. Profound regret was expressed on account of the absence of Dr. Steele Bailey. May he return soon. C.

WANTED. - Responsible man to handle brood mares on shares. Miss Nancy VanDeever.

SEE the nice selection of cut glass, solid silver watches and clocks at W. H. Mueller's.

FOR RENT. - Store-room at Rowland, Ky. Call on or address Mrs. Mattie V. Kirby, Stanford. 2t.

FOR RENT. - Five rooms over my store. Will rent very cheap if taken at once. S. P. Gray. 2t.

BIG CORRESPONDENT. - The INTERIOR JOURNAL has secured the services of Fred Durham, of Brodhead, as correspondent from that place. As Mr. Durham weighs 350 pounds, we feel safe in saying that this paper now has the largest news gatherer in Kentucky.

SHOT IN THE FACE. - John Stephenson, who lives near the poor-house in the East End, was shot in the face by unknown parties Sunday night and one eye was put out. An attempt was also made to burn his house. A strenuous effort will be made to find out the guilty party.

YESTERDAY was horse show day at Lancaster and a number of fine ones were exhibited. Those from this county were Carroll Bailey's Preston, E. H. Beazley's Dock Gray, J. R. Beazley's Naboth, D. S. Carpenter's Dignity Dare, C. C. Carpenter's Dare All. All of them were highly complimented.

TO BE REPEATED. - David Garrick will be again presented to the public at the auditorium of the Graded School next Friday night. On account of the inclement weather the attendance Friday evening was small, but the splendid character of the play deserves a better audience. By unanimous request of those who heard the play, it will be again presented with several new features. The popular prices are 20, 15 and 10 cents.

Tree lapp, 10 tree lapp, some of them will do for posts, for sale. Price, 50c to $1 per lap. Charles H. Kerr, Cook farm, four miles from Stanford.

DIXIE.

The fine Shetland pony, will make the present season at my place near Peyton's Well, at $8 to insure a living colt. He is about 12 hands high, a beautiful spotted pony and a perfect individual. Care taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur. Mares grazed at reasonable rates. CHARLIE N. NELLE, Turnersville, Ky.

UMBRELLAS

Re-covered and repaired and made almost as good as new for a small amount. I can fix your umbrella better than the tramp repairers and for less money. Give me a trial. FRANK ATKINS, Stanford.

PEYTON.

My fine jack, Peyton, six-years-old, will make the present season of 1905 at my stable at Moreland, Ky., at $8 to insure a living colt. Peyton's colts are large and fine and I sold last year's crop of colts at $75 round. Four of his colts are on my farm, which will speak for themselves and can be seen at any time. I will also at the same place stand my fine jack, BLACK HAWK, 2-years-old past, 15.5 inches high. He will serve a limited number of mares at $5 to insure a living colt. Money due when colt is foaled or mare traded or parted with. Not responsible for accidents or escapes. B. B. KING, Moreland, Ky.

Valuable Property For Sale.

Ten acres of land, a two-story front 7-room cottage. The house is new. A splendid garden and orchard. There is a large mill on the place; a good crusher and the dam is in good repair and the natural power is great economy in running the mill. Does a splendid business. Everything is in good repair and has all necessary out-buildings. The owner's only reason for selling is the rush of other business, as he has extensive farming interests to look after. This property is on the Hanging Fork about 4 miles from Stanford, and can be bought at a bargain. For further particulars, address S. C. Tharmond, Lytle, Ky. or L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.
