

Housekeepers Attention!

We are offering just now some real bargains in Table Linens and Napkins. We have one very fine sample set that in a regular way would cost about $20. We offer the 4-yard hemstitched cloth, with 1 dozen hemstitched napkins, for $15. Other nice cloths, with napkins to match, at $6.75, $7.75 and $9 per set. We offer a 72-inch mercerized cloth at 75c yard; napkins to match $2 dozen. A flyer is a 72-inch mercerized Damask at 50c. Worth 75c. Come early if you expect to get any. 10 doz. mercerized napkins at 75c doz; 10 doz. finer ones at $1.50. Items above are priced much less than usual price and not apt to be duplicated after these are gone, so if you contemplate purchasing such goods soon, it will pay you to take advantage of these offerings.

THE Cumberland Valley Land Co. at its meeting here Friday turned down an offer of $15 per acre for 800 acres of its holdings. The company has about 12,000 acres of coal and timber lands and an advance to $25 per acre has been made on it.

PERKINS.—Mrs. Elizabeth Perkins, widow of Dr. J. M. Perkins, died at her home at Somerset Saturday, aged about 80 years. Her first husband was Mr. William Farris, father of Mr. H. C. Farris, of this city, and she partly raised that gentleman. The burial occurred in Somerset at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Farris attended the burial.

AT the election held at the Graded School Saturday afternoon Dr. W. B. O'Bannon and Messrs. T. D. Raney and J. D. Eads were elected trustees to succeed Dr. L. B. Cook, Mr. J. N. Saunders and Col. W. G. Welch, the latter deceased. The selections are admirable ones. Dr. Cook, George L. Penny, W. M. Bright and J. N. Saunders were not candidates but received complimentary votes.

PLEASING ENTERTAINMENT.—A large crowd witnessed the marriage at Walton's Opera House Friday evening of Miss Lillie Putian, (cute little Sophia Saunders), and Hon. Thomas Thum, (manly John Reid McKinney). Some 50 little children, dressed in costumes in which they will take leading parts in society 10 years hence, witnessed the ceremony, and played prominent roles on the happy occasion. The maid of honor, Joan Ballou, and best man, Tilden Cook Cooper, bridesmaid, Eloise Beazley and Katherine Cox, minister and wife, Willie O'Bannon and Louise Lynn, and parents, grandparents, brothers, cousins and aunts of the bride and groom all acted their parts well and made the wedding one of the swellest seen in this section in years. Most of the little ladies were dressed in train, while the little men wore conventional black suits. It was a pretty picture indeed and the entertainment was one that those in charge had every reason to feel proud of. It was given for the benefit of the Presbyterian church and a nice sum was realized. The ladies of the church were assisted in the preparatory work by Miss Hurd Jacob, of Louisville, a most excellent young lady, who has had considerable experience in giving liliputian weddings.

JEFF AUSTIN, of the Mt. Salem section, killed a mad dog with a rock the other day.

CURTAIN stretchers, swings, settees. Also new line of rugs and druggets just received. Tribble & Pence.

THE L. & N. will sell round-trip tickets to Louisville May 9th and 10th, limited 29th, at 1 1/2 fares, account of races.

THE John H. Raney farm, sold by Master Commissioner George B. Saufley yesterday, was bought by James McKechnie for $2,980. The place contains about 90 acres.

A GERMAN named Olick, whose mind is impaired, left his home near Ottenheim a few days ago and was found near Waynesburg, roving around in the woods. He was almost too weak, from lack of food, to walk when friends found him.

THE opening number Friday evening will be a piano duet, Liszt's Rhapsodie, No. 12, by Misses Allie Huffman and Virginia Bourne. By their artistic interpretation of this beautiful piece these young ladies covered themselves with glory and gold medals at the State Tournament last summer.

I WILL sell on next county court day, June 12th, in front of the court house, my house and lot formerly owned by W. H. Higgins, on Main Street, Stanford, Ky., between the hours of 10 and 11 o'clock. Will first sell the 50-ft. vacant lot next to Mr. W. P. Tate and then 52 feet with house on it, reserving 10 feet for a mutual passway, and then will sell as a whole, taking the best bid. The whole lot is 112 feet wide and 350 feet deep. J. W. Hayden, Paris, Ky.

DEAF MUTE KILLED.—James Alvey of Nelson county, a student at the Deaf and Dumb Institute, Danville, fell from the third story of Dawson's Mill Saturday and was instantly killed. He and a number of school-mates had come to Hanging Fork to fish and when it began to rain they took shelter in the mill and in playing with his comrades Alvey ran into the opening and fell 25 feet to the rocks below. His skull was crushed and his body terribly bruised. His body was taken to his homestead near Bardstown. Alvey was a nephew of Ed Alvey, of Louisville, the well-known sporting man.

MCKINNEY.—Three deaths in seven weeks is the distressing record in the family of Mr. James B. McKinney, of McKinney. First a daughter and sister was called hence, then the wife and mother and Saturday morning the husband and father answered to the final summons. Mr. McKinney's condition had been critical for months and the shock he received when Miss Lucy McKinney died and again when his helpmeet of many years was taken from him, but shortened his earthly existence. Deceased was 59 years old, a consistent member of the Presbyterian church and a kind, indulgent husband and father. He was a good neighbor and citizen and his death is a blow not only to his kin but to the people of his community, who lose in him an upright, just man and friend. The loss, however, falls heaviest on the daughter, who is now the surviving member of a family which only a few months ago knew little or nothing of trouble. May a just God help her to bear the burden of the calamities that now fall so rapidly and heavily upon her. In the presence of a large crowd of friends all that was mortal of Mr. McKinney was taken to the Hustonville cemetery Sunday afternoon and there laid to rest by the side of the wife and daughter so recently buried. Dr. E. M. Green, a close friend of the deceased, made an appropriate talk at the grave. The burial was an exceedingly sad one and there was scarcely a dry eye at its conclusion. In his remarks Dr. Green mentioned the fact that flowers on one grave had barely withered and on the other were not dead, while yet a third grave was hidden from view by beautiful flowers just gathered. His reference to Mr. McKinney, who was a great friend and admirer of Dr. Green, was exceedingly kind and pathetic, while that to the surviving member of the family upon which death's hand has fallen so heavily was touching and beautiful.
