

The Interior Journal.

E. C. WALTON.

We are under obligations to the Frankfort Journal for the cut of Judge Thomas H. Paynter, which appears on our first page. As is well known, Mr. Paynter is a candidate to succeed Senator J. C. S. Blackburn and to a man up a tree it looks like he is going to do so. He is even a finer looking gentleman than his picture makes him, is one of the very ablest lawyers in the State and is a democrat from head to foot. The judge has never known defeat, and he has made several races, however, not as many as our Senior Senator, and here's hoping he will be Eclipse in the race he has recently begun.

CHRISTIANITY and bustles have at last struck Africa, says the Glasgow Times. Rev. Dr. A. W. Halsey, secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, has returned from a tour of Congo, and says: "Christianity is making advances in Africa. The natives are becoming excited over it. The most interesting persons we saw in our journey were the women. They wear leaves tied about their waists—tied with hemp and a bustle of the same material."

EDITOR HARRIS, of the Adair News, keeps mouthing about his personal column. We will agree to almost anything if he will let up. In fact we will admit that personals are as important as his heavy weight editorials, if he just will give us a rest on the subject.

HENRY CLEWS, in nominating 22 of the richest men in the United States, puts Rockefeller at the head of the list with $500,000,000, Carnegie coming next with half that amount. The amount of tainted money in this country is simply awful.

MR. R. E. HUGHES, the clever secretary of the Louisville Commercial Club, has our thanks for a passport to the club's doings. In short he has made us a Press Member, an honor we are very grateful to him for.

THE Kentucky State Journal has already enlarged to a six-column quarto and the improvements that have been made since Mr. Walton took charge would fill a small volume.

THE St. Louis girl who was given a verdict for $13,500 against a rich Pittsburger for breach of promise says there is no balm in dollars for a wounded heart.

Here and There.

Dr. Frederick W. Speirs, editor of the Book Lovers' Magazine, is dead in Philadelphia.

Pala, the outlaw Moro chief, has finally been killed by Gen. Leonard Wood's troops.

A receiver has been named for the assigned banking firm of A. C. Wilcox & Co., of New York.

Albert Herbst & Co., wool manufacturers, of Philadelphia, have been adjudged involuntary bankrupts.

Justice Davis, before whom Nan Patterson was tried in New York, is out in a long interview, claiming that Nan is guilty and ought to have gotten the limit.

Police investigation at Nashville, Tenn., developed the fact that Mattie Bell Halleman, a 12 year-old girl, had, in regular burglar fashion, entered and robbed several residences.

Miss Harriette Crabtree, an Indian girl of Muskogee, I. T., has been appointed sponsor for the Creek and Seminole brigade of Confederate veterans at their reunion at Louisville in June.

State Revenue Agent A. M. Harrison says he is informed that the Caleb Powers defense fund has reached $186,000. He will make an investigation and if he finds it true will file suit to subject it to taxation.

Just as the Baptist convention, in St. Louis, was about to adjourn for the day, Rev. Dr. Cushing, president of the Baptist University at Rangoon, India, was stricken, while sitting on the rostrum, and died before medical assistance had arrived.

President Samuel Spencer, of the Southern railway, in an address before the National Association of Manufacturers in Atlanta, criticised the proposition to regulate railway rates by law and pointed out that it was a step from the regulation of prices of manufacturers' products.

There was a sensation in the divorce of Dr. Elias H. Porter in Cincinnati when Judge Swing declared that no decision would be rendered till the 12 year old daughter of the parties is produced in court, and drew from his pocket a sealed envelope, deposited with him by the father when the suit was filed, revealing the secret of her present domicile.

POLITICAL.

Oregon's recently passed whipping-post law became effective yesterday.

It appears to be a certainty that Dr. A. D. James, United States Marshal for the Western Kentucky district, will be reappointed by the President.

Former Gov. Benton McMillin, of Tennessee, stated yesterday in an interview that he did not expect to be a candidate for Governor of Tennessee next year against Gov. Cox.

A committee of the Florida Legislature has made a report showing the existence of deplorable conditions at the State Asylum For the Insane, and charging the Board of Managers with responsibility for it. Vice and immorality and cruelty to patients have prevailed, the report says, until nearby citizens have been outraged by the conditions.

Hon. Took Hubble, of Lincoln county, was in the city Monday mingling with the court day crowd. When seen by an Advocate reporter and asked if he would have opposition for the Senate he said: "As yet I have heard of none, and the indications now are that I am to have a clear track. At any rate the district is for me, and whether I have opposition or not, I am sure to win the race."—Advocate.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Liberty will more than likely have no fair this year.

The Modern Woodmen of Casey will give a picnic at the Liberty fair grounds July 29.

At the meeting of the State Dental Association which will convene in Lexington Wednesday and Thursday of this week, Dr. W. W. Burgin will give a clinic, or in other words a practical demonstration on a patient on crown and bridge work. There will be 16 clinics given, only four of which will be performed by dentists outside of Louisville. That Dr. Burgin has been selected as one of these is an evidence of his ability and his standing in his profession.—Richmond Register.

MATRIMONIAL.

Austin W. Hail, a widower of 58, and Mrs. Elizabeth Phelps, a widow of the same age, were married at Millledgeville yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilkinson announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Etta, to Elma Jones, of Louisville.—Casey News.

A. A. Huddleston, Commonwealth's attorney of the Casey district, was married a few days ago to Mrs. Winifred Wilson at Waupaca, Wis.

Traveling hundreds of miles to wed the man of her choice, Miss Ethel O. Waddle, of Adelaide, Australia, was married yesterday to the Rev. Ira A. Paternoster, a student at the College of the Bible of Kentucky University.

Terrific Face With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and to-day I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at G. L. Penny, Stanford, and Lyne Bros', Crab Orchard, drug stores; price 50c.

NO CHANGE.—Mr. J. S. Hocker, acting for our citizens, wrote to General Manager B. M. Starks, of the L. & N., asking that in the event the dispatchers' office is moved from Livingston that it be located here. In reply Mr. Starks wrote: "No such change is contemplated. The office as at present located, it is thought enables the train movements to be provided for to the best advantage. We appreciate the interest displayed by your people in seeking the location of the office at Stanford in the case a move is to be made."

Leslie Shearer and Miss Minnie Caise, of this community, went to Lancaster last Saturday and were joined in matrimony.

Miss Susie Hatcher is making us a good, attentive and accommodating mail carrier since the death of her father and it is to be hoped that all along the line people will take advantage of the opportunity to show the young lady the encouragement she so much deserves.

H. C. Waizer sold a lot of corn to Anderson & Spillman at $2.40 at the crib. James Shackelford has bought a house, lot and shop in Harrodsburg. J. W. Bright was here this week selling machines. J. M. Spoonamore has gone to Indiana for a few days. Mrs. Mammie Hansel, of Mt. Vernon, is visiting her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Miller.

A Good Suggestion.

Mr. C. A. Wainwright of Lemon City Fla., has written the manufacturers that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pains in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as can be drunk. That when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity. "It seems to get at the right spot instantly," he says. For sale by Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, Ky.

"Alcohol," observes Dr. Wiley, "is fuel which furnishes motive power to the human machine." Indeed, yes, Doc, but the barroom—gasoline almost invariably makes the human machine exceed the speed limit and land in the gutter.—Louisville Times.

DORSEY GOLDDUST 12055.

Full brother to Estelle 2191-4. Sired by Zileadi Golddust 480 by Golddust 150, by Vermont Morgan, dam by Zileadi, an Imp. Arabian stallion. Dorsey Golddust's dam is Florence by Golden Mingo Chief, a son of Guff's Morgan, making him an intensely bred Morgan stallion, descending from Justin Morgan on both sides, the best family of road horses known. Dorsey Golddust is a dark bay, black points, full 16 hands, weighs 1,200 pounds. A proven and uniform breeder of high-class road and Eastern horses, combining all the qualities for harness and saddle and are in demand at top prices. The champion saddle and combined gelding of the American horse shows, the 34, Jack V. Diamond's, stands to his credit. Twelve of his colts have sold for over $14,000 in the past two years. His service is offered for less than any horse of his producing quality in Kentucky. Will stand at my farm, 2 1/2 miles from Stanford, Ky., on Hustonville pike, at $25 to insure a living colt. Money due when colts drop or mare parted with by breeder. Mares kept at 10c per day on grass. No responsibility for accidents or escapes. Address best of care and handling given. Address F. R. RID, Stanford or Danville, Ky.

Antecarlo, 2:26 1-2.

Made over Versailles track in winning race, sired by Anteo, 2:16 1-2, that sold for $30,000 at public sale. First dam Mary Ann, by Halstorm 813, son of Mambrino Patchen. These two crosses produced The Abbot, 2:38 1-4, champion trotting gelding of the world, sired by Independence, son of Andrew Jackson, Independence's dam by American Star. The American Star and Andrew Jackson blood is responsible for the speed of the world. You see Antecarlo's two next crosses are responsible for the fastest stallion. Then you see he is better bred than either of them for he has the blood of both. Antecarlo is a solid brown horse, 15 3/4 hands high, weighing 1,170 pounds, fine style and action. McKINNEY ROLLER MILLS.

I offer for sale my mill and residence in McKinney, Ky. Mill has four capacity of 50 barrels and meal 160 bushels per day. Mill is well equipped with modern machinery in good repair. Has storage capacity of 5,000 bushels of wheat; also large corn bins and cribs. Wagon scales operated from office, coal bins and ice house. All under roof. Never falling water in mill lot. Mill is within 100 feet of Cincinnati Southern R. R. track and has private siding. The location is good for the following reasons: McKinney is nearest market to many of the largest wheat and corn growers in Lincoln county, large territory furnishing custom grinding. The feed and coal business in connection with mill pays well. No trouble to market all products from mill. Residence is a two-story, six room frame, with cistern on back porch. Milk house at back door cemented; all comparatively new. Large barn, buggy house in mill lot. On account of my failing eyesight and health generally, my physicians have advised me to quit the milling business. For further particulars call on or address Dr. Edw. Alcorn, Hustonville, Ky., or W. B. McKinney, Stanford, Ky. MISS JENNIE McKINNEY, McKinney, Ky. Administratrix.

Experience Teaches

Experience, 'tis said, keeps a dear school—the tuition comes high, but the lessons learned therein are never forgotten. The wise, however, are willing to profit by the experience of others. When the painter-man tells you that

Mastic Mixed Paint

"The Kind That Lasts"

is mixed better than he can mix paints by hand, that they are pure, sure and durable, that they give the best possible results in beauty and finish, and will not crack, peel or chalk off—that's the voice of experience—the lesson taught is, "buy Mastic Mixed Paint—save money."
