

Ladies' Easy Shoes.

White Oxfords.

A large part of our lives are spent in our Shoes and if they are not comfortable it is a miserable existence. We can make life's walk easy if you will buy a pair of our Walk Easy Shoes in the high-cut or low-cut. They are as soft as a kid glove and you will not have any sore feet if you use these. They look nice and feel good and the price for any style is only $2.00.

We have this very popular style of Shoes in Children's, Misses' and Ladies'. For real hard service or your Summer outing, they are just the thing. The price is low, too, ranging from 75c to $1.25. If you want an all-round Summer Shoe at little cost try a pair.

COAL.—Falls Branch from J. R. Woodriddle and Semi-Cannel from the East Tennessee Coal Co., at 12c per bushel, delivered. J. H. Baughman & Co.

T. J. BALLARD, of Anderson county, was chosen to succeed W. J. Wilmore, deceased, as chairman of the various republican county committees of this district.

THE children's exercises at the Christian church Sunday night were interesting and creditable. Some 40 or 50 little tots took part and all did well. The collection for missions amounted to a considerable sum.

THE pupils of Mrs. O. B. Fallis' music class will give an entertainment in the chapel of Stanford Male & Female College this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. No admission fee will be charged and the public is cordially invited.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Chief of Police W. Logan Wood, of Danville, had a narrow escape the other day. He went to arrest a drunken Negro named Roberts, when the latter thrust his gun against the officer's breast. He was in the act of pulling the trigger when Mr. Wood slapped it from him and choked him into submission.

A PRISONER in the Liberty jail, hearing a noise in the cell of Johnson Elliott, discovered he had hanged himself with a wire. Before the jailer could be summoned to open the cell Elliott was nearly dead. After being revived he attempted to seize a pistol and kill himself. Elliott is confined in jail pending appeal from a life sentence for killing Hardin Hatter.

MR. W. T. SMITH showed us and offered to divide with us a quart of 15-year-old "Old Barton" whisky Harry P. Ramsey, of Lexington, had remembered him with.

C. J. LESTER, of Princeton, offers to pay 25c per pound for live rattlesnakes. Some of our young people just out of school might put in a few hours making money in this easy way.

THE republicans of Garrard made only one nomination at their convention at Lancaster Saturday afternoon—that of Mr. John M. Duncan for county judge. What the democratic nominee, Judge A. D. Ford, will do for the gentleman will be a plenty.

TO PRINTERS.—The State Journal has many fonts of type, a Cottrell press, large enough to print this paper, a cutter, several stones, one 45 by 63 inches and many other things useful in a printing office for sale cheap. Address W. P. Walton, Frankfort, if this interests you.

THE Odd Fellows will decorate the graves of their departed brothers on June 13—next Tuesday. The procession will leave Odd Fellows' Hall at 2 P. M. Speeches by a number of gentlemen will be made at the cemetery. Everybody is invited. Flowers for the occasion will be thankfully received.

CONTEST.—Mr. E. H. Beazley, who has conducted 11 successful elocutionary contests, will give his 12th on the evening of June 23rd. Besides the contest in elocution there will be a vocal contest and a $20 gold piece will be given the winner of each. A number of entries are promised, including two from Harrodsburg and one from Danville. Stanford will of course have a representative. Ladies desiring to enter this contest can write Mr. Beazley for further particulars.

THE HOP.—One of the most delightful hops ever given in Stanford was that of Friday night last. The weather was propitious, the music by Saxton & Trost, of Lexington, was soul-stirring, the boys were on their best behavior, while the young ladies—well, they were the prettiest and best dressed mortal eye ever rested upon. It was a well occasion and one that will be remembered for a long time. The young men are to be congratulated on the success of their hop, their management of it and last, but not least, their gentlemanly and courteous treatment of their guests during the evening. It would take columns to give the names of all who attended, hence we will not attempt to do so, but the following is a list of the ladies who danced: Misses Tevis Carpenter, Pearl Burnside, Ella May Saunders, Lucile and Clara Cooper, Allie Huffman, Levisa Harris, Sue Taylor and Nannie Woods Engleman, Anna Cooke, Mary Mobley, Sara Dunn, Chloe Baughman, Kate Pence, Catherine Baughman, Sallie Taylor Woods, and Mesdames George L. Penny and W. C. Shanks, Stanford; Misses Jean Dick, Annie Bronaugh, Crab Orchard; Rea Baker, Mt. Vernon;—Ridskill, Fisherville; Lal Pickett, Shelbyville; Mellie Hopper, Edna Carnitz and Julia Stagg, Hustonville; Jean Warren, Robbie Penny and—Sims, Danville; Patsy Prewitt and Minerva Embry, Lexington; Mary Sleet, Midway; Lettie and Sophia Caldwell, London; Mrs. John Turley, Richmond. It was nearly 4 o'clock when the last number, "Home Sweet Home," was given and even at that late hour it was with reluctance the happy crowd dispersed. An excellent supper, exquisitely served at the St. Asaph Hotel and under the personal supervision of Mrs. Mark Hardin was greatly enjoyed about midnight. The young men of Stanford have given a number of hops in the last quarter of a century the writer has lived here, but none of them surpassed in point of pleasure or elegance the one of Friday evening last. We congratulate them on their superb effort.

SOMETHING new in rockers. Tribble & Pence.

BEST selection of Cut Glass and Solid Silver flatware at W. H. Mueller's.

CARDS.—25 nicely printed visiting cards for 25c; 50 for 35c or 100 for 50c. This office.

THE Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. Hugh Reid at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon.

UNLESS sold privately before, I will sell on court day a fresh Jersey cow and calf. She is without a fault and a mortal goon one. H. J. McRoberts.

THE statements of the three national banks of Lincoln county appear on our fourth page. Read them and see what solid institutions we have in our midst.

DAN MILLER, who killed Zack Ward at Pittsburg and who was recently given a life sentence, was brought here Sunday to remain until the court of appeals acts on his case.

MR. R. L. WHITE, of the Hubble vacinity, has three large Texas Pecan trees, which he planted 20 years ago. They bloomed in 1895 and are again in bloom but have never borne any fruit so far. Mr. White is still hopeful of good results from them, however, and spares no time in caring for them.

OLYMPIAN SPRINGS OPENING.—Olympian Springs, near Mt. Salem, will have its opening for the present season on June 8, 9, 10 and 11. Meals furnished at most reasonable rates, with strawberries served in any way you wish them. Water free. Come and have a good time. The Liberty band will be with us. F. M. Sims, prop.

TO FARMERS.—We are agents for the Proof Hemp Binder Twine, which is warranted to work on any wheat or corn binder. It runs 50 feet longer to the pound than sisal or standard, therefore a bale of 50 pounds will bind more than 1,000 more bundles than a bale of 50 pounds of the best standard the farmer ever used. It is warranted absolutely insect proof; water or moisture will not rot it; it is absolutely free from large or small places, and is therefore much stronger than sisal or standard. It will be to your advantage to use this twine. E. T. Pence & Co.

A LARGE and refined audience heard the Baccalaureate sermon at the Presbyterian church by Rev. W. L. Dorgan, of Danville, Sunday morning and enjoyed to the fullest extent the appropriate remarks of that able divine. A special musical program was rendered by the choir and Mrs. Julia Craig Dunn sang a beautiful solo. She has a remarkably sweet voice and her solo was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. H. J. McRoberts was at the organ, while Miss Berta Jean Penny assisted with violin accompaniment. All of the pastors in town took part in the services, which were interesting from start to finish. The 10 graduates of Stanford Male & Female Seminary were all present and it is hoped that the good advice given them in Rev. Dorgan's sermon will not be as seed sown on stony ground but on the contrary will be of inestimable value to them.

PUBLIC SALE!

Of McKinney, Ky., Flouring Mill and a Lot of Personalty.

As administratrix and sole heir of the estate of James B. McKinney, deceased, I will, on

TUESDAY, JUNE 20, 1905,

On the premises at McKinney, Lincoln county, Ky., offer at public outcry to the highest bidder these articles of personalty, to-wit: One double seated carriage, in good condition; 1 buggy; 1 buckboard; 1 set of double carriage harness and pole; 1 one-horse wagon and harness; 1 set of plow gear; 2 sets of single harness; a lot of farming implements; 1 milk cow; 1 combined horse, six-years-old; 7 young hogs; a lot of household goods; 1 range in good order; a lot of carpenter's tools; 2 cross-cut saws; 50 bales of oats straw; 1 oil tank; and that valuable property, The McKinney Flour Mills, and the residence and premises adjacent. The mill is well equipped and in good order; has a 50-barrel capacity of flour and 100 bushels of meal per day; and has a storage capacity of 500 bushels of wheat; also capacious corn bins and crib; wagon scales operated from office; coal bins and ice house all under roof; a never failing supply of water in mill lot. The mill is within 100 feet of the C. S. Railway and is connected with it by private siding. McKinney is the nearest market to a large wheat and corn producing territory, which also offers a large custom grinding. The feed and coal business connected with the mill has proved very profitable. No trouble to market all products of the mill. The residence is a two-story frame building of seven rooms, with all convenient out-buildings.—The personalty will be sold on a credit of three months on note, with good security, bearing interest from date. The mill and premises, for one-third cash, remainder in six, 12 and 18 months, on notes, with good security, bearing interest from date, payable in bank. Title perfect. Sale to begin at 10 o'clock A. M.
