

"Hits" Over, But

We have some good things left from our Sale; things we overlooked in the rush. If you did not get to the sale you will find many Remnants of Wash and Woolen Goods, Odd Lots of Lawns, Suitings, Hose, Slippers, Shoes, Skirts, Waists, &c. Goods that we must sell before we begin to receive our Fall goods. Remember there will be plenty of hot weather yet and this is an opportunity you should not let slip. Those who attended our Sale say it was a success to them from a money-saving standpoint.

High Cotton.

All indications point to the highest prices for cotton goods reached in years. The crop is 3,000,000 bales less than thought, and the manufacturers and wholesalers have very little stock on hand. We have a good supply of Bleach and Brown Cottons, Sheetings, Shirtings, &c., and we are selling them at less prices than the wholesalers will be asking in a month.

We bought some months ago a large part of our Fall stock, in which cotton is used in the manufacture and we are on the ground floor and will give you as good values as you ever bought.

LOCALS.

THE Crab Orchard Fair will begin promptly at 9:30 Wednesday morning, July 19th. Go. WAR on dogs is on in earnest, according to the Liberty News. It says 60 canines were killed there last week. THE U. B. F. picnic Friday was a big thing and the colored brother enjoyed himself hugely. Splendid order was preserved. MR. P. M. McROBERTS will build a pretty dwelling on his lot on Somerset Avenue. Work on it will begin in a short while. THOSE who took stock in the Hustonville Fair or gave special premiums are requested to remit me for same at once. S. M. Owens, Secretary, Hustonville, Ky. A GOOD dinner will be one of the features of the Crab Orchard Fair, which begins at 9:30 to-morrow, Wednesday morning. The price will be only 35c. THE Crab Orchard Fair & Racing Association has made arrangements with the managers of the salt-sulphur well at the depot there to furnish water for the people during the fair. HENRY TRAYLOR, colored, aged about 16, who was sent to the Houses of Reform for stealing chickens, died there of typhoid fever and his remains were brought here Saturday and interred. CORNER STONE. - Crab Orchard Lodge of Masons No. 636, will lay the corner stone of their new hall July 25th, at 3:30 P. M. All Masons are cordially invited, writes Secretary W. H. Perkins. WHEN your best girl is inclined to tax you too heavily for ice cream tell her that Prof. Wellston, of the University of Chicago, says that the tryptadomatic germ infests vanilla ice cream and is relentless in pursuit of its victims and see if that doesn't jar her. MARJORIE, the pretty little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Ballou, took the premium at the Lancaster fair for the "prettiest girl baby under two years old." There were 14 entries, but three of the little ones "cried out" and Majorie defeated the remaining ones as easy as falling off a log. THE Kentucky County Attorneys' Association before adjournment at Crab Orchard Springs passed resolutions requesting the Legislature to strike out the words "at random" in Section 1368 of the statutes relating to shooting on the highway. Also to revise the present law governing jury challenges. ROBERT FENZEL, the gentlemanly young man, who is learning the printing business in this office, set a galley of brevier type in three hours Saturday. This is equal to about three galleys a day, a feat that very few printers can accomplish. Robert promises to be a record-breaker as a type-setter and we shall watch his course with much interest. ASSASSINATED. - Cecil Crutchfield, 16-year-old son of Mr. A. A. Crutchfield, was shot through the head and instantly killed at a dance at the old cheese factory, between Ottenheim and Krier, between sun down and dark Sunday evening. There were a number of persons in the house at the time but nobody has been found who saw the shot fired or who will admit that he knows who fired it. Judge James P. Bailey, County Attorney Harvey Helm and Deputy Sheriff George T. Wood spent all of yesterday in the section the assassination occurred but no arrest had been made up to the hour of going to press. The murder is a most dastardly one and no means nor trouble will be spared in the effort to bring the guilty party or parties to justice. Young Crutchfield was a quiet, good boy and his untimely death is deeply deplored.

J. F. TIPTON sold his house and lot at Rowland to W. W. Wade for $550. W. O. SPEED is the only man in Stanford who handles the famous "Lee 61" whisky. CARDS. - 25 nicely printed visiting cards for 25c; 50 for 35c or 100 for 50c. This office. AT 9:30 Wednesday morning, July 19th, the bell at the Crab Orchard fair grounds will ring and the show of stock will begin. FOR SALE. - Handsome 12-light chandelier for church. Comparatively new. Apply to Rev. George W. Mills, Hustonville, Ky. A COMPETITIVE examination for appointment to State College, will be held in my office July 21, 22, 1905. G. Singleton, superintendent. AROUSED because of the scarcity of help the good women of Shelbyville have organized and the servant problem is the one topic of discussion. At a meeting the other day a committee was appointed to visit the Swiss colony near London and try to induce the women there to locate in Shelbyville and take lucrative positions as cooks. The report of the committee is awaited with much interest. The servant problem here is a hard one to solve and soon we will hear of Stanford women taking steps toward bettering the condition of things in the servant line. THE Lancaster Fair was a success from every standpoint and our neighbors are deserving of hearty congratulation for the superb management of their laudable enterprise. Large crowds attended each of the three days and the splendid show of stock was worth many times the price of admission. The weather behaved itself as well as could have been expected, the crowd was a jolly one and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the thousands who attended. The Lincoln county stock men who carried off a good share of the liberal premiums hung up were J. C. and Bledsoe Bailey, C. T. Sandidge, S. M. Owens, Embry Brothers, S. T. Harris, Woods Brothers, D. S. Carpenter and Logan Hubble. It will take some time to "wind up" the affairs of the enterprise, but considering the large expense incurred in making the ring, building amphitheatres, etc., and the big premiums given, the association will do well to come out even. THE literary program for the meeting of the Kentucky Press Association, at Crab Orchard Springs next week has just been completed and is as follows: Tuesday July 25. - Address of welcome, Hon. R. W. Miller, Richmond. Response to welcome, Clarence E. Woods, association orator. President's annual address, Louis W. Landram, Lancaster Record. "The Successful Country Weekly," J. R. Lemon, Mayfield Messenger. "Advertising from Three Standpoints," Henry M. Caldwell, Louisville Times. "Politics as a Side Line," E. Barry, Benton Democrat. Round Table - "Are We Easy?" L. W. Gaines, engineer. "All join in the happy chorus." Wednesday, July 26. - "Cash Subscriptions a Success," D. M. Duncan, Brandenburg Messenger. "A Crack at Creation and Creatures," S. W. Linebaugh, Russellville News. "The Semi-Weekly - A Comparison," Swift Champ, Paris News. "United We (Ought to) Stand," Geo. W. Albrecht, Middlesboro News. "The Daily and Its Lessons," Charles E. Stewart, Lexington Herald. "The Associate Editor," Mrs. Bettie B. Campbell, Somerset Journal. "Official Advertising and So Forth," George S. Lee, Carrollton News. Round Table - "As to Legislation," Henry R. Lawrence, conductor. "Each mother's son may growl." Thursday, July 27. - "Random Shots at Practical Points," M. F. Conley, Louisa News. "Prevalent and Pernicious - The Grafters," E. S. Jonas, Henderson Journal. "The Tri-Weekly - A Conclusion," S. W. Menefee, Danville Advocate. "The Sublimity of Insignificance," A. D. Miller, Richmond Climax. "Something More than Humdrum," Mrs. Stevia Cardwell, Harrodsburg, Herald. Round Table - "The God of the Order," John B. Gaines, superintendent. "A last chance for all to butt in." The entertainment committee has arranged for two balls, a German, a banquet, progressive euchres, athletic contests, vaudeville stunts, etc.

WE are agents for the Pioneer wire fence, call in and see it before you buy E. T. Pence & Co. THE Crab Orchard Fair begins tomorrow and the Hustonville Fair just a week later. There's fun ahead for the boys. LOST Sunday, a small purse containing an L. & N. pass and a trip pass made out to Charles O. Baird. Return to this office and get reward. J. C. McCLARY furnished a coffin for a man named Gorley, who died at South Fork yesterday. Also one for little Hazel McCauley, of Rowland. YESTERDAY'S Danville court was a crackerjack. There were not enough people in town to whip a dog, and less than 30 cattle. Most of the cattle went home unsold. MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS. - Miss Sarah L. Hart, of Louisville, will give an illustrated health talk at the Christian church at 4 P. M. tomorrow, Wednesday. You should hear it. BABE HANSFORD was placed in jail by deputy marshal Will Mershon Sunday charged with stealing a ticket to Louisville from Mr. William Warren, who had bought it to go on the excursion. His trial is set for to-day. THE K. C. leaving here at 4:50 yesterday morning had a slight wreck near Gilberts Creek and was delayed about five hours. The mixed K. C., known as "Old Henry," also had a little wreck near Fort Estill and was delayed several hours. JOE UPTHEGROVE, owner of the big rattlesnake that attracted much attention last week, took it to the Cincinnati Zoological Gardens and sold it to the management for $56. - Advocate. Mr. Upthegrove bought the snake from a man at Highland named Young for less than $1. There's money in snakes, it seems.

Asthma Sufferers Should Know This.

Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of asthma that were considered hopeless. Mrs. Adolph Buesing, 701 West Third St., Davenport, Iowa, writes: "A severe cold contracted 12 years ago was neglected until it finally grew into asthma. The best medical skill available could not give me more than temporary relief. Foley's Honey and Tar was recommended and one 50 cent bottle entirely cured me of asthma which had been troubling me for 12 years. If I had taken it at the start I would have been saved years of suffering."
