The Value of a Reputation.

Just a few words of interest to the buyers of Dry Goods, Cloaks, Suits, Skirts, Underwear, Blankets and Shoes.
Every one of you know that the success of your buying depends entirely upon the quality of goods you buy and the saving on what you buy depends on where you buy.
Mistakes of going to the wrong place to buy are usually costly, but you make no mistake by coming to us, as we make good every article not as represented.
We are quite willing to stake our hard won reputation as sellers of good goods and correct styles that a critical examination of our new lines will prove both pleasant and profitable.

NEGRO KILLED.—At Milledgeville Thursday night George Farris shot Bill Dunn, also colored, three times, killing him almost instantly. The trouble arose over Farris' wife, it is said. Farris took to the bushes and has not been heard of since.

PATTEN.—Mrs. Patten, wife of Postmaster George H. Patten, of Crab Orchard, and a most excellent woman, died Saturday and was buried Sunday afternoon after funeral services by Rev. O. M. Huey. A large crowd attended the burial of this splendid lady.

In paying his respects to the democratic nominee for county offices in Casey, Editor Henry Thomas, of the News, himself a candidate, says: "It is our pleasure to know every nominee, and can say that they are as good Democrats as can be found anywhere. But here's dollars to doughnuts that they will be buried in political oblivion November 7th, by the Republican nominees with a victory so complete that they will not be resurrected for years to come; as the Republican majority in the county is from 300 to 500, and but little faction or dissension exists among them." The wish is no doubt father to the thought. Mr. Thomas knows very well there is trouble in republican ranks in the "State of Casey" and they do say there is so much dissatisfaction over some of the republican nominations that if it were not against party law and precedent the primary of April last would be called off and another held.

SOMERSET FAIR.—Great indeed was the Somerset fair, which came to an end Friday afternoon. Immense crowds attended each of the four days, but Thursday's was a record breaker, when 8,765 admission tickets were sold. Including free admissions, employees and others, the crowd of next to the last day must have been at least 10,000. Each day's program was good but Friday's was probably the best ever seen at the good old Somerset fair. The rings were all hotly contested, the races were exciting and the free attractions were numerous and interesting. We are under obligations to Messrs. F. J. Campbell and Cecil Williams, of the press committee, for courtesies extended. The Lincoln county horsemen who were successful were Messrs. S. M. Owens, C. T. Sandidge, R. C. Engleman, Bledsoe Bailey D. S. Carpenter, Bohon & Dodd and W. S. Drye. The latter gentleman captured two good trotting races with A. J. Giboney's splendid campaigner, Alta. Hundreds went from this county and came back more than satisfied. Somerset had lots of fair visitors and she took good care of them. The "Queen City of the Mountains" was very gay socially, while from a business standpoint she was as lively as a cricket.

AFTER a long illness, Mrs. Maggie Rowland White, widow of the late S. B. White, died at Louisville. She was a daughter of the S. V. Rowland.

AN engineer named Booker Starks fell from his train at Sinks Sunday and besides breaking his left arm, was badly cut and bruised about the face.

DICKERSON.—Mrs. Jane Dickerson, mother of Mr. James B. Gilkerson, died at Crab Orchard last week, aged 93. She was an exceedingly kind-hearted, good woman and her death caused universal regret.

Farris, a prominent lumber merchant near the London, Laurel county fair grounds, was presented before County Judge Reams and held without bail. Bowers once lived in the Maywood section of this county. He has been taken to Richmond for safe-keeping.
