

There is more goodness in our $2.00 shoe than any other shoe made at the price. All the new toes and heels.

You get all their is coming to you in the Flexible Welts Turns, in Kid with patent tip, or Ideal patent kid, or Gun Metal tip, for $3.00.

Ladies' High-Grade Shoes.

The day has passed when the "just as good" kind of shoes will do. There is no experiment in buying Zeigler Bros.' dependable footwear. They have the best of sole leather, the finest upper stock to be obtained, are put together by skilled workmen and the designs are all that a stylish dresser could wish. If your new Fall shoes are Zeigler's, your feet will be well dressed and your walk will be easy.

At $3.50 we give you the acme of style, fit and comfort. We don't believe there is a better shoe made than these at even more money. The walking boots are as flexible as a light sole. We have customers who have worn these in Ideal kid for 12 months. We have these in several styles.

LOCALS.

WANTED.—Shetland pony. Gentle for little girl to drive. A. T. Martin, Somerset, Ky.

FOR RENT.—VanDeveer house with garden, barn and lot, Somerset Street. Nancy VanDeveer.

A LOT of farming implements and odds and ends of household goods for sale. C. A. Cox, Stanford.

WHEAT ground for rent. Al. G. Huffman, Stanford.

CANNEL coal, Glen Mary and Jellico coal. See me before you buy. W. S. Wigham, Moreland.

LOST.—Gold pin between Warner's grocery and Misses VanDeveer's millinery store. Leave at this office.

FOR SALE OR RENT.—My two-story residence in Stanford, with lot, garden, fruit trees and all necessary outbuildings. Address J. K. VanArsdale.

FOR SALE.—Two good milk cows, one will be fresh Nov. 1, some calves, plows, harrow, good 2-horse wagon, and harness. J. F. Cash, Highland.

10 GIRLS.—John S. Lee, of the South End, sends us word that the 10th girl arrived at his home Monday night. This makes 11 children for him and he is yet barely in his prime.

The death of my husband has imposed upon me the serious responsibility of maintaining and educating my four small children, and my means are quite limited. I wish to ask the aid of all in my effort to continue my husband's business as a method of support. I am receiving a nice line of fresh goods and shall be very grateful to those kind enough to patronize me. Mrs. W. S. Jones.

The order of Maccabees is the promptest paying insurance concern we know of. Mr. James T. Jones was buried on Sept. 11th and yesterday Mr. A. C. Sine, representing that great fraternal order, gave Mrs. Jones a draft for $1,000, amount of her husband's insurance. This makes $4,000 this order has paid to Lincoln county policy holders in the last few weeks and $30,000 or more since the lodge here was organized.

SAILOR JEAN, the man who is walking to all the State capitals in the United States, arrived in Stanford Wednesday afternoon on his way from Frankfort to Nashville. On his travels he pushes in front him a sort of wheelbarrow which he calls a "trolleyette" and in which he carries the necessities of life on the trip. He has already visited 34 State capitals and has 15 more, having walked over 18,000 miles up to the present time. He has visited 2,459 post-offices. The traveler has worn out 23 pairs of shoes and 13 tires on his trolleyette. He is four months ahead of time and has 4,000 miles yet to cover before the end of his journey.

ALFALFA SPECIAL.—The Alfalfa and Corn Special to be run under the auspices of the State Department of Agriculture will leave Louisville Monday morning and will be here from 3:30 to 4 o'clock that afternoon. Joseph E. Wing, of Ohio, will be the principal lecturer on Alfalfa, the corn department will be in charge of Prof. P. G. Holden, of Ames, Iowa, who last year increased the corn crop of Iowa 10,000,000,000 bushels. Don't fail to hear him on the proper selection of seed corn and other phases of corn growing. There will be no charge of admission to hear these lectures and you should take advantage of the opportunity presented. Be at the depot at 3:15 p. m.

ROBINSON.—The death of Mrs. Bettie Robinson, brief mention of which was made in our last issue, removed from earthly scenes one of the oldest and best women in Lincoln county, where she had lived all of the 86 years of her life. She was the widow of Mr. James Robinson, who preceded her to the grave some 44 years. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Mattie White, with whom she made her home, and who has the sympathy of all in her great loss. Her other child, Mr. Thomas Robinson, died about 18 years ago. Mrs. Robinson had been a member of the Christian church for years, having joined the Rush Branch congregation when quite young. A large crowd attended her burial in Buffalo cemetery Tuesday afternoon, attesting to some extent the esteem in which she was held in the community she lived so long. Her funeral was preached at her late home by Elds. Joseph Ballou and L. M. Omer. "Aunt Bettie" was a great favorite with young people and her taking away has cast a gloom over many of those who loved her dearly.

THE L. & N. will run an excursion to Louisville Sept. 24th, at $1.75 for the round-trip. Train leaves Stanford at 6:30 a. m.

COAL.—Let us fill your coal house with good coal while the weather is favorable. Quality and prices to suit everybody. J. H. Baughman & Co.

FOR SALE.—Two large brick store rooms on North side of Main Street in the best business block in the town of Stanford, Ky., occupied by two prompt paying firms. J. S. Owsley, Sr.

NOTICE.—All persons having claims against Lincoln county must file same, properly verified, in my office not later than Saturday, Sept. 23, 1905. G. B. Cooper, clerk. By E. D. Pennington, D. C.

THE republicans will do their do tomorrow. But the question is, what will they do? Some say a full county ticket will be nominated; others say there will be only two or three nominees. Time will tell.

YOUR attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. George D. Hopper, who succeeded Dr. J. K. VanArsdale in the grocery and hardware business. Read what he says this issue and each subsequent one and you'll profit thereby.

GARRARD county republicans nominated the following ticket Wednesday: Judge, J. M. Duncan; Clerk, Jo Francis; Assessor, J. N. Green; Jailor, Harrison Ray; Attorney, J. T. Johnson; Representative, R. F. Parsons. The nominations for superintendent of schools, coroner and sheriff were deferred.

THE Clothing and Shoe firm of Cummins & McClary have just finished receiving their stock of Fall Footwear. They carry by far the largest shoestock in Stanford. With their immense stock and variety of styles, there is hardly a foot they can not fit, and few tastes they cannot satisfy. This firm enjoys a reputation for selling shoes that give good wear.

GOOCH.—Iva Malan Gooch, of the Waynesburg section, aged 22 years, died at Olympian Springs Sunday of a complication of troubles. He was a son of Mr. Thomas Gooch and was a splendid young man of exemplary habits. Rev. R. R. Noel conducted the funeral services at Olive church, which he was a devout member of and had acted in the capacity of clerk for some time. At the time of his death he was in the employ of the Beattyville Lumber Co., by which firm he was held in the highest esteem. He was a member of the K. O. T. M. lodge, which order officiated at the grave and was also a K. P.

THE board of election commissioners, composed of Sheriff M. S. Baughman, J. C. Lynn and Dr. R. L. Davison, met Wednesday and organized by electing Mr. Lynn secretary, after which the following officers were selected to serve on registration day, the first Tuesday in October, and at the general election, Nov. 7, 1905:

B. G. FOX & Co., of Danville, will be in Lancaster Monday, county court day, Sept. 25, 1905 to buy 100 mules colts and 50 yearling mules. Will also buy some horse colts.

REGISTRATION.—Those wishing to participate in the election of Nov. 7, should bear in mind that they cannot do so unless they register. Registration day is Oct 3. Stanford, Hustonville, Crab Orchard and Rowland are towns of the registration class.

IN Hoc.—M. Lockowitz, wife, son and daughter, of the Ottenheim section, were placed in jail last night by Sheriff M. S. Baughman. They are charged with setting fire to and burning the home of a German named Ronaker, of the same neighborhood. Their trial is set for to-day. The two families have not been friendly for some time.

Jesse W. Sweeney bought of Mrs. Dorcas L. Walker her large brick livery stable, on Stanford street, for $6,000.—Lancaster Record.

Two Houses in Crab Orchard For Sale.

CENTRAL KY. REAL ESTATE CO. R. E. YOUNG, President, Lebanon, Ky.

PUBLIC SALE!

I will at my place of residence on the Fall Lick & Dripping Springs Turnpike, 1 mile East of Preachersville, six miles from Crab Orchard and Lancaster and eight miles from Stanford, on THURSDAY, OCT. 19, 1905, sell the highest and best bidder my farm, containing 188 acres of first-class land, 40 acres of it being now in hemp. Also at the same time and place, I will sell all of my horses, mules, cattle, fat hogs, including one pair of the best work horses in Garrard county; also an extra good pair of mules, together with farming implements, consisting of one new hickory wagon, never used, a lot of hemp, 150 barrels of good corn and many other things too numerous to mention.

TERMS OF SALE.—The real estate will be sold for one-third cash, balance in one, two and three years time, with interest on deferred payments until paid, with 10 per cent. retained to secure their payment. The personal property will be sold as follows: Under $25 cash in hand; over that amount a credit of 12 months will be given with interest until paid. For all deferred payments a note with good security will be required, payable at the Crab Orchard Banking Co. This is a splendid opportunity to secure a well-improved, first-class home. It will be sold without reserve and no by-bidding will be permitted. I have concluded to go West and for that reason am having this sale.

W. B. BENNETT, Preachersville, Ky. Col. J. P. Chandler, Auct.

Up-to-Date Dress

Is almost as much a matter of the dealer's care and taste in selection as in your own. In almost every town and city some one dealer stands head and shoulders above the rest as a critic of appropriate dress. We have that reputation here. See our Fall Styles in Suits and Overcoats.
