BIG ONE.—Mr. W. H. Lewis, the clever section boss on the Maywood division, has our thanks for the biggest pumpkin raised in Lincoln county this year. It weighs within a fraction of 70 pounds.

IN campaigning this district the Hon. Worthington is reported to have temporarily abandoned his patent leather shoes. He ought to stick to his colors and let his constituency see his usual attire.—Danville News.

CARD OF THANKS.—Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hubble, of Middleburg, extend their heartfelt gratitude to the neighbors and legion of friends for their many kindnesses and sympathy shown them during the sickness and death of their daughter.

By the way, we forgot to state last issue that Joe Phelps had withdrawn from the race for county judge. He waited until the last moment to do so, however, thus shutting off any republican who might want to run for the empty honor.

THE attention of Marshal Jones and his deputy, Mr. William Mershon, is called to the promiscuous shooting on Lancaster street. Hardly a night passes that some son-of-a-gun does not empty his pistol in the bottom below Mr. T. C. Ball's.

THE Louisville Times is kind enough to remark: "E. C. Walton, of the Stanford INTERIOR JOURNAL, is one of the distinguished survivors of Kentucky journalism. He has been at the helm of the INTERIOR JOURNAL for five years, enjoys good health, carries no lead in his anatomy and displays his optimism by expressing the hope that in the future he will be able to grind out a paper which will satisfy every one. THE INTERIOR JOURNAL is, by the way, one of the best papers in the State."

DUNN.—The funeral of Mrs. Phoebe Dunn, widow of Mr. Charles Dunn, whose death was mentioned last issue, was preached at the Christian church Saturday afternoon by Rev. L. M. Omer, and the burial followed in Buffalo cemetery, in the presence of a large crowd of sorrowing friends and relatives. Mrs. Dunn was a Miss Overstreet and she is survived by two sons, William G. and Owsley Dunn. Her husband died a number of years ago. She was a good, christian woman and her death has caused sorrow wherever she was well known. She had been a sufferer from dropsy for a long time.

STORE-ROOM, the best in Stanford, for rent. Possession Jan. 1, 1906. Now occupied by J. P. Jones and splendidly located. S. H. Shanks, Stanford.

A WEEK from to-day and the battle of the ballots will be fought. Looks like the party having the game cock for its emblem will be eclipse in the race. So mote it be.

LOST—Purse, with spectacles, on the county road between Kriger Post-office and Ottenheim Postoffice. Liberal reward to the finder. Return to W. Link, Ottenheim, Ky.

KILLING AT LIVINGSTON.—Tom Mitchell, a section man, shot and killed John Stephens, his brother-in-law, at the section house in Livingston. Mitchell is in custody and claims justification.

VOTE, talk and work from now until 4 o'clock the afternoon of the election for the splendid ticket which appears under the game cock on our second page. A stamp under the rooster will fix things.

I WILL sell on Monday, Nov. 6, county court day, 20 shares of stock in the Hustonville National Bank. A dividend of five per cent. will be declared on this stock Jan. 1, 1906. George D. Weatherford, Hustonville, Ky.

ALL parties having valid claims against the estate of the late Geo. W. Evans are notified to present them to me, properly proven, at Hedgeville, Boyle county, Ky., by November 15th, 1905, James H. Hutchings, Executor of Geo. W. Evans.

THE republicans are making a terrific fight to win this time and if democrats do not do their whole duty they may succeed in doing so. Help give the rads a black eye by voting in the circle under the rooster and seeing that your neighbors do likewise.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL moves that the city or county authorities, which ever has the authority to do so, straighten the figure on the fountain in front of the court-house and tear down the old speaker's stand, which has long since been an eye sore to the people generally.

LINCOLN county used to have a perennial candidate in the Hon. Fontaine Fox Bobbitt. He subsided long ago and Adam W. Carpenter seems to be following in his footsteps. He is a candidate this time for State Senator on the prohibition ticket. He has been a candidate for numerous and sundry offices, but he never gets even to the quarter pole in the race, a fact that doesn't seem to phase him in the least. He gets up smiling every time and picks his flints and tries again.—Frankfort Journal. This time his defeat will be so terrific that he will never have the nerve to face the flag again.

TWIDWELL.—Miss Ida Twidwell, formerly of Hustonville, but for the last decade a resident of Elkton, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. Walton Forgy, in that city, Friday. She had been in bad health for a number of years, but even those who attended her did not think her so seriously ill. The remains were brought to the home of another sister, Mrs. J. B. Adams, at Danville Saturday night and at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon they were laid to rest in the Hustonville cemetery. Dr. E. M. Greene, of Danville, delivered a most appropriate but short funeral discourse at the grave, friends sang two of her favorite hymns, and when all that is mortal of the most excellent young woman was consigned to mother earth. In her younger days Miss Twidwell was a frequent visitor to this place and the scores of friends she made here mingle their tears with those of the mother, sisters and brother who are now bowed down with grief. She was a most lovable woman and when in good health was extremely cheerful and bright. She was gentle and kind and to know her well was to love and admire her. It is indeed sad that one so full of promise and who bade fair to do so much good should be overcome by infirmities and taken away in the very prime of life. Miss Twidwell is survived by her sisters mentioned above and one brother, Mr. Felix B. Twidwell. Her mother, who is now Mrs. John Johnson, of Boyle, is also left to mourn the loss of an affectionate and dutiful daughter. May He who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb help them all to bear their grief and to make them soon realize that their loss is her eternal gain.

WANTED to buy four or five dozen Plymouth Rock pullets. W. C. Shanks.

PUT in your order now for sodding graves, no more sodding after Nov. 15th. John Christman.

COME to the Hallow'een party to-night. The witches will be on hand and you may get a peep into the future.

BUY your coal while the weather is good. We can suit you in price and quality. Northcott & Buck, Rowland Ky.

VOTE against all of the republicans, but be absolutely sure your vote is recorded against the two ex-democrats who will be found on your ballot.

THE Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will be glad to meet you this evening at the residence of Dr. W. N. Craig at 7 o'clock.

CIRCUIT COURT will begin Monday. At least five men will be indicted for murder by the grand jury of the coming term, to Lincoln county's discredit be it said.

THE Kentucky State Journal, Frankfort, has a six-column quarto press in good condition, for sale very cheap. Write at once to W. P. Walton, Lexington or Frankfort.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.—I or one of my deputies will be at Crab Orchard, Oct. 28, Mt. Salem Nov. 3rd, 1 P. M., at Waynesburg, on Thursday, Nov. 2, Hustonville Nov. 4th, from 7 A. M. to 12 o'clock to collect taxes. Will have all road claims with me that have not been called for. M. S. Baughman, S. L. C.

It is reported on good authority that the republicans got from a big republican in Danville $2,500 yesterday. The money, it is said, was sent to Hustonville. It will be remembered that the treasurer of the State campaign committee lives in Little Britain. Democrats should take warning and go to work.

THE Stanford Graded School began the work of the present school year with the largest attendance in the history of the school. The new superintendent is J. W. Ireland, formerly superintendent of the Harrodsburg Graded School. R. L. McMullin, of Midway, has charge of the high school. Both gentlemen are graduates of Center College. The assistant teachers are Misses Annie Dunn, Minnie Rupley, Annie McKinney, Georgia Lewis, and Mrs. H. D. Phillips. The music department is in charge of Miss Ellen Ballou, while Miss Charlotte Warren is at the head of the art department.—Southern School Journal, Lexington.

Great Closing-Out Sale.

We have rented a business house, now nearing completion, in Corbin, Ky. which we expect to occupy at an early date. Rather than move any stock from this place, we have decided to close our Entire Line of Merchandise at a sacrifice. This stock consists of not only the Cream of Dry Goods, such as Silks, Satins, Fine Woolens, Waistings, Fine Table Damasks, Underwear, Hosiery, Outings, Etc., Etc., but also contains the largest assortment of hand-painted Japanese, China and Bric-a-brac Novelties ever shown in this section. We anticipated a heavy Holiday Trade and bought very largely of this line. These goods have just arrived fresh from Japan, and will go on sale at once. In addition to the above we have a 5c and 10c department that is now loaded with good, useful money savers. This will be our last opportunity to supply the wants of our friends and customers and we deem it necessary to further remind you of the character of merchandise you now have an opportunity to purchase at sacrifice.

Owing to the short stay we have in your midst we are compelled to make this Strictly A Spot Cash Sale to One and All, and we ask those who have already made little tickets to please settle.
