

The Interior Journal.

E. C. WALTON.

THIS man's name should be written in letters of gold and pictures of silver and himself given a niche in the Hall of Fame as a patriot of the purest type: William Elliott, of Kokomo, Ind., was recently notified that an accumulated pension of $15,000 awaited him at Washington, but he refuses to accept the money, saying "I was a soldier all through the war, but I merely did my plain duty, nothing more, and am not entitled to a premium for that."

FOOTBALL is not the only deadly sport. All records for casualties were broken during the Wisconsin and upper Michigan hunting season, which came to a close on Friday last. The dead number 26 and the wounded 53. Those who go to the woods to shoot seem to be mistaken for deer even more frequently than gridiron gladiators are mistaken for punching bags.

WALTER COAKLEY, a democratic clerk in one of the Louisville precincts, testified while giving a deposition in the fusion contest that Col. Albert Scott, who is chairman of the republican city and county committee, had offered him $100 to testify for the fusionists. Who would have thought that the "purificationists" would have done such a thing?

JOHN W. KERN, who ran for governor on the democratic ticket, says that in one Indiana county alone there are 3,000 purchasable votes in the 4,000 cast there. We don't think the proportion so small. Our information is that at least nine-tenths of the Hoosiers regard the ballot as their most valuable asset.

GOV. LAFOLLETTE, of Wisconsin, in addressing the Legislature of his State announced that he would accept the United States Senatorship. Good. The governor's many friends will now no doubt feel better that he has condescended to serve them in the dull old Senate of the United States.

A LARGE crowd was present at the opening of Congress. The Senate was in session only 20 minutes. The House session lasted more than three hours. Preliminary steps to organization were taken by the election of Speaker and other officers and the adoption of the rules of the last Congress.

THE Senate adjourned immediately on assembling Monday in memory of Senator Platt, of Connecticut, whose seat had been vacated by death. No reference was made to the vacant chairs of the two Senators that are doing time for crime, although they are dead ones, too.

CAPT. W. H. SWEENEY, "Roaring Bill," has resigned as chief deputy under Col. C. M. Barnett, surveyor of the port. He says he will practice law, says a Louisville dispatch. Something's wrong somewhere. This thing of a republican resigning always arouses our suspicions.

SENATOR BLACKBURN is in Washington, but we have heard of no fiery interviews being sent out by him. The Senator is growing wiser as he grows older. The last interview he had sent from Washington acted as such a boom erang that he will soon be put out of business.

THE Danville News wants Paynter and Blackburn to withdraw from the race for U. S. Senator and Editor W. B. Haldeman elected by acclamation, but up to the hour we went to press no such arrangements had been perfected.

AFTER all, it is said, there will be no fight in the Senate over the bill to regulate railroad rates. An agreement on a "reasonable" measure is said to have been reached at a conference between Senator Aldrich and Speaker Cannon.

THE insurance men say that business was never so poor. When the people can be convinced again that the companies are determined that honesty is the best policy, they will begin to take them out once more.

THE State of Ohio has only gone Democratic eight times since the Republican party put its first ticket out in 1853. It will be seen, therefore, that no one need get excited over the flurry of this year.

THE unusual and sad sight of a mother and two sons handcuffed together on their way to the penitentiary was witnessed in Indiana the other day. But then you see most anything over in Hoosierdom.

A CHICAGO man used a pedometer at a ball and found that the average girl dancer covered 16 miles an evening. Suppose she had to walk 16 miles in a dead stretch, she'd doubtless stretch out dead.

THE management of the Pennsylvania railroad has decided that all forms of free transportation shall be suspended after the first of the year. This will be sad news for the press boys.

THE President's message is a good, sound democratic document of great length. We give elsewhere the more important recommendations made therein.

POLITICAL.

Republican Senators held a caucus at Washington and authorized Senator Allison to select a steering committee. The annual report of Secretary of the Treasury Shaw for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, shows a deficit in revenues of $23,004,228.60.

Record for the introduction of bills were broken by the House. Four hundred and 31 public bills were offered, and private bills were so numerous that employes had not counted all of them up to a late hour.

Former Congressman McKenzie Moss, of the Third Kentucky district, is in Washington in the interest of Neal Murray for postmaster at Bowling Green. William Henry Jones, of the same district, is also there in behalf of W. R. Speck for the same office.

President Roosevelt sent to the Senate the nominations of George W. Long and Stephen G. Sharp to be Marshals for Kentucky; J. H. Tinsley and R. D. Hill to be District Attorneys; J. Sherman Cooper to be Collector of the Eighth district, and C. H. Berryman to be postmaster at Lexington.

At the opening session of Congress John Sharp Williams introduced several measures looking to a reduction of 20 per cent. of the present Dingley bill, by which action, as Mr. Williams expresses it, the majority is put on the defensive, thus giving the country an opportunity to see who are the actual reformers. Mr. Williams also introduced a bill looking to the imposition of an income tax.

George Peed was the Republican candidate for Judge of Bath county, and was beaten by 650 majority. His brother, J. R. Peed, was Republican nominee for Sheriff of Montgomery county, but Prewitt, Democrat, beat him by 345. Another brother, Dan Peed, failed to connect with the Jailor's office in Bourbon county by 862. Still another brother, Henry, lacked 545 votes of beating Gilson for Constable in Mason county.—Cynthiana Times.

George O. Spoonamore, son of Mr. John Z. Spoonamore, and an exceptionally fine young man, was married at Lancaster Wednesday to Miss Susie Zalone, a beautiful and popular young lady of that city. The wedding was a quiet one, only a few relatives and friends being present. The happy couple drove to the home of the groom's parents, where a delightful reception was given them. Mr. Spoonamore had previously rented Walter Warren's farm and he and his bonnie bride went at once to housekeeping.

In deference to some who have done well it is but justice to state that the law which entitles any one to get on the honor roll is this: Every one must make an average of more than 90 per cent. and be absent at no time from classes or from school, without an excuse. No excuse is accepted for this except sickness. Visiting or any other excuse will exclude one from the honor roll. Many more pupils have done very well indeed, but have been absent from school once or twice during the month. This statement is made in justice to those pupils who have done this splendid work but who have been absent.

John R. Ward, adjutant general of Indiana, resigned on the demand of Gov. Hanly. He is charged with being short in his accounts.

Nora Scoville has been appointed postmaster at Raccoon, Laurel county.
