HON. FONTAINE FOX BOBBITT, known at his home in Lincoln County as the Cicero of the Mountains, an ex-member of the Legislature, and one of the most unique characters in Kentucky, came to the city yesterday to try to get the Court of Appeals to reinstate an injunction against a man who is trying to take a farm from one of his clients. Mr. Bobbitt will embrace the opportunity, as he says, to speak to his constituents in the penitentiary today "On Temporal and Eternal Punishment."—Frankfort Journal.

FOR SALE.—A nice large store room and dwelling above, consisting of several nicely furnished rooms. A good barn and lot and all necessary outbuildings. The property is in good repair, situated on Main street in Stanford, Ky., right in the business portion of town. The property will be sold at a bargain and is a splendid opportunity for some one desiring to go in business, for the store and dwelling combined will be a great saving in rent, etc. Possession given immediately. For particulars, etc., see or write L. R. Hughes, Stanford.

WORTHAM.—Mr. Simeon A. Wortham died at his home on Whitley Avenue Friday afternoon, aged 72, and was buried in the Lancaster cemetery Saturday afternoon after services at the home by Rev. L. M. Omer. Mr. Wortham had been in very bad health since he received a stroke of paralysis some three years ago and for the last year or so had been almost helpless. For many years he assisted Mr. H. C. Rupley in his tailoring business but was compelled to give up his work on account of his health. Fifteen years ago he married Miss Jennie Myers, and she, a brother and two sisters survive him. The latter live at Lancaster, the deceased's old home. Mr. Wortham was a member of the Christian church and a kind-hearted, good man. He was a patient sufferer and the good wife he leaves made his last days as pleasant as possible for him by doing every thing in her power that would alleviate his sufferings and shorten the hours that hung so heavily on him. Mrs. Wortham is deeply grieved at her loss and her friends sympathize with her in her great trouble. She asks us to thank the friends who were so kind to her in the dark hours which she has just experienced and to say that they will be remembered in her prayers.

TO MT. STERLING.—Mr. John P. Jones has rented a store-room in the central portion of Mt. Sterling and will open in it a magnificent line of dry goods, notions, etc. There is no better merchant in the State than Mr. Jones and we predict he will do well from the start. When he gets settled down he will move his family to Mt. Sterling and by it Stanford will lose another excellent family.

FOR LAWRENCE FOR SPEAKER.—On being asked by an INTERIOR JOURNAL man yesterday who his choice would be for Speaker of the next House of Representatives, Mr. J. M. Alverson said: "I shall vote for Hon. Henry R. Lawrence. I always have voted for straight democrats and do not believe in giving the spoils to bolters, therefore I shall use all honorable means to secure the caucus nomination for Mr. Lawrence, as much as I would like to vote for the Madison county entry, Hon. R. W. Miller. I feel that it is a duty that I owe to the democratic party to do so and that duty shall be carried out by me."
