STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1905.

NO. 92.

MATRIMONIAL.

Misses Fannie Ray and Odus Taylor were married in Lower Garrard.

William Thompson and Miss Ida Brown were married at Bryant Brown's yesterday.

John Wright and Miss Susie Owens secured license here Wednesday to marry in Boyle.

Luther Garner and Miss Dora Garner, of the East End, were married at Danville Wednesday.

David Shannon, aged 18, and Miss Gertie Chambers, 16, both of Boyle, were married in Danville.

Miss Fannie Doty, daughter of County Clerk J. A. Doty, and J. B. Jennings, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Jennings, of Lancaster, will be married Jan. 3.

A double wedding took place at the residence of Squire Bourne, of Garrard, when his daughter, Miss Aggie, was married to Morgan Sutton, and his sister, Miss Aggie, was married to J. T. Holtzclaw, a widower of Preachersville.

A very quiet home wedding, with none but a very few friends and relatives of the contracting parties present, was that of Mr. Joseph Ireland and Miss Bush Grinstead, which was solemnized last evening at eight o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents on Fourth street. The home was very prettily decorated for the occasion with potted plants, ferns and cut flowers, and the color scheme of green and white was carried out in the decorations. There were no attendants, it being the wish of the bride and groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. C. Kendrick, of Hagerstown, Maryland, and was followed by an elegant buffet luncheon in honor of the guests and Mr. and Mrs. Ireland. Miss Edith Moore presided at the organ and played Lohengrin's march. Mr. and Mrs. Ireland left this morning for Cincinnati, where they will pass part of their honeymoon. They will return to Lexington Tuesday, where a reception will be tendered them by Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Grinstead. Those who attended from a distance were Misses Anna and Ella Brumfield, Mrs. Ed Thompson, Mrs. Ella Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. James Glazebrook, and Wm. Glazebrook, all of Louisville.—Advocate. Prof. Ireland is superintendent of the Stanford Graded School, a splendid instructor and an excellent gentleman.

Give your boy a chance to become a successful, honored and wealthy man by attending the Commercial College of Kentucky University, Lexington, Ky. Its course is practical and cheap. Nearly 500 young men attend this college annually from 29 States. Business, shorthand and telegraphy specialties. $65 has paid for tuition and board for many who are now receiving $100 per month salary, before attending, only $25 per month. For large illustrated catalogue free, address Wilbur R. Smith, Lexington, Ky.

Torture of a Preacher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption. A grand cure for diseased conditions of Throat and Lungs. At G. L. Penny, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

I stood on the bridge at close of day Attired in football clothes; The bridge belonged; I'd further say. To the rival halfback's nose.

The Children's Delight

When you consider the terrible times you used to have in childhood under the infliction of castor oil, salts and senna brimstone and treacle, and other horrors, you can perhaps appreciate the children's delight with such a pleasant medicine for impure blood, stomach or bowel troubles, as Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin. Besides being pleasant to take, it is unequalled by any other medicine in the wide range of its curative powers for nearly all children's diseases. Sold by G. L. Penny, Stanford, C. W. Adams Hustonville, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

"Look! Santa Claus has lost his whiskers!" "Yes, dear; he has just been through the insurance district."

Must Be Quick.

Pains in the stomach and attacks of the colic come on so suddenly and are so extremely painful that immediate relief must be obtained. There is no necessity of sending for a doctor in such cases if a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is at hand. No doctor can prescribe a better medicine. For sale by all druggists.

POLITICAL.

The Elks of Manila gave a reception to William J. Bryan.

Judge J. L. Manning was elected city judge of Middlesboro.

Thomas Griffin has been appointed postmaster at Baldock, Casey county.

Ephram Hays, member of the Legislature session of 1900, dropped dead at Somerset.

Senator McCreary will introduce a bill to provide a Southern port of entry for immigrants.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Eld. J. G. Livingston will preach at Kingsville Sunday morning and night.

Rev. M. A. Dean, of Lexington, is conducting an interesting meeting at Rowland.

Mrs. A. B. Dibble, first president and one of the founders of the National W. C. T. U., died at Grass Valley, Cal.

The Cumberland Presbyterian Loyalist Council, at a meeting in Nashville, adopted resolutions protesting against the proposed union with the Presbyterian church.

On Tuesday night about 80 people made their way to the Baptist parsonage and pounded Bro. Huey and family in a way that would make any pastor feel good. These kind friends brought with them all kinds of good things to eat, such as dressed turkeys, chickens, fruits and groceries of all kinds that first class preachers and good wives use.—Somerset Mountaineer.

HUBBLE.

John Robinson sold his 1,400-pound cattle to J. N. Johnson at 4c.

The entertainment given at the Christian church on Xmas night was a success in every particular and was greatly enjoyed by all.

Morris Spoonamore, of Coffeyville, Kansas, is visiting his parents here. Miss Ethel Carman, who is attending the conservatory of music in Lexington, spent Xmas with the homefolks. Grover McKechnie and Haren McBeath are visiting relatives in Wayne county. Florence and Ada Spoonamore will entertain Tuesday evening. Miss Jennie Stigall, of Perryville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. S. McKittrick. Miss Hazel Stone, of Stanford, is the guest of Miss Jewell Spoonamore. Miss Nellie Kincaid, of Danville, has been the guest of Mrs. M. B. Eubanks.

FOR SALE.—A nice large store room and dwelling above, consisting of several nicely furnished rooms. A good barn and lot and all necessary outbuildings. The property is in good repair, situated on Main street in Stanford, Ky., right in the business portion of town. The property will be sold at a bargain and is a splendid opportunity for some one desiring to go in business, for the store and dwelling combined will be a great saving in rent, etc. Possession given immediately. For particulars, etc., see or write L. R. Hughes, Stanford.

A Happy Home

Is made perfect, when perfect health reigns within its doors. This is best insured by always keeping Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin on hand and father, mother and children taking a few doses at the least sign of stomach, liver or bowel trouble. Always relieves and cures. Sold by G. L. Penny, Stanford, W. C. Adams Hustonville, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

Eight men were killed by the fall of 1,000 tons of ore from a slip on the 1,300-foot level of the Newport mine, Ironwood, Mich.

A Fearful Fate.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of Piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson, of Masonville, Ia., "that for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding Piles, Bucklen's Arnica Salve, is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at G. L. Penny, Stanford, Lyne Bros., of Crab Orchard.

Failed.

All efforts have failed to find a better remedy for coughs, colds and lung troubles than Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. J. N. Patterson, Nashua, Iowa, writes: "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least half a dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world. Penny's Drug Store."

Fire in the roof of the Jefferson County Courthouse at Louisville raged for two hours. It was confined to the upper part of the building and all the records were saved. The loss is estimated from $10,000 to $30,000. There was no insurance.

In Mad Chase.

Millions rush in mad chase after health, from one extreme of faddism to another, when, if they would only eat good food, and keep their bowels regular with Dr. King's New Life Pills, their troubles would all pass away.
